UN Requesting France To Kill Bomb Test Plan

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The United Nations Friday asked France to call off its A-bomb test in the Sahara Desert.

The action by the 82-nation General Assembly was a stinging defeat to the French, who had declared previously they would ignore any U.N. appeal and go ahead with the test perhaps as early as next spring.

France was taken by surprise by the decision of the Assembly, where it had the support of the United States and Britain.

By a 51-16 vote, with 15 abstentions, the Assembly approved a watered-down resolution expressing grave concern over the French intention to conduct nuclear tests, and asking President Charles de Gaulle's government to "refrain from such tests."

RESOLUTION

A resolution containing those words had been approved in the U. N. Political Committee last week but not by a sufficient margin to assure the two-thirds majority required.

The two-thirds majority was achieved by knocking out two paragraphs in the resolution that some delegates, particularly those from Latin America, felt were too harsh on the French.

The paragraphs referred to the creation of dangerous conditions in Africa by holding the test, and to the special responsibility of the U.N. for "dependent peoples of Africa threatened by such tests."

With that language out of the resolution some Latin-American delegates voted yes. They included Bolivia, Ecuador and Panama. Several others switched from no to abstention.

Those in favor of the resolution included most of the Asian-African nations, the entire Soviet bloc and Yugoslavia, as well as the Scandinavian nations, Ireland, Canada, and New Zealand.

Prior to the vote, Jules Moch, the French disarmament expert, assailed the resolution as discriminatory against his country and "totally unacceptable."

Alex Quaison-Sackey, the Ghana delegate, replied that the African peoples would regard the vote as an expression of U.N. friendship for them.

The Assembly also gave his unanimous approval to a U.S.-Soviet plan for tossing all disarmament proposals, including Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's total disarmament plan, to the 10-nation East-West committee that will meet in Geneva early next year.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov said the United Nations had demonstrated by its actions the importance attached to Soviet disarmament proposals.

Renewal Of Strike Likelihood

Steel Union Advises Start Of Stockpiling

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United Steelworkers Union advised the government Friday it had better start stockpiling steel for defense purposes since a renewed steel strike is likely in mid-January.

Arthur J. Goldberg, union counsel, wrote Secretary of Commerce Frederick H. Mueller that present government steel acquisition policies seemed to be gambling on a labor settlement before the present injunction runs out.

The 80-day Taft-Hartley law injunction that halted the 116-day steel strike in early November will expire on Jan. 26.

Goldberg wrote Mueller that "while I have not abandoned hope that a settlement in steel will be reached before the 80-day injunction expires, nevertheless, I must advise you in all candor that at the present writing no settlement is in prospect."

DEFENSE

"Sure the defense of this country should not rest on a gamble that hopes for a settlement in the 80-day injunction period will be realized," he wrote.

Goldberg noted the Business and Defense Services Administration of the Commerce Department has ordered steel companies to give priority to defense orders for steel. The union attorney said the union considers this order "totally inadequate to protect the national safety."

"I respectfully submit to you, Mr. Secretary," he said, "that it is the counsel of wisdom that sufficient steel be stockpiled now, as permitted under existing law, to guard against the possibility that a peril to the safety of the nation will be created if the strike is not settled within the 80-day period."

NO-MAN'S LAND

Nehru Renders Counter Proposal

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — All territory in dispute between India and Red China in Ladakh, Kashmir, would be made a temporary no-man's land under a counterproposal that Prime Minister Nehru has fired back to Peiping.

Made public Friday was an Indian note sent Monday in reply to Red China's Premier Chou En-lai, who wants each side to pull back forces 12½ miles from their present positions.

Ladakh is the wild Himalayan territory where nine Indian policemen were killed and 10 captured by the Red Chinese in a clash on Oct. 21. India says the clash occurred 40 miles inside her claimed frontier.

REJECT

Nehru rejected Chou's proposal because it would leave the Communists holding about 8,000 square miles of land claimed by India. Nehru's counterplan would involve only a minor Indian withdrawal.

The Prime Minister proposed that Red China pull back to the line claimed by India, and that India pull back to the line claimed by Red China, leaving the intervening territory unoccupied. It is not necessary to keep any administrative personnel in the area, he said, because it is almost entirely uninhabited.

He accepted Chou's other proposal that they meet to discuss the border dispute, but declared there must be detailed negotiations first to reach an interim understanding.

"There is danger," he wrote, that a meeting not prepared for in advance would end in failure, "disappointing hopes of millions of people in our two countries."

Such talks, he declared, "will not succeed if we ignore the facts," and he accused the Chinese of distorting the facts.

He said he was anxious "to explore all avenues to reduce present tension between our two countries," but the "cause of recent troubles is the action taken from your side of the frontier."

Chou also proposed in his note of Nov. 7 that both sides withdraw 12½ miles from the McMahon line which India claims as her northeast frontier in the Himalayas. The Red Chinese have occupied several border points there, too.

Nehru's counterproposal in that area suggested that both sides refrain from sending out armed patrols from their present posts to prevent future clashes.

Court Orders Challenges In Voter Dispute

Winn Registrar Told To Mail 7 By Monday Noon

WINNFIELD (Special) —The Eighth District Court ruled here Friday that the Winn Parish registrar, Mrs. Mary C. Flournoy, must mail out seven of 11 challenges filed with her Nov. 12.

She has until noon Monday to mail out the challenges, which were filed by the Winn Parish Citizens Court Council. The challenges all involve Negroes.

However, her attorneys said they would ask for the State Supreme Court to intervene.

On the other hand, the local ruling binds Mrs. Flournoy to mail out the seven challenges by Monday noon or face contempt of court provided the Supreme Court has not intervened by that time.

EXPLANATION

Judge Harwell Allen said that the four challenges that will not have to be mailed out were challenged on circumstances which did not constitute a fact of voter qualification.

In particular, the cards were challenged because certain blanks were not filled in.

Guy Humphreys, a member of Camille Gravel's firm, was waiting in Winnfield late Friday for transcripts of the trial so he could forward them to the Supreme Court.

The challenges were filed by Citizens Council president Stanley Smith and his attorney Hiram Wright. Smith and Wright filed eight previous challenges and the lawsuit went to the Supreme Court.

This is the latest in a long series of developments involving registration in the parish dating back to the summer months.

The Citizens Council has been the main force pushing the voter purge, but other citizens have also been involved. In one case, Paul Green, candidate for police juror in Ward 4 filed seven suits against voters in his ward.

Capsule Recovery Scheduled

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — The satellite Discoverer VIII rocketed into polar orbit Friday for a fifth try at a vital goal—ejecting a capsule so it can be recovered from space.

Recovery, of prime importance in America's man-in-space program, will be attempted Saturday by plucking the capsule from the sky if possible, from the sea as second choice.

The Air Force said signals from the 1,700-pound satellite were picked up by tracking stations in Alaska at approximately 1 p.m. as it completed its first circuit of the earth.

RADIO

Information radioed back from the satellite indicates it is in a north-south orbit. At its closest point the satellite is 120 miles above the earth, and its farthest 1,000 miles.

The satellite is whirling around the earth's poles once every 103 minutes.

Five of the seven previous Discoverers have orbited. There have been four recovery tries, all failures. Capsules were ejected from Discoverers II, V and VI. Number II had a faulty timing device. On V and VI the capsule's radio beacon failed. Number VII had power failure that prevented ejection.

The Air Force says it plans to continue the Discoverer program until a recovery is made.

"Capsule recovery," said one officer, "is a crisis point in our man-in-space program. Recovery from orbit has never been accomplished, by us or Russia. Until we can establish the technique we will never send a man into orbit because we have to be sure we can get him back."

The 78-foot Discoverer VIII, powered by a first-stage Thor IRBM, soared beautifully into a clear sky at 11:26 a.m. It was in sight for several minutes, leaving in its wake a miles-long plume of white smoke. The 17-foot second stage, all of which went into orbit, also functioned normally.

Saturday afternoon, 26 hours after launch on its 17th orbital pass,

Benson Notes View On Berries

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson said Friday it is "entirely possible" Secretary of Welfare Arthur S. Flemming could have protected the public from tainted cranberries without a general warning that throttled practically all sales.

Reporters drew this comment from Benson in response to several questions as to whether he thought Flemming handled the problem skillfully or bungled it. Flemming's defenders have argued he was obliged under the law to act as he did.

Benson refused either to defend or criticize his fellow Cabinet officer's methods, saying he was not in a position to judge.

The Welfare Department had the facts concerning the contaminated berries, Benson said, and "they may have been justified."

WARNING

But Benson remarked that the timing of Flemming's public warning coming as it did only a short time ahead of Thanksgiving, seemed difficult to the industry.

Benson—who called the news conference to announce a drive to help the embattled cranberry industry—showed little sympathy for growers whose berries became contaminated by a weed killer found to produce cancer in rats.

Under questioning, Benson said it appears these growers are to blame because they apparently did not follow directions for using the chemical weed killer.

It was 12 days ago that Flemming announced some cranberries raised in the Northwest had been found tainted by the weed killer, called Aminotriazole. He cautioned against using any cranberries until they had been tested and declared safe.

Immediately, Flemming was subjected to severe criticism by cranberry industry officials who contended he had needlessly

Rev. DeCaigney Rayville Pastor, Dies; Rites Set

RAYVILLE (Special) — The Rev. Roy DeCaigney, formerly assistant pastor of St. Matthews Catholic church in Monroe, was found dead at noon Friday in the rectory of Sacred Heart Catholic church here.

Father DeCaigney became pastor of Sacred Heart church in June, and also was pastor of St. Theresa's Catholic mission church in Delhi.

Msgr. J. C. Marsh, pastor of St. Matthews, said last night that the Richland Parish coroner had given a verdict of coronary occlusion.

PLANS

Father DeCaigney had planned to have lunch with the T. J. Coenan family, but when he failed to appear Coenan went to the priest's home.

He found the body. Father DeCaigney, who was 47, lived alone.

Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. Tuesday in Sacred Heart church. Msgr. Marsh will officiate at a Solemn Requiem High Mass, and burial will be in the Masonic cemetery here.

Briefing Slated In White House

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — President Eisenhower has invited five top Democrats and four Republicans from Congress to a Nov. 30 briefing on his 20,000-mile, good-will mission abroad.

It will be a breakfast session at the White House in Washington four days before Eisenhower's take-off Dec. 3 for capitals of 11 European, Asian and African nations.

The meeting will bring in Senate and House leaders of both parties, and the Democratic chairmen and senior Republicans of the foreign affairs committees of House and Senate.

Acting White House press secretary Wayne Hawks said all but one or two already have accepted.

MEETINGS

The conference is Eisenhower's counterproposal to a suggestion of Sen. Thomas J. Dodd (D-Conn) that the President take one or more leading Democrats, such as former President Harry S. Truman, on his projected trip. Truman and Eisenhower have been somewhat less than friendly ever since the 1952 political campaign.

Eisenhower rejected Dodd's suggestion as impractical for a journey with such a crowded schedule. He told the senator he had proposed the two-party meeting with congressional leaders as more useful.

Hawks said these Democrats were invited: House Speaker Sam

Union Parish Mother Of Four Dies In Wreck

FARMERVILLE (Special) — State police said here late last night that a 25-year-old Bernice man is being held on negligent homicide charges following an auto accident near Junction City that killed a Farmerville mother of four children.

Dead is Mrs. Mable T. Raley, 25, Rt. 1, Farmerville, a widow, who was a passenger in an auto driven by Barney J. Wiltcher Jr., Rt. 2, Bernice.

State police said the auto swerved into the opposite lane of traffic from which it was travelling, smashed into a concrete bridge rail on the Beaver Creek Bridge about a half-mile south of Junction City and turned right side up in the middle of U. S. Highway 167.

Junction City is on the Louisiana-Arkansas border.

The accident occurred about 7:30 p.m., state police said.

Wiltcher suffered a laceration on the back of his head and minor bruises and abrasions.

Alabama Given New Weapon In School Hassle

MONTGOMERY, Ala., (AP)— Segregationists in Alabama were given untested new weapons Friday night to use against mass Negro voter registration and threatened school integration.

Gov. John Patterson signed into law two legislative acts cutting sharply into the time allotted for registration of new voters, and another authorizing the use of state funds to finance private segregated schools.

Patterson withheld action on another private school measure. It would allocate public money directly to the pupils. The governor said he is inclined to veto that bill.

Alabama already has one law providing for the use of state funds to subsidize privately operated schools if public schools are close and turned over to citizens' groups.

The new law is patterned more after a separate existing statue which for several years has permitted the appropriation of funds to private colleges, including Tuskegee Institute.

Segregationists, who may challenge the Tuskegee appropriation to get a test suit into court, con-

Rate Increase On Mail Told, No Date Set

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Interstate Commerce Commission Friday sanctioned an average 17.1 per cent increase in mail rates on parcel post and catalogs.

The authorized increases, on a sliding zone basis, range up to 35 per cent. The largest hikes apply to small packages traveling short distances.

Under the new scale submitted by the Post Office Department and approved by the commission, there will be a few reductions on maximum weight parcels transported over long distances.

EFFECTIVE

The Post Office Department did not immediatey announce when the increases would be made effective.

If put into effect without delay, the high rates will fall on the bulk of Christmas package mailing.

The changes were estimated by ICC to yield the post office an additional 88 million dollars a year in revenue. They are designed to put the parcel post service on a self-supporting basis.

ENJOYS TRIP TO EUROPE

'Sergeant' Dupes Army Authorities

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lemuel King, a cashiered soldier who knew all the angles, duped the Army out of a trip to Europe as a master sergeant last year. A court ruled Friday the Army was just plain victimized and could take no revenge.

Here's what happened to the ingenious GI who got away with his masquerade even after trying to stretch his luck too far:

King, a 38-year-old veteran of World War II and Korea, received an undesirable discharge at Ft. Ord, Calif., in February 1958. He told investigators he had run into trouble, including a drunk charge, while driving his big red auto around the premises.

Three days after he was tossed out as a private he was on his way to Ft. Dix, N.J., posing as a master sergeant. He had connived with an unidentified clerk at headquarters for rigged order.

King journeyed comfortably. He obtained $194 in advance travel pay and $75 in partial Army pay.

Ft. Dix saw nothing wrong with the order, which authorized shipment overseas. Forthwith, King was shipped.

Headquarters Co. of the 5th Corps at Frankfurt, Germany, made him a food supervisor. In this pleasant assignment he ate and slept in good grace and, including allowances, drew in the vicinity of $200 monthly.

Until July 1958, that is. Then an officer at Mannheim reported to Frankfurt that a soldier named King was asking an antiaircraft artillery clerk to type him up some leave orders.

The officer ordered King back

LSU Spokesman Gives Comment

BATON ROUGE (AP) — A Louisiana State University spokesman said Friday a gubernatorial candidate's charges involving All-America Billy Cannon may have been a reprisal against the university.

The spokesman, asking not to be identified, said Gale Berry's action was construed to be a result of his failure to receive football tickets this fall.

Berry charged Thursday that Cannon received $1,000 and a job promise to pose in a photograph with former Gov. Jimmie Davis, another candidate for governor.

Both LSU and Davis have called the charges absurd.

Vote Registration At All-Time High

BATON ROUGE (AP) — Louisiana vote registrations climbed 6.5 per cent to a record 1,108,611 Friday, showing a key shift from roral to city areas compared with four years ago.

The state Board of Registration made public the latest figures.

All books in the 64 parishes closed Nov. 5, or 30 days ahead of the upcoming Dec. 5 gubernatorial first primary.

Gov. Earl K. Long already has predicted a "record breaker ballot."

The 1952 first primary ballot reached 762,000, the 1956 first primary 821,000.

The new total is up 68,418, compared with the 1,040,193 on the rosters Dec. 17, 1955, a month before the 1956 first primary. This new total consists of 958,375 whites, 86.4 per cent of the total, and 150,236 Negroes, or 13.6 per cent.

While Negro registrations skyrocketed between 1948 and 1956, they dropped off 5,224 compared with just before the 1956 governor's race.

The registration board said in recent months, the precentage of Negro registrations compared with the whites has remained almost constant.

Purges by white citizens councils in recent years trimmed some Negroes from the rolls. But new registrations made up some of the loss.

The new registration board figures show 1,095,747 registered Democrats in the 1,108,611 total,

The Welfare Department had the facts concerning the contaminated berries, Benson said, and "they may have been justified."

WARNING

But Benson remarked that the timing of Flemming's public warning coming as it did only a short time ahead of Thanksgiving, seemed difficult to the industry.

Benson—who called the news conference to announce a drive to help the embattled cranberry industry—showed little sympathy for growers whose berries became contaminated by a weed killer found to produce cancer in rats.

Under questioning, Benson said it appears these growers are to blame because they apparently did not follow directions for using the chemical weed killer.

It was 12 days ago that Flemming announced some cranberries raised in the Northwest had been found tainted by the weed killer, called Aminotriazole. He cautioned against using any cranberries until they had been tested and declared safe.

Immediately, Flemming was subjected to severe criticism by cranberry industry officials who contended he had needlessly

Rev. DeCaigney Rayville Pastor, Dies; Rites Set

RAYVILLE (Special) — The Rev. Roy DeCaigney, formerly assistant pastor of St. Matthews Catholic church in Monroe, was found dead at noon Friday in the rectory of Sacred Heart Catholic church here.

Father DeCaigney became pastor of Sacred Heart church in June, and also was pastor of St. Theresa's Catholic mission church in Delhi.

Msgr. J. C. Marsh, pastor of St. Matthews, said last night that the Richland Parish coroner had given a verdict of coronary occlusion.

PLANS

Father DeCaigney had planned to have lunch with the T. J. Coenan family, but when he failed to appear Coenan went to the priest's home.

He found the body. Father DeCaigney, who was 47, lived alone.

Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. Tuesday in Sacred Heart church. Msgr. Marsh will officiate at a Solemn Requiem High Mass, and burial will be in the Masonic cemetery here.

Rate Increase On Mail Told, No Date Set

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Interstate Commerce Commission Friday sanctioned an average 17.1 per cent increase in mail rates on parcel post and catalogs.

The authorized increases, on a sliding zone basis, range up to 35 per cent. The largest hikes apply to small packages traveling short distances.

Under the new scale submitted by the Post Office Department and approved by the commission, there will be a few reductions on maximum weight parcels transported over long distances.

EFFECTIVE

The Post Office Department did not immediatey announce when the increases would be made effective.

If put into effect without delay, the high rates will fall on the bulk of Christmas package mailing.

The changes were estimated by ICC to yield the post office an additional 88 million dollars a year in revenue. They are designed to put the parcel post service on a self-supporting basis.

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield petitioned for the in-

Briefing Slated In White House

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — President Eisenhower has invited five top Democrats and four Republicans from Congress to a Nov. 30 briefing on his 20,000-mile, good-will mission abroad.

It will be a breakfast session at the White House in Washington four days before Eisenhower's take-off Dec. 3 for capitals of 11 European, Asian and African nations.

The meeting will bring in Senate and House leaders of both parties, and the Democratic chairmen and senior Republicans of the foreign affairs committees of House and Senate.

Acting White House press secretary Wayne Hawks said all but one or two already have accepted.

MEETINGS

The conference is Eisenhower's counterproposal to a suggestion of Sen. Thomas J. Dodd (D-Conn) that the President take one or more leading Democrats, such as former President Harry S. Truman, on his projected trip. Truman and Eisenhower have been somewhat less than friendly ever since the 1952 political campaign.

Eisenhower rejected Dodd's suggestion as impractical for a journey with such a crowded schedule. He told the senator he had proposed the two-party meeting with congressional leaders as more useful.

Hawks said these Democrats were invited: House Speaker Sam

Union Parish Mother Of Four Dies In Wreck

FARMERVILLE (Special) — State police said here late last night that a 25-year-old Bernice man is being held on negligent homicide charges following an auto accident near Junction City that killed a Farmerville mother of four children.

Dead is Mrs. Mable T. Raley, 25, Rt. 1, Farmerville, a widow, who was a passenger in an auto driven by Barney J. Wiltcher Jr., Rt. 2, Bernice.

State police said the auto swerved into the opposite lane of traffic from which it was travelling, smashed into a concrete bridge rail on the Beaver Creek Bridge about a half-mile south of Junction City and turned right side up in the middle of U. S. Highway 167.

Junction City is on the Louisiana-Arkansas border.

The accident occurred about 7:30 p.m., state police said.

Wiltcher suffered a laceration on the back of his head and minor bruises and abrasions.

Alabama Given New Weapon In School Hassle

MONTGOMERY, Ala., (AP)—Segregationists in Alabama were given untested new weapons Friday night to use against mass Negro voter registration and threatened school integration.

Gov. John Patterson signed into law two legislative acts cutting sharply into the time allotted for registration of new voters, and another authorizing the use of state funds to finance private segregated schools.

Patterson withheld action on another private school measure. It would allocate public money directly to the pupils. The governor said he is inclined to veto that bill.

Alabama already has one law providing for the use of state funds to subsidize privately operated schools if public schools are close and turned over to citizens' groups.

The new law is patterned more after a separate existing statue which for several years has permitted the appropriation of funds to private colleges, including Tuskegee Institute.

Segregationists, who may challenge the Tuskegee appropriation to get a test suit into court, con-

ENJOYS TRIP TO EUROPE

'Sergeant' Dupes Army Authorities

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lemuel King, a cashiered soldier who knew all the angles, duped the Army out of a trip to Europe as a master sergeant last year. A court ruled Friday the Army was just plain victimized and could take no revenge.

Here's what happened to the ingenious GI who got away with his masquerade even after trying to stretch his luck too far:

King, a 38-year-old veteran of World War II and Korea, received an undesirable discharge at Ft. Ord, Calif., in February 1958. He told investigators he had run into trouble, including a drunk charge, while driving his big red auto around the premises.

Three days after he was tossed out as a private he was on his way to Ft. Dix, N.J., posing as a master sergeant. He had connived with an unidentified clerk at headquarters for rigged order.

King journeyed comfortably. He obtained $194 in advance travel pay and $75 in partial Army pay.

Ft. Dix saw nothing wrong with the order, which authorized shipment overseas. Forthwith, King was shipped.

Headquarters Co. of the 5th Corps at Frankfurt, Germany, made him a food supervisor. In this pleasant assignment he ate and slept in good grace and, including allowances, drew in the vicinity of $200 monthly.

Until July 1958, that is. Then an officer at Mannheim reported to Frankfurt that a soldier named King was asking an antiaircraft artillery clerk to type him up some leave orders.

The officer ordered King back

Nonetheless, we can expect a high temperature today of 70 to 74 degrees. This is up some from yesterday's high of 68, low of 30.

Louisiana and Arkansas have about the same forecast: Cloudy and warmer through tonight.

LSU Spokesman Gives Comment

BATON ROUGE (AP) — A Louisiana State University spokesman said Friday a gubernatorial candidate's charges involving All-America Billy Cannon may have been a reprisal against the university.

The spokesman, asking not to be identified, said Gale Berry's action was construed to be a result of his failure to receive football tickets this fall.

Berry charged Thursday that Cannon received $1,000 and a job promise to pose in a photograph with former Gov. Jimmie Davis, another candidate for governor.

Both LSU and Davis have called the charges absurd.

Vote Registration At All-Time High

BATON ROUGE (AP) — Louisiana vote registrations climbed 6.5 per cent to a record 1,108,611 Friday, showing a key shift from roral to city areas compared with four years ago.

The state Board of Registration made public the latest figures.

All books in the 64 parishes closed Nov. 5, or 30 days ahead of the upcoming Dec. 5 gubernatorial first primary.

Gov. Earl K. Long already has predicted a "record breaker ballot."

The 1952 first primary ballot reached 762,000, the 1956 first primary 821,000.

The new total is up 68,418, compared with the 1,040,193 on the rosters Dec. 17, 1955, a month before the 1956 first primary. This new total consists of 958,375 whites, 86.4 per cent of the total, and 150,236 Negroes, or 13.6 per cent.

While Negro registrations skyrocketed between 1948 and 1956, they dropped off 5,224 compared with just before the 1956 governor's race.

The registration board said in recent months, the precentage of Negro registrations compared with the whites has remained almost constant.

Purges by white citizens councils in recent years trimmed some Negroes from the rolls. But new registrations made up some of the loss.

The new registration board figures show 1,095,747 registered Democrats in the 1,108,611 total, scared consumers away from buying their products, threatening them with financial disaster. These industry people argued Flemming could have acted without public fanfare.

Flemming's department has said conclusive evidence of the contamination, coupled with reports of the weed killer's misuse in 1959, first became available on Friday, Nov. 6.

Information on the situation was developed during the ensuing weekend, the department added, and Flemming made his announcement on Monday, Nov. 9 after talking by telephone with officials of Ocean Spray Cranberries, Inc., the national cranberry cooperative.

The chief purpose of Benson's news conference was to announce a big campaign "toward restoring public confidence in this traditional Thanksgiving holiday food."

"The Benson family will be using them and I hope all will," he said in asking that Americans start eating cranberries again as soon as cleared batches reach grocery stores.

As part of the campaign to help cranberry growers, Benson said he had wired food and industry leaders during an all-out merchandising effort now that Flemming's department has approved a plan for stepped-up testing of the berries and labeling the safe ones for the housewive's guidance.

Benson told newsmen he had ordered his department to start a cranberry promotion drive. And he said he would consider buying some of the surplus cleared berries for the school lunch program.

There are 8,733 registered Republicans, 7,337 of whom are white and 1,396 Republican.

Orleans Parish, with a new total of 200,829, slumped from the previous high of 214,602, in December 1955.

This was the only city loss, however. And since adjacent Jefferson Parish soared from 61,351 to 81,870, some of that could have been the loss in Orleans in that metropolitan area.

The city parishes of Caddo, Calcasieu, East Baton Rouge, Jefferson, Lafayette, Rapides and Ouachita all showed gains, amounting to 38,209.

REV. ROY DeCAIGNEY

Rev. DeCaigney Rayville Pastor, Dies; Rites Set

Mass will be said by Msgr. Marsh in Sacred Heart church, for the repose of Father DeCaigney's soul.

All area priests will attend both today's Mass and the funeral Tuesday.

A rosary service was held in Sacred Heart at 7 last night.

Msgr. Marsh said that rosary services will also be held at the church Sunday night and Monday night.

The body will lie in state at the Mulhearn Funeral home in Rayville until 8 a.m. Tuesday. At that time it will be taken to the church, and remain there until the funeral.

BACKGROUND

Originally from Minnesota, Father DeCaigney had taught in Catholic schools in Massachusetts for many years before entering the priesthood.

He studied at a seminary in Wisconsin, and was ordained a priest in Alexandria four years ago.

His first parish was St. Rita's in Alexandria, where he served for one year.

During the next two years he was assistant pastor at St. Mathews.

Last June, he became pastor of Sacred Heart and St. Theresa's.

"He was so happy over here (at Rayville) and the people liked him very much," observed Msgr. Marsh, adding that Father DeCaigney was a dedicated man.

Father DeCaigney is survived by his mother, Mrs. Felicia DeCaigney and his sister, Mrs. Arthur Carle, both of Cloquet, Minn.

They are driving down for the funeral, and have expressed the wish that he be buried in the community where he was pastor.

Although the Bishop of the diocese ordinarily officiates at the funeral mass for a deceased priest, the Most Rev. Charles P. Greco, Bishop of Alexandria is in Washington, D.C. for the dedication of the Immaculate Conception Shrine and a meeting of Bishops.

Msgr. Marsh said that he doubts if Bishop Greco will be back in time for the funeral.

to Frankfurt. King liked it in Mannheim. A week later, however, he reluctantly gave up. He was arrested with faked leave papers in his pocket.

The Army charged its guest with fraudulent enlistment, absence without leave, failure to obey a lawful order, resisting apprehension, forgery and possession of a false pass.

By a sentencing agreement with the powers that be, King pleaded guilty and was given a dishonorable discharge and one year at hard labor.

An Army review board canceled the forgery conviction. The Court of Military Appeals Friday canceled the rest.

King, it ruled, was a civilian all the time.

Government prosecutors argued King "constructively enlisted" by voluntarily entering the service and accepting pay and allowances. Thus, they said, he was under Army jurisdiction.

"At best," Judge George W. Latimer decreed, "all he did was to put on the garb of a soldier and masquerade as a member of the Army in good standing.

"This record shows nothing more than a larceny or larcenies by trick in which the Army was undoubtedly duped but not in agreeing to enroll the accused as a member of its community. It was just the victim of a crime committed by a civilian."

Chief Judge Robert Emmett Quinn dissented in the 2-1 decision.

Latimer said King, a native of St. Louis, may still be subject to action in civilian courts for his "deceitful and fantastic scheme." But, in the Army, no.

Successful

The Civitan Club had a successful evening in the Frances hotel Thursday when a program held in conjunction with "Farm-City Week" in Louisiana, extending from Nov. 19-26, was explained. It was under direction of the Monroe Chamber of Commerce Agricultural committee.

He said that modern inventions have, as we know, taken much unnecessary toil off the shoulders of men on farms, and the men so released have thronged to the cities.

He visioned the creation of new jobs in the cities to care for men and women relieved from toil in rural areas.

Three Injured In Accidents Near Monroe

An auto left the highway, broke off a power line pole and injured an elderly couple about a mile west of the West Monroe city limits yesterday. About three hours later another auto ran off the road at the same spot and hit a repair pole trailor and a pickup truck, injuring the driver.

Injured in the first accident were Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Littleton, Route 1, West Monroe. Both were hospitalized at St. Francis hospital. Mrs. Littleton, 74, suffered a fractured left ankle, fractured pelvis and generalized contusions. Her husband, 78, who was driving, was hospitalized with general contusions.

Littleton told state police that another auto forced him off the highway.

SECOND MISHAP

In the second accident, which occurred about 8 p.m., three hours after the first, a Jonesboro man, Raymond Freeman, 23, was hospitalized at St. Francis for observation.

His auto was headed west, the same direction that the Littleton auto was going three hours earlier. The highway is a straight stretch in that area.

State police said the Freeman auto glanced off a Louisiana Power and Light Co. pole trailer and smashed head-on into a pickup truck, both of which were parked, after it left the road.

The governor has until midnight Sunday to sign measures passed by th Legislature in the closing hours of its 1959 session. Any bill lacking his approval at that time automatically dies by pocket veto.

Neither of the registration bills signed into law makes any mention of Negro voting, but they were admittedly designed to safeguard white supremacy at the polls in counties where the population is predominantly Negro.

Humphrey Intends To Enter Race

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.) intends to enter the Wisconsin presidential primary next April against either Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) or a favorite son candidate, it was reported Friday in the Humphrey camp.

Now rated far behind Kennedy among the unannounced democratic presidential hopefuls, Humphrey is eager for a two-man contest in Wisconsin. His partisans admit that his campaign needs the lift it would get from the national attention focused on primary campaigns and victories.

If Humphrey suffered a fatal defeat or defeats in the primaries, he would become merely a candidate for reelection to the Senate from Minnesota.

2 Bank Robbery Suspects Held In Louisville, Ky.

BASTROP (Special) — Two men are being held in Louisville, Ky. as prime suspects in the $13,050 armed robbery of the Bank of Oak Ridge, Morehouse Sheriff E. L. (Red) Hinton said last night.

Hinton said the two were in Morehouse Parish both before and after the Wednesday noon robbery at Oak Ridge. He said that they stayed at one of the motels at Bastrop and that his department followed the two suspects to McGee, Ark. and raced them from there to Louisville.

They were arrested at Louisville on burglary charges, he said.

Hinton said that Louisville authorities will mail fingerprints, and pictures to his office and that he should get them by today or Monday.

He continued that the two fit the discription of the bandits "very much." "It looks pretty good," he added.

The sheriff reported that the department also has other clues that are being checked on.

Meanwhile, two suspects who were being held in Forest, Miss., were released today.

Invitations also went out to these Republicans: Senate Minority Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois; House Minority Leader Charles E. Halleck of Indiana; Sen. Alexander Wiley of Wisconsin, top Republican on the Foreign Relations Committee; and Rep. Robert B. Chiperfield of Illinois, who has a corresponding role with the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

Hawks told a news conference questioner he didn't know specifically what the President intended to discuss with the congressional visitors or why Eisenhower considered the meeting necessary.

The setting-up of the conference was the main business of a quiet day at the temporary White House at the Augusta National Golf Club.

For the first time this week, Eisenhower had no appointments except with his own staff. He worked with them this morning and shot 18 holes of golf on a sunny afternoon on which the temperature climbed into the high 60s.

He was reported determined to enter the Wisconsin primary, however, whatever the opposition. His supporters point to Sen. Estes Kefauver's 1952 victory in Wisconsin as evidence that a favorite son in that state cannot win the primary against a serious contender for the presidential nomination.

Humphrey backers also expect him to enter the California primary if Kennedy should challenge the favorite son candidacy of Gov. Edmund G. Brown. Claiming a shortage of money for organization, however, Humphrey aides generally expect their man to go only into smaller states which he can cover by personal campaigning.

Benson Notes View On Berries

scared consumers away from buying their products, threatening them with financial disaster. These industry people argued Flemming could have acted without public fanfare.

Flemming's department has said conclusive evidence of the contamination, coupled with reports of the weed killer's misuse in 1959, first became available on Friday, Nov. 6.

Information on the situation was developed during the ensuing weekend, the department added, and Flemming made his announcement on Monday, Nov. 9 after talking by telephone with officials of Ocean Spray Cranberries, Inc., the national cranberry cooperative.

The chief purpose of Benson's news conference was to announce a big campaign "toward restoring public confidence in this traditional Thanksgiving holiday food."

"The Benson family will be using them and I hope all will," he said in asking that Americans start eating cranberries again as soon as cleared batches reach grocery stores.

As part of the campaign to help cranberry growers, Benson said he had wired food and industry leaders during an all-out merchandising effort now that Flemming's department has approved a plan for stepped-up testing of the berries and labeling the safe ones for the housewive's guidance.

Benson told newsmen he had ordered his department to start a cranberry promotion drive. And he said he would consider buying some of the surplus cleared berries for the school lunch program.

There are 8,733 registered Republicans, 7,337 of whom are white and 1,396 Republican.

Orleans Parish, with a new total of 200,829, slumped from the previous high of 214,602, in December 1955.

This was the only city loss, however. And since adjacent Jefferson Parish soared from 61,351 to 81,870, some of that could have been the loss in Orleans in that metropolitan area.

The city parishes of Caddo, Calcasieu, East Baton Rouge, Jefferson, Lafayette, Rapides and Ouachita all showed gains, amounting to 38,209.

Here are the new parish registrations, compared with the previous high of 1,056,546 set just before the 1956 presidential vote:

REV. ROY DeCAIGNEY

Rev. DeCaigney Rayville Pastor, Dies; Rites Set

Mass will be said by Msgr. Marsh in Sacred Heart church, for the repose of Father DeCaigney's soul.

All area priests will attend both today's Mass and the funeral Tuesday.

A rosary service was held in Sacred Heart at 7 last night.

Msgr. Marsh said that rosary services will also be held at the church Sunday night and Monday night.

The body will lie in state at the Mulhearn Funeral home in Rayville until 8 a.m. Tuesday. At that time it will be taken to the church, and remain there until the funeral.

BACKGROUND

Originally from Minnesota, Father DeCaigney had taught in Catholic schools in Massachusetts for many years before entering the priesthood.

He studied at a seminary in Wisconsin, and was ordained a priest in Alexandria four years ago.

His first parish was St. Rita's in Alexandria, where he served for one year.

During the next two years he was assistant pastor at St. Matthews.

Last June, he became pastor of Sacred Heart and St. Theresa's.

"He was so happy over here (at Rayville) and the people liked him very much," observed Msgr. Marsh, adding that Father DeCaigney was a dedicated man.

Father DeCaigney is survived by his mother, Mrs. Felicia DeCaigney and his sister, Mrs. Arthur Carle, both of Cloquet, Minn.

They are driving down for the funeral, and have expressed the wish that he be buried in the community where he was pastor.

Although the Bishop of the diocese ordinarily officiates at the funeral mass for a deceased priest, the Most Rev. Charles P. Greco, Bishop of Alexandria is in Washington, D.C. for the dedication of the Immaculate Conception Shrine and a meeting of Bishops.

Msgr. Marsh said that he doubts if Bishop Greco will be back in time for the funeral.

'Sergeant' Dupes Army Authorities

to Frankfurt. King liked it in Mannheim. A week later, however, he reluctantly gave up. He was arrested with faked leave papers in his pocket.

The Army charged its guest with fraudulent enlistment, absence without leave, failure to obey a lawful order, resisting apprehension, forgery and possession of a false pass.

By a sentencing agreement with the powers that be, King pleaded guilty and was given a dishonorable discharge and one year at hard labor.

An Army review board canceled the forgery conviction. The Court of Military Appeals Friday canceled the rest.

King, it ruled, was a civilian all the time.

Government prosecutors argued King "constructively enlisted" by voluntarily entering the service and accepting pay and allowances. Thus, they said, he was under Army jurisdiction.

"At best," Judge George W. Latimer decreed, "all he did was to put on the garb of a soldier and masquerade as a member of the Army in good standing.

"This record shows nothing more than a larceny or larcenies by trick in which the Army was undoubtedly duped but not in agreeing to enroll the accused as a member of its community. It was just the victim of a crime committed by a civilian."

Chief Judge Robert Emmett Quinn dissented in the 2-1 decision.

Latimer said King, a native of St. Louis, may still be subject to action in civilian courts for his "deceitful and fantastic scheme." But, in the Army, no.

Successful

The Civitan Club had a successful evening in the Frances hotel Thursday when a program held in conjunction with "Farm-City Week" in Louisiana, extending from Nov. 19-26, was explained. It was under direction of the Monroe Chamber of Commerce Agricultural committee.

J. J. Joyce, Jr., parish agent, introduced Lynn Pesson, assistant State 4-H Club agent, who discussed the present efforts to take care of the problem of both Farm and City without injury to either.

He said that modern inventions have, as we know, taken much unnecessary toil off the shoulders of men on farms, and the men so released have thronged to the cities.

He visioned the creation of new jobs in the cities to care for men and women relieved from toil in rural areas.

Talks

At the same meeting Kenneth Blue Jr., and Billy C. Dixon, who attended Pelican State at the capitol as representatives of the Monroe Civitan club, their sponsors, made interesting talks of their experiences.

Information

Northeast Louisiana State college has issued the following information for all connected with the institution.

All dormitories will close at 2:30 p.m. next Wednesday and will re-open November 29 at 2:30 p.m.

The cafeteria will close after serving next Wednesday's dinner and will reopen Sunday November 29. The Student Center will close next Wednesday noon and reopen Monday November 30.

'Commercial'

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Greenwood have a young son, Paul, who is in the first grade at Barkdull Faulk school.

Thursday was observed as open house at the school. Parents were proceeding from room to room, and ultimately came to Paul's room. Then the mother exclaimed "Paul, why is your name up on the blackboard by the flag?"

Paul replied, "Mama, I stand in front of the class with the flag, and the pupils say "the commercial."

Party

Knights of Columbus on Oliver Road, threw open the clubhouse doors for the annual party to members, prospective members, and all TV radio and newspapers personnel.

The Monroe Deanery attend in full force and a fine get-together party resulted with a social good time and also a well prepared and generous shrimp supper was served. It was a party long to be remembered.

Old gas lines are used. The cast-iron pipe is reamed out and a flexible liner of vinyl plastic is fed through it. The liner (developed by the B. F. Goodrich Chemical Co.) resists corrosion that eats away ordinary piping.

Three Injured In Accidents Near Monroe

An auto left the highway, broke off a power line pole and injured an elderly couple about a mile west of the West Monroe city limits yesterday. About three hours later another auto ran off the road at the same spot and hit a repair pole trailor and a pickup truck, injuring the driver.

Injured in the first accident were Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Littleton, Route 1, West Monroe. Both were hospitalized at St. Francis hospital. Mrs. Littleton, 74, suffered a fractured left ankle, fractured pelvis and generalized contusions. Her husband, 78, who was driving, was hospitalized with general contusions.

Littleton told state police that another auto forced him off the highway.

SECOND MISHAP

In the second accident, which occurred about 8 p.m., three hours after the first, a Jonesboro man, Raymond Freeman, 23, was hospitalized at St. Francis for observation.

His auto was headed west, the same direction that the Littleton auto was going three hours earlier. The highway is a straight stretch in that area.

State police said the Freeman auto glanced off a Louisiana Power and Light Co. pole trailer and smashed head-on into a pickup truck, both of which were parked, after it left the road.

The governor has until midnight Sunday to sign measures passed by th Legislature in the closing hours of its 1959 session. Any bill lacking his approval at that time automatically dies by pocket veto.

Neither of the registration bills signed into law makes any mention of Negro voting, but they were admittedly designed to safeguard white supremacy at the polls in counties where the population is predominantly Negro.

It was noted that in recent pledges turned in the non-professional employees of the St. Francis Hospital did an outstanding job.

The latest 100 per cent employee payroll deduction firm is the Capitol Store Fixtures Company. This particular payroll represents brand-new money to the Drive, as this is the firm's first year to have the deduction plan.

These last few days of the drive are always the hardest, and Moore urged all workers to not let up on their efforts until the job is completed.

Humphrey Intends To Enter Race

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.) intends to enter the Wisconsin presidential primary next April against either Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) or a favorite son candidate, it was reported Friday in the Humphrey camp.

Now rated far behind Kennedy among the unannounced democratic presidential hopefuls, Humphrey is eager for a two-man contest in Wisconsin. His partisans admit that his campaign needs the lift it would get from the national attention focused on primary campaigns and victories.

If Humphrey suffered a fatal defeat or defeats in the primaries, he would become merely a candidate for reelection to the Senate from Minnesota.

He was reported determined to enter the Wisconsin primary, however, whatever the opposition. His supporters point to Sen. Estes Kefauver's 1952 victory in Wisconsin as evidence that a favorite son in that state cannot win the primary against a serious contender for the presidential nomination.

Humphrey backers also expect him to enter the California primary if Kennedy should challenge the favorite son candidacy of Gov. Edmund G. Brown. Claiming a shortage of money for organization, however, Humphrey aides generally expect their man to go only into smaller states which he can cover by personal campaigning.

2 Bank Robbery Suspects Held In Louisville, Ky.

BASTROP (Special) — Two men are being held in Louisville, Ky. as prime suspects in the $13,050 armed robbery of the Bank of Oak Ridge, Morehouse Sheriff E. L. (Red) Hinton said last night.

Hinton said the two were in Morehouse Parish both before and after the Wednesday noon robbery at Oak Ridge. He said that they stayed at one of the motels at Bastrop and that his department followed the two suspects to McGee, Ark. and raced them from there to Louisville.

They were arrested at Louisville on burglary charges, he said.

Hinton said that Louisville authorities will mail fingerprints, and pictures to his office and that he should get them by today or Monday.

He continued that the two fit the discription of the bandits "very much." "It looks pretty good," he added.

The sheriff reported that the department also has other clues that are being checked on.

Meanwhile, two suspects who were being held in Forest, Miss., were released today.

Alexander Wiley of Wisconsin, top Republican on the Foreign Relations Committee; and Rep. Robert B. Chiperfield of Illinois, who has a corresponding role with the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

Hawks told a news conference questioner he didn't know specifically what the President intended to discuss with the congressional visitors or why Eisenhower considered the meeting necessary.

The setting-up of the conference was the main business of a quiet day at the temporary White House at the Augusta National Golf Club.

For the first time this week, Eisenhower had no appointments except with his own staff. He worked with them this morning and shot 18 holes of golf on a sunny afternoon on which the temperature climbed into the high 60s.

Rebel Leaders Name Five To Start Truce

PARIS (UPI) —Algerian rebel leaders Friday named five of their colleagues in French jails to start truce negotiations with France. President Charles de Gaulle swiftly cold-shouldered the idea.

De Gaulle told an audience in a speech at Colmar, an hour after hearing of the new rebel move, that his offer to negotiate a cease-fire was extended to "those who are fighting. . .not. . .those who are out of the fight."

Although he did not say so outright, this appeared to be a rejection of the imprisoned rebels as negotiators.

Nevertheless, the rebel offer drew the two sides closer than ever before to the possibility of direct talks.

The rebel Algerian "provisional government" issued its statement from its exile in Tunisia.

It said the statements by various French leaders had deprived De Gaulle's promise of eventual self-determination for Algeria "of all its sense."

The statement said the provisional government thus was naming five men to start talks with the French government "on the conditions and guarantees of applying self determination." It said an agreement on this must come before a cease-fire.

The statement named Mohammed Ben Bella, Rabah Bitat, Mohammed Khider, Hocine Ait Ahmed and Mohammed Boudiaf—all of whom have been in French custody for three years or more—as the negotiating team.

Ben Bella, 43, onetime French army sergeant major, was identified as deputy premier of the provisional Algerian government.

ROMAN CATHOLIC

Dedication Held For Large Church

WASHINGTON (AP)—A mighty church, the largest ever built in this country by Roman Catholics, was dedicated Friday as their national shrine.

Amid rites and pageantry rooted in antiquity, the Shrine of the Immaculate Conception was consecrated as a center of devotion for 36 million Americans of the Catholic faith.

The shrine takes its architectural style from the great Byzantine and Romanesque cathedrals of the Middle Ages. Its builders say it also will match their record of endurance.

Rising pale and lofty in northeast Washington, the shrine stands three miles north of the Capitol on the grounds of Catholic University. Starting Monday it will be open to the public from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. each day.

But this day was given over to ceremony.

Red-hatted cardinals in long-trained robes, archbishops and bishops in royal purple, black-and-white-frocked priests took part in a stately procession around the outside of the church. Lining the entire route were Knights of Columbus in white-plumed hats and gleaming capes, holding aloft swords that glinted in the sun.

A fanfare heralded arrival of the procession at the masive doors in the main entrance of the church. The swelling voices of a 200-man choir accompanied the slow movement down the block-long aisle.

Three thousand worshippers filled the pews in the huge, vaulted interior. Thousands more gathered outside to hear the ceremony over loudspeakers. In the 16,500 Catholic dioceses throughout the country others participated through special prayers.

Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York, ranking cardinal in the United States, presided over the Mass that preceded the act of consecration. Archbishop Joseph E. Ritter of St. Louis, who heads the bishops' committee in charge of building the shrine, delivered the opening sermon.

He described the shrine as "an expression of the Catholic democracy of the United States and of the Catholics' love and devotion of Mary Immaculate."

Cardinal Spellman, in remarks at a luncheon after the dedication, had this to say about the shrine: "Above and beyond its architecture and yet through the striking and enduring medium of its architecture, the national shrine has a meaning and a message. In a world threatened by the advances of atheistic communism, the shrine is a visible symbol of faith."

Pope John XXIII, in a letter read during the ceremony, expressed joy at the dedication of a

Americans are a good-humored, tolerant and democratic people, notwithstanding the energy and aggressiveness which have made this country the greatest and most advanced in the world. If this were not so, they would be riled at the number of smaller fry in England who have tried to pass judgment on the president of the United States and on his acts as generalissimo of the western allies in World War II.

Although passing off the criticism generally with a shrug, the people of the United States for the most part wonder what right a few stuffed shirt representatives of a decadent and dwindling nation have to try to define and point out the mistakes of men who are so much above them in stature that there is no comparison.

If we took the present crop of self - appointed, low-octane British critics of the American scene as seriously as they take themselves and as seriously as they seem to expect us to take them, we would be suffering from a case of severe nausea. At the moment there is a surfeit of such would-be critics.

Earl Attlee, British Labor party leader, is the latest to add his unconvincing voice to the din. In this country on a visit, during which he made a television appearance and apparently thought he had to say something startling in an effort to increase his own size, Mr. Attlee said he did not consider President Eisenhower a "first-ranking soldier" or a first-class statesman.

It is appropriate to remark here that an ant is unable to measure the size of a giant redwood tree for the reason that it simply is not big enough to see what is there.

Mr. Attlee seems to be carrying on from the points at which Alan Brookes and General Montgomery left off.

The British Labor party leader made it clear that he did not admire the late sincerely respected and mourned Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

Mr. Attlee believes the United States should recognize Red China, which it is not about to do and which the American people do not want it to do.

He also considers the Taft-Hartley law provision for an 80-day "cooling off" period an abridgement of workers' rights.

There is scant wonder that Mr. Attlee holds such views. As the leader of the British labor party, he naturally leans far to the left. He is on a par with the radical-liberals in the United States who believe in socialism and government ownership of everything.

It is only natural that he should be sympathetic with the communists, since they are not too much different from the socialists, and therefore to be expected that he would favor recognition of the Chinese Communists.

Harping critics ordinarily do not attract much attention but right now is a bad time for those in Britain to try to set themselves up as judges of the American leaders.

So far as we have been able to observe, United States citizens in high places have not spent any time trying to belittle any of the British leaders. Generally the people of this country are in favor of the British Conservatives, since the members of that party are the ones who favor continuance of the western alliance, while labor party members lean more toward communism and Russia. There has been no American pot-shooting at British individuals.

Sniping at American officials by Britons whose titles are more impressive than their real store of knowledge certainly cannot do much to improve American-British amity, which is sorely needed at this time by England, as well as by the United States.

Labor Rackets Hit

What is termed a "knockout" blow at the labor rackets has been aimed by all three top branches of the federal government.

Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell said the new labor law passed by Congress and to be administered by his department is already beginning to rid unions of corrupt practices.

It is sincerely hoped Sec. Mitchell has weighed out all elements in the case and is not showing premature optimism. At the time of its passage, many observers considered the new labor bill insufficient in "teeth" to cope with the heavy-handed policies of labor leaders of the James Hoffa category.

Reason for the optimistic tone was the refusal early this week of the Supreme Court to set aside lower court rulings to equip monitors with sweeping reform enforcement powers. The monitors are court-appointed persons who have planned a cleanup drive with the effort directed at the scandal- rocked Teamsters Union.

This decision by the high court is reason in itself for a measure of encouragement. It marks the first occasion in a number of years where the Supreme Court has made a decision against the wishes of big organized labor and the more powerful pressure groups.

Hoffa's reaction that he was "disappointed" at the court's ruling is probably a gross understatement. The fact that any powers at all were granted the cleanup monitors certainly annoyed him as well as other labor bosses. He most certainly was shocked when the Supreme Court showed its hand favoring the appointees of the lower courts monitor system. Hoffa said he aimed "to live up to the court's decision." But he added his organization wil continue to challenge individual reform orders.

Meanwhile, Martin F. O'Donoghue, monitor chairmen, said his group is prepared to move into high labor circles on several fronts, including charges which could remove Hoffa as Teamster president. O'Donoghue saw the Supreme Court ruling as a breakdown of the last legal roadblock the Hoffa group will be able to erect.

In the Mitchell report of the first two months of the group's operations, it was stated anticorruption measures of the new labor law had effeted dismissals and resignations of some union officials with criminal or Communist backgrounds. According to Sec. Mitchell, nearly a hundred complaints are under active investigation and a number of these will be turned over to the Justice Department for prosecution.

It is an encouraging turn of events when the Supreme Court dares to back up decisions of the lower courts when action against the labor rackets is the issue. But no enforcement agency can prove any stronger than the laws in question, and many see a need for still stronger labor controls in order to cope with bosses of the Hoffa category.

Literature Index Lacking

Certain Publications Which Might Be Used On Conservative Side Of Argument Are Not Listed

Some time ago, seeking information, I turned to "Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature" for an index and noted that certain publications were omitted. Those left out happened to be favorites of mine and they were on what I would consider my side of the fence. To me that meant that if a high school or college student were seeking the conservative side of an argument, to write an essay or prepare a debate, he would have no index to it. I selected the "National Review" as an instance and searched for a mention of it and found none.

The "National Review" is a

* * *

substantial publication, continuously issued and contains adequate articles on the conservative side of current questions. By any standard, it should be in an index to current periodical literature. It is, in fact, the only conservative publication which has appeared regularly for enough years to accept its permanence.

So I wrote to the publishers of the index, the H. W. Wilson Company, and have received from Edwin B. Colburn, the following explanation:

"All of the periodicals indexed in the READERS' GUIDE are selected by vote of the subscribers to that index; none by us. Most of the suscribers, of course, are libraries — public, college, and schools. We are currently having the assistance of a Committee of the American Library Association who are making a series of studies of all of our periodical indexes and their coverage. You will find a list of these indexes and related services to libraries at the bottom of this letterhead. This Committee invites suggestions from the subscribers and from other sources concerning titles which should be considered for the index being studied. From these a voting list is prepared and sent to all subscribers. Their votes determine which periodicals are to be indexed. These studies and polls are conducted at intervals of several years."

Presumably every organization has to establish some system to do its work. On the other hand, an index, to be of value, must be complete. It must cover the field fully. In this instance, the particular index in question is widely used by students in the preparation of themes, essays, debates, etc.

* * *

It is also used by persons engaged in such professions as mine who search for the printed word. The assumption must be that it is accurate and complete. For generations the "Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature" has been regarded as accurate, complete and as sure as the 11th edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica, which came pretty close to perfection. To be complete, it may not omit any periodical pulished in this country of any durability.

Probably the cost of paper and printing or the pressures of the times led the publishers to set up this complicated system of determining which magazine deserves mention, but it may be that what one seeks is in a publication which this Committee either ignores or dislikes or is ignorant of. Does anyone read every periodical published in the United States? Yet the most valuable articles may be published in obscure ones.

* * *

Librarians are bound to know the outsides of books and magazines. When it comes to the insides, they, like so many other humans, limit themselves to reading reviews. For some years, while at high school, I worked as a stock-boy in a branch of the New York Public Library. It was back in those days when young folks could work their way through high school as well as college. The job was pleasant and the salary came to $2.50 a week which was good money then for this kind of work although today, it would harldy pay for anything, the dollar having shrunk in value.

On this job, I learned much about books and periodicals from a practical standpoint. All kinds passed through my hands, as they did through a librarian's hands. Somehow, one knew what was inside the book because of the classification according to the Dewey decimal system, even without reading it. When it came to the insides, there were, of course, librarians who read and librarians who did not read. And I should imagine the same is true today, men and women being what they are. In fact, reading on this job was a kind of featherbedding: when a stock-boy was too tired, he seized a book and read it among the shelves.

* * *

Surely the conservative side of current questions requires as much attention as the radical or liberal sides or as those publications which take no side at all but publish sundry articles by inexpert persons about nothing particularly signifieant and which women read while the sleeping pill takes effect. On similar occasions men prefer murder.

Coronary, Angina

Many Want To Know Differences Between Two Heart Ailments

In spite of all that has been written about coronary disease during the past few years, many people are still "mixed up" about the difference between angina pectoris and coronary thrombosis. I don't blame them for it. In fact, I'm glad they keep writing to me until the distinction is clear to them.

"Just what is the difference between the two?" asks Mr. T.T., of Miami Beach. "And which is the more serious?"

Making a generalization is as helpful as answering the question, "Is it hotter in the summer or in the country?"

The answer is, it all depends! One patient with severe coronary thrombosis may live for 20 years; another, with apparently mild angina pectoris, may be awfully sick within a year. And vice versa.

Now, as to the distinction between the two. The underlying disease is similar. There is a narrowing of the coronary artery circulation due to atherosclerosis of the arteries. Most of you have heard that this is tied up in some way with faulty cholesterol metabolism.

In angina pectoris there is a gradual narrowing of the arteries. In coronary thrombosis, there is usually a sudden stoppage of blood flow through an artery due to a thrombosis or clot.

Chest pain in agina usually comes on after exertion, or a heavy meal, or is tied in with emotional upheavals. It lasts only a few minutes. It is relieved by rest and the pain rapidly "dissolves" after the patient takes a nitroglycerine tablet under his tongue.

In coronary thrombosis, pain may come on while at rest. It is a chrushing type of pain which grows worse and may last for hours. The patient may be nauseated and actually vomit. He breaks out into a cold sweat. He has shortness of breath, his blood pressure falls.

You needn't be a doctor to know that here is a very sick person. (Of course, there are many cases of thrombosis which appear so mild they are easily mistaken for "indigestion").

Such, Mr. T. T. are the "simple differentials" between angina and coronary thrombosis. If you would like more complete information, write to me for my leaflet S-1, "Practical Pointers for Coronary Patients," c-o this newspaper. Enclose 10 cents in a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope. You will find easy-to-read suggestions that may add years to your life.

IMPORTANCE OF EFFICIENT OFFICE NURSE

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: Last week my husband suddenly got a severe pain in his chest. We were on vacation out of town. I took him in to the first doctor's office I could find.

The waiting room was crowded. I told the nurse it was an emergency. Anyone could see my husband was very sick. But she said he'd have to wait his turn because we had no appointment.

I actually begged her to go in to the doctor and tell him about my husband. "I'm sorry," she said: "the doctor's busy."

* * *

We would never have seen the doctor if one of his patients in the waiting room hadn't said: "If you don't get this man in to see the doctor right away, I'll bang on his door myself!" That scared the nurse and she admitted him right away.

Isn't it terrible, Dr. Steincrohn, that sick people should be at the mercy of that kind of receptionist? Mrs. L., Nashville, Tennessee.

COMMENT: Fortunately, most nurses are sympathetic and understanding. There are a few reception-room tyrants who would be "out-on-their-ear" if their doctor-boss even had a suspicion they were that way.

If you have been unable to "melt down those extra pounds" write to me c-o this paper for my leaflet, S-2, "How to Overcome Obesity." Enclose 10 cents in a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Old Truman Plane

Craft Carrying Benson To Belgrade Not As Fine As Russia Uses

Second - Class Traveler —Former President Truman's old plane, the Independence, was back in the news again recently. The reliable old four - engine DC-6, now on Air Force duty, was used to transport Secretary of Agriculture Exra Taft Benson on his tour of Eastern Europe. When it arrived in Belgrade, a Yugoslav newspaperman looked at it and commented to an American newsman: "Is that the best they could do for you? When the Russians come, they come in jets twice that big."

Tradition At Stake — Spittoon lovers of America are up in arms. It all started when a Staten Island housewife called to Sen. Kenneth Keating, Rep.-N.Y., to do something about banning spittoons from the Capitol Building. Out in Evansville, Ind., tobacco - chewing Jake Seits fired off an angry letter to Sen. Vance Hartke, Dem.-Ind., to block any such move by that "stuck - up Easterner" Keating. Next thing you know, said Seits, that New York woman will be advocating cafe curtains in cowbarns. "Any man who has ever laid his jaw to a chew can tell you a spittoon is not half as untidy as a spit without one," Seits explained. "Now I'm sure this woman has good intentions but unless you stand up for us people back home, what's going to happen to a Hoosier visiting congress if he's got to spit and no spittoon? I started chewing when I was in the fifth grade, and I can't figure it out." With or without Hartke's help Seits is prepared to fight the anti-spittoon league. He is thinking of starting a Jake Seits Society for the Preservation of Cuspidors.

Half A Loaf — Bob Considine, the noted newspaper columnist, was inducted into the George Washington University athletic hall of fame last week. Considine was an all - time great tennis player at GW and started out in the newspaper business as a tennis writer. In an acceptance speech Considine recalled he was honored a few years ago by having a race horse named after him. Friends remembered Considine's remark at the time, "It is the first time a whole horse has ever been named after me."

Mistakes Of The Past — If congress had listened to Sen. Jefferson Davis we might not be having this trouble today with Cuba's Fidel Castro. It practically says so in a chronology of "significant events" on the eve of the Civil War just released by the Civil War Centennial Commission. On June 17, 1859, Sen. Davis announced he would introduce in the next congress a bill to purchase Cuba. Cuba was then a Spanish colony.

An Expert On The Subject—Before leaving Washington for a speaking tour of California, House Minority Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana consulted GOP bigwigs from the White House to the Capitol. The most interesting advice reportedly came from Vice President Richard Nixon who said, "Now, Charlie, don't you make any of those inflammatory speeches that will make all those Democrats mad. There are too many of them out there."

No Gum On A Hounds's Tooth —Rep. Samuel S. Stratton, Dem.-N.Y., believes he has found a politician who really believes in being "cleaner than a hound's tooth" — that is, do not the slightest that will reflect on your integrity. Shortly before congress adjourned Stratton sent to each member of the house and senate a small package of chewing gum produced by a Canajoharie, N. Y.. manufactuer as "one sample of the high quality products manufactured in our district." One senator, whom Stratton would not name, returned the package in the next mail with a note explaining he never accept presents. Offended, Stratton said, "This is the first time I've ever heard of drawing the line at 15 cents worth of chewing gum."

Stepping Toward Fame — If a New York businessman has his way that shoe with the hole in the sole worn by Adlai Stevenson during the 1956 presidential campaign will be retained for posterity. The businessman, who heads a shoe polish firm, is planning to establish a museum to be known as "The Sole of Fame." It will house the shoes of famous people. For example, the spikes worn by Roger Bannister when he ran the first mile under four minutes, the dancing taps of Fred Astaire and the shoes worn by Babe Ruth when he hit his 60th homerun.

Test For Success

Age Of Togetherness Finds Most Decisions Made By Committees

NEW YORK (AP) — One test of a successful man today is how many committees he can serve on without shortening his life.

We live in an age of togetherness, and our lives are largely ruled by committee-made decisions.

To have an active social life today, you almost have to serve on a committee dedicated to one cause or another. One's importance in the community often indeed is measured by the number of committees one serves on.

But committee work is a thing a fellow has to learn by personal experience whether he can take in stride or should leave strictly alone.

Serving on too many committees undoutedly has killed by aggravation and overwork many men in their middle years who might otherwise have lived to a graceful and serene old age. They had become addicts. They didn't know how to handle it.

Haunting indeed are the sordid stories of those who tried to raise their social status by joining a committee, then found their lives ruined as one committee led to another, until finally there was no stopping.

Here is one such man's story:

"I moved to the suburbs and bought a new house. I joined the P-TA, and they put me on a committee to add a gymnasium to the school.

"The neighorhood association asked me if I'd serve on a committee to improve the beach, and I said yes. Then I joined a lodge and a church, and they both soon put me on committees.

"We were invited to a lot of parties, and it seemed like at each party they organized a new committee, and I was always asked to join, and I did. I joined a committee to get rid of covered bridges.

"I joined a committee to send books to the Hottentots, a committee to save the barn owl, and a committee to improve the railroad's commuter service.

"I joined the mayor's committee to bring new industry into town, and I joined another committee to keep the town zoned only for private homes.

"At first I was deliriously excited by all this committee duty, because I never had made friends so fast in my life. I worked hard on each committee, and that, of course, led the other committees to want me to serve with them.

"At the end of the first year I guess I must have been about the best known man in town, and they were even talking about running me for mayor. I was serving on 68 committees, and being invited to join new ones at the rate of one a week.

"I was getting three hours sleep a night, making an average of 37 phone calls a day from my office on committee work, and living on pep pills that turned me into a nervous wreck. I was completely neglecting my own family and my own job.

"Well, the whole thing collapsed last week. My boss fired me, my wife ran off with a man down the street, and my two children were sent to reform school as juvenile delinquents.

"Naturally, I thought my friends on all those committees would stand by me in my hour of need. But do you know what I found out? I found out that for every fair-weather friend you make by serving on committees, you make at least two all-weather enemies.

"My neighors now are organizing a committee to ask me to sell the house and move away as an undesirable member of the community. It's a funny thing. That's the only committee in town I haven't been asked to join."

Daily Devotional

For everyone that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. — St. Matthew 7:8.

Every day brings opportunity for Bible study, but Sunday offers a special chance. On this day the doors of religious institutions are open and we have time to pause. rest and meditate. It is a time of asking and receiving; of seeking and finding; of knocking and having the doors of understanding thrown wide. Church attendance is increasing but there is still need for more regular attendance on the part of present members and the recruitment of new converts.

O God, help us to be more faithful in our attendance and support of all our religious denominations. In Christ's holy name we pray. Amen.

We are currently having the assistance of a Committee of the American Library Association who are making a series of studies of all of our periodical indexes and their coverage. You will find a list of these indexes and related services to libraries at the bottom of this letterhead. This Committee invites suggestions from the subscribers and from other sources concerning titles which should be considered for the index being studied. From these a voting list is prepared and sent to all subscribers. Their votes determine which periodicals are to be indexed. These studies and polls are conducted at intervals of several years."

Presumably every organization has to establish some system to do its work. On the other hand, an index, to be of value, must be complete. It must cover the field fully. In this instance, the particular index in question is widely used by students in the preparation of themes, essays, debates, etc.

* * *

It is also used by persons engaged in such professions as mine who search for the printed word. The assumption must be that it is accurate and complete. For generations the "Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature" has been regarded as accurate, complete and as sure as the 11th edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica, which came pretty close to perfection. To be complete, it may not omit any periodical pulished in this country of any durability.

Probably the cost of paper and printing or the pressures of the times led the publishers to set up this complicated system of determining which magazine deserves mention, but it may be that what one seeks is in a publication which this Committee either ignores or dislikes or is ignorant of. Does anyone read every periodical published in the United States? Yet the most valuable articles may be published in obscure ones.

* * *

Librarians are bound to know the outsides of books and magazines. When it comes to the insides, they, like so many other humans, limit themselves to reading reviews. For some years, while at high school, I worked as a stock-boy in a branch of the New York Public Library. It was back in those days when young folks could work their way through high school as well as college. The job was pleasant and the salary came to $2.50 a week which was good money then for this kind of work although today, it would harldy pay for anything, the dollar having shrunk in value.

On this job, I learned much about books and periodicals from a practical standpoint. All kinds passed through my hands, as they did through a librarian's hands. Somehow, one knew what was inside the book because of the classification according to the Dewey decimal system, even without reading it. When it came to the insides, there were, of course, librarians who read and librarians who did not read. And I should imagine the same is true today, men and women being what they are. In fact, reading on this job was a kind of featherbedding; when a stock-boy was too tired, he seized a book and read it among the shelves.

* * *

Surely the conservative side of current questions requires as much attention as the radical or liberal sides or as those publications which take no side at all but publish sundry articles by inexpert persons about nothing particularly signifieant and which women read while the sleeping pill takes effect. On similar occasions men prefer murder.

Coronary, Angina

Many Want To Know Differences Between Two Heart Ailments

In spite of all that has been written about coronary disease during the past few years, many people are still "mixed up" about the difference between angina pectoris and coronary thrombosis. I don't blame them for it. In fact, I'm glad they keep writing to me until the distinction is clear to them.

"Just what is the difference between the two?" asks Mr. T.T., of Miami Beach. "And which is the more serious?"

Making a generalization is as helpful as answering the question, "Is it hotter in the summer or in the country?"

The answer is, it all depends! One patient with severe coronary thrombosis may live for 20 years; another, with apparently mild angina pectoris, may be awfully sick within a year. And vice versa.

Now, as to the distinction between the two. The underlying disease is similar. There is a narrowing of the coronary artery circulation due to atherosclerosis of the arteries. Most of you have heard that this is tied up in some way with faulty cholesterol metabolism.

In angina pectoris there is a gradual narrowing of the arteries. In coronary thrombosis, there is usually a sudden stoppage of blood flow through an artery due to a thrombosis or clot.

Chest pain in agina usually comes on after exertion, or a heavy meal, or is tied in with emotional upheavals. It lasts only a few minutes. It is relieved by rest and the pain rapidly "dissolves" after the patient takes a nitroglycerine tablet under his tongue.

In coronary thrombosis, pain may come on while at rest. It is a chrushing type of pain which grows worse and may last for hours. The patient may be nauseated and actually vomit. He breaks out into a cold sweat. He has shortness of breath, his blood pressure falls.

You needn't be a doctor to know that here is a very sick person. (Of course, there are many cases of thrombosis which appear so mild they are easily mistaken for "indigestion").

Such, Mr. T. T. are the "simple differentials" between angina and coronary thrombosis. If you would like more complete information, write to me for my leaflet S-1, "Practical Pointers for Coronary Patients," c-o this newspaper. Enclose 10 cents in a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope. You will find easy-to-read suggestions that may add years to your life.

IMPORTANCE OF EFFICIENT OFFICE NURSE

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: Last week my husband suddenly got a severe pain in his chest. We were on vacation out of town. I took him in to the first doctor's office I could find.

The waiting room was crowded. I told the nurse it was an emergency. Anyone could see my husband was very sick. But she said he'd have to wait his turn because we had no appointment.

I actually begged her to go in to the doctor and tell him about my husband. "I'm sorry," she said: "the doctor's busy."

* * *

We would never have seen the doctor if one of his patients in the waiting room hadn't said: "If you don't get this man in to see the doctor right away, I'll bang on his door myself!" That scared the nurse and she admitted him right away.

Isn't it terrible, Dr. Steincrohn, that sick people should be at the mercy of that kind of receptionist? Mrs. L., Nashville, Tennessee.

COMMENT: Fortunately, most nurses are sympathetic and understanding. There are a few reception-room tyrants who would be "out-on-their-ear" if their doctor-boss even had a suspicion they were that way.

If you have been unable to "melt down those extra pounds" write to me c-o this paper for my leaflet, S-2, "How to Overcome Obesity." Enclose 10 cents in a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Old Truman Plane

Craft Carrying Benson To Belgrade Not As Fine As Russia Uses

Second - Class Traveler —Former President Truman's old plane, the Independence, was back in the news again recently. The reliable old four - engine DC-6, now on Air Force duty, was used to transport Secretary of Agriculture Exra Taft Benson on his tour of Eastern Europe. When it arrived in Belgrade, a Yugoslav newspaperman looked at it and commented to an American newsman: "Is that the best they could do for you? When the Russians come, they come in jets twice that big."

Tradition At Stake — Spittoon lovers of America are up in arms. It all started when a Staten Island housewife called to Sen. Kenneth Keating, Rep.-N.Y., to do something about banning spittoons from the Capitol Building. Out in Evansville, Ind., tobacco - chewing Jake Seits fired off an angry letter to Sen. Vance Hartke, Dem.-Ind., to block any such move by that "stuck - up Easterner" Keating. Next thing you know, said Seits, that New York woman will be advocating cafe curtains in cowbarns. "Any man who has ever laid his jaw to a chew can tell you a spittoon is not half as untidy as a spit without one," Seits explained. "Now I'm sure this woman has good intentions but unless you stand up for us people back home, what's going to happen to a Hoosier visiting congress if he's got to spit and no spittoon? I started chewing when I was in the fifth grade, and I can't figure it out." With or without Hartke's help Seits is prepared to fight the anti-spittoon league. He is thinking of starting a Jake Seits Society for the Preservation of Cuspidors.

Half A Loaf — Bob Considine, the noted newspaper columnist, was inducted into the George Washington University athletic hall of fame last week. Considine was an all - time great tennis player at GW and started out in the newspaper business as a tennis writer. In an acceptance speech Considine recalled he was honored a few years ago by having a race horse named after him. Friends remembered Considine's remark at the time, "It is the first time a whole horse has ever been named after me."

Mistakes Of The Past — If congress had listened to Sen. Jefferson Davis we might not be having this trouble today with Cuba's Fidel Castro. It practically says so in a chronology of "significant events" on the eve of the Civil War just released by the Civil War Centennial Commission. On June 17, 1859, Sen. Davis announced he would introduce in the next congress a bill to purchase Cuba. Cuba was then a Spanish colony.

An Expert On The Subject—Before leaving Washington for a speaking tour of California, House Minority Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana consulted GOP bigwigs from the White House to the Capitol. The most interesting advice reportedly came from Vice President Richard Nixon who said, "Now, Charlie, don't you make any of those inflammatory speeches that will make all those Democrats mad. There are too many of them out there."

No Gum On A Hounds's Tooth —Rep. Samuel S. Stratton, Dem.-N.Y., believes he has found a politician who really believes in being "cleaner than a hound's tooth" — that is, do not the slightest that will reflect on your integrity. Shortly before congress adjourned Stratton sent to each member of the house and senate a small package of chewing gum produced by a Canajoharie, N. Y.. manufactuer as "one sample of the high quality products manufactured in our district." One senator, whom Stratton would not name, returned the package in the next mail with a note explaining he never accept presents. Offended, Stratton said, "This is the first time I've ever heard of drawing the line at 15 cents worth of chewing gum."

Stepping Toward Fame — If a New York businessman has his way that shoe with the hole in the sole worn by Adlai Stevenson during the 1956 presidential campaign will be retained for posterity. The businessman, who heads a shoe polish firm, is planning to establish a museum to be known as "The Sole of Fame." It will house the shoes of famous people. For example, the spikes worn by Roger Bannister when he ran the first mile under four minutes, the dancing taps of Fred Astaire and the shoes worn by Babe Ruth when he hit his 60th homerun.

Test For Success

Age Of Togetherness Finds Most Decisions Made By Committees

NEW YORK (AP) — One test of a successful man today is how many committees he can serve on without shortening his life.

We live in an age of togetherness, and our lives are largely ruled by committee-made decisions.

To have an active social life today, you almost have to serve on a committee dedicated to one cause or another. One's importance in the community often indeed is measured by the number of committees one serves on.

But committee work is a thing a fellow has to learn by personal experience whether he can take in stride or should leave strictly alone.

Serving on too many committees undoutedly has killed by aggravation and overwork many men in their middle years who might otherwise have lived to a graceful and serene old age. They had become addicts. They didn't know how to handle it.

Haunting indeed are the sordid stories of those who tried to raise their social status by joining a committee, then found their lives ruined as one committee led to another, until finally there was no stopping.

Here is one such man's story:

"I moved to the suburbs and bought a new house. I joined the P-TA, and they put me on a committee to add a gymnasium to the school.

"The neighorhood association asked me if I'd serve on a committee to improve the beach, and I said yes. Then I joined a lodge and a church, and they both soon put me on committees.

"We were invited to a lot of parties, and it seemed like at each party they organized a new committee, and I was always asked to join, and I did. I joined a committee to get rid of covered bridges.

"I joined a committee to send books to the Hottentots, a committee to save the barn owl, and a committee to improve the railroad's commuter service.

"I joined the mayor's committee to bring new industry into town, and I joined another committee to keep the town zoned only for private homes.

"At first I was deliriously excited by all this committee duty, because I never had made friends so fast in my life. I worked hard on each committee, and that, of course, led the other committees to want me to serve with them.

"At the end of the first year I guess I must have been about the best known man in town, and they were even talking about running me for mayor. I was serving on 68 committees, and being invited to join new ones at the rate of one a week.

"I was getting three hours sleep a night, making an average of 37 phone calls a day from my office on committee work, and living on pep pills that turned me into a nervous wreck. I was completely neglecting my own family and my own job.

"Well, the whole thing collapsed last week. My boss fired me, my wife ran off with a man down the street, and my two children were sent to reform school as juvenile delinquents.

"Naturally, I thought my friends on all those committees would stand by me in my hour of need. But do you know what I found out? I found out that for every fair-weather friend you make by serving on committees, you make at least two all-weather enemies.

"My neighors now are organizing a committee to ask me to sell the house and move away as an undesirable member of the community. It's a funny thing. That's the only committee in town I haven't been asked to join."

Daily Devotional

For everyone that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. — St. Matthew 7:8.

Every day brings opportunity for Bible study, but Sunday offers a special chance. On this day the doors of religious institutions are open and we have time to pause. rest and meditate. It is a time of asking and receiving; of seeking and finding; of knocking and having the doors of understanding thrown wide. Church attendance is increasing but there is still need for more regular attendance on the part of present members and the recruitment of new converts.

O God, help us to be more faithful in our attendance and support of all our religious denominations. In Christ's holy name we pray. Amen.

Vogel Urges Fullest Use Of Potential

"We cannot afford to waste brain power," Dr. Fred J. Vogel dean of Northeast State's Student Services, told The Morehouse Parish Education Association in session at Bastrop High School.

Northeast is interested in capitalizing to the maximum degree the potential ability of all students at the college, the speaker said. Development of close relationship between the institution and the high school is the best means of accomplishing this, he told the group.

The main objective of American schools, the dean pointed out, is to make good citizens of students. With increased competition between the United States and Russia comes an increase in the use of brain power, the speaker said. This calls for greater articulation between the college and high school.

Articulation (sometimes called bridging the gap or orientation) calls for three responsibilities: sharing information, screening and studying results. The sharing factor is based on a reciprocal trade agreement between the high school and college, Vogel explained. Screening is essential to determine the student's abilities and interests so that he may be directed in areas where he will utilize these abilities to greatest advantage, he said.

Following the collection of information about the student and directing him into the best channel, college advisers should confer with high school personnel. The result may be a re-shaping of ideas at high school and college levels, Vogel said.

The speaker emphasized the gaining realization on the part of educators throughout the United States that colleges are receiving better prepared students who are more interested in learning than has been true in the past.

Rise of ability levels has been measured by tests in various colleges, Vogel said. More serious attitudes toward studies have been noted in institutions of higher learning. These schools must capitalize on ability or potential of students, he declared. "Achieving this calls for close relationship between the college and high school."

Area Man Posts Bond In Death Case At Jena

JENA (Special) — Released last night under $2,500 bond was Pat Johnson of Olla, who was being held here on a manslaughter charge in the fatal shooting of Sheppard Warren Haynes, 56, of Tullos, at Haynes' cafe Thursday night.

The shooting was apparently the result of a dispute over a knife, investigating officers said.

A coroner's jury, held Friday morning at 11 a.m. to determine the cause of death, returned a verdict of manslaughter. The LaSalle Parish coroner said that death was due to gunshot wounds in the right of the groin, the abdomen and the left of the groin.

Haynes is survived by his widow, Willene Haynes of Olla; one son, Michael Haynes of Olla; three daughters, Elizabeth Ann Haynes, Peggy Jean Haynes and Helen Faye Haynes, all of Olla; two brothers, Walter Haynes and Dave Haynes, both of Jena; four sisters, Mrs. Lillie Mays and Mrs. Thelma Tanner, both of Olla, Mrs. Mildred Young of Jena and Mrs. Loride Lasayone of New Iberia.

Mrs. Voelker Is 'Lady Of Month'

LAKE PROVIDENCE (Special) —Virginia Wilson Voelker, a native of West Virginia, came a long way to be recognized as the Louisiana Municipal Review's "Lady of the Month."

But the wife of Lake Providence City Attorney Frank Voelker carries that distinction in the current issue of the Review.

The Review feature article on Mrs. Voelker protrays her as a civic leader and a woman of many hobbies, "none of which would interfere with the children and family life."

It points out that she was planning a career as an actress when she met her husband. Today she puts her theatrical training to work in directing many of the high school plays in Lake Providence.

She is also active in the Mothers Club. Parent Teacher Association and the local cancer society. She is also active in scouting work and finds political activities "very interesting," the Review noted.

C Of C Names New Slate For Ferriday

FERRIDAY (Special) — The Ferriday Chamber of Commerce held their annual election of officers at the "Awards Night" banquet here this week. Claude Nelson will serve ase president during 1960.

The banquet was held in the Ferriday High School cafeteria. Principal speaker for the affair was Howard P. McCollum.

Other officers who will serve with Nelson are Joe Joseph, vice president; Lloyd Love, secretary, and Kenneth Baylock, treasurer.

SELECTED

Selected "Man of the Year" was Guy Serio. Mrs. U. B. Evans was named "Woman of the Year."

"Teacher of the Year" is Charles Earl Wilson.

High school seniors elected by popularity and scholastic achievement were: Ferriday, Tony Patterson; Vidalia, Charles Embry; Monterey, Johnnie Sturgeon.

In the 4-H Cub contests, checks were presented by the Chamber of Commerce to the following.

Corn: Joe Paul, Burley Lawrence, Sammy Blunschi; sheep showmanship; Francis Storey, Barry Maxwell, Susan Broussard and Sammy Blunschi.

Rally Hears Address By Sen. Rainach

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

State Sen. William Rainach said Friday night he would back a supplemental pay bill for policemen if elected governor of Louisiana in the Dec. 5 Democratic primary.

Rainach, addressing a rally in Alexandria, said he had voted for the measure in the Legislature and added:

"The public may not realize it but our police officers spend a lot of time enforcing strictly state laws and spend a lot of time testifying in court on state cases. Therefore, the state should be willing to supplement their salaries."

State comptroller William Dodd said in a New Orleans speech that he had more experience in the practical operation of state government than any of the other 10 candidates.

"My proved record of past achievement," he said, "is a reasonable indication that I will carry out my platform."

Former Gov. James A. Noe, speaking at Chalmette, accused Mayor deLesseps Morrison of New Orleans of having taken credit for the industry which has located in St. Bernard Parish.

"But this is nothing new for the Orleans Parish mayor," Noe added. "He's toured this state seven times over and taken credit for every asset this state ever had."

Morrison told a rally in Alexandria he and his ticket would make the "greatest, most concentrated single day campaign stumping tour in modern Louisiana political history" on Saturday.

Morrison outlined a schedule for Saturday of seven cities, including Minden, Ruston, West Monroe, Bastrop, Rayville, Winnsboro and Ferriday.

FALL ROSE-PLANTING

NEWARK, N.Y. (UPI)—Roses planted in the fall will appear from 10 days to two weeks sooner than spring-planted bushes, according to experts of the Jackson & Perkins Co.

A dormant plant put in the ground in the fall will have the early winter to establish its root system and thus gets an earlier and stronger start in the spring, they explained.

Colorful Yule Trimmings In Monroe Area

Christmas decorations are being placed on DeSiard Street in downtown Monroe — and for the first time, the streets branching off DeSiard will be "Decked With Holly" — in the form of shiny red, gold and green ornaments.

Jim Williams, secretary-manager of the Monroe Chamber of Commerce, said yesterday that the city is putting up $8,900 worth of new docorations.

GOAL

"We hope to have it all up by Thanksgiving," he added.

Last year's decoration theme was silver and green. Williams said that "you can figure a 30 per cent depreciation" on decorations each year, but that some Yuletide ornaments from 1958 are being used now.

"It took a complete freight car" to bring in new decorations, he pointed out.

He said that Monroe is decorating on a volume equal to Jackson, Mississippi (population 100,-000).

Streets branching off the major business section of DeSiard will have a blend of new and old decorations, for "a half block, at least," the Chamber official said.

Christmas trees, scroll emblems and decorations crossing DeSiard are among the new items.

Baby Dies In Plunge From House

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (UPI)—How do you tell a pretty young mother she threw her baby to its death from the upper floor of a burning apartment house?

Mrs. Margie Sweeten, 19, and her husband, Carl, were trying desperately to save their two children early Friday from flames that had already killed one man, L. A. Gray, 48, an oil field worker.

Most of the residents of the 32-apartment, white frame building had fled in their night clothes. They stood watching as Sweeten dropped his two-year-old son into the arms of a fireman.

Then Mrs. Sweeten appeared at the second-story window. Her flimsy nightgown was burning. She tried to throw the baby, wrapped in a blanket, after her older son.

But she stumbled. The infant, three-months-old Carl Jr., plunged to the ground and landed head-first on a concrete sidewalk. Mrs. Sweeten fell through the window too, and landed on her back. She screamed once—and woke up in the hospital.

"She was getting ready to toss the baby down," said fire marshal Ben Vanpelt. "They fell at the same time. The baby hit the sidewalk, and she hit the ground . . .hard."

Firemen put up a ladder for Sweeten. He climbed down to safety. It was his job to tell his wife in the hospital their baby was dead.

Some of the spectators at the fire thought Mrs. Sweeten had thrown down a doll.

It fell at the feet of Charles Harmon, 17, one of two persons who noticed the fire and spread the alarm, banging on doors to awaken slumbering residents.

"She tried to toss the baby out of the window," Harmon said. "But she kinda tripped or stumbled, and it didn't go the way she wanted. I thought it was a doll at first. I didn't know it was a baby.

The hospital said Mrs. Sweeten, burned and bruised from her fall, was in satisfactory condition.

Dean's List

CROSSETT, Ark. (Special) — Richard Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Jones of Crossett, was named on the Dean's List at Georgia Institute of Technology for the fall semester. A grade point average of three of a possible four is necessary for this honor.

Waiters

RUSTON (Special) — One-hundred Ruston High School boys will serve as waiters to serve at the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet here Nov. 27. U. S. Senator John S. McClellan of Arkansas will be the speaker at the affair.

The boys, all volunteers, will work in groups of 20 with one serving as captain to see that each guest has prompt service.

Is Secretary

CROSSETT, Ark. (Special)— Joan Watzek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter F. Watzek of Crossett, was elected secretary of Der Deutsche Verein, the German Club at Rollins College, Winter Park, Fla. Joan, a sophomore and a Kappa Alpha Theta, is a graduate of Hockaday School in Dallas, Tex., where she was in the Math Club and president of the Typing Club.

Yule Lights

RUSTON (Special) — The department of Lights and Water here has announced that the street lighting program for Christmas is underway and should be completed within a few days. Officials predicted that the work would be completed before Dec. 4, the date for the annual lighting program.

FOR COLLER COOLERS

FORT WORTH, Tex. (UPI) — County Judge Marvin Simpson wants an air-conditioned addition built to the Tarrant County jail, but not to make the prisoners more comfortable.

He points out that the windows could be omitted from an air-conditioned, jail making it harder for prisoners to escape.

LEGAL TITLE

LONDON (UPI) — On London's Fetter Lane, hard by the Law Courts, there stands a proud new building named, in foot-high letters, "Oyez House."

DR. FRED J. VOGEL

Vogel Urges Fullest Use Of Potential

"We cannot afford to waste brain power," Dr. Fred J. Vogel dean of Northeast State's Student Services, told The Morehouse Parish Education Association in session at Bastrop High School.

Northeast is interested in capitalizing to the maximum degree the potential ability of all students at the college, the speaker said. Development of close relationship between the institution and the high school is the best means of accomplishing this, he told the group.

The main objective of American schools, the dean pointed out, is to make good citizens of students. With increased competition between the United States and Russia comes an increase in the use of brain power, the speaker said. This calls for greater articulation between the college and high school.

Articulation (sometimes called bridging the gap or orientation) calls for three responsibilities: sharing information, screening and studying results. The sharing factor is based on a reciprocal trade agreement between the high school and college, Vogel explained. Screening is essential to determine the student's abilities and interests so that he may be directed in areas where he will utilize these abilities to greatest advantage, he said.

Following the collection of information about the student and directing him into the best channel, college advisers should confer with high school personnel. The result may be a re-shaping of ideas at high school and college levels, Vogel said.

The speaker emphasized the gaining realization on the part of educators throughout the United States that colleges are receiving better prepared students who are more interested in learning than has been true in the past.

Rise of ability levels has been measured by tests in various colleges, Vogel said. More serious attitudes toward studies have been noted in institutions of higher learning. These schools must capitalize on ability or potential of students, he declared. "Achieving this calls for close relationship between the college and high school."

Area Man Posts Bond In Death Case At Jena

JENA (Special) — Released last night under $2,500 bond was Pat Johnson of Olla, who was being held here on a manslaughter charge in the fatal shooting of Sheppard Warren Haynes, 56, of Tullos, at Haynes' cafe Thursday night.

The shooting was apparently the result of a dispute over a knife, investigating officers said.

A coroner's jury, held Friday morning at 11 a.m. to determine the cause of death, returned a verdict of manslaughter. The LaSalle Parish coroner said that death was due to gunshot wounds in the right of the groin, the abdomen and the left of the groin.

Haynes is survived by his widow, Willene Haynes of Olla; one son, Michael Haynes of Olla; three daughters, Elizabeth Ann Haynes, Peggy Jean Haynes and Helen Faye Haynes, all of Olla; two brothers, Walter Haynes and Dave Haynes, both of Jena; four sisters, Mrs. Lillie Mays and Mrs. Thelma Tanner, both of Olla, Mrs. Mildred Young of Jena and Mrs. Loride Lasayone of New Iberia.

IN 'REVIEW'

Mrs. Voelker Is 'Lady Of Month'

LAKE PROVIDENCE (Special) —Virginia Wilson Voelker, a native of West Virginia, came a long way to be recognized as the Louisiana Municipal Review's "Lady of the Month."

But the wife of Lake Providence City Attorney Frank Voelker carries that distinction in the current issue of the Review.

The Review feature article on Mrs. Voelker protrays her as a civic leader and a woman of many hobbies, "none of which would interfere with the children and family life."

It points out that she was planning a career as an actress when she met her husband. Today she puts her theatrical training to work in directing many of the high school plays in Lake Providence.

She is also active in the Mothers Club. Parent Teacher Association and the local cancer society. She is also active in scouting work and finds political activities "very interesting," the Review noted.

C Of C Names New Slate For Ferriday

FERRIDAY (Special) — The Ferriday Chamber of Commerce held their annual election of officers at the "Awards Night" banquet here this week. Claude Nelson will serve ase president during 1960.

The banquet was held in the Ferriday High School cafeteria. Principal speaker for the affair was Howard P. McCollum.

Other officers who will serve with Nelson are Joe Joseph, vice president; Lloyd Love, secretary, and Kenneth Baylock, treasurer.

SELECTED

Selected "Man of the Year" was Guy Serio. Mrs. U. B. Evans was named "Woman of the Year."

"Teacher of the Year" is Charles Earl Wilson.

High school seniors elected by popularity and scholastic achievement were: Ferriday, Tony Patterson; Vidalia, Charles Embry; Monterey, Johnnie Sturgeon.

In the 4-H Cub contests, checks were presented by the Chamber of Commerce to the following.

Corn: Joe Paul, Burley Lawrence, Sammy Blunschi; sheep showmanship; Francis Storey, Barry Maxwell, Susan Broussard and Sammy Blunschi.

Rally Hears Address By Sen. Rainach

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

State Sen. William Rainach said Friday night he would back a supplemental pay bill for policemen if elected governor of Louisiana in the Dec. 5 Democratic primary.

Rainach, addressing a rally in Alexandria, said he had voted for the measure in the Legislature and added:

"The public may not realize it but our police officers spend a lot of time enforcing strictly state laws and spend a lot of time testifying in court on state cases. Therefore, the state should be willing to supplement their salaries."

State comptroller William Dodd said in a New Orleans speech that he had more experience in the practical operation of state government than any of the other 10 candidates.

"My proved record of past achievement," he said, "is a reasonable indication that I will carry out my platform."

Former Gov. James A. Noe, speaking at Chalmette, accused Mayor deLesseps Morrison of New Orleans of having taken credit for the industry which has located in St. Bernard Parish.

"But this is nothing new for the Orleans Parish mayor," Noe added. "He's toured this state seven times over and taken credit for every asset this state ever had."

Morrison told a rally in Alexandria he and his ticket would make the "greatest, most concentrated single day campaign stumping tour in modern Louisiana political history" on Saturday.

Morrison outlined a schedule for Saturday of seven cities, including Minden, Ruston, West Monroe, Bastrop, Rayville, Winnsboro and Ferriday.

FALL ROSE-PLANTING

NEWARK, N.Y. (UPI)—Roses planted in the fall will appear from 10 days to two weeks sooner than spring-planted bushes, according to experts of the Jackson & Perkins Co.

A dormant plant put in the ground in the fall will have the early winter to establish its root system and thus gets an earlier and stronger start in the spring, they explained.

Colorful Yule Trimmings In Monroe Area

Christmas decorations are being placed on DeSiard Street in downtown Monroe — and for the first time, the streets branching off DeSiard will be "Decked With Holly" — in the form of shiny red, gold and green ornaments.

Jim Williams, secretary-manager of the Monroe Chamber of Commerce, said yesterday that the city is putting up $8,900 worth of new docorations.

GOAL

"We hope to have it all up by Thanksgiving," he added.

Last year's decoration theme was silver and green. Williams said that "you can figure a 30 per cent depreciation" on decorations each year, but that some Yuletide ornaments from 1958 are being used now.

"It took a complete freight car" to bring in new decorations, he pointed out.

He said that Monroe is decorating on a volume equal to Jackson, Mississippi (population 100,000).

Streets branching off the major business section of DeSiard will have a blend of new and old decorations, for "a half block, at least," the Chamber official said.

Christmas trees, scroll emblems and decorations crossing DeSiard are among the new items.

Baby Dies In Plunge From House

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (UPI)— How do you tell a pretty young mother she threw her baby to its death from the upper floor of a burning apartment house?

Mrs. Margie Sweeten, 19, and her husband, Carl, were trying desperately to save their two children early Friday from flames that had already killed one man, L. A. Gray, 48, an oil field worker.

Most of the residents of the 32-apartment, white frame building had fled in their night clothes. They stood watching as Sweeten dropped his two-year-old son into the arms of a fireman.

Then Mrs. Sweeten appeared at the second-story window. Her flimsy nightgown was burning. She tried to throw the baby, wrapped in a blanket, after her older son.

But she stumbled. The infant, three-months-old Carl Jr., plunged to the ground and landed head-first on a concrete sidewalk. Mrs. Sweeten fell through the window too, and landed on her back. She screamed once—and woke up in the hospital.

"She was getting ready to toss the baby down," said fire marshal Ben Vanpelt. "They fell at the same time. The baby hit the sidewalk, and she hit the ground . . hard."

Firemen put up a ladder for Sweeten. He climbed down to safety. It was his job to tell his wife in the hospital their baby was dead.

Some of the spectators at the fire thought Mrs. Sweeten had thrown down a doll.

It fell at the feet of Charles Harmon, 17, one of two persons who noticed the fire and spread the alarm, banging on doors to awaken slumbering residents.

"She tried to toss the baby out of the window," Harmon said. "But she kinda tripped or stumbled, and it didn't go the way she wanted. I thought it was a doll at first. I didn't know it was a baby.

The hospital said Mrs. Sweeten, burned and bruised from her fall, was in satisfactory condition.

"More and more men are wearing Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes. I know." She does. Indubitably. You yourself must be aware how many men suddenly have a new look about them. Slim. Youthful. Cosmopolitan. And so naturally so. This is the worldly new look of Hart Schaffner & Marx. It, too, labels the clothes that more men prefer and purchase than any other.

Red Premier Gives China Look At U.S.

TOKYO (AP) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev has given Communist China's top brass a rare glimpse of life in America today.

The Moscow-edited color documentary of Khrushchev's 13-day American tour was shown in Peiping this week.

The new Soviet ambassador, Stepan Chervonenko, presented the film to an upper-crust Communist audience which included Marshal Chu Teh, the country's No. 3 man and an assortment of national assemblymen, judges, foreign ministry officials and members of the Chinese-Soviet Friendship Assn.

Chinese leader Mao Tze-tung and President Liu Shao-chi were not present.

China's masses — the workers and peasants—probably never will see the film. To them, under the teachings of propaganda, the United States is on the verge of depression, its workers voiceless and oppressed.

The men who rule China know little of American thinking and motivations.

Mao, the son of a Hunan peasant, has yet to visit a non-Communist country. Liu Shao-chi went to Moscow as a youth but has no intimate knowledge of the West.

Chu Teh knows the Germany of post-World War I, where he was a student. He toured the Soviet Union, East Germany, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, and Poland in 1956, with another swing through the satellites this year.

Most widely traveled of Peiping's leaders is Premier Chou En-lai, who studied in France as a youth. As foreign minister he went to Geneva in 1954 for the Indochina armistice conference and toured some of the non-Communist countries of Asia in 1957.

Information on life in the United States, once freely available in China, has dried up since the Communist conquest. Neither country recognizes the other, and there are no cultural exchanges between thm.

Communist Chinese cannot go to the United States and the ordinary American is legally barred from visiting the mainland.

Meneghini Says He Still Wants His Wife Back

SIRMIONE, Italy (UPI) — Giovanni Battista Meneghini paced the floor of his lonely villa Friday and said he still wants Maria Callas back. But she can have a divorce if she wishes.

"A divorce is exactly what I had expected her to obtain in order to regain her full freedom," the Italian businessman said. "I will raise no objection."

But he admitted he was not yet fully convinced she had walked out of his life forever.

New York-born Miss Callas was reported to be planning to take up residence in Nevada to sever their marriage. The two obtained a legal separation by mutual consent from an Italian court in Brescia last Saturday.

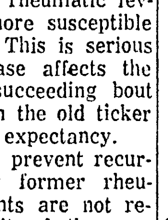
Meneghini, gray-haired but looking younger than his 64 years, made it clear he was a lonely man without the singer he married 10 years ago when she was unknown and named Maria Anna Cecilia Sofia Calogeropulos.

Meneghini sold the business that had made him a millionaire and devoted himself to making his wife a star. Friday he recalled the past decade with Miss Callas as "the best years of my life."

"What I had never expected did take place, and here I am—living in a villa which I bought only for her. It is an empty villa now, but it is full of memories."

How To Keep Well

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen



To the limit of space questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is enclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

RHEUMATIC FEVER PROPHYLAXIS

When John develops measles, he is rewarded with an everlasting immunity to the disease. But should he develop rheumatic fever, he becomes more susceptible to future attacks. This is serious because the disease affects the heart and each succeeding bout leaves its mark on the old ticker and reduces life expectancy.

We know how to prevent recurrences but many former rheumatic fever patients are not receiving the benefit of the program. It is a simple method in which the individual takes a penicillin tablet once or twice a day or a shot of penicillin once each month. A sulfonamide or another antibiotic may be substituted for penicillin.

What could be easier and why does it fail? Human frailty is the answer. Someone must be responsible for seeing that the medicine is taken regularly. Since most rheumatic fever patients are children, it becomes the responsibility of the parents. Here is the bottle neck, according to Dr. Banjamin B. Berman of Granite City, Ill.

He made a comparative study on a group of children who were on several of these prophylactic programs. There was a marked reduction in the recurrence rate of rheumatic fever among youngsters who received a monthly penicillin shot from the physician. This was not true of those who received the daily tablet of penicillin or one of the other antibiotics.

In some instances the parents forgot to give the tablet; others refused to follow directions because they failed to understand the necessity. Expense enters the picture for some although a daily sulfonamide or penicillin tablet is not expensive and costs less than the parents spend for cigarets or desert. Familie that cannot afford the drugs may obtain them free in most states.

The diagnosis of rheumatic fever should not be taken lightly, even though a youngster gets well quickly. A mild attack may be as serious as a marked attack because the heart is likely to be damaged in both instances. Prophylaxis is not necessary in adults because the chances of recurrences lessen with each succeeding year.

Dr. Van Dellen will anwer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.

THE KING'S EVIL

M. L. D. writes: My 7 year old has tuberculosis of the neck glands. Is this a new form of tuberculosis?

REPLY

No. Scrofula goes back to medieval times and once was known as the king's evil. The condition is not common today because we drink pasteurized milk and have eliminated tubercular cattle. The surgical treatment of this type of tuberculosis was popular years ago and many older persons have unsightly scars on the neck at the site where the infected glands were removed. The results now with isoniazid and PAS are so good, surgery is unnecessary.

ABDOMINAL PAIN

G. H. writes: How can lumbago in the abdomen be cured?

REPLY

Lumbago refers to pain in the back muscles. Abdominal pain has many origins, varying from so-called nervous stomach to appendicitis. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for leaflet on abdominal pain.

HARDENED EYE ARTERIES

D. L. writes: Can anything be done for hardening of the arteries of the eyes?

REPLY

There is no cure but it may be possible to relieve symptoms. Hardening of the retinal arteries is common but only a small percentage of persons is bothered.

WANTS BIGGER DIMPLE

J. B. writes: I have a slight dimple in my chin. Can it be made larger through plastic surgery?

REPLY

Yes, but it won't be worth it, especially when you shave. Some people are never satisfied.

Mao, the son of a Hunan peasant, has yet to visit a non-Communist country. Liu Shao-chi went to Moscow as a youth but has no intimate knowledge of the West.

Chu Teh knows the Germany of post-World War I, where he was a student. He toured the Soviet Union, East Germany, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, and Poland in 1956, with another swing through the satellites this year.

Most widely traveled of Peiping's leaders is Premier Chou En-lai, who studied in France as a youth. As foreign minister he went to Geneva in 1954 for the Indochina armistice conference and toured some of the non-Communist countries of Asia in 1957.

Information on life in the United States, once freely available in China, has dried up since the Communist conquest. Neither country recognizes the other, and there are no cultural exchanges between thm.

Communist Chinese cannot go to the United States and the ordinary American is legally barred from visiting the mainland.

How To Keep Well

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

To the limit of space questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is enclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

RHEUMATIC FEVER PROPHYLAXIS

When John develops measles, he is rewarded with an everlasting immunity to the disease. But should he develop rheumatic fever, he becomes more susceptible to future attacks. This is serious because the disease affects the heart and each succeeding bout leaves its mark on the old ticker and reduces life expectancy.

We know how to prevent recurrences but many former rheumatic fever patients are not receiving the benefit of the program. It is a simple method in which the individual takes a penicillin tablet once or twice a day or a shot of penicillin once each month. A sulfonamide or another antibiotic may be substituted for penicillin.

What could be easier and why does it fail? Human frailty is the answer. Someone must be responsible for seeing that the medicine is taken regularly. Since most rheumatic fever patients are children, it becomes the responsibility of the parents. Here is the bottle neck, according to Dr. Banjamin B. Berman of Granite City, Ill.

He made a comparative study on a group of children who were on several of these prophylactic programs. There was a marked reduction in the recurrence rate of rheumatic fever among youngsters who received a monthly penicillin shot from the physician. This was not true of those who received the daily tablet of penicillin or one of the other antibiotics.

In some instances the parents forgot to give the tablet; others refused to follow directions because they failed to understand the necessity. Expense enters the picture for some although a daily sulfonamide or penicillin tablet is not expensive and costs less than the parents spend for cigarets or desert. Familie that cannot afford the drugs may obtain them free in most states.

The diagnosis of rheumatic fever should not be taken lightly, even though a youngster gets well quickly. A mild attack may be as serious as a marked attack because the heart is likely to be damaged in both instances. Prophylaxis is not necessary in adults because the chances of recurrences lessen with each succeeding year.

Dr. Van Dellen will anwer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.

THE KING'S EVIL

M. L. D. writes: My 7 year old has tuberculosis of the neck glands. Is this a new form of tuberculosis?

REPLY

No. Scrofula goes back to medieval times and once was known as the king's evil. The condition is not common today because we drink pasteurized milk and have eliminated tubercular cattle. The surgical treatment of this type of tuberculosis was popular years ago and many older persons have unsightly scars on the neck at the site where the infected glands were removed. The results now with isoniazid and PAS are so good, surgery is unnecessary.

ABDOMINAL PAIN

G. H. writes: How can lumbago in the abdomen be cured?

REPLY

Lumbago refers to pain in the back muscles. Abdominal pain has many origins, varying from so-called nervous stomach to appendicitis. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for leaflet on abdominal pain.

HARDENED EYE ARTERIES

D. L. writes: Can anything be done for hardening of the arteries of the eyes?

REPLY

There is no cure but it may be possible to relieve symptoms. Hardening of the retinal arteries is common but only a small percentage of persons is bothered.

WANTS BIGGER DIMPLE

J. B. writes: I have a slight dimple in my chin. Can it be made larger through plastic surgery?

REPLY

Yes, but it won't be worth it, especially when you shave. Some people are never satisfied.

Hayden Says He Will Quit Hollywood

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Sterling Hayden Friday called his South Sea voyage with his four children "the best year of my life" and said he has made up his mind to abandon his Hollywood acting career.

Hayden, 43, faced with a court battle for custody of the youngsters, said he hoped to enter the ship chartering business. He said he would return to films here "only out of desperation," and didn't foresee such a course.

The tall, bronzed actor appeared in court Friday morning to fight his ex-wife's petition to turn over their four children because he made the trip to Tahiti in defiance of a court order.

Hayden returned recently to California on the "Wanderer", his 98-foot schooner. He now must also defend himself against a contempt of court charge made when he started the journey last January.

Hayden held a press conference before the scheduled hearing Friday. "People said I left because I wanted to escape," he said.

"That's not true. When I was in Hollywood it was an escape picking up a check every Thursday for doing nothing."

The actor said he has "no ax to grind with Hollywood. I came here by accident and stayed because I was lazy and I don't like myself for it."

Hayden won custody of the children a year ago. At that time, Judge Gumpert ordered him not to take the children to Tahiti on the schooner because of possible danger on such a craft.

Hayden said if he keeps the children—Christian, 11, Gretchen, 9, Thor, 10 and Matthew, 7—he will go to the San Francisco Bay area "so they can get established." Then he will try to get in the ship chartering business, he said.

Six Persons At District Court Session

Six persons charged with offenses appeared in Fourth District Court before Judge David I. Garrett. The normally long Friday docket was not held, since this is felony trial week.

A manslaughter charge against Charlie Carter, 34, Negro, was nolle prossed.

Officials explained that the case, which dates back to Oct. 15, 1956, must be removed from the court docket. Any case which stays on the docket for more than three years must be dismissed.

They said that witnesses for the original trial all left the city, and that the trial could not be held.

Carter was charged with slaying Alfred E. Colvin, Negro.

Kent Breard, court - appointed attorney for Burrell Arthur Cole, asked to be excused from the case. Cole is charged with the death of T. F. Walerk, 49, of Shreveport, on July 24, 1949. Cole, recently was declared sane, and released from a state institution where he had been held for the last 10 years.

HOLD OVER

Judge Garrett said that the request would have to be held over until next week, to give the court reporter time to check records on the case.

In other court action, two women appeared before the Judge. Jo G. Ussery, 1913 Park Ave., was fined $50 and costs for reckless driving, and Ruth Vaughn Martin, General Delivery, Chatham, was fined $25 and costs for disturbing the peace.

Slagle H. Day, Evergreen street West Monroe, drew a $50 fine for driving without a license.

James Hicks, Negro, College Point and John Rockymore, Negro, 1104 N. Seventh St., both West Monroe, were remanded for sentencing until Dec. 14.

Earlier, they pled guilty to gambling.

Fire Fighters Keep Busy In Monroe Area

The Monroe Fire Department was on the go at a fast pace yesterday as a rash of grass fires broke out over the city.

In addition the department fought a fire at Peoples Gin Co., a car fire, a trash fire and made two invstigations of fires that had already been extinguished.

A total of 17 grass fires, which the department said is the most they have encountered so far this year, were put out.

IN ROOF

The People's Gin Co., 1200 Sterlington Road, caught fire in the roof, but damages were considered minor. This marks the fifth time during the ginning season that firemen have been called to the Sterlington Road address, the department said.

A car fire at a service station at the intersection of Oliver Road and Louisville Ave., caused minor damages to a parked auto, firemen reported.

Dry dying grass coupled with cold weather may have been one reason for the rash of grass fires, the department said.

The West Monroe fire department extinguished one grass blaze and reported that one false alarm was turned in during the day.

Auto Divisions To Swing Back By Next Week

DETROIT (AP)—Automotive divisions of General Motors Corp., will swing back into parts manufacture next week.

Just how long it will take to get supply lines filled anew with steel products and assembly lines turning out automobiles, no one at GM wanted to estimate. Outside sources figured it may be another three to five weeks.

GM has had all truck and car assembly closed down and some 220,000 of its 320,000 hourly rated work force idled by a steel shortage.

Ford Motor Co., which makes half its own steel, went back on a five-day week at all plants this week, and automotive news reported today that Ford will build Falcons, Lincolns and Thunderbirds in overtime operations Saturday.

American Motors and Studebaker-Packard, which the recently interrupted nationwide strike of steelmakers did not affect, have continued on a five-day or more week. Prestrike steel inventories have carried them through.

The situation continued to worsen at Chrysler Corp.

Chrysler laid off 2,650 workers this week, bringing its idled to 13,230. A spokesman said there undoubtedly will be further curtailment next week.

Work weeks of three and four days have prevailed over the last couple of weeks at most Chrysler plants across the country.

Both GM's Buick and Chevrolet divisions announced today they were recalling parts-makers next week. A scattering of workers was recalled this week in some basic plants, such as the Ternstedt division which makes trim.

Chevrolet transmission at Saginaw, Mich., called for 982 to report Monday, and Chevrolet's Flint, Mich., manufacturing plant called back 1,097 out of its normal force of 8,162.

Buick, also at Flint, said it would recall 1,300 next week at its foundry, with 400 maintenance men reporting Monday and 900 production workers Tuesday. Because of the Thanksgiving holiday, however, the foundry will operate only three days.

City Court

MONROE

A charge of theft brought a fine of $75 or 75 days yesterday in Monroe City Court against Wallace Strong.

Other cases heard by Judge W. M. Harper included a reckless driving charge against Alberta Flennory, who forfeited $25 bond. Also forfeiting bond on reckless driving charges were Aaron Robinson, $35, and Robert E. Yelverton, $25.

Forfeiting bond on speeding charges were Earnest Coleman, $12.50; Robert Gavioli, $15; Jamie Wilhite, $10; Mary Russell, $5.

Fined $10 or 10 days was Daniel Burkhalter.

Auto Official Denies Desoto Will Drop Line

DETROIT (AP) — A high-ranking Chrysler official issued another denial Friday that the corporation has any idea of dropping its Desoto car line.

Such reports and denials, have cropped up in the auto industry frequently the past several years. They were being heard again following Ford's sudden stop on building Edsels.

Byron Nichols, Chrysler's vice president for sales, said Friday "There are no plans to drop the Desoto automobile. Sales of 1960 model Desoto have been exceptional. Our order condition for Desotos is excellent. Our future plans for Desoto are in line with normal requirements for all lines of our cars."

Rites Friday For Victim Of Shooting

BERNICE (Special) — Funeral services were held Friday for Mrs. Faye Ellis, 22, of Thibodaux, who died Thursday as a result of gunshot wounds. Mrs. Ellis was accidentally shot by her five-year-old son.

Mrs. Ellis was in Bernice visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Thompson. Reportedly, she entered the room where the boy was playing with a loaded pistol. The gun accidentally discharged. shooting her three times

Funeral services were held at the Hebron Baptist Church with the Rev. Kenneth Nutt officiating, assisted by the Rev. M. F. Copeland. Interment was in the church cemetery under the direction of Kilpatrick's Funeral Home of Farmerville.

Survivors, other than her parents, include her husband, Billy Ray Ellis, Thibodaux; two sons, Stephen Wayne and Michael Ray Ellis, both of Thibodaux; two brothers, Carl V. Thompson Jr., and Ronald Thompson, both of Bernice.

Weather War Possibility Is Discussed

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—The possibility of a war of weather was described by a University of Colorado scientist to a Senate committee Friday.

He said it can't happen now and he doesn't know whether it ever will, but he added, if it comes, "We can't afford to be last."

In such a war, said Dr. Walter Orr Roberts, directors of the university's high-altitude observatory, each side would try to send droughts and flood-causing storms to disrupt its enemy.

GREATEST

Sen. Robert S. Kerr (D-Okla), chairman of the Select Committee on Water Resources, asked; "If this develops, then we will face probably the greatest potential explosive action that we have yet had to face, is that right?"

"Yes, sir, I agree," said Roberts.

He said publications indicate the Soviet Union is engaged in studies of weather control of a continental scale. In some aspects, he said, they appear to be ahead of this country.

Explaining how such a weather war might develop, he said only a small mount of energy appears to be necessary to start a storm system.

Police Jurors Slate Meeting In Ouachita

The Ouachita Parish Police Jury will meet in special session at a cost of $505.20 to the taxpayers at 7 p.m. Monday in the parish Courthouse, to adopt the General Fund and Road Maintenance budget.

The meet was announced by a notice posted amongst garnishee and court notices on a third floor bulletin board in the Courthouse.

The Police Jury office is on the second floor.

M. W. Montgomery, president of the Police Jury, explained last night that the meeting must be held prior to the next regular Jury meeting on Dec. 9.

He said that the budget must be advertised in the newspaper once each week for four weeks prior to Jan. 1, 1960 and that the Dec. 9 meeting would make it too late to begin running the advertisement.

Each meeting costs $505.20 in salaries for Jurymen.

QUERIED

When queried as to why the notices, dated Nov. 19, had not been placed on the door of the Police Jury room, Montgomery said, "It looks bad on the door."

Meeting notices have been placed on the door in the past. However, a special meeting in October received no advance notice, and news media were not in attendance.

Attorney General Jack P. F. Gremillion ruled on May 31, 1957, that "legible notices shall be posted on a bulletin board or at a prominent place at the domicile" of the Police Jury for special meetings.

When first sighted yesterday, the notice was partially hidden by reams of other notices. A reporter placed it in a more prominent position on the bulletin board.

Charges Lodges In Driving Case

The Monroe Police Department said yesterday that five charges have been lodged against a Ouachita Parish man as the result of a chase through Monroe and on the Fink's Hide-a-way Road early Friday morning.

Bond for Billy C. Flowers, 31, of Fink's Hide-A-Way Road set at $1,000 police said.

Flowers was taken into custody, officials said, for operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquors, reckless driving, speeding, using profane language and resisting arrest.

Police said Flowers was observed traveling at a high rate of speed through Sixth Street at the DeSiard-Five Points intersection.

During a chase out DeSiard Street, speeds of 90-miles-an-hour were recorded and on the Sterlington Road, the speeds were noted at between 90 and 100, officers said.

Officers said the man did not stop or slow up for two red lights at the Sterlington - Louisville - DeSiard Road intersection.

Fire Fighters Keep Busy In Monroe Area

The Monroe Fire Department was on the go at a fast pace yesterday as a rash of grass fires broke out over the city.

In addition the department fought a fire at Peoples Gin Co., a car fire, a trash fire and made two invstigations of fires that had already been extinguished.

A total of 17 grass fires, which the department said is the most they have encountered so far this year, were put out.

IN ROOF

The People's Gin Co., 1200 Sterlington Road, caught fire in the roof, but damages were considered minor. This marks the fifth time during the ginning season that firemen have been called to the Sterlington Road address, the department said.

A car fire at a service station at the intersection of Oliver Road and Louisville Ave., caused minor damages to a parked auto, firemen reported.

Dry dying grass coupled with cold weather may have been one reason for the rash of grass fires, the department said.

The West Monroe fire department extinguished one grass blaze and reported that one false alarm was turned in during the day.

Auto Divisions To Swing Back By Next Week

DETROIT (AP)—Automotive divisions of General Motors Corp., will swing back into parts manufacture next week.

Just how long it will take to get supply lines filled anew with steel products and assembly lines turning out automobiles, no one at GM wanted to estimate. Outside sources figured it may be another three to five weeks.

GM has had all truck and car assembly closed down and some 220,000 of its 320,000 hourly rated work force idled by a steel shortage.

Ford Motor Co., which makes half its own steel, went back on a five-day week at all plants this week, and automotive news reported today that Ford will build Falcons, Lincolns and Thunderbirds in overtime operations Saturday.

American Motors and Studebaker-Packard, which the recently interrupted nationwide strike of steelmakers did not affect, have continued on a five-day or more week. Prestrike steel inventories have carried them through.

The situation continued to worsen at Chrysler Corp.

Chrysler laid off 2,650 workers this week, bringing its idled to 13,230. A spokesman said there undoubtedly will be further curtailment next week.

Work weeks of three and four days have prevailed over the last couple of weeks at most Chrysler plants across the country.

Both GM's Buick and Chevrolet divisions announced today they were recalling parts-makers next week. A scattering of workers was recalled this week in some basic plants, such as the Ternstedt division which makes trim.

Chevrolet transmission at Saginaw, Mich., called for 982 to report Monday, and Chevrolet's Flint, Mich., manufacturing plant called back 1,097 out of its normal force of 8,162.

Buick, also at Flint, said it would recall 1,300 next week at its foundry, with 400 maintenance men reporting Monday and 900 production workers Tuesday. Because of the Thanksgiving holiday, however, the foundry will operate only three days.

Six Persons At District Court Session

Six persons charged with offenses appeared in Fourth District Court before Judge David I. Garrett. The normally long Friday docket was not held, since this is felony trial week.

A manslaughter charge against Charlie Carter, 34, Negro, was nolle prossed.

Officials explained that the case, which dates back to Oct. 15, 1956, must be removed from the court docket. Any case which stays on the docket for more than three years must be dismissed.

They said that witnesses for the original trial all left the city, and that the trial could not be held.

Carter was charged with slaying Alfred E. Colvin, Negro.

Kent Breard, court - appointed attorney for Burrell Arthur Cole, asked to be excused from the case. Cole is charged with the death of T. F. Walerk, 49, of Shreveport, on July 24, 1949. Cole, recently was declared sane, and released from a state institution where he had been held for the last 10 years.

HOLD OVER

Judge Garrett said that the request would have to be held over until next week, to give the court reporter time to check records on the case.

In other court action, two women appeared before the Judge. Jo G. Ussery, 1913 Park Ave., was fined $50 and costs for reckless driving, and Ruth Vaughn Martin, General Delivery, Chatham, was fined $25 and costs for disturbing the peace.

Slagle H. Day, Evergreen street West Monroe, drew a $50 fine for driving without a license.

James Hicks, Negro, College Point and John Rockymore, Negro, 1104 N. Seventh St., both West Monroe, were remanded for sentencing until Dec. 14.

Earlier, they pled guilty to gambling.

Neville Races To 35-0 Rout Over Outclassed Ouachita

By BOB ANDERSON
World Sports Editor

Triggered by Neal Gunn's 47-yard touchdown burst in the first three minutes, Neville's white-jersied legions buried outclassed Ouachita, 35-0, Friday night in Neville Stadium to hand the Lions their worst defeat in the history of their cross - town rivalry.

Led by three flashy charges, Gunn, oJe Cage and Devone Payne, unbeaten Neville riddled Ouachita's defensives for 398 yards rushing, 228 in an awesome first half display, as Bill Ruple's Tigers easily picked up their ninth straight victory of the season and headed for class AA playoff competition.

Neville will play Minden of district 1-AA next week in a bi-district playoff at an undetermined site. Minden blanked Springhill, 12-0, at Minden last night to win the conference title.

Neville scored twice in the first period, Gunn going 47 yards and Payne three for touchdowns, and once each in the second, third and fourth periods.

Cage picked up the TD in the second period on a one-yard plunge, quarterback Joe Turner went 10 yards around end for the third period TD and then threw 21 yards to reserve end Sperry Brown for the final six-pointer.

Besides his touchdown, Cage kicked all five extra points to run his scoring total to 94 points for the season, second best in district 2-AA.

The score was the biggest run up in the 11-game series between the two schools. Neville has now won 10 of the games to Ouachita's one.

Cage and Gunn ran for over 100 yards each and Payne almost reached the three-figure mark. Cage picked up 122 yards in 17 carries for a 7.2 average. Gunn had the best average, running for 115 yards in 10 carries. Payne got 96 yards in 15 trips.

Ouachita, taking only its third defeat against six losses and a tie, gave it a try but couldn't do anything against Neville's brilliant line play led by tackle Mickey Cox, guard Robert Turner and center Lucian Branch, picking up a bare two yards rushing the whole game.

Bob Ellen's Lions went to the air for most of their yardage with quarterback Bobby Hendrix throwing 17 times for nine completions and 129 yards. Hendrix hit Bobby Shipp, not expected to play, with most of his passes.

Ouachita had five players who were supposed to miss the game or see limited duty including Shipp. All, however, showed up and were used extensively.

End Ervin Bates, an all-state candidate, continued his sterling play, leading Ouachita's defensive efforts and punting brilliantly. booting five for a 40.0-yard average.

Neville, promised a Dec. 22 holiday by superintendent Van Odom if it wins the state AA championship, drove 65, 78, 93, 61 and 61 yards for its touchdowns.

Gunn started it off with his TD run only 2:40 into the first period. Just before the first period ended, Payne drove off left tackle for the second touchdown. In the second period, Cage scored his TD on a one-yard plunge on fourth down.

Turner went wide behind fine blocking 10 yards in the third for a TD and then hit Brown on the sidelines at the two for the final TD.

A 24-yard jaunt by Cage and a 22-yard pickup by Payne helped set up Turner's touchdown. Gunn reeled off a 46-yard run in the fourth period to help Neville drive to the Ouachita seven where Cage fumbled to end the march.

Ouachita's only serious threat went as far as the Neville 12 in the second period. A 38-yard pass from Hendrix to Bates powered the drive. The march ended when R. F. Wilson intercepted a Hendrix toss on second down at the seven.

In the fading minutes of the final period, Ouachita drove from its 20 to the Neville 29 on the passing of Hendrix before time ran out.

STUDIES AND TEACHES

DURHAM, N. H. (AP) — Joe Lapchick Jr., who played end for three varsity seasons at West Point, is back in school studying for his Masters degree at the niversity of New Hampshire. He also teaches in high school. His father, Joe Sr., is coaching the St. John's University Basketball team in Brooklyn.

Curci Paces Miami Past MSU 18-13

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Tiny Fran Curci Friday night led a fired-up Miami, Fla. football team to an 18-13 victory over Michigan State. The triumph strengthened the 152-pound quarterback's All-America hopes and put the Hurricanes within one victory of an Orange Bowl invitation.

Miami now can take the Orange Bowl berth with a win next week in its closing game with Florida. Michigan State's Rose Bowl hopes were not affected by the loss.

The Spa tans can win the Big Ten title only if Northwestern and Wisconsin lose or tie in games Saturday.

A crowd of 40,870 braved rain showers to see the fabulous little Curci guide the Hurricanes to their smashing upset. He entertained them beautifully by calling an exciting mixture of runs, passes and pitchouts.

On Curci's passes and smashing runs by Jim Vollenweider, Frank Bouffard and Bob Rosbaugh, Miami surged to an 18-6 lead in the third period, then held off a furious comeback by the Spartans in the final quarter.

TROUBLED

D'Amato On Bail After Surrender

NEW YORK (AP) — Troubled Cus D'Amato Friday surrendered to state authorities and immediately was charged with violating the general business law for failing to respond to a subpoena. A warrant had been issued for his arrest.

The crew-cut, 51-year-old manager of former world heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson was released in $2,500 bail for trial in Special Sessions Court Dec. 14.

Shortly after this action, the state athletic commission announced it would render a decision Monday at 11 a.m., EST, on its inquiry into alleged irregularities in the promotion of the Patterson-Ingemar Johansson heavyweight title fight at Yankee Stadium last June 26.

The commission has made five charges against D'Amato, and three against Bill Rosensohn, promoter of the fight. The commission had suspended both and revoked the license of Rosensohn Enterprises, Inc., the firm which handled the contest.

A warrant for D'Amato's arrest was issued Wednesday after he failed to answer a subpoena to appear before State Attorney General Louis J. Lefkowitz. The attorney general's office is investigating whether the state's antimonopoly law was violated in the handling of the radio, television and movie rights of the June 26 bout.

D'Amato surrendered by arrangement in the office of his attory, Edwin Schweig. Shortly after he was booked on a charge of violating the general business law for failing to answer the subpoena.

Later a grand jury returned an information charging misdemeanor violation on the charge.

Special Sessions Justice Joseph J. Loscalzo set the bail at $2,500 although Assistant Attorney General Irving Galt urged bail of $10,000.

Galt called D'Amato's actions "A wilful, deliberate evasion of the mandate of a subpoena. There has been a history of difficulties in securing the appearance of this man."

Julius November, another one of D'Amato's attorneys, protested. He called his client "a reputable businessman, not a criminal . . . and he will appear when wanted. It's ridiculous making a fanfare out of this."

Later, D'Amato told reporters he had been in Newtown, Conn., where Patterson has a training camp, since Wednesday.

WINNSBORO-FERRIDAY

WINNSBORO, La. (Special) — The Winnsboro Wildcats and Ferriday Bulldogs battled to a 13-13 tie here last night as the Wildcats staged a 65-yard touchdown march in the last quarter to overcome a 13-7 Ferriday lead.

Runs of 21 and 23 yards by Winnsboro's Allen Parks put the ball on the Ferriday one in the second quarter, and J. D. Busby rammed over for the first TD. Quarterback Joe Henry passed to end Hines Davis for the point. but Ferriday came right back to tie up the game at 7-7. Quarterback Billy Clifton set up the score with a 55-yard run to the Winnsboro five, but the 'Cats held for downs.

Then Ferriday tackle Larry Dickerson surged in to block a Danny Magee punt in the end zone and camp on the ball for the touchdown. Halfback Freddy Marks ran for the tying point.

Ferriday took the lead in the third quarter after tackle James Poole recovered a Winnsboro fumble on his 49. Halfback Dennis Jones romped off 37 yards, and a few seconds later he went over from the five.

Parks climaxed Winnsboro's last period drive for the tie with a plunge from the one.

Winnsboro piled up 13 first downs, rushed for 194 yards and completed two of three passes for 15. Ferriday, with eight firsts, rushed for 159 and completed two of four passes for seven yards.

WINNFIELD, 19-7

FARMERVILLE, La. (Special) — The Winnfield Tigers wrapped up the district 1-A flag by dropping the Farmerville Farmers, 19-7, here last night.

The Winnfield crew scored once in the second quarter and twice in the fourth period.

Farmerville's Joe Albritton racked up a touchdown and a PAT in the fourth period for the home team's only score.

Albritton had put the crowd on its toes with the opening kickoff as he took the ball on his 25 and rambled in the clear to the Tiger 30 where he stumbled and fell.

As the first half ended Winnfield fullback Gerald Bryant capped a 62-yard drive with a 3-yard touchdown plunge. Quarterback Mike Tinnerrello shot a jump pass to Tommy Wyatt for the extra point.

In the fourth period Tiger tackle Wayne McFarland blocked an Albritton quick kic' on the Farmer 15 and Tiger halfback Jimmy Bolton ran over from the 5. He failed on the PAT run.

Again in the fourth quarter Tiger halfback James Collins rambled around his own right end for a 16-yard touchdown. A quarterback sneak by Tinnerello for the point failed.

Near the end of the game Albritton went off right tackle for 11 yards to score and tore off right guard for the point.

The Tiger coaches and principal will meet at the Hotel Frances in Monroe Saturday morning with the winning coaches of district 2-A to discuss playoff plans.

WATERPROOF, 25-6

NEWELLTON, La. (Special) — Winless Newellton went down in defeat for the tenth time this season when the Waterproof Tigers rapped the Bears, 25-6, here Friday night. It was the final game of the season for both clubs and gave Waterproof an 8-1-2 record for the season.

Benny Lopoo took a 16-yard pass from Bobby Wallace for the opening Tiger touchdown. Quarterback Larry Moss plunged over from the two, giving the visitors a 12-0 edge at the half. Halfback Earl Guin went over from the two in the fourth period, and Wallace followed with a 34-yard TD jaunt. Earl Guin added the point behind the Wallace score.

Halfback Johnny Robinson scored from the 16 for Newellton's only TD late in the game.

BASTROP TAGS J-H

BASTROP, La. (Special) — Scoring in every quarter, the Bastrop Rams hobbled the Jonesboro - Hodge Tigers, 40-26, here last night.

Jerry Hollis romped for three Bastrop touchdowns, getting loose in the first quarter on a spectacular 85 - yard gallop to paydirt, going 30 yards on another dash, and counting his third on a 15-yard sprint.

Other Bastrop scores came when guard Leon Martin scooped up a fumble and scampered 40 yards for a TD; Gary White counted on an end run from the five; Charles Magee raced 75 yards with a kickoff return; and Charles Burks added four extra points.

Bobby Gene Jones counted two J-H touchdowns, the first when he skirted end 15 yards and the next on a 20-yard jaunt. Gerald Ayres took a double reverse 35 yards for a TD, and a pass from Reggie Holland to Jim McKeithen counted the final J-H touchdown. Holland and Ayres each ran for one extra point for the Tigers.

Jonesboro-Hodge led Bastrop in first downs, 11 to 10.

NATCHEZ, 40-0

NATCHEZ, Miss. (AP)—Quarterback Perry Lee Dunn scored three touchdowns and passed for two Friday night in leading Natchez to a 40-0 victory over Jackson Central to close out an undefeated Big Eight campaign.

Dunn passed 47-yards to end Mike Morgan for a first period tally and accounted for a third touchdown with a 55-yard heave to Walter Beasley in the second quarter.

In the third period he scored on runs of 10 and 3 yards and in the fourth on a 1-yard smash. His runs capped drives of 63, 42, and 99 yards.

The second Natchez tally was by fullback Billy Tew on a 6-yard plunge. Tew added the four conversions.

The victory was the ninth for the top-ranked Rebels against one tie.

The No. 1 team in The Associated Press poll must wait to see whether it wins the South Division. Natchez and second-ranked Laurel, the team which spoiled the prefect Natchez record, are tied for the lead and Laurel has one more divisional game.

A Laurel victory over Hattiesburg next week would give the title to Laurel.

TERREBONNE, 26-12

HOUMA, La. (AP) — Larry de la Biretonne opened the scoring for Terrebonne with a 71-yard touchdown return in the first period to spark a 26-12 victory over Catholic of Baton Rouge.

Douglas Maier added two more for Terrebonne on runs of 26 and 2 yards while a 42-yard pass play from John Cooper to Larry Hutchison accounted for the other. Earl Hicks got one of two conversions.

Nolan Keller ran from two out and Chuck Kleinpeter scored from the one for Catholic.

MINDEN, 12-0

MINDEN, La. (Special) —Fullback Bobby Ashley powered for 205 yards as once - beaten Minden blanked Springhill, 12-0, here last night to win the district 1-AA championship.

Minden will play 2-AA titlist Neville next week at an undeterminded site in a bi-district playoff.

Quarterback Edwin Greer sneaked over from the one in the second quarter for Minden's first touchdown and Ashley followed with a five - yard trip around end for a TD in the final period.

The 175-yard Ashley ran 80 yards to the five - yard line in the first period but Springhill, the district's defending champion, held.

Minden lost the first game of the season to Ruston, 28-12, and then won nine straight. Springhill's record is 6-3-1.

BLOCK-SICILY ISLAND

SICILY ISLAND, La. (Special) —The Block Bears gathered steam in the second half to defeat the Sicily Island Tigers, 33-13, here Friday night in a district 3-B game that did not affect the standings.

Jerry Hinton went eight yards around end to hand Sicily Island the lead, and in the second quarter he scampered 30 yards through the line for another TD. Charles Miller passed to Joe Wells for the point - after.

But Block came roaring back with two second period TDs to grab a narrow 14-13 edge at the half. Pat Egloff scored from inside the one, and Billy Brooks tallied from the 20, both runs followed by Billy Edwards' successful kicks for the points.

A 30-yard penalty — 15 for roughness plus 15 more when the coach asked about the penalty —put the Islanders in a hole again and the ball on their four in the third period. Egloff ran it the rest of the way. Edwards kicked the point again.

In the fourth period Egloff counted from the one, and Brooks passed to Jerry Book for 15 and the final Block TD.

Block had a 15-10 edge in first downs.

The Islanders played with two first stringers, end Mike Haley and halfback Johnny Young, because of earlier injuries.

NORTH CADDO, 27-6

JENA, La. (Special) — Bowl-bound North Caddo turned back Jena, 27-6, here last night in a warmup for its Thanksgiving Day date with Ouachita of Monroe in the Jonesboro Paper Bowl.

North Caddo scored in the first period on an 11-yard pass from quarterback Larry McCord to end J. T. Johnson and picked up another TD in the quarter on halfback Frank Clements 25-yard run. McCord added the PTA.

McCord threw for another touchdown in the second, hitting fullback Marion Powell for 30 yards. The quarterback again made the extra point.

North Caddo closed out its scoring in the third when halfback Kenny Tidwell picked up a fumble and ran 49 yards into the end zone.McCord added the final PAT.

Jena scored in the fourth on a 17-yard throw from quarterback Gerald Ganey to halfback Leland Brown.

North Caddo had 10 first downs to Jena's 9.

Court Declines To Permit Use Of Novel Name

NEW YORK (AP)—A State Supreme Court justice Friday declined to permit a boys' team to be incorporated as "the New York Braves Baseball Club."

The incorporation was sought by six businessmen on behalf of Bronx boys, who range in age from 13 to 20.

"Why, of all the names, did they have to hit upon a combination of 'New York' and 'Braves' "? Justice Samuel H. Hofstadter asked in his opinion.

"If the courts are so assiduous in protecting a name in business how much more solicitous they must be in sports—especially with regard to the great American game of baseball—to protect the image built up in the public mind.

"With the continuous turnover in personnel, the flux in home territory, a team's sobriquet is its chief claim to identity. It should be guarded."

TO WIN 3-B CROWN

Wisner Tumbles Crowville, 18-0

CROWVILLE, La. (Special) — Wisner blanked Crowville, 18-0, here last night in a battle of district leaders to win the 3-B football championship.

The victory was eight without defeat for Wisner's powerful club. Only a 0-0 tie with non-district Mangham mars the Wisner record. Wisner's district record is 7-0.

Crowville took its fourth defeat against six losses. Crowville was unbeaten in district play going into the game and its 3-B mark fell to 4-1 with the defeat.

Jerry Ensminger caught a pass for 20 yards as Wisner tallied its first touchdown in the second period.

Halfback Ken Thornhill scored both touchdowns as Wisner put the game on ice with two six-pointers in the third period. Thornhill went seven yards for his first TD and 15 for the second.

Wisner is tentatively scheduled to meet the district 1-B champion in a bi-district playoff next. Haughton and Cotton Valley are tied for the 1-B title and are scheduled to meet in a playoff Thanksgiving Day in Minden.

Chicago Mills Area Open To Deer Hunters

FERRIDAY, La. (Special) — The Chicgao Mills Game Management Area located in Tensas Parish approximately 10 miles west of Newellton, Louisiana will be open to deer hunting during the first 10 days of December. The period December 1-3 will be for any deer while the period December 4-10 will be for ducks only.

The hunts will be for still hunting only. No dogs or horses will be allowed on the area.

Each hunter will be required to have in his possession a permit which he must acquire daily at a checking station on the area prior to his hunting effort. Hunters will surrender their hunting licenses upon receiving their permits and must reclaim the license upon completion of the daily hunt by turning in the permit. While hunting on the management area, the daily permits will serve as hunting licenses. All other state laws will be enforced.

Permit stations will open at 5:00 a.m. and close at 5:00 p.m. and will be located as follows:

Station No. 1 - Located at Cooter Point Landing.

Station No. 2 -Tensas River Bridge on La. Hwy. 4 and 128.

Station No. 3 - La. Hwy. 888, 1½ miles south of Tensas Bluff where parish road leaves La. Hwy. 888 to Jordan Ferry.

Hunters are reminded that the Chicago Mills Refuge is closed to all types of hunting. The refuge is located for the most part in Madison Parish, however, a small portion of the refuge is located in Texas (north and east of Big Lake and Fool River). This portion of Tensas Parish is in the Chicago Mills Refuge and will be closed to hunting.

Due to inaccessibility to the area it is suggested that hunters bring a small boat and motor to aid in getting to the area.

Pettit Leads Hawks To Win

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Bob Pettit's 15-foot jump shot with 38 seconds remaining Friday night gave the St.Louis Hawks a 118-117 victory over Philadelphia in a National Basketall Assn. thriller.

Pettit also led the Hawks in scoring with 28 points and along with teammate Clyde Lovellette helped hold Warrior star Wilt Chamberlain to only 24 points, his lowest output of the year. The 7-1 Chamberlain has been averaging 37.1 points per game.

Paul Arizin put on a one-man show in bringing the Warriors from a 22-point deficit in the first half to a 74-73 lead midway through the third period. He ended up with 44 points, a career high.

Neville Races To 35-0 Rout Over Outclassed Ouachita

By BOB ANDERSON
World Sports Editor

Triggered by Neal Gunn's 47-yard touchdown burst in the first three minutes, Neville's white-jersied legions buried outclassed Ouachita, 35-0, Friday night in Neville Stadium to hand the Lions their worst defeat in the history of their cross - town rivalry.

Led by three flashy charges, Gunn, oJe Cage and Devone Payne, unbeaten Neville riddled Ouachita's defensives for 398 yards rushing, 228 in an awesome first half display, as Bill Ruple's Tigers easily picked up their ninth straight victory of the season and headed for class AA playoff competition.

Neville will play Minden of district 1-AA next week in a bi-district playoff at an undetermined site. Minden blanked Springhill, 12-0, at Minden last night to win the conference title.

Neville scored twice in the first period, Gunn going 47 yards and Payne three for touchdowns, and once each in the second, third and fourth periods.

Cage picked up the TD in the second period on a one-yard plunge, quarterback Joe Turner went 10 yards around end for the third period TD and then threw 21 yards to reserve end Sperry Brown for the final six-pointer.

Besides his touchdown, Cage kicked all five extra points to run his scoring total to 94 points for the season, second best in district 2-AA.

The score was the biggest run up in the 11-game series between the two schools. Neville has now won 10 of the games to Ouachita's one.

Cage and Gunn ran for over 100 yards each and Payne almost reached the three-figure mark. Cage picked up 122 yards in 17 carries for a 7.2 average. Gunn had the best average, running for 115 yards in 10 carries. Payne got 96 yards in 15 trips.

Ouachita, taking only its third defeat against six losses and a tie, gave it a try but couldn't do anything against Neville's brilliant line play led by tackle Mickey Cox, guard Robert Turner and center Lucian Branch, picking up a bare two yards rushing the whole game.

Bob Ellen's Lions went to the air for most of their yardage with quarterback Bobby Hendrix throwing 17 times for nine completions and 129 yards. Hendrix hit Bobby Shipp, not expected to play, with most of his passes.

Ouachita had five players who were supposed to miss the game or see limited duty including Shipp. All, however, showed up and were used extensively.

End Ervin Bates, an all-state candidate, continued his sterling play, leading Ouachita's defensive efforts and punting brilliantly, booting five for a 40.0-yard average.

Neville, promised a Dec. 22 holiday by superintendent Van Odom if it wins the state AA championship, drove 65, 78, 93, 61 and 61 yards for its touchdowns.

Gunn started it off with his TD run only 2:40 into the first period. Just before the first period ended, Payne drove off left tackle for the second touchdown. In the second period, Cage scored his TD on a one-yard plunge on fourth down.

Turner went wide behind fine blocking 10 yards in the third for a TD and then hit Brown on the sidelines at the two for the final TD.

A 24-yard jaunt by Cage and a 22-yard pickup by Payne helped set up Turner's touchdown. Gunn reeled off a 46-yard run in the fourth period to help Neville drive to the Ouachita seven where Cage fumbled to end the march.

Ouachita's only serious threat went as far as the Neville 12 in the second period. A 38-yard pass from Hendrix to Bates powered the drive. The march ended when R. F. Wilson intercepted a Hendrix toss on second down at the seven.

In the fading minutes of the final period, Ouachita drove from its 20 to the Neville 29 on the passing of Hendrix before time ran out.

STUDIES AND TEACHES

DURHAM, N. H. (AP) — Joe Lapchick Jr., who played end for three varsity seasons at West Point, is back in school studying for his Masters degree at the niversity of New Hampshire. He also teaches in high school. His father, Joe Sr., is coaching the St. John's University Basketball team in Brooklyn.

Curci Paces Miami Past MSU 18-13

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Tiny Fran Curci Friday night led a fired-up Miami, Fla. football team to an 18-13 victory over Michigan State. The triumph strengthened the 152-pound quarterback's All-America hopes and put the Hurricanes within one victory of an Orange Bowl invitation.

Miami now can take the Orange Bowl berth with a win next week in its closing game with Florida. Michigan State's Rose Bowl hopes were not affected by the loss.

The Spa tans can win the Big Ten title only if Northwestern and Wisconsin lose or tie in games Saturday.

A crowd of 40,870 braved rain showers to see the fabulous little Curci guide the Hurricanes to their smashing upset. He entertained them beautifully by calling an exciting mixture of runs, passes and pitchouts.

On Curci's passes and smashing runs by Jim Vollenweider, Frank Bouffard and Bob Rosbaugh, Miami surged to an 18-6 lead in the third period, then held off a furious comeback by the Spartans in the final quarter.

TO WIN 3-B CROWN

Wisner Tumbles Crowville, 18-0

CROWVILLE, La. (Special) — Wisner blanked Crowville, 18-0, here last night in a battle of district leaders to win the 3-B football championship.

The victory was eight without defeat for Wisner's powerful club. Only a 0-0 tie with non-district Mangham mars the Wisner record. Wisner's district record is 7-0.

Crowville took its fourth defeat against six losses. Crowville was unbeaten in district play going into the game and its 3-B mark fell to 4-1 with the defeat.

Jerry Ensminger caught a pass for 20 yards as Wisner tallied its first touchdown in the second period.

Halfback Ken Thornhill scored both touchdowns as Wisner put the game on ice with two six-pointers in the third period. Thornhill went seven yards for his first TD and 15 for the second.

Wisner is tentatively scheduled to meet the district 1-B champion in a bi-district playoff next. Haughton and Cotton Valley are tied for the 1-B title and are scheduled to meet in a playoff Thanksgiving Day in Minden.

TROUBLED

D'Amato On Bail After Surrender

NEW YORK (AP) — Troubled Cus D'Amato Friday surrendered to state authorities and immediately was charged with violating the general business law for failing to respond to a subpoena. A warrant had been issued for his arrest.

The crew-cut, 51-year-old manager of former world heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson was released in $2,500 bail for trial in Special Sessions Court Dec. 14.

Shortly after this action, the state athletic commission announced it would render a decision Monday at 11 a.m., EST, on its inquiry into alleged irregularities in the promotion of the Patterson-Ingemar Johansson heavyweight title fight at Yankee Stadium last June 26.

The commission has made five charges against D'Amato, and three against Bill Rosensohn, promoter of the fight. The commission had suspended both and revoked the license of Rosensohn Enterprises, Inc., the firm which handled the contest.

A warrant for D'Amato's arrest was issued Wednesday after he failed to answer a subpoena to appear before State Attorney General Louis J. Lefkowitz. The attorney general's office is investigating whether the state's antimonopoly law was violated in the handling of the radio, television and movie rights of the June 26 bout.

D'Amato surrendered by arrangement in the office of his attorney, Edwin Schweig. Shortly after he was booked on a charge of violating the general business law for failing to answer the subpoena.

Later a grand jury returned an information charging misdemeanor or violation on the charge.

Special Sessions Justice Joseph J. Loscalzo set the bail at $2,500 although Assistant Attorney General Irving Galt urged bail of $10,000.

Galt called D'Amato's actions "A wilful, deliberate evasion of the mandate of a subpoena. There has been a history of difficulties in securing the appearance of this man."

Julius November, another one of D'Amato's attorneys, protested. He called his client "a reputable businessman, not a criminal . . . and he will appear when wanted. It's ridiculous making a fanfare out of this."

Later, D'Amato told reporters he had been in Newtown, Conn., where Patterson has a training camp, since Wednesday.

WINNSBORO-FERRIDAY

WINNSBORO, La. (Special) — The Winnsboro Wildcats and Ferriday Bulldogs battled to a 13-13 tie here last night as the Wildcats staged a 65-yard touchdown march in the last quarter to overcome a 13-7 Ferriday lead.

Runs of 21 and 23 yards by Winnsboro's Allen Parks put the ball on the Ferriday one in the second quarter, and J. D. Busby rammed over for the first TD. Quarterback Joe Henry passed to end Hines Davis for the point, but Ferriday came right back to tie up the game at 7-7. Quarterback Billy Clifton set up the score with a 55-yard run to the Winnsboro five, but the 'Cats held for downs.

Then Ferriday tackle Larry Dickerson surged in to block a Danny Magee punt in the end zone and camp on the ball for the touchdown. Halfback Freddy Marks ran for the tying point.

Ferriday took the lead in the third quarter after tackle James Poole recovered a Winnsboro fumble on his 49. Halfback Dennis Jones romped off 37 yards, and a few seconds later he went over from the five.

Parks climaxed Winnsboro's last period drive for the tie with a plunge from the one.

Winnsboro piled up 13 first downs, rushed for 194 yards and completed two of three passes for 15. Ferriday, with eight firsts, rushed for 159 and completed two of four passes for seven yards.

WINNFIELD, 19-7

FARMERVILLE, La. (Special) — The Winnfield Tigers wrapped up the district 1-A flag by dropping the Farmerville Farmers, 19-7, here last night.

The Winnfield crew scored once in the second quarter and twice in the fourth period.

Farmerville's Joe Albritton racked up a touchdown and a PAT in the fourth period for the home team's only score.

Albritton had put the crowd on its toes with the opening kickoff as he took the ball on his 25 and rambled in the clear to the Tiger 30 where he stumbled and fell.

As the first half ended Winnfield fullback Gerald Bryant capped a 62-yard drive with a 3-yard touchdown plunge. Quarterback Mike Tinnerello shot a jump pass to Tommy Wyatt for the extra point.

In the fourth period Tiger tackle Wayne McFarland blocked an Albritton quick kic' on the Farmer 15 and Tiger halfback Jimmy Bolton ran over from the 5. He failed on the PAT run.

Again in the fourth quarter Tiger halfback James Collins ran a kickoff back to his own eight and for a 15-yard touchdown. A quarterback sneak by Tinnerello for the point failed.

Near the end of the game Albritton went off right tackle for 11 yards to score and tore off right guard for the point.

The Tiger coaches and principal will meet at the Hotel Frances in Monroe Saturday morning with the winning coaches of district 2-A to discuss playoff plans.

WATERPROOF, 25-6

NEWELLTON, La. (Special) — Winless Newellton went down in defeat for the tenth time this season when the Waterproof Tigers rapped the Bears, 25-6, here Friday night. It was the final game of the season for both clubs and gave Waterproof an 8-1-2 record for the season.

Benny Lopoo took a 16-yard pass from Bobby Wallace for the opening Tiger touchdown. Quarterback Larry Moss plunged over from the two, giving the visitors a 12-0 edge at the half. Halfback Earl Guin went over from the two in the fourth period, and Wallace followed with a 34-yard TD jaunt. Earl Guin added the point behind the Wallace score.

Halfback Johnny Robinson scored from the 16 for Newellton's only TD late in the game.

BASTROP TAGS J-H

BASTROP, La. (Special) — Scoring in every quarter, the Bastrop Rams hobbled the Jonesboro - Hodge Tigers, 40-26, here last night.

Jerry Hollis romped for three Bastrop touchdowns, getting loose in the first quarter on a spectacular 85 - yard gallop to paydirt, going 30 yards on another dash, and counting his third on a 15-yard sprint.

Other Bastrop scores came when guard Leon Martin scooped up a fumble and scampered 40 yards for a TD; Gary White counted on an end run from the five; Charles Magee raced 75 yards for a TD, and a pass from Reggie Holland to Jim McKeithen counted the final J-H touchdown. Holland and Ayres each ran for one extra point for the Tigers.

Jonesboro-Hodge led Bastrop in first downs, 11 to 10.

NATCHEZ, 40-0

NATCHEZ, Miss. (AP)—Quarterback Perry Lee Dunn scored three touchdowns and passed for two Friday night in leading Natchez to a 40-0 victory over Jackson Central to close out an undefeated Big Eight campaign.

Dunn passed 47-yards to end Mike Morgan for a first period tally and accounted for a third touchdown with a 55-yeard heave to Walter Beasley in the second quarter.

In the third period he scored on runs of 10 and 3 yards and in the fourth on a 1-yard smash. His runs capped drives of 63, 42, and 99 yards.

The second Natchez tally was by fullback Billy Tew on a 6-yard plunge. Tew added the four conversions.

The victory was the ninth for the top-ranked Rebels against one tie.

The No. 1 team in The Associated Press poll must wait to see whether it wins the South Division. Natchez and second-ranked Laurel, the team which spoiled the prefect Natchez record, are tied for the lead and Laurel has one more divisional game.

A Laurel victory over Hattiesburg next week would give the title to Laurel.

TERREBONNE, 26-12

HOUMA, La. (AP) — Larry de la Birtonne opened the scoring for Terrebonne with a 71-yard touchdown return in the first period to sparck a 26-12 victory over Catholic of Baton Rouge.

Douglas Maier added two more for Terrebonne on runs of 26 and 2 yards while a 42-yard pass play from John Cooper to Larry Hutchison accounted for the other. Earl Hicks got one of two conversions.

Nolan Keller ran from two out and Chuck Kleinpeter scored from the one for Catholic.

MINDEN, 12-0

MINDEN, La. (Special) —Fullback Bobby Ashley powered for 205 yards as once - beaten Minden blanked Springhill, 12-0, here last night to win the district 1-AA championship.

Minden will play 2-AA titlist Neville next week at an undetermined site in a bi-district playoff.

Quarterback Edwin Greer sneaked over from the one in the second quarter for Minden's first touchdown and Ashley followed with a five - yard trip around end for a TD in the final period.

The 175-yard Ashley ran 80 yards to the five - yard line in the first period but Springhill, the district's defending champion, held.

Minden lost the first game of the season to Ruston, 28-12, and then won nine straight. Springhill's record is 6-3-1.

BLOCK-SICILY ISLAND

SICILY ISLAND, La. (Special) —The Block Bears gathered steam in the second half to defeat the Sicily Island Tigers, 33-13, here Friday night in a district 3-B game that did not affect the standings.

Jerry Hinton went eight yards around end to hand Sicily Island the lead, and in the second quarter he scampered 30 yards through the line for another TD. Charles Miller passed to Joe Wells for the point - after.

But Block came roaring back with two second period TDs to grab a narrow 14-13 edge at the half. Pat Egloff scored from inside the one, and Billy Brooks tallied from the 20, both runs followed by Billy Edwards' successful kicks for the points.

A 30-yard penalty — 15 for roughness plus 15 more when the coach asked about the penalty—put the Islanders in a hole again and the ball on their four in the third period. Egloff ran it the rest of the way. Edwards kicked the point again.

In the fourth period Egloff counted from the one, and Brooks passed to Jerry Book for 15 and the final Block TD.

Block had a 15-10 edge in first downs.

The Islanders played with two first stringers, end Mike Haley and halfback Johnny Young, because of earlier injuries.

NORTH CADDO, 27-6

JENA, La. (Special) — Bowl-bound North Caddo turned back Jena, 27-6, here last night in a warmup for its Thanksgiving Day date with Ouachita of Monroe in the Jonesboro Paper Bowl.

North Caddo scored in the first period on an 11-yard pass from quarterback Larry McCord to end J. T. Johnson and picked up another TD in the quarter on halfback Frank Clements 25-yard run. McCord added the PTA.

McCord threw for another touchdown in the second, hitting fullback Marion Powell for 30 yards. The quarterback again made the extra point.

North Caddo closed out its scoring in the third when halfback Kenny Tidwell picked up a fumble and ran 49 yards into the end zone.McCord added the final PAT.

Jena scored in the fourth on a 17-yard throw from quarterback Gerald Ganey to halfback Leland Brown.

North Caddo had 10 first downs to Jena's 9.

Court Declines To Permit Use Of Novel Name

NEW YORK (AP)—A State Supreme Court justice Friday declined to permit a boys' team to be incorporated as "the New York Braves Baseball Club."

The incorporation was sought by six businessmen on behalf of Bronx boys, who range in age from 13 to 20.

"Why, of all the names, did they have to hit upon a combination of 'New York' and 'Braves' "? Justice Samuel H. Hofstadter asked in his opinion.

"If the courts are so assiduous in protecting a name in business how much more solicitous they must be in sports—especially with regard to the great American game of baseball—to protect the image built up in the public mind.

"With the continuous turnover in personnel, the flux in home territory, a team's sobriquet is its chief claim to identity. It should be guarded."

Chicago Mills Area Open To Deer Hunters

FERRIDAY, La. (Special) — The Chicago Mills Game Management Area located in Tensas Parish approximately 10 miles west of Newellton, Louisiana will be open to deer hunting during the first 10 days of December. The period December 1-3 will be for any deer while the period December 4-10 will be for ducks only.

The hunts will be for still hunting only. No dogs or horses will be allowed on the area.

Each hunter will be required to have in his possession a permit which he must acquire daily at a checking station on the area prior to his hunting effort. Hunters will surrender their hunting licenses upon receiving their permits and must reclaim the license upon completion of the daily hunt by turning in the permit. While hunting on the management area, the daily permits will serve as hunting licenses. All other state laws will be enforced.

Permit stations will open at 5:00 a.m. and close at 5:00 p.m. and will be located as follows: Station No. 1 - Located at Cotton Point Landing.

Station No. 2 - Tensas River Bridge on La. Hwy. 4 and 128.

Station No. 3 - La. Hwy. 888, 1½ miles south of Tensas Bluff where parish road leaves La. Hwy. 888 to Jordan Ferry.

Hunters are reminded that the Chicago Mills Refuge is closed to all types of hunting. The refuge is located for the most part in Madison Parish, however, a small portion of the refuge is located in Texas (north and east of Big Lake and Fool River). This portion of Tensas Parish is in the Chicago Mills Refuge and will be closed to hunting.

Due to inaccessibility to the area it is suggested that hunters bring a small boat and motor to aid in getting to the area.

Pettit Leads Hawks To Win

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Bob Pettit's 15-foot jump shot with 38 seconds remaining Friday night gave the St.Louis Hawks a 118-117 victory over Philadelphia in a National Basketball Assn. thriller.

Pettit also led the Hawks in scoring with 28 points and along with teammate Clyde Lovellette helped hold Warrior star Wilt Chamberlain to only 24 points, his lowest output of the year. The 7-1 Chamberlain has been averaging 37.1 points per game.

Paul Arizin put on a one-man show in bringing the Warriors from a 22-point deficit in the first half to a 74-73 lead midway through the third period. He ended up with 44 points, a career high.

Old Rivals Clash At Baton Rouge, Ruston

LSU Heavy Favorite To Beat Tulane

BATON ROUGE (AP)—Third - ranked Louisiana State, with backfield troubles, meets fired-up Tulane at 2 p.m. Saturday as the rival schools end their football seasons.

All America Billy Cannon and 18 of his teammates will be playing their final regular - season game for the LSU Tigers.

Two of the finishing seniors—quarterback Warren Rabb and Durel Matherne — may see little action.

Rabb has a knee sprain. Matherne, although he may start, received an ankle sprain in a freak fall on the campus and has seen little action since Wednesday.

Alternate fullback Merle Schexnaildre also is out with an injury.

The only experienced quarterback remaining on the LSU team is Daryl Jenkins, who has been working with the LSU starting unit. Elton Upshaw has worked with the attack specialist Go team.

Still the Tigers, winner 62-0 over Tulane last year, are favored by three to five touchdowns.

The Tigers have won eight and lost one while Tulane's Greenies have won three, lost five and tied one.

In a series dating back to 1893, LSU has won 31, lost 18 and tied seven games with the New Orleans school.

The Green Wave is sparked by stalwarts Phil Nugent, Tom Mason, Terry Terrybonne, Steve Cornet and Pete Abadie.

Both teams operate from the wing-T formation.

The weather is expected to be mild for the sellout game with temperatures about 70 degrees.

Bowl-Bound Porkers Play Texas Tech

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Bowl-bound Arkansas meets dangerous Texas Tech Saturday in a game that now means only prestige for the Razorbacks.

Arkansas already has been named as one of the two teams competing in the Jan. 2 Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla., if the Hogs do not play in the Cotton Bowl. Texas A&M would have to knock off Texas on Thanksgiving Day to put Arkansas in the Cotton Classic.

Both teams will get only partial service from a star back. Quarterback Ken Talkington of Tech is injured and Glen Amerson will start in his place. All-Southwest Conference halfback Jim Mooty of Arkansas is still recovering from an injury and Billy Kyser will start for him. Arkansas is a two-touchdown favorite.

Toweel Defeats Len Matthews

NEW YORK (AP)—Willie Toweel, of Johanneburg, South Africa, a master boxer fighting for survival after two knockdowns in the eighth round, won a split decision over Philadelphia's Len Matthews Friday night in a rousing 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden.

Toweel weighed 139¼ pounds, Matthews 136½.

DISTRICT 'B' TITLE

Delhi Trounces Tallulah, 25-6

DELHI, La. (Special) — The Delhi Bears thumped the Tallulah Trojans, 25 to 6, here last night to end the Trojans' reign as state and district Class A champions. The victory enabled Coach Raymond Richards' unbeaten Black Bears to cinch the district 2-A championship and head for the state title playoffs, meeting Winnfield's 1-A champs next Friday night in Winnfield.

A crowd of over 3,000 fans saw Delhi's Ken Newton put on a one- man offensive show in ending Tallulah's title hopes.

Newton piled up four touchdowns and an extra point to account for all Delhi scoring, while Tallulah got its lone touchdown in the third quarter on a screen pass from Tommy Neumann to Wayne Noland, the play covering 60 yards.

Newton scored first on a 30-yard run in the second quarter and plunged for the point. He set up his next with a 46 yard run to the Tallulah four but needed three plays before going over from the one.

A 97-yard run with the kickoff opening the second half was Newton's big dash of the night, and he capped his night's performance with a 35-yard TD run with two minutes and 30 seconds left in the game.

Tallulah led in first downs, 9 to 8.

BATTLE OF BALTIMORE

49ers Meet Colts In NFL Feature

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It will be the battle of Baltimore Sunday when the champion Colts meet the San Francisco 49ers for first place in the National Football League's Western Conference.

In the Eastern Conference, two key games will keep New York Giants' and Cleveland Browns' supporters on edge. The Browns, tied for first place with New York (each 6-2), entertain the Pittsburgh Steelers in Cleveland. New York meets the Chicago Cardinals in Minneapolis.

San Francisco tops the West with a 6-2 mark, while Baltimore is 5-3, so a Colt victory is virtually a must. That would throw the Western Division into a tie, and mean another showdown when Baltimore plays the 49ers at San Francisco Dec. 5.

Neither the Colts, who beat New York in their sudden death overtime playoff last year, nor the Giants are as terrifying this season. Especially the Colts, who are hurting defensively.

In 12 regular league games in 1958 Baltimore rolled up 381 points, an average of 31.8 that led the league. They gave up 203 points, an average of 16.9 a game —second best to the Giants.

This year in eight games Baltimore has tallied 215 points, an average of 26.9, while the Colt defense has allowed 176 points for an average of 22.

New York's rock-ribbed defense is still there, but the offense has suffered with the loss of two quarterbacks, Charley Conerly and George Shaw. The Giants permitted only 183 points in 12 games last year, an average of 15.3. They've allowed 119 points so far in eight games, the average being 14.9.

In eight games, New York has scored 137 points, averaging 17.1, compared with 246 and an average of 20.5 in the 1958 season.

Johnny Unitas, Baltimore's star passer, must keep connecting, while his defensive mates stop the power running 49er backs, Joe Perry and J. D. Smith. Baltimore is a 7-point favorite.

Conerly, out with a sprained ankle, will be able to play at least in spots for the Giants. After winning five straight, they lost to Pittsburgh last Sunday. Cleveland, flying on a five-game winning string, is a 9-point favorite over Pittsburgh (3-4). The Giants are 5½ points choices over the Cardinals (2-6).

The Philadelphia Eagles in the Eastern Conference, and the Chicago Bears in the west, also are watching the leaders. Both are in third place.

The Bears (4-4) are a 5-point choice over the Lions (2-5) at Detroit. The Eagles (5-3) are favored by 3½ over the Los Angeles Rams (2-6) at Philadelphia.

In the other game, Washington (3-5) plays the Packers (3-5) at Green Bay, with the home club a 5-point favorite.

Tribe Faces Tech's GSC Titleholders

A powerful Gulf States Conference champion and a lowly last - place team tangle tonight in Ruston, but tradition indicates the season record books may as well be tossed out the window for this rivalry - steeped encounter.

That will be the setting when Louisiana Tech, 10th ranked small college team in the nation, and Northeast, a victor only twice this campaign, clash in their annual season finale at Tech Stadium at 8 p.m.

Since the two teams began their annual fracas in 1953 after Northeast became a senior college, the Bulldogs from Ruston have won six of seven meetings, losing only in 1956, 7-0. Last year Tech knocked the Indians from atop the GSC heap with a 46-21 runaway victory in the final game of the season and grabbed a share of the title with Northwestern.

Always a small college power, the Techsters inaugurated the series with a 61-6 rout, followed with a 51-6 triumph and added a 34-14 decision before the Redskins broke the win column in 1956. In 1957 Tech took a narrow 15-6 verdict.

Injuries to key players could be a big factor in the outcome of the battle. Lime burns from yardline markers put six Techsters in the hospital early in the week and that old injury bug may keep several Indians on the sidelines.

Bulldog coach Joe Aillet reported late yesterday that three regulars would not start tonight's game and would probably be held to limited action. Included in the list is stellar halfback J. W. Slack, GSC leaing scorer and a candidate for little All-American honor.

End Jerry Hudson and tackle Bobby Hudson are also suffering from burns and have been placed on the doubtful list by Aillet.

"Slack, Bobby Hudson and Jerry Hudson will see some action, but we don't know how much," Aillet commented.

To offset the manpower loss Aillet has moved Jack Howard (170) to Slack's left half post. Hershel Vinyard (205), a sophomore from Olla, will start at right tackle in place of Bobby Hudson, and Tom Causey (205), a junior from Monroe, will open at Jerry Hudson's right tackle slot.

Taylor McNeel, a junior signal caller from Pineville, is an adequate quarterback and will guide the Bulldogs' wing-T offensive. Paul Hynes, who carries a 5.5 yard rushing average, will mann the right half post and Max Rudd, recovered from a leg injury, will get the call at fullback.

The canine forward wall will be composed of ends Causey and Charley Garris, tackles Vinyard and Bobby Hinton, guards Joe Hinton and Don Tippit and center Jim Campbell.

Northeast's doubtful starters would almost fill a program. Most serious of the lot are ends Charley Barnes James Moore and Pete Covington, tackles Delmas Thorne and Ross Nolan and halfback Levy Redden.

Barnes, half of what is probably the league's best end combination, was hurt against Northwestern two weeks ago and sat out last week's contest against Jacksonville. Covington suffered several bruised ribs against the Gamecocks and will be slowed considerably. Both have had little contact work this week.

Redden, developing into one of the club's top runners until hit by injuries, has missed the last two games but may round into form by tonight.

Thorne, the team's best tackle, didn't see action last week.

Carrying the offensive load for the Indians will be quarterback Bob Randel, halfbacks Jim Laudadio and Terry Reeves and fullback Stewart "Smokey" Stover. Stover, the team's top ball carrier, also is tops in scoring with 24 points.

Randel, one of eight seniors playing their final game, is a better than average passer and Laudadio and Reeves are break away threats.

David Barnes, brother of Charlie, has been showing up well lately and will spell Stover at fullback on the Comanche unit.

If Covington and Barnes don't start at the terminals, Jerry Head and Robert Earle, both seniors, will get the nod. Billy Broom will team with Thorne at the tackles and Wally Cox and Alfred Feeney will open at the guards. Perry Beaver, a full-blooded Indian, will start at center.

In addition to Randel, Head an Earle, Laudadio, Stover, Feeney, Cox and Broom will be completing their college grid careers.

Tech, already "in" as the Gulf States champ with a 4-0 league mark, catapulted into the nation's top team with a surprising 10-8 win over highly-regarded Memphis State last Saturday. The Canines are 8-1 for the year, losing only to Lamar Tech of Beaumont.

Northeast, taking a plunge from last year's third place finish, has beaten only Arlington and Southwestern in nine outings.

Northeast mentor Jack Rowan considers the Bulldogs, and rightly so, the Tribe's toughest opponent of the season. He rates Slack and Hynes two of the finest backs anywhere and says scouting reports indicate the Bulldogs are without weaknesses in their starting unit.

The Northeast starting line, which averages 201 pounds per man, will have a slight weight advantage over the Tech forwards which weigh in at 199. The Redskin backfield will average 185 per runner against 191 for the Bulldog backs.

An added attraction for tonight's contest will be a performance by the Strategic Air Command Drill team. Composed of 24 hand-picked Air Policemen from Offutt Air Force Base, Neb., the group performs the manual of arms with fixed bayonets.

Furman Routs Davidson By 35 To 7 Count

GREENVILLE, S.C. (AP)—Furman's revamped Hurricane overpowered Davidson 35-7 in a Southern Conference game Friday, scoring three times on passes and three on the ground.

Quarterback Ben Canty, heading the first unit, threw for two touchdowns. His alternate, Billy Baker, tossed for one and set up two others with his passes.

Furman marched 81 yards the first time it got the ball, Tom Campbell scoring from the 3. Shelly Sutton kicked the first of four extra points to give the Hurricane a 7-0 lead.

Davidson's second unit carried 62 yards in the second period for its only touchdown, Tom Redding's 33-year pass to George Hart being the big play. Hart scored from the 1 and Bruce Usher kicked point.

In the third, Furman scored on drives of 74 and 71 yards, Sammy Taylor's 33-yard kickoff return setting the second one in motion.

With time running out, the Hurricane converted a short Davidson kick into its final score. Canty passed to Carm Carmindani from the 5.

It was Davidson's second-ender. The Wildcats lost eight games after beating Catawba in the opener. Furman is 3-6 over-all and 3-2 in the conference. The Baptists play Clemson in the finale next Saturday.

SIXTH VICTORY

Rebels Score 3 In Second To Smash Ruston, 28-14

By JIM CALHOUN
Staff Sports Writer

Spurred on by a skin-tight defense, West Monroe's underdog Rebels shocked powerful Ruston with three second quarter touchdowns and romped to a 28-14 victory here Friday night to hand the Bearcats their second defeat in ten games.

Coach Cecil Pirkey's Rebs, in nailing down their sixth victory against four losses and a tie, spotted the invaders a touchdown early in the first quarter after a blocked punt, then roared back with a three - touchdown barrage in the second period to put the game away.

The Bearcats, playing with an injury - hobbled Pat Shows, were held to a minus three yards rushing in the first half before finally clicking late in the game.

Shows, the state's leading scorer with 144 points and everybody's choice for all-state honors, threw two touchdown passes and hit on a total of six of nine attempts. Playing with what was diagnosed as a "tired calf muscle," Shows attempted only run from scrimmage and was dumped repeatedly while attempting to pass.

Halfback Roscoe Holcomb, recently shifted from quarterback, got the Rebs into the scoring column with a 9-yard paydirt jaunt in the second stanza. Covington, who reeled off 50 yards in 10 cracks at the maroon and white line, capped a 70-yard drive with the second Confederate tally and John Moses added the third on a one-yard plunge just before the half after Leon Miletello had set it up with a sparkling punt return.

Quarterback Ronnie Farmer passed 68 yards to end Jimmy VanZile for the final West Monroe score midway in the third quarter.

Bearcat end Jerry Hood got Ruston off to a quick start, blocking Moses' kick on the Rebel 30 in the first period. Teammate Felton Hood covered the ball on the 10 and the Rustonites sighted in on the goal. Shows passed to Jerry Hood for 7 yards, then, with two tacklers hanging on him, again threw to Hood in the end zone. Hood kicked the point to make it Ruston, 7-0.

West Monroe then initiated its first serious effort of the night, driving 55 yards in 12 plays to break into the point column. Covington ripped off a couple of ten yard gains in the drive and on the first play of the second period Holcomb circled right end for the score. Moses booted the first of four extra points.

On the following kickoff Ruston couldn't gain and sophomore guard Jewel McBroom forced the 'Cats to kick when he dropped Shows for a five-yard loss.

This time the Johnny Rebs covered 70 yards in 7 plays with Covington, Miletello and Fox ripping off big gains.

Covington, a sophomore fullback, started the march with a 14-yard burst. Miletello rambled for 16 yards and Fox added 18 on a beautiful sprint own the right sideline.

Covington notched the tally with an 8-yard dash on a pitch out from Farmer. Moses' kick made it 14-7 and the Rebs were in front to stay.

Shortly before the half Miletello took a punt by Neal McFadden on the Bearcat 45 and squirmed through a host of tacklers to the 13 where McFadden bounced him out of bounds.

Moses moved for eight yards, Covington was held for no gain and Fox got four more. On first down from the one Moses crashed over for the third Rebel marker. His kick made it 21-7.

Tojo Green sent the Rebs battering back on the Bearcat goal line when he recovered Hood's fumble on the following kickoff. Holcomb drove for six yards to the nine and Farmer carried to the five where time ran out.

McBroom and Joe Pleasant broke through to halt a Ruston penetration at the Reb 33 midway in the third stanza and the locals began to move again. Miletello lost four but Moses bucked through center for 3 to the 32.

Then Farmer rifled a shot to VanZile, who took it on his own 45 and outdistanced Allen Alexander for a 68-yard touchdown gallop. It was VanZile's fifth touchdown pass reception of the year. Moses again kicked the point for the Rebs' 28th point.

Ruston made its first threat after the kickoff, marching to the 15 where Pleasant batted down Shows' fourth down pass.

The Bearcats turned the tables midway in the final quarter, stopping a Reb drive on the two and marching 98 yards for their second score. Shows passed to Hood for gains of 14, 16, and 11 yards and climaxed it with a 22-yard touchdown heave to back Johnny Perritt. Hood kicked his 31st extra point in 34 attempts to end the scoring.

Fox was the Rebels' top ground gainer, amassing 65 yards in 12 carries. Ruston's Perritt was the game's top rusher with 76 yards gained in 12 tries.

Shows, troubled by his bum leg and a leaky forward wall, lost 13 yards in handling the ball 7 times.

West Monroe's forward wall, led by McBroom, Pleasant, Ken Wilson and Glen Bell held the explosive 'Cats to a total of 118 yards on the ground and didn't give up a first down in the initial half.

'Pokes Aim At 6th Straight Win Tonight

LAKE CHARLES, La. (Special) — McNeese State's Cowboys will be shooting for their sixth straight victory and a second place finish in the Gulf States Conference in their final football game of the season against the SLI Buldogs at Lafayette Saturday night.

McNeese will enter the game with a 6-2 overall record and a 2-2 conference mark. SLI has won three and lost five for the season and stands 1-3 in conference play.

A victory Saturday night would assure McNeese of at least a tie for second place in final GSC standings since all teams except champion Louisiana Tech have lost at least two loop clashes.

Saturday's game will get underway at 8 p.m. in McNaspy Stadium.

SLI, led by triple - threat halfback Steve Gossen, has had an in-and out season but appears to have righted itself after scoring a smashing 34-14 victory over Northwestern last Saturday. The Bulldogs looked strong in splitting their first four games of the season but went into a tail-spin and lost three in a row before wrecking the highly - touted Demons.

Northwestern defeated McNeese 19-6 in the Cowboys' season opener, McNeese has come a long way since that game, however, and has rolled up 122 points to the opposition's 35 in winning its last five. The Cowboys polished off Southeastern Louisiana 20-8 last Saturday.

Ouachita Girls In Semi-Finals Of Eros Event

EROS, La. (Special) — The Eros and Grayson boys won places in the semi-finals of the annual Eros Invitational Basketball Tournament here Friday night along with girls' teams from Columbia, Ouachita of Monroe, and Calhoun.

Today's semi-final pairings send Columbia girls against Ouachita, 11 a.m.; Calhoun girls against Choudrant, 12:15 p.m.; Eros boys vs. Chatham, 1:30; and Grayson boys against St. Mathew's of Monroe, 2:45.

Yesterday's results were:

Girls — Columbia 47, Weston 36; Ouachita 46, Quitman 28; Calhoun 50, Kelly 27.

Boys — Grayson 65, Dodson 38; Eros 50, Columbia 36.

Yesterday's scoring leaders were: Girls —Wyles, 35, Columbia; McBride, 32; Weston; Genn, 23, Ouachita; Betty Blalock, 12, Quitman; Gilliland, 19, Calhoun; Carol Lewis, 13, Kelly. Boys — May, Grayson, 21; Taylor, Dodson, 16; Curtis Bunn, 21, Eros; and Morris, 15, Columbia.

Smith's Juniors Beat Mer Rouge

STERLINGTON, La. (Special) —A. L. Smith Junior High of Sterlington beat Mer Rouge Juniors in a basketball double header yesterday evening. The Smith boys won 25-15 after the girls had triumphed 29-9.

Gerald Corbin was high scorer for the Smith boys with 10 points, and Elizabeth Booker and Charlotte Swayze led the girls with six points each. Pam Parker was high scorer for the Mer Rouge girls with four.

Old Rivals Clash At Baton Rouge, Ruston

LSU Heavy Favorite To Beat Tulane

BATON ROUGE (AP)—Third - ranked Louisiana State, with backfield troubles, meets fired-up Tulane at 2 p.m. Saturday as the rival schools end their football seasons.

All America Billy Cannon and 18 of his teammates will be playing their final regular - season game for the LSU Tigers.

Two of the finishing seniors—quarterback Warren Rabb and Durel Matherne — may see little action.

Rabb has a knee sprain. Matherne, although he may start, received an ankle sprain in a freak fall on the campus and has seen little action since Wednesday.

Alternate fullback Merle Schexnaildre also is out with an injury.

The only experienced quarterback remaining on the LSU team is Daryl Jenkins, who has been working with the LSU starting unit. Elton Upshaw has worked with the attack specialist Go team.

Still the Tigers, winner 62-0 over Tulane last year, are favored by three to five touchdowns.

The Tigers have won eight and lost one while Tulane's Greenies have won three, lost five and tied one.

In a series dating back to 1893, LSU has won 31, lost 18 and tied seven games with the New Orleans school.

The Green Wave is sparked by stalwarts Phil Nugent, Tom Mason, Terry Terrybonne, Steve Cornet and Pete Abadie.

Both teams operate from the wing-T formation.

The weather is expected to be mild for the sellout game with temperatures about 70 degrees.

Tribe Faces Tech's GSC Titleholders

A powerful Gulf States Conference champion and a lowly last - place team tangle tonight in Ruston, but tradition indicates the season record books may as well be tossed out the window for this rivalry - steeped encounter.

That will be the setting when Louisiana Tech, 10th ranked small college team in the nation, and Northeast, a victor only twice this campaign, clash in their annual season finale at Tech Stadium at 8 p.m.

DISTRICT 'B' TITLE

Delhi Trounces Tallulah, 25-6

DELHI, La. (Special) — The Delhi Bears thumped the Tallulah Trojans, 25 to 6, here last night to end the Trojans' reign as state and district Class A champions. The victory enabled Coach Raymond Richards' unbeaten Black Bears to clinch the district 2-A championship and head for the state title playoffs, meeting Winnfield's 1-A champs next Friday night in Winnfield.

A crowd of over 3,000 fans saw Delhi's Ken Newton put on a one- man offensive show in ending Tallulah's title hopes.

Newton piled up four touchdowns and an extra point to account for all Delhi scoring, while Tallulah got its lone touchdown in the third quarter on a screen pass from Tommy Neumann to Wayne Noland, the play covering 60 yards.

Newton scored first on a 30-yard run in the second quarter and plunged for the point. He set up his next with a 46 yard run to the Tallulah four but needed three plays before going over from the one.

A 97-yard run with the kickoff opening the second half was Newton's big dash of the night, and he capped his night's performance with a 35-yard TD run with two minutes and 30 seconds left in the game.

Tallulah led in first downs, 9 to 8.

Furman Routs Davidson By 35 To 7 Count

GREENVILLE, S.C. (AP)—Furman's revamped Hurricane overpowered Davidson 35-7 in a Southern Conference game Friday, scoring three times on passes and three on the ground.

Quarterback Ben Canty, heading the first unit, threw for two touchdowns. His alternate, Billy Baker, tossed for one and set up two others with his passes.

Furman marched 81 yards the first time it got the ball, Tom Campbell scoring from the 3. Shelly Sutton kicked the first of four extra points to give the Hurricane a 7-0 lead.

Davidson's second unit carried 62 yards in the second period for its only touchdown, Tom Redding's 33-year pass to George Hart being the big play. Hart scored from the 1 and Bruce Usher kicked point.

In the third, Furman scored on drives of 74 and 71 yards, Sammy Taylor's 33-yard kickoff return setting the second one in motion.

With time running out, the Hurricane converted a short Davidson kick into its final score. Canty passed to Carm Carmindani from the 5.

It was Davidson's second-ender. The Wildcats lost eight games after beating Catawba in the opener. Furman is 3-6 over-all and 3-2 in the conference. The Baptists play Clemson in the finale next Saturday.

'Pokes Aim At 6th Straight Win Tonight

LAKE CHARLES, La. (Special) — McNeese State's Cowboys will be shooting for their sixth straight victory and a second place finish in the Gulf States Conference in their final football game of the season against the SLI Buldogs at Lafayette Saturday night.

McNeese will enter the game with a 6-2 overall record and a 2-2 conference mark. SLI has won three and lost five for the season and stands 1-3 in conference play.

A victory Saturday night would assure McNeese of at least a tie for second place in final GSC standings since all teams except champion Louisiana Tech have lost at least two loop clashes.

Saturday's game will get underway at 8 p.m. in McNaspy Stadium.

SLI, led by triple - threat halfback Steve Gossen, has had an in-and out season but appears to have righted itself after scoring a smashing 34-14 victory over Northwestern last Saturday. The Bulldogs looked strong in splitting their first four games of the season but went into a tail-spin and lost three in a row before wrecking the highly - touted Demons.

Northwestern defeated McNeese 19-6 in the Cowboys' season opener, McNeese has come a long way since that game, however, and has rolled up 122 points to the opposition's 35 in winning its last five. The Cowboys polished off Southeastern Louisiana 20-8 last Saturday.

Ouachita Girls In Semi-Finals Of Eros Event

EROS, La. (Special) — The Eros and Grayson boys won places in the semi-finals of the annual Eros Invitational Basketball Tournament here Friday night along with girls' teams from Columbia, Ouachita of Monroe, and Calhoun.

Today's semi-final pairings send Columbia girls against Ouachita, 11 a.m.; Calhoun girls against Choudrant, 12:15 p.m.; Eros boys vs. Chatham, 1:30; and Grayson boys against St. Matthew's of Monroe, 2:45.

Yesterday's results were:

Girls — Columbia 47, Weston 36; Ouachita 46, Quitman 28; Calhoun 50, Kelly 27.

Boys — Grayson 65, Dodson 38; Eros 50, Columbia 36.

Yesterday's scoring leaders were: Girls —Wyles, 35, Columbia; McBride, 32; Weston; Genn, 23, Ouachita; Betty Blalock, 12, Quitman; Gilliland, 19, Calhoun; Carol Lewis, 13, Kelly. Boys — May, Grayson, 21; Taylor, Dodson, 16; Curtis Bunn, 21, Eros; and Morris, 15, Columbia.

Smith's Juniors Beat Mer Rouge

STERLINGTON, La. (Special) —A. L. Smith Junior High of Sterlington beat Mer Rouge Juniors in a basketball double header yesterday evening. The Smith boys won 25-15 after the girls had triumphed 29-9.

Gerald Corbin was high scorer for the Smith boys with 10 points, and Elizabeth Booker and Charlotte Swayze led the girls with six points each. Pam Parker was high scorer for the Mer Rouge girls with four.

Bowl-Bound Porkers Play Texas Tech

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Bowl-bound Arkansas meets dangerous Texas Tech Saturday in a game that now means only prestige for the Razorbacks.

Arkansas already has been named as one of the two teams competing in the Jan. 2 Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla., if the Hogs do not play in the Cotton Bowl. Texas A&M would have to knock off Texas on Thanksgiving Day to put Arkansas in the Cotton Classic.

Both teams will get only partial service from a star back. Quarterback Ken Talkington of Tech is injured and Glen Amerson will start in his place. All-Southwest Conference halfback Jim Mooty of Arkansas is still recovering from an injury and Billy Kyser will start for him. Arkansas is a two-touchdown favorite.

Toweel Defeats Len Matthews

NEW YORK (AP)—Willie Toweel, of Johanneburg, South Africa, a master boxer fighting for survival after two knockdowns in the eighth round, won a split decision over Philadelphia's Len Matthews Friday night in a rousing 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden.

Toweel weighed 139¼ pounds, Matthews 136½.

BATTLE OF BALTIMORE

49ers Meet Colts In NFL Feature

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It will be the battle of Baltimore Sunday when the champion Colts meet the San Francisco 49ers for first place in the National Football League's Western Conference.

In the Eastern Conference, two key games will keep New York Giants' and Cleveland Browns' supporters on edge. The Browns, tied for first place with New York (each 6-2), entertain the Pittsburgh Steelers in Cleveland. New York meets the Chicago Cardinals in Minneapolis.

San Francisco tops the West with a 6-2 mark, while Baltimore is 5-3, so a Colt victory is virtually a must. That would throw the Western Division into a tie, and mean another showdown when Baltimore plays the 49ers at San Francisco Dec. 5.

Neither the Colts, who beat New York in their sudden death overtime playoff last year, nor the Giants are as terrifying this season. Especially the Colts, who are hurting defensively.

In 12 regular league games in 1958 Baltimore rolled up 381 points, an average of 31.8 that led the league. They gave up 203 points, an average of 16.9 a game —second best to the Giants.

This year in eight games Baltimore has tallied 215 points, an average of 26.9, while the Colt defense has allowed 176 points for an average of 22.

New York's rock-ribbed defense is still there, but the offense has suffered with the loss of two quarterbacks, Charley Conerly and George Shaw. The Giants permitted only 183 points in 12 games last year, an average of 15.3. They've allowed 119 points so far in eight games, the average being 14.9.

In eight games, New York has scored 137 points, averaging 17.1, compared with 246 and an average of 20.5 in the 1958 season.

Johnny Unitas, Baltimore's star passer, must keep connecting, while his defensive mates stop the power running 49er backs, Joe Perry and J. D. Smith. Baltimore is a 7-point favorite.

Conerly, out with a sprained ankle, will be able to play at least in spots for the Giants. After winning five straight, they lost to Pittsburgh last Sunday. Cleveland, flying on a five-game winning string, is a 9-point favorite over Pittsburgh (3-4). The Giants are 5½ points choices over the Cardinals (2-6).

The Philadelphia Eagles in the Eastern Conference, and the Chicago Bears in the west, also are watching the leaders. Both are in third place.

The Bears (4-4) are a 5-point choice over the Lions (2-5) at Detroit. The Eagles (5-3) are favored by 3½ over the Los Angeles Rams (2-6) at Philadelphia.

In the other game, Washington (3-5) plays the Packers (3-5) at Green Bay, with the home club a 5-point favorite.

Kilbourne, Epps Quints Claim First

EPPS, La. (Special) — Epps and Kilbourne boys' teams advanced to the semi-finals of the annual Epps High Invitational Basketball Tournament Friday night, while girls' teams of Forest, Pioneer, and Monticello advanced.

The Friday results were:

Boys — Kilbourne beat Monticello, 64-50; Epps beat Pioneer, 56-32.

Girls — Forest beat Mangham, 33-26; Pioneer beat Kilbourne, 70-31; Monticello 27, Epps 25.

Leading scorers were Pace, 15, Kilbourne; Hawsey, 15, Monticello; Ken Thrower, 16, Epps; and Spann, 17, Pioneer, in the boys' games, and Betty McCowan, 24, Forest; F. Johns, 20, Mangham; Mary Ross, 24, Pioneer; Dasher, 15, Kilbourne; Judy Simms, 11, Epps; and Smitherman, 14, Monticello, in the girls' contests.

Semi-finals begin this morning at 10 o'clock with Kilbourne boys vs. Epps; Pioneer girls vs. Monticello, and Forest girls vs. Winnsboro. Finals begin at 7 and 8 p.m.

BOOTS HOME FOUR

NEW YORK (UPI) — Jockey Larry Adams booted home four winners at Aqueduct Thursday, including So Small, who won the first race when Lost City was disqualified. Adams' other victories were aboard Rant N Rave, On Your Mind and Suit of Lights.

BRAVES SIGN ROOKIE

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI) — Pitcher Alan Iorg of Altamont, Utah, has been sign by the Milwaukee Braves to a 1960 contract with Boise, Idaho of the Pioneer League. Iorg, 19, is a graduate of the Braves' tryout school held at Rushville, Neb., last June.

Bowl Berth Bids Feature Today's Football Schedule

By EARL WRIGHT
By United Press International

Bids for bowl berths and traditional "big games" will feature the last full Saturday schedule of the 1959 college football season.

Top-ranked Syracuse has accepted a Cotton Bowl invitation and at least five more berths in major post-season games should be filled by Saturday night. They include both Rose Bowl teams, the visiting team in the Orange Bowl, the host in the Liberty Bowl and perhaps both Blue Grass bowl teams.

Wisconsin and Washington can wrap up the Rose Bowl assignments. Wisconsin is a seven-point choice to whip Minnesota in the day's nationally - televised (N.B.C.) contest and can clinch the Big Ten's Rose Bowl assignment by winning, if Illinois downs Northwestern.

Northwestern is tied with Wisconsin for first in the league race. If both win, they will share the title and it will take a vote to decide the Rose Bowl team. If both lose, Michigan State, which ended its conference season last week, will win the title and probably go to the Rose Bowl.

Washington is a seven-point favorite to gain the other Rose berth by beating Oregon State. But if Washington State wins and Oregon downs Oregon State, the West Coast's Rose Bowl selection committee will have to make a choice. Oregon is favored by eight points.

Kansas will win the Big Eight's Orange Bowl assignment if it defeats Missouri and Oklahoma, which leads in the conference but is ineligible to return to Miami for the bowl game, defeats Iowa State. Kansas is favored by three points and Oklahoma by 13.

Clemson, Miami and Georgia are among the leading candidates for the other Orange Bowl berth. Miami entertained Michigan State Friday night. Clemson plays Wake Forest Saturday and is favored by 12 points. Georgia is idle this week end.

Penn State is expected to be named the host team for the Dec. 19 Liberty Bowl game at Philadelphia following its traditional regular season finale against Pittsburgh. Penn State is favored by eight points.

Blue Grass Bowl officials have indicated they will send an invitation to the winner of Saturday's Kentucky - Tennessee game, which is rated a tossup. The other bid may go to Bowling Green of Ohio, rated No. 1 this week in United Press International's small college rankings. Bowling Green visits Ohio University Saturday.

Louisiana State, a 21-point choice for its regular season wind up against Tulane, is the top candidate for a Sugar Bowl berth. Sugar Bowl officials want to pit fourth-ranked L.S.U. against third ranked Mississippi. Mississippi is idle this week and ends its regular season against Mississippi State Nov. 28.

Syracuse, bracketed with Southern California as the nation's only undefeated-untied major schools, is a 30-point choice to whip Boston University. Southern California is a nine-point choice for its game with U.C.L.A.

Texas, idle this week end, ends its regular schedule against Texas A and M on Thanksgiving Day. Texas will serve as Syracuse' Cotton Bowl opponent if it wins next week. If Texas loses, Arkansas will skip a Gator Bowl bid to play Syracuse in the Cotton Bowl.

Purdue is favored over Indiana by one point; Ohio State and Michigan are rated even; Iowa is favored over Notre Dame by 14 and Stanford is favored over California by five in other traditional games.

Yale is a five-point choice for its 76th game with Harvard — once "the game" in college football and still that for the two Ivy League universities.

Orange Rated Heavy Choice Over Boston

BOSTON (AP)—Syracuse is expected to make Boston University its ninth straight victim Saturday.

The nation's No. 1 football team is a solid 34-point choice over the Terriers.

The mighty Orange has run up 308 points while limiting their eight opponents to 51. They have registered shutouts over Maryland, West Virginia, Pittsburgh and Colgate and already have accepted a Cotton Bowl bid.

The boys from Syracuse lead the country in all offensive departments.

They strike usually from an unbalanced T-information, sometimes with flankers and sometimes without.

And the second unit is not well known as the first group only because it does not receive so much attention.

With a straight face, Ben Schwartzwalder, Syracuse coach, expresses concern, even if in a left-handed manner.

"I just hope the team isn't looking ahead to the Cotton Bowl," he said, adding, "We have a real game on our hands, despite what you may think."

But the scrappy Terriers (4-4), in the position of pulling the season's biggest upset, are full of spirit, specially after their 26-7 upset of Boston College last week.

Calumet Has 1-2 Punch In Rich Futurity

BALTIMORE (AP) — Calumet Farm, struggling to break even on its expensive operation this year, could take a long step in that direction Saturday with its 1-2 two punch of Keenation and Pied 'Or in the rich Pimlico Futurity.

The Calumet entry is among 11 thoroughbreds scheduled to go in the mile and a sixteenth test for 2-year-olds, and if all make it to post they'll be shooting for a gross purse of $116,820. The winner's slice will total $71,310.50.

The management at historic Pimlico expects about 20,000 to turn out and make the Calumets a slight favorite over Wheatley Stable's Progressing.

Also due considerable support is Cain Hoy Stable's All Hands, to be ridden by Willie Shoemaker.

Others lined up for the futurity are Mrs. Wallace Gilroy's Greek Page, Louis Lee Haginn's Billy Bluejay, A. J. Ostriker's Catapult, Reginald N. Webster's Count Amber, Grandview Stable's Persian Spy, and Mrs. James A. Bohannon's Moslem Chief.

The line-up for the 37th running of the race includes only one contestant from the Garden State Stakes, world's richest race. That's Pied d'Or, who finished sixth, nearly 10 lengths behind the winner and 2-year-old champion, Warfare.

Despite this disappointing performance, Pied d'Or is regarded as the horse to beat in the Futurity. His dam, Two-Lea, produced such turf standouts as Tim Tam, winner of the Kentucky Derby and Preakness, and the stakes-winning On-and-On. He was sired by the fabulous Nasrullah.

The Jimmy Jones-trained colt looked sharp Monday in winning the FUTURITY Trial as Kennation finished second. Neither was pressed.

Shoemaker will be shooting for an unprecedented third straight victory in the Futurity with All Hands. He scored in 1957 with Jewel's Reward and last year with Intentionally.

CANADA CUP

Australians Far Ahead Of Yanks

By OSCAR FRALEY

MELBOURNE, Australia (UPI) —Sam Snead and Cary Middlecoff of the United States, tempers and chances wrecked by 10 bogies and one double-bogie, fell far behind Australia's Peter Thomson and Canada's Stan Leonard Friday in the third round of the International Golf Association and Canada Cup championships.

Tomson, four - time British Open champion, fired his third straight sub-par round (33-35-68) for a 204 and a one-stroke8otzjHdt over Leonard in the individual standings. Leonard, who started the day tied with Thomson for the lead, shot a three-under-par 69 and will take a 205 into Saturday's final round.

Snead, whose 65 Thursday was the tournament's hottest round, collected five bogies Friday for a 36-37--73. This gave him a total of 211 and left him in third place, seven strokes behind Thomson. Middlecoff was even farther back with a 222 after shooting his second straight 75. His 37-38 included five bogies and a double-bogie and his humor matched Snead's.

Middlecoff wouldn't even talk to United States reporters after Friday's round. He and Snead, who have made more money playing golf during the last decade than any other players, left the course without changing their clothes.

Many in the big crowd of 18,500 Aussies, who streamed over the Royal Melbourne Course in perfect weather, were angered by the unsociability of the two yanks. Conversations around the clubhouse tabbed Snead and Middlecoff as "nowhere near as acceptable as the boys (Americans) who came here during the war."

The combined Snead-Middlecoff score of 433 left them 13 strokes behind the pace-setting Australians in the team race for the Canada Cup. Tomson and his Australian partner, Kel Nagle, led with a 420. Canada (Leonard and Al Balding) were second at 427 while the United States' two-man team was tied with South Africa for third.

Gary Player of South Africa, the current British Open champion shot a 71 Friday and was fourth in the individual standings with a 215. Nagle was fifth with a 216 after shooting a four-over-par 76. Canada's chances in the team race were hurt when Balding shot a 75 for a total of 222.

Snead couldn't control his drives. He started well with a birdie three on the 333-yard third, where he nearly drove te green. But he took a bogie on the fourth when he drove into the woods, put his drive in a trap on the short seventh for a bogie and added another on the ninth when he flubbed a four-foot putt. He dropped a nine-footer for a birdie on the 10th. He took another bogie on the 15th when he put his drive in the rough and bogied the 17th when he drove into a bunker.

Middlecoff had even more trouble on the par 72 layout. He bogied the first hole when he drove into the rough and bogied the second when he three-putted. He sank an eight-footer for a birdie on the third but bogied the fifth when he missed the green with his approach. He took another bogie on the seventh when he drove into a trap. He took a double-bogie on the 10th when he drove into the trees. He had to hole out from the edge of the green to get a par on the 11th and birdied the 383-yard 15th when his approach shot stopped four feet from the flag. But he dubbed his second shot on the 17th for his sixth bogie and stormed off the course after finishing the 18th.

HALFWAY POINT

Casper, Gustin Lead At Mobile

By STAN ATKINS

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—National Open champion Bill Casper Jr. and newcomer Jon Gustin shot four under par 68s Friday and moved out in front at the halfway mark of the Mobile Open Golf Tournament.

Both had opened with 71s Thursday, giving them a 139 deadlock after 36 holes.

Gay Brewer Jr., the young bridegroom from Crystal River, Fla., shot the best round of the day—a 34-33—67 over the 6, 383-yard Mobile Municipal Golf Course. Par is 36-36—72.

The round moved Brewer, who had started with a 73, into a tie at 140 with six other players, including Arnold Palmer and Walter Burkemo. Brewer had six birdies and only one bogey, the latter on the par 4 ninth hole where his second shot was trapped.

In addition to Brewer's 67, there were five rounds of 68 and numerous other subpar rounds as the touring pros found their sights on the 2-year-old course.

In addition to the 68s by Casper, of Apple Valley, Calif., and Gustin, a Birmingham, Ala., youth playing out of Gladwyne, Pa., other 4-under-par rounds were turned in by Palmer, Ligonier, Pa., Pat Schwab, Pensacola, Fla., and Gene Lesch, Prairie View, Ill.

Palmer and Schwab climbed into the 140 brarket with five others. Lesch and four others were a stroke back.

The cutoff point was 148, with 61 pros making the grade for the final two rounds. Jerry Pittman of Tulsa, Okla., Thursday's leader at 67, dropped off to a 1-over-par 73.

Biggest victim among the first round leaders, however, was Billy Maxwell, Odessa, Tex., who shot 76 to go with his opening 69.

Palmer, the leading money winner last year with earnings of $45,000, showed that he was ready to challenge for the lead in Saturday's third round. He hit every green and picked up six birdies against two bogeys. He is appearing in only his second tournament after a 10-week layoff.

The leaders:

Jon Gustin	71-68—139
Bill Casper Jr.	71-68—139
Ernie Fortner	71-69—140

Reds, A's In Inter-League Player Deal

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The Kansas City Athletics announced Friday night the swap of catcher Frank House for pitcher Tom Acker of the Cincinnati Reds is the first official deal of the new inter-league baseball trading period.

The announcement was made by General Manager Parke Carroll who said it was intended to bolster the A's uncertain bullpen.

Acker has been a relief pitcher with the Redlegs for four years, compiling a 19-13 record. The right-hander's best year was 1957 when he had a 10-5 mark. Last year he pitched only 31 innings and had a 1-2 record.

House, alternating with Harry Chiti behind the bat for the American Leaguers, appeared in 98 games last year. He got 81 hits in 346 times at bat for a .234 average. He bats left-handed and hit only one home run last year.

House came to the A's from Detroit as part of a 12-player trade at the close of the 1957 season. Acker came up to Cincinnati from Nashville of the Southern Assn., after compiling an 11-8 record there in 1956.

The A's are reported to have other trades on the fire with National League clubs. They particularly are seeking a replacement for House, more pitching strength and possibly a third baseman.

Junior Wildcats Receive Letters At Grid Banquet

Forty Winnsboro Junior Wildcat football players were awarded letter certificates at their football banquet in the Winnsboro High School cafeteria Thursday night.

Coach Buster Carlisle was master of ceremonies and presented certificates to Edward Lee Johns, Louis Evans, Bill Griffing, Donnie Earl Johnson, James Martin, Ronald Camp, Donald Camp, Buie Mays, Charles Alpe, Nicky Posey, Donnie Emfinger, Bill Marioneaux, Mac Merrill, Philip Bufkin, James Smith Barry DeVille, Ronnie Stephens, Billy Smith, Ed Parks, Ray Parks, Marshal Livingston, Terry Brown Billy Rayborn, Fred Mulhearn, Butch Schooler, Archie Pippin, Billy Cobb, David Shirley, Danny Priest, Charles Priest, Glenn Day, Ralph Waller, Gary King, Tony Durr, Jerry Wayne Byrnes, Donnie Byrnes, Bill Scriber, Don Lupo, Larry Bruce and Robert Pitts.

These 6th, 7th and 8th grade boys have a 4-1-1 record for the season. Coach Carlisle named Bill Marioneaux as the "most improved" player on the squad.

The banquet was sponsored by mothers of the players and guests included Winnsboro principal S. W. Williamson and Mrs. Williamson, Elementary principal Miss Marguerite Landis, coaches Gene Knecht and Ed Thompson Jr., Wildcat cheer leaders Millie Anders, Ruby Polk, Jean Watson, Sandra Griffing and Gay Walter, and parents of the Junior Wildcats.

Tech-Miss. State Basketball Game Tickets On Sale

RUSTON, La. (Special) — Tickets for the Louisiana Tech-Mississippi State basketball game to be played at Jackson, Miss., on Dec. 9 are now available at the Tech athletic office.

Joe Aillet, Tech athletic director, reports that tickets for this game will be on sale at Memorial Gymnasium until noon on Nov. 28. Tech students will have to purchase their tickets before they leave the campus for the Thanksgiving vacation.

Student tickets for the Bulldog contest with Mississippi State will be $2.20. Also on sale at the Tech athletic office are regular reserved seat tickets for $2.75 each.

This Jackson, Miss., battle will bring together the defending champions of the Gulf States Conference and the Southeastern Conference and should be a tariller. Tech and Mississippi State were two of the winningest teams in the South last winter and both are expected to have strong quintets again this season. A large number of Bulldog fans are expected to travel to Jackson for the fray.

Also on sale at the Tech athletic office are season tickets for the 12 games to be played on the home court in Ruston this season. The Tech cagers are to open the season in a tilt with East Texas State at Ruston on Dec. 1.

The largest bowling establishment in the nation is in Edison, N. J. It has 112 lanes all in a row.

McBride Does About Face On Chargers

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Frank Leahy said Friday Bob McBride has changed his mind about taking over the head coaching job with the Los Angeles Chargers in the new American Football League.

A spokesman for Leahy, general manager of the Chargers, said Leahy has released McBride from his agreement. He said the action was taken with deep regret on both sides.

Only Thursday Leahy announced appointment of McBride, his one time assistant at Notre Dame. McBride resigned from Notre Dame in 1954, at the same time Leahy did, and has since been in the trucking business in Hammond, Ind.

The spokesman said Leahy is in Minneapolis, Minn., for the American League player draft to be held Monday.

"Without presuming to speak for Bob, who has been my longtime associate and my close friend," the Leahy statement said, "I think two factors entered into his decision.

"One was his increasing awareness, as we began to get into the details of the coaching job itself, of the demands and complexities of present-day operation which he would face after a five-year absence from active coaching.

"The other was a personal one of giving up an established business situation with a growing future to return to the always precarious future of coaching. As the father of a family of seven growing youngsters, this must surely have been a major factor in Bob's reconsideration."

Leahy said no announcement of a coaching appointment will be made until the draft is completed.

Western Illinois Turns Down Bid To NAIA Bowl

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Western Illinois University Friday informed the National Assn. of Intercollegiate Athletics that it would be unable to compete in the organization's football playoffs.

Ray Hanson, athletic director at the Macomb, Ill., University said the Illinois Teachers College Board has ruled that the college under its jurisdiction, including Western, may not take part in any post-season grid competition.

Western, which won nine straight games this season, was invited Wednesday to compete in the playoffs which lead to the NAIA championship game in the Holiday Bowl at St. Petersburg, Fla., Dec. 19. The college is ranked second in the association's most recent poll.

A. O. Duer, executive secretary of the NAIA, said the four teams which will compete for the championship are expected to be announced within the next few days.

Cannon For Governor?

BATON ROUGE (AP) — A sports editor today proposed a way to settle the fuss over gubernatorial candidate Gale Berry's charges against All-America halfback Billy Cannon of Louisiana State.

Dan Hardesty jestingly said in the Baton Rouge State-Times: Cannon ought to run for governor.

Blind Hunter Kills Big Buck

ROANOKE, Va. (AP) — A 26-year-old blind man Friday killed an eight - point, 175-pound buck deer while hunting in Southwest Virginia's Smyth County.

Charles M. Rupard Jr. of Marion was hunting with his father on brushy mountain when he heard the deer coming toward him.

"My dad said, 'There he comes' and I just shot him," said Rupard.

Rupard, blind since infancy, was in a party of four. He is a graduate of the Virginia School for the Deaf and Blind at Staunton and has attended the University of Virginia where he is a history mauor.

O'Rourke Quits As Mass. Coach

AMHERST, Mass. (AP)—Resignation of football Coach Charlie O'Rourke was announced Friday at the University of Massachustts.

The resignation was announced with regret by Warren P. McGuirk, director of athletics, who said O'Rourke "has made many fine contributions to our football program. . . during the past eight years . . . His departure is a real loss to our intercollegiate program."

O'Rourke came to Massachusetts in 1952 after serving as backfield coach under Dr. Eddie Anderson at Holy Cross for two years.

This season the Massachusetts team finished second in the Yankee Conference.

No reason was given for the resignation.

Fight Figure Salerno Safe In Florida

NEW YORK (AP)—Efforts by Dist. Atty. Frank Hogan to have Anthony (Fat Tony) Salerno brought here to testify before the grand jury probing last June's heavyweight title fight promotion were dealt a blow Friday by a Florida court, Hogan announced here.

Salerno, alleged behind-the-scenes backer of the Floyd Patterson-Ingemar Johansson fight, could not be found last August to testify before the grand jury.

Subsequently, he was located in Miami, and Hogan's office has been trying to have him brought here to testify.

A spokesman for Hogan said Friday that a Dade County, Fla., circuit court judge ruled against the district attorney's wishes by contending that it would violate the Reciprocal Witness Act.

The decision, according to the spokesman, stated that Salerno would have to be transported "by the ordinary course of travel." This would, it was ruled, bring him through the state of Georgia, which has no reciprocal agreement.

The district attorney's office made the announcement after learning of the decision from Asst. Dist. Atty. John G. Bonomi, who with detective Frank Marone, of Hogan's staff, had gone to Florida to bring Salerno back.

The spokesman characterized the Florida ruling as a "legal technicality."

The district attorney's office said the ruling would be appealed.

LAST FULL SLATE

Bowl Berth Bids Feature Today's Football Schedule

By EARL WRIGHT
By United Press International

Bids for bowl berths and traditional "big games" will feature the last full Saturday schedule of the 1959 college football season.

Top-ranked Syracuse has accepted a Cotton Bowl invitation and at least five more berths in major post-season games should be filled by Saturday night. They include both Rose Bowl teams, the visiting team in the Orange Bowl, the host in the Liberty Bowl and perhaps both Blue Grass bowl teams.

Wisconsin and Washington can wrap up the Rose Bowl assignments. Wisconsin is a seven-point choice to whip Minnesota in the day's nationally - televised (N.B.C.) contest and can clinch the Big Ten's Rose Bowl assignment by winning, if Illinois downs Northwestern.

Northwestern is tied with Wisconsin for first in the league race. If both win, they will share the title and it will take a vote to decide the Rose Bowl team. If both lose, Michigan State, which ended its conference season last week, will win the title and probably go to the Rose Bowl.

Washington is a seven-point favorite to gain the other Rose berth by beating Oregon State. But if Washington State wins and Oregon downs Oregon State, the West Coast's Rose Bowl selection committee will have to make a choice. Oregon is favored by eight points.

Kansas will win the Big Eight's Orange Bowl assignment if it defeats Missouri and Oklahoma, which leads in the conference but is ineligible to return to Miami for the bowl game, defeats Iowa State. Kansas is favored by three points and Oklahoma by 13.

Clemson, Miami and Georgia are among the leading candidates for the other Orange Bowl berth. Miami entertained Michigan State Friday night. Clemson plays Wake Forest Saturday and is favored by 12 points. Georgia is idle this week end.

Penn State is expected to be named the host team for the Dec. 19 Liberty Bowl game at Philadelphia following its traditional regular season finale against Pittsburgh. Penn State is favored by eight points.

Blue Grass Bowl officials have indicated they will send an invitation to the winner of Saturday's Kentucky - Tennessee game, which is rated a tossup. The other bid may go to Bowling Green of Ohio, rated No. 1 this week in United Press International's small college rankings. Bowling Green visits Ohio University Saturday.

Louisiana State, a 21-point choice for its regular season wind up against Tulane, is the top candidate for a Sugar Bowl berth. Sugar Bowl officials want to pit fourth-ranked L.S.U. against third ranked Mississippi. Mississippi is idle this week and ends its regular season against Mississippi State Nov. 28.

Syracuse, bracketed with Southern California as the nation's only undefeated-untied major schools, is a 30-point choice to whip Boston University. Southern California is a nine-point choice for its game with U.C.L.A.

Texas, idle this week end, ends its regular schedule against Texas A and M on Thanksgiving Day. Texas will serve as Syracuse' Cotton Bowl opponent if it wins next week. If Texas loses, Arkansas will skip a Gator Bowl bid to play Syracuse in the Cotton Bowl.

Purdue is favored over Indiana by one point; Ohio State and Michigan are rated even; Iowa is favored over Notre Dame by 14 and Stanford is favored over California by five in other traditional games.

Yale is a five-point choice for its 76th game with Harvard — once "the game" in college football and still that for the two Ivy League universities.

Orange Rated Heavy Choice Over Boston

BOSTON (AP)—Syracuse is expected to make Boston University its ninth straight victim Saturday.

The nation's No. 1 football team is a solid 34-point choice over the Terriers.

The mighty Orange has run up 308 points while limiting their eight opponents to 51. They have registered shutouts over Maryland, West Virginia, Pittsburgh and Colgate and already have accepted a Cotton Bowl bid.

The boys from Syracuse lead the country in all offensive departments.

They strike usually from an unbalanced T-information, sometimes with flankers and sometimes without.

And the second unit is not well known as the first group only because it does not receive so much attention.

With a straight face, Ben Schwartzwalder, Syracuse coach, expresses concern, even if in a left-handed manner.

"I just hope the team isn't looking ahead to the Cotton Bowl," he said, adding, "We have a real game on our hands, despite what you may think."

But the scrappy Terriers (4-4), in the position of pulling the season's biggest upset, are full of spirit, specially after their 26-7 upset of Boston College last week.

VERSATILE CHAMP — Heavyweight champion Ingemar Johansson (center) rated rave notices from New York television critics after his debut in Earnes Hemingway's "The Killers." Western Illinois Turns Down Bid To NAIA Bowl

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Western Illinois University Friday informed the National Assn. of Intercollegiate Athletics that it would be unable to compete in the organization's football playoffs.

Ray Hanson, athletic director at the Macomb, Ill., University said the Illinois Teachers College Board has ruled that the college under its jurisdiction, including Western, may not take part in any post-season grid competition.

Western, which won nine straight games this season, was invited Wednesday to compete in the playoffs which lead to the NAIA championship game in the Holiday Bowl at St. Petersburg, Fla., Dec. 19. The college is ranked second in the association's most recent poll.

A. O. Duer, executive secretary of the NAIA, said the four teams which will compete for the championship are expected to be announced within the next few days.

Cannon For Governor?

BATON ROUGE (AP) — A sports editor today proposed a way to settle the fuss over gubernatorial candidate Gale Berry's charges against All-America halfback Billy Cannon of Louisiana State.

Dan Hardesty jestingly said in the Baton Rouge State-Times: Cannon ought to run for governor.

Blind Hunter Kills Big Buck

ROANOKE, Va. (AP) — A 26-year-old blind man Friday killed an eight - point, 175-pound buck deer while hunting in Southwest Virginia's Smyth County.

Charles M. Rupard Jr. of Marion was hunting with his father on brushy mountain when he heard the deer coming toward him.

"My dad said, 'There he comes' and I just shot him," said Rupard.

Rupard, blind since infancy, was in a party of four. He is a graduate of the Virginia School for the Deaf and Blind at Staunton and has attended the University of Virginia where he is a history major.

Calumet Has 1-2 Punch In Rich Futurity

BALTIMORE (AP) — Calumet Farm, struggling to break even on its expensive operation this year, could take a long step in that direction Saturday with its 1-2 two punch of Keenation and Pied 'Or in the rich Pimlico Futurity.

The Calumet entry is among 11 thoroughbreds scheduled to go in the mile and a sixteenth test for 2-year-olds, and if all make it to post they'll be shooting for a gross purse of $116,820. The winner's slice will total $71,310.50.

The management at historic Pimlico expects about 20,000 to turn out and make the Calumets a slight favorite over Wheatley Stable's Progressing.

Also due considerable support is Cain Hoy Stable's All Hands, to be ridden by Willie Shoemaker.

Others lined up for the futurity are Mrs. Wallace Gilroy's Greek Page, Louis Lee Haggin's Billy Bluejay, A. J. Ostriker's Catapult, Reginald N. Webster's Count Amber, Grandview Stable's Persian Spy, and Mrs. James A. Bohannon's Moslem Chief.

The line-up for the 37th running of the race includes only one contestant from the Garden State Stakes, world's richest race. That's Pied d'Or, who finished sixth, nearly 10 lengths behind the winner and 2-year-old champion, Warfare.

Despite this disappointing performance, Pied d'Or is regarded as the horse to beat in the Futurity. His dam, Two-Lea, produced such turf standouts as Tim Tam, winner of the Kentucky Derby and Preakness, and the stakes-winning On-and-On. He was sired by the fabulous Nasrullah.

The Jimmy Jones-trained colt looked sharp Monday in winning the FUTURITY Trial as Kennation finished second. Neither was pressed.

Shoemaker will be shooting for an unprecedented third straight victory in the Futurity with All Hands. He scored in 1957 with Jewel's Reward and last year with Intentionally.

Casper, Gustin Lead At Mobile

BY STAN ATKINS

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—National Open champion Bill Casper Jr. and newcomer Jon Gustin shot four under par 68s Friday and moved out in front at the halfway mark of the Mobile Open Golf Tournament.

Both had opened with 71s Thursday, giving them a 139 deadlock after 36 holes.

Gay Brewer Jr., the young bridegroom from Crystal River, Fla., shot the best round of the day—a 34-33—67 over the 6,383-yard Mobile Municipal Golf Course. Par is 36-36—72.

The round moved Brewer, who had started with a 73, into a tie at 140 with six other players, including Arnold Palmer and Walter Burkemo. Brewer had six birdies and only one bogey, the latter on the par 4 ninth hole where his second shot was trapped.

In addition to Brewer's 67, there were five rounds of 68 and numerous other subpar rounds as the touring pros found their sights on the 2-year-old course.

In addition to the 68s by Casper, of Apple Valley, Calif., and Gustin, a Birmingham, Ala., youth playing out of Gladwyne, Pa., other 4-under-par rounds were turned in by Palmer, Ligonier, Pa., Pat Schwab, Pensacola, Fla., and Gene Lesch, Prairie View, Ill.

Palmer and Schwab climbed into the 140 bracket with five others. Lesch and four others were a stroke back.

The cutoff point was 148, with 61 pros making the grade for the final two rounds. Jerry Pittman of Tulsa, Okla., Thursday's leader at 67, dropped off to a 1-over-par 73.

Biggest victim among the first round leaders, however, was Billy Maxwell, Odessa, Tex., who shot 76 to go with his opening 69.

Palmer, the leading money winner last year with earnings of $45,000, showed that he was ready to challenge for the lead in Saturday's third round. He hit every green and picked up six birdies against two bogeys. He is appearing in only his second tournament after a 10-week layoff.

The leaders:

Jon Gustin	71-68—139
Bill Casper Jr.	71-68—139
Ernie Fortner	71-69—140

Tech-Miss. State Basketball Game Tickets On Sale

RUSTON, La. (Special) — Tickets for the Louisiana Tech-Mississippi State basketball game to be played at Jackson, Miss., on Dec. 9 are now available at the Tech athletic office.

Joe Aillet, Tech athletic director, reports that tickets for this game will be on sale at Memorial Gymnasium until noon on Nov. 28. Tech students will have to purchase their tickets before they leave the campus for the Thanksgiving vacation.

Student tickets for the Bulldog contest with Mississippi State will be $2.20. Also on sale at the Tech athletic office are regular reserved seat tickets for $2.75 each.

This Jackson, Miss., battle will bring together the defending champions of the Gulf States Conference and the Southeastern Conference and should be a thriller. Tech and Mississippi State were two of the winningest teams in the South last winter and both are expected to have strong quintets again this season. A large number of Bulldog fans are expected to travel to Jackson for the fray.

Also on sale at the Tech athletic office are season tickets for the 12 games to be played on the home court in Ruston this season. The Tech cagers are to open the season in a tilt with East Texas State at Ruston on Dec. 1.

McBride Does About Face On Chargers

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Frank Leahy said Friday Bob McBride has changed his mind about taking over the head coaching job with the Los Angeles Chargers in the new American Football League.

A spokesman for Leahy, general manager of the Chargers, said Leahy has released McBride from his agreement. He said the action was taken with deep regret on both sides.

Only Thursday Leahy announced appointment of McBride, his one time assistant at Notre Dame. McBride resigned from Notre Dame in 1954, at the same time Leahy did, and has since been in the trucking business in Hammond, Ind.

The spokesman said Leahy is in Minneapolis, Minn., for the American League player draft to be held Monday.

"Without presuming to speak for Bob, who has been my longtime associate and my close friend," the Leahy statement said, "I think two factors entered into his decision.

"One was his increasing awareness, as we began to get into the details of the coaching job itself, of the demands and complexities of present-day operation which he would face after a five-year absence from active coaching.

"The other was a personal one of giving up an established business situation with a growing future to return to the always precarious future of coaching. As the father of a family of seven growing youngsters, this must surely have been a major factor in Bob's reconsideration."

Leahy said no announcement of a coaching appointment will be made until the draft is completed.

O'Rourke Quits As Mass. Coach

AMHERST, Mass. (AP)—Resignation of football Coach Charlie O'Rourke was announced Friday at the University of Massachusetts.

The resignation was announced with regret by Warren P. McGuirk, director of athletics, who said O'Rourke "has made many fine contributions to our football program. . . during the past eight years . . . His departure is a real loss to our intercollegiate program."

O'Rourke came to Massachusetts in 1952 after serving as backfield coach under Dr. Eddie Anderson at Holy Cross for two years.

This season the Massachusetts team finished second in the Yankee Conference.

No reason was given for the resignation.

CANADA CUP

Australians Far Ahead Of Yanks

By OSCAR FRALEY

MELBOURNE, Australia (UPI) —Sam Snead and Cary Middlecoff of the United States, tempers and chances wrecked by 10 bogies and one double-bogie, fell far behind Australia's Peter Thomson and Canada's Stan Leonard Friday in the third round of the International Golf Association and Canada Cup championships.

Tomson, four - time British Open champion, fired his third straight sub-par round (33-35-68) for a 204 and a one-stroke8otzjHdt over Leonard in the individual standings. Leonard, who started the day tied with Thomson for the lead, shot a three-under-par 69 and will take a 205 into Saturday's final round.

Snead, whose 65 Thursday was the tournament's hottest round, collected five bogies Friday for a 36-37—73. This gave him a total of 211 and left him in third place, seven strokes behind Thomson. Middlecoff was even farther back with a 222 after shooting his second straight 75. His 37-38 included five bogies and a double-bogie and his humor matched Snead's.

Middlecoff wouldn't even talk to United States reporters after Friday's round. He and Snead, who have made more money playing golf during the last decade than any other players, left the course without changing their clothes.

Many in the big crowd of 18,-500 Aussies, who streamed over the Royal Melbourne Course in perfect weather, were angered by the unsociability of the two yanks. Conversations around the clubhouse tabbed Snead and Middlecoff as "nowhere near as acceptable as the boys (Americans) who came here during the war."

The combined Snead-Middlecoff score of 433 left them 13 strokes behind the pace-setting Australians in the team race for the Canada Cup. Tomson and his Australian partner, Kel Nagle, led with a 420. Canada (Leonard and Al Balding) were second at 427 while the United States' two-man team was tied with South Africa for third.

Gary Player of South Africa, the current British Open champion shot a 71 Friday and was fourth in the individual standings with a 215. Nagle was fifth with a 216 after shooting a four-over-par 76. Canada's chances in the team race were hurt when Balding shot a 75 for a total of 222.

Snead couldn't control his drives. He started well with a birdie three on the 333-yard third, where he nearly drove te green. But he took a bogie on the fourth when he drove into the woods, put his drive in a trap on the short seventh for a bogie and added another on the ninth when he flubbed a four-foot putt. He dropped a nine-footer for a birdie on the 10th. He took another bogie on the 15th when he put his drive in the rough and bogied the 17th when he drove into a bunker.

Middlecoff had even more trouble on the par 72 layout. He bogied the first hole when he drove into the rough and bogied the second when he three-putted. He sank an eight-footer for a birdie on the third but bogied the fifth when he missed the green with his approach. He took another bogie on the seventh when he drove into a trap. He took a double-bogie on the 10th when he drove into the trees. He had to hole out from the edge of the green to get a par on the 11th and birdied the 383-yard 15th when his approach shot stopped four feet from the flag. But he dubbed his second shot on the 17th for his sixth bogie and stormed off the course after finishing the 18th.

Reds, A's In Inter-League Player Deal

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The Kansas City Athletics announced Friday night the swap of catcher Frank House for pitcher Tom Acker of the Cincinnati Reds in the first official deal of the new inter-league baseball trading period.

The announcement was made by General Manager Parke Carroll who said it was intended to bolster the A's uncertain bullpen.

Acker has been a relief pitcher with the Redlegs for four years, compiling a 19-13 record. The right-hander's best year was 1957 when he had a 10-5 mark. Last year he pitched only 31 innings and had a 1-2 record.

House, alternating with Harry Chiti behind the bat for the American Leaguers, appeared in 98 games last year. He got 81 hits in 346 times at bat for a .234 average. He bats left-handed and hit only one home run last year.

House came to the A's from Detroit as part of a 12-player trade at the close of the 1957 season. Acker came up to Cincinnati from Nashville of the Southern Assn., after compiling an 11-8 record there in 1956.

The A's are reported to have other trades on the fire with National League clubs. They particularly are seeking a replacement for House, more pitching strength and possibly a third baseman.

Bridal Parties Honor Miss Camille Clark

Mrs. John McCarthy and Miss Jan McCarthy were hostesses at a luncheon on Saturday, November 14, at the Bayou DeSiard Country Club honoring Miss Camille Clark, bride-elect, of Rayville.

For the occasion, Miss Clark was wearing a trousseau model in muted shades of brown and rust silk accented with a white glamelia corsage, a gift of the hostesses.

The luncheon table was overlaid with a pink cloth and enhanced by centerpiece of white chrysanthemums and stock, flanked by silver candelabra holding white tapers. Place cards of white and silver wedding bells completed the table appointments.

Miss Clark was presented with a piece of silver in her chosen pattern by the hostesses.

Sharing the occasion with the honoree and hostesses were Mrs. A. C. Clark, Jr., Mrs. A. C. Clark Sr., Mrs. E. E. Hearold, Mrs. Massey K. McConnell, Mrs. Christine McConnell, Mrs. Joe Brown Jr., Mrs. Homer Norris, Mrs. Max Livingston, Mrs. R. L. Phillips, and Misses Susan Clark, Elizabeth Ann McConnell and Harriet Smith.

BUFFET SUPPER

Miss Camille Clark, bride-elect, was the honoree at a buffet supper on Tuesday, November 17, in the home of Mrs. George B. Franklin, Sr., with Mrs. George B. Franklin Jr., as co-hostess.

Preceding the dinner, a conversational hour was held, during which time the hostesses presented corsages of Fiji chrysanthemums to the honoree, her mother, grandmother and the mother of the groom-elect.

Miss Clark wore for the occasion a white jersey sheath with accents of pink.

Guests were invited into the dining room where the buffet style dinner was served from the dining table, which was centered with an arrangement of chrysanthemums in bridal white. Immediately following the serving of dinner, the honoree was presented a gift of silver by the hostesses.

Assisting in the courtesies were Mrs. Lewis Hubbard Jr., Mrs. W. H. Hubbard and little Miss Hubbard.

Enjoying the occasion with the honoree and hostesses were Mrs. A. C. Clark, Jr., Mrs. Gussie Newsom, Mrs. A. C. Clark, Sr., Mrs. E. E. Hearold, Mrs. Massey K. McConnell, Mrs. Christine McConnell, Mrs. W. L. Haley, Mrs. Ralph Rockett, Mrs. Max Livingston, Mrs. Joe Brown, Jr., Mrs. G. L. Gladney, Jr., Miss Harriette Haley, Miss Nancy Cloninger, Miss Harriet Smith and Miss Delories Pitman.

Questions And Answers Guide For Homemakers

By BETTY PEPIS

Q. — Am in the process of redecorating my living room which is eleven by fifteen feet with three windows at one end. New furniture consists of a white couch with built-in gray end tables, white lamps with small gold and gray design, gray rug with pattern of burgundy and gold. I would like to paint the walls burgundy with an adjoining foyer gray, but have been told that would be "too much." Also wonder about type of coffee table, style and color of two chairs, color of curtains and lamp shades.

A.— Burgundy would, indeed, be a bit too much in a room that size. Take the gold out of your rug, instead, and use it for the walls and floor - to - ceiling draperies. If you want to aid burgundy to the room; put it on two small chairs with wood arms and frames, in walnut. Coffee table in this case, could also be walnut, Danish style. As for lamp shades, in any room, they are safest if kept in an eggshell or off - white tone. In the scheme I have described, however, you might find a very pale shade of gold effective.

Q. —We have a most unusual room. It is 18 by 18 feet and has one set of large double windows. Walls are dark wood panels about the color of the Early American maple bed and double dresser I use. There is a wood burning fireplace in red brick. Floor is marbleized beige linoleum. There are white curtains, white blinds and white spreads. All woodwork is white. My family feel that this is not good but I can't see dark woodwork since the room is already quite dark.

A.— Compromise is the answer. I think a beige woodwork the color of the floor would satisy both you and your family. You could then change the whole character of the room and give it a little gaiety by using Provincial print on a beige background for cafe curtains and a new bedspread.

Q. —I would like advice on fixing up a guest bedroom. It is 13 by 14 feet, has two large double windows on front and side walls. It is painted turquoise, rather dark with woodwork to match and ceiling in an off-white. Carpet is in nutria and I don't know what color draperies, spread and dust ruffle will go with these two colors.

A. —Since this is a guest room you might be more daring than you would be in the rest of the house. One of the most interesting color schemes I have seen used lately by decorators was navy and brown as a scheme. You might get close to it with a navy - nutria - turquoise plan. Have draperies in the nutria binding and fringed trim, of some sort, along the edges.

Q.— I am planning to repaint my kitchen, a large room with the lower third of the wall panelled in light oak. Floor covering is beige with a deep red border.

A. —Paint walls beige. Have all accessories, including curtains and enameled casseroles which can be used decoratively on shelves in bright red.

Rocks Japan Chemical Plant

OPPAMA, Japan (UPI) — A series of powerful explosions rocked a nearby chemical plant Friday, causing heavy casualties in a deadly shower of flying glass and debris.

Police counted three dead and 381 injured, including 55 children who were in a school house near the plant when the force of the blasts sent the windows crashing in around them.

Pessengers on buses and trains in the vicinity similarly were cut and scraped by splinters of glass sent flying by the blasts. Most of the injuries were minor, but twenty persons were still in hospitals Friday night with conditions described as serious.

Three separate explosions ripped the Tokyo Chemical Co., at one time a key arsenal for American forces during the Korean War and now a manufacturer of explosives for industrial use.

A fire alarm sounded at the plant in time enough to allow most of the 50 workers to flee.

Many of them took refuge in caves in a nearby hillside.

The explosions, felt within a radius of eight miles, leveled buildings over a 400 square yard area. Authorities, fearing more to follow, began an emergency removal of all residents within a mile of the plant but called it off when it was determined there was no further danger.

MRS. T. A. BROWN, of El Tigre, Venezuela, is pictured in the home of her mother, Mrs. J. D. McGee in West Monroe. Mrs. Brown has made a trip to Tokyo and Hong Kong, and is visiting relatives and friends here before her return to her home in Venezuela. On the mantel are some of the art objects she purchased during her stay in the Orient. Mrs. Brown will be remembered as the former Miss Mary Etta McGee.

Banquet And Bridal Party In Tallulah

The annual banquet sponsored by the Tallulah chapter of Order of Eastern Star was held at the American Legion home on Monday night, November 16 with the master masons of Tallulah as guests.

Following the banquet ten members of the Faith Chapter of the Eastern Star of Vicksburg presented a playlet, "The Seventh Degree" with Mrs. D. D. Wood of Tallulah serving as accompanist for the music and the assembly singing at the close. There were a hundred twenty-five in attendance including twenty from Vicksburg.

BRIDAL PARTY

Miss Carolyn Sue Ezell, bride-elect, was complimented with a lingerie shower at the home of Mrs. Roy Wroten on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 7. Hostesses were Miss Emily Ruth Wroten, Miss Delores Crosby and Miss Ann Roper.

Sprays of ivy, a wedding bell and double wedding rings were used for decorations in the reception rooms. For the occasion the honor guest was wearing a brown and orange plaid wool costume complemented with a corsage of white flowers.

Refreshments were served to those in attendance who were Miss Ezell, Mrs. Ralph Fore, Miss Mary Jane King, Miss Hazel Jean Roberson, Mrs. Woodrow Cagnolatti, Mrs. Wayne Harkey, Mrs. Clyne Elledge, Miss Pat Rush, Miss Mary McClure, Miss Katherine McClure, Miss Jean Erwin, Mrs. W. V. Manning, Miss Wylma Roper, Miss Jerry Ann Byram, Miss Diane Ramagoes and the hostesses.

Mario Lanza's Children Set To Head Home

CHICAGO (AP)—The four children of the late Mario Lanza were to be flown back to their Beverly Hills, Calif., home Friday night.

The children were brought to Chicago Thursday by airplane. Soon after their departure from Los Angeles, their mother, Betty Lanza, widow of the singer, told police they were kidnaped by her sister. Later, Beverly Hills police and Mrs. Lanza's lawyer said it was a family misunderstanding.

The children were taken to the home of Mrs. Lanza's sister, Shirley Borregaard in Northbrook, a Chicago suburb. Mrs. Borregaard remained in Beverly Hills after she reportedly arranged for the children's trip to Chicago.

Mrs. Borregaard's lawyer, Jesse H. Brown, said the four Lanza children would make the trip back to the West Coast aboard a TWA plane.

Railways Ask Labor Leaders To Aid Fight

CHICAGO (AP)—Management of the nation's railways Friday asked rail labor leaders to help settle the industry's problems which they said have reached a climax.

Some 200 members of the Assn. of American Railroads representing 164 lines joined in a resolution underlining that they are in a "fight against obsolete work rules" which, they said, is the worker's and the public's fight as much as the management's.

The association members in their annual meeting said that "a labor crisis appears to be approaching in the railroad industry."

They said management "will pursue every peaceful means to revise the outmoded work rules in this industry," and asked labor leaders to join management in the effort with "statesmanship and responsibility."

YOUR PROBLEMS

Ann Gives Her Secret For Remembering Names

By ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann: My sister has two children, a boy two and a girl three. She bathes them together in the bathtub. I think this is disgraceful and have told her so. She has asked me to mind my own business.

What is your opinion of such goings on? My sister always was a hardheaded mule. Just because she took a course in psychology she thinks she knows it all. No one can tell her anything. Maybe you can set her straight. —BV

Dear BV: Authorities believe it is emotionally healthy for very young children to mingle in the unclothed state.

So — I suggest you take your sister's advice and mind your own business.

Dear Ann: I'm a college freshman. A certain fellow has been taking all my time. We're not going steady but neither of us goes with anyone else.

Bill never calls in advance for a date, even for the big parties—he just assumes I'm available. This makes me mad and he knows it. Please tell me (and hundreds of other girls who have this problem) what to do about it.

I've asked Bill a dozen times to give me a little notice, especially for the dressy affairs, but he still calls me in the morning and says "Tonight is the big dance. I'll pick you up at 8:00." What to do? — ZERO HOUR

Dear Zero Hour: You are being taken for granted and it's your fault. Circulate a bit and make other friends. Surely there must be one or two other fellows who would take you out.

The Big Change will come about the morning Bill phones to tell you he'll be by to pick you up for the party and you say "Sorry, friend, I've got a date. Next time please give me a little notice, will you?"

Dear Ann Landers: I have read a few newspaper articles about you and was interested in the fact that you seem to have an unusual faculty for remembering people's names.

You must meet a great many people in your work and travels. Will you tell me if you have any little secret formula? I have had trouble remembering names all my life and it has caused me a lot of embarrassment. — BLANKETY BLANK

Dear Blank? Yes, there is a little "secret" attached to remembering names. First — when you are introduced GET THE NAME. So often people mumble introductions and the name is never heard. If you don't get it, ASK. No one will feel offended if you say "I'm sorry I didn't get your name."

Then, use that person's name immediately. Say "So nice to meet you, Mrs. Wentworth"—and pronounce the name again within the next few moments: "You have a point, Mrs. Wentworth." After that, it's easy, unless, the next person you meet is Mrs. Bentworth, in which case you're on your own.

Confidential to DISCOURAGED: The time to have thought about your grades was three years ago. There are many excellent small schools that are looking for students. Forget about the Ivy League and ask your counselor to suggest something within your academic reach.

POOR FISH: Try it and see. Maybe you'll make it by the skin of your fin. Good luck and let me know the results.

Rebel Captives Will Negotiate

TUNIS, Tunisia (AP)—The Algerian rebel government today named five men already held in French captivity to negotiate with France on a cease-fire in Algeria.

The rebel government-in-exile here named its group in response to an offer by President Charles de Gaulle of safe conduct and a hearing for any delegates charged with discussing means of arranging a cease-fire in the five-year-old nationalist rebellion.

De Gaulle was touring eastern France today. Rumors of the rebel move reached the presidential party at Gebwiller, in the Vosges Mountains. There was no immediate reaction.

Although guaranteed a safe return no matter what the outcome of the talks, the rebels named five men already held in French prisons.

The move could bring the first break in the five-year-old rebellion which has been tying down 500,000 French soldiers in North Africa.

De Gaulle has promised that Algerians may decide their own political future in a referendum to be held within four years after fighting in the North African territory is ended.

He offered them three choices in the referendum — integration with France; home rule under French guardianship; or independence.

The rebel announcement said, however, that the delegation would seek to discuss "the conditions and guarantees of the application of self-determination."

It said various statements by French officials had robbed De Gaulle's original offer of self-determination "of all sense and makes guarantees on the means of a free consultation more necessary than ever."

"If the French government accepts the principle of this meeting, the Algerian government would immediately send a mandate to its delegates and the necessary instructions for accomplishment of their mission," the rebel communique concluded.

De Gaulle has promised that Algerians may decide their own political future in a referendum to be held within four years after fighting in the North African territory is ended.

He offered them three choices —integration with France; home rule under French guardianship; or independence.

But there was no indication the French would negotiate with the rebel leaders on conditions of the referenda.

The French government has expressed willingness to discuss a military cease-fire with the nationalists but has emphasized it will not enter into any political negotiations with the rebels.

OFFICIALS CLAIM

Lipstick Industry In Fight For Life

WASHINGTON (AP) — The lipstick industry says it is virtually fighting for its life against a government ban of 17 coal-tar colors.

It may push its case as soon as the hubbub over cranberries ends.

The colors were listed as taboo last month by the Food and Drug Administration after test rats became ill or died when fed some of the red, yellow and orange dyes that go into lipsticks.

Most lipsticks on the American market would be affected, an industry spokesman said, adding: "Without some of these dyes no satisfactory lipstick could be manufactured."

The major lipstick makers contend the colors the government proposes to ban have been used in hundreds of millions of lipsticks for more than 35 years without any evidence of causing harm.

Their demands for a public hearing, filed with FDA, have the effect of delaying the ban originally set for Jan. 6, 1960. Any final order now will await the conclusion of public hearings.

Under the law, the government must ban the use of any coal-tar color that proves harmful when used in significant amounts in the diet of test animals, even though its use in smaller amounts would be safe.

The proposed ban was issued after 90-day feeding tests showed some of the colors harmed laboratory rats. Some of the animals died, others showed retarded growth, liver and kidney damage, enlarge spleens, anemia and other ailments. They were fed doses of from .25 to 2 per cent of the color dye in their diet.

No cancer developed, as it did in tests with the weed killer used on cranberries, but FDA scientists say cancer would not show up in such short-term tests. As a result of the disclosures so far, long-term tests have been started.

The major lipstick manufacturers take sharp issue with FDAs' testing methods. They contend tremendous amounts of the colors were used in the rats' diets, while only an infinitesimal amount of color gets into the human digestive system from lipstick.

Their protests include a demand that the present law be changed so that cosmetics, used externally, would not be treated the same as food and drugs that are taken directly into the system.

An FDA spokesman said there was some backing for this view within the agency itself.

According to present law, a cosmetic applied to the lips may not contain a color unless that color is included on FDA certified lists as harmless for use in foods, drugs and cosmetics.

Secretary of Welfare Arthur S. Flemming eventually will have to decide what to do about the lipstick colors. So far, no date has been set for the public hearing the industry is demanding.

The protests filed with FDA came from such well-advertised cosmetic brand names as Revlon, Max Factor, Richard Hudnut and Avon.

A spokesman for the Toilet Goods Assn. of New York City, which filed a brief, too, said it represented all of the manufacturers of cosmetics. Such major firms as Elizabeth Arden and Helena Rubinstein confirmed that the association spoke for them.

Says Husband Beat Her

ROME (UPI) — British actress Dawn Addams accused her Italian nobleman husband Friday of beating her in public four times, once while holding a revolver. He in turn charged that she lived with another man.

The charges and counter-charges were filed in a Rome court in a legal separation suit that was expected to bring forth such witnesses as Gina Lollobrigida. At stake was custody of the couple's 4-year-old son, Stephen, now staying with his father.

Miss Addams, married for five years to Prince Vittorio Massimo, charged that on four occasions, he slapped and punched her in public.

She said he beat her "in the presence of many persons" April 9, 1955, and that a "common friend" knocked a revolver from his hand as she fled to safety in a bathroom.

RIVALS OF OLD WEST

Australia Is Wild Frontier For Big Game Hunting, Fish

MELBOURNE, Australia (UPI) — If you want to go on a safari, you don't have to go to Africa because Australia offers the world's sportsmen a hunting and fishing paradise second to none.

There are parts of this country which are wilder than Dodge City in its heyday and have enough game to turn Buffalo Bill emerald with envy.

The best is in Arnhemland, a wild, unpopulated country of vast plains, towering escarpments and sky blue lakes known as billabongs. Not only that, but it's comparatively easy to reach, and once you're here the living is as cheap as the dirt which goes for as low as two shillings—22 cents — an acre in the wilderness of the outback.

"It's only a 110-mile flight from Darwin in my plane," says Alan Stuart, one time army major who looks like the typical Hollywood portrait of the safari white hunter.

"And you feel as if you are at the end of the world. Not only feel it, you are."

Stuart has 1,000 acres under lease in "the territory," and his camp is hard by a tribe of aboriginals who live as primitively as they did 1,000 years ago. Help is hard to keep because these Stone Age primitives are "walkabouts" who whistle to their "lubra" or wife and simply disappear into the bush for several months. But there are always enough of them on hand to put on a "coroboree" or tribal dance.

Scenically, Stuart contends that this is every it as primitive and spectacular as the best Africa has to offer. And then for the sportsman there is a fascinating variety of fish and game.

"We can put you on to wild buffalo which roam in packs of 20 and are big as horses," he explains. "When hit they are really dangerous and charge like rhino. Once, recently, we hit one at 200 yards with a .303 and it charged. It took 10 shots to stop him just before he was on us."

Then there are wild pigs big as great dane dogs which will charge and rip the dogs to ribbons. There are crocodiles hunted at night from boats which average from 8 to 10 feet and run up to 20 feet. The geese and ducks are so thick that using a double-barreled shotgun, you discharge one barrel into the water to put them in flight.

"Then you shoot the other barrel and so help me," says Stuart, "I've seen the veriest novice knock down 20 birds with one shot, they're that thick."

For the fisherman there is a fish called the barrumundi, a tuna type which runs from three feet-up.

Holders Of E Bonds Can Swap For H

WASHINGTON (AP) — Owners of the popular series E savings bonds will be given a chance to swap them for series H bonds, which pay interest twice a year.

Those who make the switch will be able to postpone paying taxes on the interest they've earned on their E bonds. This interest is collected—and taxed—only when the bond matures or is redeemed. Its exchange for the series H bond would delay the due date of the tax until the new bond matures.

The Treasury announced Thursday that, starting next Jan. 1, anyone who owns E bonds may exchange them at any time for H bonds. The offer also is being made to owners of series F and J savings bonds—types no longer sold.

Officials believe hundreds of thousands of people will make the switch. Altogether, between 35 and 40 million Americans own E bonds.

The swap offer, authorized by Congress last summer, is expected to appeal particularly to retired people who would like to receive regular interest checks to supplement their income.

Both E and H bonds pay 3¾ per cent interest if held until they mature. The H bonds mature in 10 years and are issued in denominations of $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

Details of the exchange procedure will be announced next month.

The Treasury announced also that $1,600,000,000 of series F and G savings bonds which mature next year may be swapped for treasury notes which mature May 15, 1964.

MISSING BABY FOUND—Young James Vickers, 4 ½ months old, is reunited with his mother, Mrs. Marilyn Vickers, of 27 East Harrison, Chicago, in the Methodist Hospital, Gary, where he was taken for a checkup after being found with the missing baby sitter, Dianna Varner, in a Gary Ind., hotel by FBI agents. Three Killed In Strange Double Mishap

CLARE, Mich. (UPI) — Two women and a 3-year-old girl were killed near here Friday afternoon in a freak double traffic accident.

The victims were Mrs. Leota Conn Dent, 45, of Rural Farwell, her daughter, Mrs. Marion J. Zill, 22, of Clare, and Mrs. Zill's daughter, Linda Lee, 3.

State police said the accident occurred as Mrs. Zill was driving her car past a long line of cars on U.S.-27.

She apparently saw an on-coming semi-truck at the last minute, glanced off the side of the last car in the line as she tried to get back into her own lane, and hit the truck head-on.

The only person in Mrs. Zill's car who was not killed was Mrs. Zill's 1-year-old son, Larry. The others were thrown from the car.

Neither the truck driver nor the driver of the other car were injured.

Airmen Bail Out Safely In Crash

ROY, Utah (AP) — A crippled T-33 jet trainer plane crashed in an open field and exploded in flames near this north Utah town Thursday. The two occupants parachuted to safety after trying vainly to glide to a landing at nearby Hill Air Force Base.

They were 1st Lt. Donale G. Janson of Bountiful, Utah, the pilot, and Capt. Charles H. Castle of Salt Lake City, a flight surgeon. Both are with the Utah Air National Guard.

Rep. Durham Tells Plans To Retire

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Carl T. Durham (D-NC), who helped shape this country's policies on atomic energy, announced Friday he is retiring from Congress after next year. He has served 21 years in the House.

Durham, 67, told newsmen, "The time comes when you have to step down. I've seen too many hang around until they were decrepit." His present term, for which he was unopposed, runs through 1960 and he said he will not again be a candidate "although I am sure I would have no opposition."

Durham has served twice as chairman of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee which supervises the supersecret U. S. atomic program. He would be in line for the chairmanship again in 1961, if Democratic control of Congress continues, under the committee's system of alternating the top post between Senate and House members.

As a result of Durham's retirement, Rep. Chet Holifield of California, next Senior Democratic member from the House, becomes the presumptive successor to the present chairman, Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D-NM).

Durham has been one of the leaders in congressional fights for civilian control of the atomic and other scientific programs. His views prevailed after World War II, when the civilian Atomic Energy Commission and the joint congressional supervisory committee was set up. He was an original member of the committee.

More recently, he joined others in urging successfully that the ultimate control over the national space program be given to a civilian rather than military agency.

Durham said he expects now to enjoy life at his home in Chapel Hill and "have more time to spend with my five children and 11 grandchildren."

Rockefeller Comments On Nixon's Chance

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (UPI) — New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller said Friday that Vice President Richard M. Nixon would probably win a presidential election if it were held today but added that the 1960 election was still "a long way off."

Rockefeller addressed the New England Society of Newspaper Editors Firady night on his tour to sample political winds in the nation's tiniest and usually Democratic state.

The United States, he said, must work for "peace, strength, unity and confidence."

"Those words are good, but let us use them with care and truth," the governor said. "The ideals are honorable and indispensable but let us remember that we shall attain them not merely by talking about them but also struggling for them."

He said America faced not only the aggressive challenge of Soviet Communism in terms of raw power, but a deeper challenge to prove to the world the meaning of freedom, of free enterprise and free political ways.

Although GOP Gov. Christopher Del Sesto, believed favorable to Nixon, was among the missing when Rockefeller landed at Hillsgrove Airport Friday morning, the governor later introduced him at a luncheon.

Rockefeller ducked all newsmen's questions regarding his own possible candidacy for the GOP presidential nomination.

BRITONS PREFER COLOGNE

LONDON (UPI) — British tourists liked Cologne better than Americans did this year. A total of 9,214 British tourists spent the night in the German city, compared with only 8,088 Americans.

Stripper Loses Bond, Boy Friend

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Sheriff's officers Friday ordered the arrest of stripper Candy Barr. Candy has lost her bond on a narcotics charge—and her boy friend.

The boy friend was Mickey Cohen, onetime Los Angeles gambling kingpin.

The bond was $15,000 worth of assurance that she would return to Dallas, Tex., to face a possible 15-year sentence for posession of marijuana.

Cohen, through an attorney, arranged to guarantee the blonde stripper's bond while she was appearing at a Sunset Strip night spot. He announced he was in love with her and wanted to marry her.

Then love cooled—to the point where, this week, Miss Barr told newsmen here, "I never want to see him again."

Cohen said that attorney Melvin Belli lifted her bond. He explained: "Belli guaranteed the bond to the people in Texas, and I guaranteed it to Belli.

"Belli said today he don't want to stand on the bond any more. He don't like her attitude. She made some comments about me he don't like. He says if she don't want no part of me, he don't want no part of her."

Belli wasn't available for comment.

Dallas authorities, informed that Miss Barr's bond wasn't any longer guaranteed, immediately asked Las Vegas sheriff's officers to take her into custody.

She was freed on the bond pending appeal of her conviction on the marijuana charge.

MISSING BABY FOUND—Young James Vickers, 4 ½ months old, is reunited with his mother, Mrs. Marilyn Vickers, of 27 East Harrison, Chicago, in the Methodist Hospital, Gary, where he was taken for a checkup after being found with the missing baby sitter, Dianna Varner, in a Gary Ind., hotel by FBI agents. Three Killed In Strange Double Mishap

CLARE, Mich. (UPI) — Two women and a 3-year-old girl were killed near here Friday afternoon in a freak double traffic accident.

The victims were Mrs. Leota Conn Dent, 45, of Rural Farwell, her daughter, Mrs. Marion J. Zill, 22, of Clare, and Mrs. Zill's daughter, Linda Lee, 3.

State police said the accident occurred as Mrs. Zill was driving her car past a long line of cars on U.S.-27.

She apparently saw an on-coming semi-truck at the last minute, glanced off the side of the last car in the line as she tried to get back into her own lane, and hit the truck head-on.

The only person in Mrs. Zill's car who was not killed was Mrs. Zill's 1-year-old son, Larry. The others were thrown from the car.

Neither the truck driver nor the driver of the other car were injured.

Airmen Bail Out Safely In Crash

ROY, Utah (AP) — A crippled T-33 jet trainer plane crashed in an open field and exploded in flames near this north Utah town Thursday. The two occupants parachuted to safety after trying vainly to glide to a landing at nearby Hill Air Force Base.

They were 1st Lt. Donale G. Janson of Bountiful, Utah, the pilot, and Capt. Charles H. Castle of Salt Lake City, a flight surgeon. Both are with the Utah Air National Guard.

Rep. Durham Tells Plans To Retire

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Carl T. Durham (D-NC), who helped shape this country's policies on atomic energy, announced Friday he is retiring from Congress after next year. He has served 21 years in the House.

Durham, 67, told newsmen. "The time comes when you have to step down. I've seen too many hang around until they were decrepit." His present term, for which he was unopposed, runs through 1960 and he said he will not again be a candidate "although I am sure I would have no opposition."

Durham has served twice as chairman of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee which supervises the supersecret U. S. atomic program. He would be in line for the chairmanship again in 1961, if Democratic control of Congress continues, under the committee's system of alternating the top post between Senate and House members.

As a result of Durham's retirement, Rep. Chet Holifield of California, next Senior Democratic member from the House, becomes the presumptive successor to the present chairman, Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D-NM).

Durham has been one of the leaders in congressional fights for civilian control of the atomic and other scientific programs. His views prevailed after World War II, when the civilian Atomic Energy Commission and the joint congressional supervisory committee was set up. He was an original member of the committee.

More recently, he joined others in urging successfully that the ultimate control over the national space program be given to a civilian rather than military agency.

Durham said he expects now to enjoy life at his home in Chapel Hill and "have more time to spend with my five children and 11 grandchildren."

Rockefeller Comments On Nixon's Chance

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (UPI) — New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller said Friday that Vice President Richard M. Nixon would probably win a presidential election if it were held today but added that the 1960 election was still "a long way off."

Rockefeller addressed the New England Society of Newspaper Editors Firady night on his tour to sample political winds in the nation's tiniest and usually Democratic state.

The United States, he said, must work for "peace, strength, unity and confidence."

"Those words are good, but let us use them with care and truth," the governor said. "The ideals are honorable and indispensable but let us remember that we shall attain them not merely by talking about them but also struggling for them."

He said America faced not only the aggressive challenge of Soviet Communism in terms of raw power, but a deeper challenge to prove to the world the meaning of freedom, of free enterprise and free political ways.

Although GOP Gov. Christopher Del Sesto, believed favorable to Nixon, was among the missing when Rockefeller landed at Hillsgrove Airport Friday morning, the governor later introduced him at a luncheon.

Rockefeller ducked all newsmen's questions regarding his own possible candidacy for the GOP presidential nomination.

BRITONS PREFER COLOGNE

LONDON (UPI) — British tourists liked Cologne better than Americans did this year. A total of 9,214 British tourists spent the night in the German city, compared with only 8,088 Americans.

Stripper Loses Bond, Boy Friend

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Sheriff's officers Friday ordered the arrest of stripper Candy Barr. Candy has lost her bond on a narcotics charge—and her boy friend.

The boy friend was Mickey Cohen, onetime Los Angeles gambling kingpin.

The bond was $15,000 worth of assurance that she would return to Dallas, Tex., to face a possible 15-year sentence for posession of marijuana.

Cohen, through an attorney, arranged to guarantee the blonde stripper's bond while she was appearing at a Sunset Strip night spot. He announced he was in love with her and wanted to marry her.

Then love cooled—to the point where, this week, Miss Barr told newsmen here, "I never want to see him again."

Cohen said that attorney Melvin Belli lifted her bond. He explained: "Belli guaranteed the bond to the people in Texas, and I guaranteed it to Belli.

"Belli said today he don't want to stand on the bond any more. He don't like her attitude. She made some comments about me he don't like. He says if she don't want no part of me, he don't want no part of her."

Belli wasn't available for comment.

Dallas authorities, informed that Miss Barr's bond wasn't any longer guaranteed, immediately asked Las Vegas sheriff's officers to take her into custody.

She was freed on the bond pending appeal of her conviction on the marijuana charge.

REACH AGREEMENT

The striking Steelworkers of America reached a new contract agreement Friday with Kennecott Copper Corp. Providing for a 22.3 cent an hour two-year wage package, but no break in the domestic copper tieup was imminent since the mine and mill and other unions continued on strike.

Meanwhile Kaiser Aluminum crossed up any steelworkers "divide and conquer" strategy by lining up with other aluminum producers in contract negotiations.

SCRAP PRICES WEAKEN

Steel scrap prices weakened partly because of the union rejection of the steel firms' latest contract offer. In one area prices of secondary grades of steel scrap declined by $1 to $3.50 a ton.

ESTIMATE FEDERAL LOSS

Congressional staff experts estimated that the steel strike would throw the federal budget $1 to $2 billion in the red for the present fiscal year. This estimate came after the federal budget director had admitted that the strike losses had endangered administration hopes for keeping the budget in balance this year.

EXPECTS RELAXED RULES

The United States announced it expects nine nations to relax import restrictions on a wide range of American agriculture and industrial goods "in the very near future." The announcement was made following the close of the meeting in Tokyo of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT).

INCOME INCREASES

Personal income in October increased for the second successive month to a seasonally adjusted annual rate of $382 billion the Commerce Department reported. Declines in wages and salaries because of the steel strike were more than offset by increases in other form of income.

RECEIVES CONTRACT

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa., (UPI) — Collins Radio Co. has received an Air Force contract totaling more than $2 million for the engineering, manufacture and installation of a Microwave Communications System at Fairchild Air Force Base, near Spokane, Wash.

APPROVE MERGER

WILMINGTON, N.C. (UPI) — Stockholders of Atlantic Coast Line Railroad approved a proposal to merge Charleston & Western Carolina Railway into the company. The plan will next be submitted for Interstate Commerce Commission approval.

TO MOVE OPERATIONS

CHICOPEE, Mass., (UPI) — Savage Arms Co. will move its manufacturing operations here to a former Fruehauf Trailer Co. plant at Westfield, Mass. Savage's present plants date back to the 1880's while the new quarters is a moern one-story structure.

TO PURCHASE FIRM

CHICAGO (UPI) — Stockholders of National City Lines, Inc. approved the $8 million purchase of United Motor Express, Inc., a California corporation. With the purchase, the company will also obtain ownership of Los Angeles-Seattle motor express, a wholly-owned subsidiary of United which operates about 1,000 vehicles throughout the Pacific Coast and British Columbia.

Grain Shows Rally But Loses Out

CHICAGO (AP)—The grain futures market showed some feeble signs of a rally at times Friday but closed with its second successive general setback.

Losses in most pits ran to a cent a bushel as selling again speeded up in the final minutes. At the finish corn was within a cent or two of its lows for the season in most deliveries while soybeans extended their losses to as much as eight cents a bushel since they set new season highs less than two weeks ago.

Prices started off on a downward trend with May wheat off about two cents at its worst. However, both wheat and soybeans mustered some scattered support at the lower levels. At one time, soybeans had virtually wiped out setbacks of about a cent then ran into another blast of selling.

Wheat finished unchanged to 1 cent a bushel lower with all the declines on the old crop months, December $1.98⅜-½; corn ¼-1⅛ lower, December $1.10⅝-½; oats ½ lower to ⅛ higher, December 76¾-⅝; rye 1 cent lower to ⅛ higher, December $1.31⅝-½; soybeans ¾-1 cent lower, January $2.19½-¾.

Butcher Hog Market Shows Good Demand

CHICAGO (AP) — Shipper demand was good Friday and the market for butcher hogs was steady to 25 cents higher with the advance mostly on weights over 220 lbs.

The top held at $13.25 for the fourth day this week. It went for about 300 head of 190-215 lb mostly No. 1 grade. Other mixed 1s and 2s and strictly No. 2s cleared at $13.00 and up while 190-230 lb mixed 1-3 grades moved at $12.50-13.00 and heavier weights at $12.00-12.85.

Sows were steady to strong at $9.25-11.00.

The butcher hog supply for the week probably was the heaviest of the year with 54,500 on sale compared with last week's 45,000.

Offerings of slaughter steers and heifers were very meager and no sales were reported. Vealers and bulls were scarce and steady. Standard to good vealers sold at $23.00-28.00 and utility to commercial bulls at $17.50-19.50.

Wooled slaughter lambs grading good to choice brought $17.00-19.00 with the market strong to 50 cents higher. Ewes were steady and cleared at $3.50-5.00 for cull to choice.

Shah Of Iran To Wed Soon

PARIS (AP)—Farah Diba flew homeward to Tehran early Saturday to marry the twice-divorced Shah of Iran. He's 40, she 21.

The ark-eyed former art student said her engagement to the Shah probably will be announced within a veek. She was seen off by a score of Iranian dignitaries.

The wedding date has not yet been decided, she said, but it may be around Christmas. She came here Oct. 22 to stock up her wardrobe with such items as 30 hats, 35 pairs of shoes and 4 furs including a white mink.

It will be her first marriage. The Shah has been married to Egypt's former Princess Fawzia, a sister of ex-King Farouk, and Soraya, a green-eyed daughter of Iranian aristocracy. The Shah has a daughter by his marriage to Fawzia, no children by Soraya, and has no male heir to claim the throne in succession to him.

SEARCH FOR VICTIMS — Firemen probe the smoking debris for victims after a series of explosions wrecked a chemical plant in a heavily populated Yokohama, Japan, suburb yesterday. More than 1,400 buildings were destroyed or damaged, and 376 persons were injured. The death toll would have been huge but most workers rushed to safety before a fire touched off the blasts. COTTON

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK (AP)—Cotton futures were irregular today.

Switching from nearby December to later months, anticipating first notice day for that delivery next Monday, was the feature.

Nearby May eased partly on selling by traders against purchases of the spot December position. Commission house buying supported a moderate upturn in distant months.

Late afternoon prices were 10 cents a bale lower to 60 cents higher than the previous close. Dec. 32.78, March 33.26 and May 33.39.

Prices advanced in late dealings on short covering and increased mill buying.

Futures closed unchanged to 80 cents a bale higher than the previous close.

Former Head Of Colombia Dies At 74

LONDON (AP)—Alfonso Lopez, president of Colombia in 1934-38 and 1942-45, died here Friday night while serving as Colombian ambassador to Britain. He was 74 and had been suffering from a kidney ailment.

Lopez had been ambassador to Britain since last June. He was stricken two weeks ago.

The end was foreshadowed during the day when the embassy announced Pope John XXIII had sent his apostolic blessing. Queen Elizabeth II also had expressed deep concern.

Lopez headed the Colombian delegation to U.N. Assemblies in 1945, 1948 and 1958. Last year, he presided at the first meeting of the committee of 21 American states in Washington.

Space Age Issues Up On Market

NEW YORK (AP)—Space age heading a moderate stock market haeding a moderate stock market advance late this afternoon. Trading was moderate.

Volume for the day was estimated at 2,800,000 shares compared with 3,230,000 Thursday.

The rise of pivotal stocks was spotty, gains of fractions to a point mingling with losses in a similar range. But the electronics-missile-rocket group scampered ahead with advances reaching as much as 7 points.

Ampex, recommended as a split candidate, was up about 7. Zenith and Motorola jumped about 4 apiece. Texas Instruments was up about 3. Litton Industries and Varian Associates around 2 each while Radio Corp. and Raytheon advanced more than a point.

General Tire, which has a rocket subsidiary, gained more than a point. Thiokol, the rocket fuel issue, was around a point higher.

Gains of about 2 by Goodyear and Merck highlighted the list of more conventional stocks. Most of the leading steelmakers were fractionally higher but U.S. Steel fell about a point.

Motors were mixed. Rails were irregular.

Most of the big chemicals did well. Oils edged off. Airlines and aircrafts were mixed.

U.S. government bonds were generally steady.

SEARCH FOR VICTIMS — Firemen probe the smoking debris for victims after a series of explosions wrecked a chemical plant in a heavily populated Yokohama, Japan, suburb yesterday. More than 1,400 buildings were destroyed or damaged, and 376 persons were injured. The death toll would have been huge but most workers rushed to safety before a fire touched off the blasts. REACH AGREEMENT

The striking Steelworkers of America reached a new contract agreement Friday with Kennecott Copper Corp. Providing for a 22.3 cent an hour two-year wage package, but no break in the domestic copper tieup was imminent since the mine and mill and other unions continued on strike.

Meanwhile Kaiser Aluminum crossed up any steelworkers "divide and conquer" strategy by lining up with other aluminum producers in contract negotiations.

SCRAP PRICES WEAKEN

Steel scrap prices weakened partly because of the union rejection of the steel firms' latest contract offer. In one area prices of secondary grades of steel scrap declined by $1 to $3.50 a ton.

ESTIMATE FEDERAL LOSS

Congressional staff experts estimated that the steel strike would throw the federal budget $1 to $2 billion in the red for the present fiscal year. This estimate came after the federal budget director had admitted that the strike losses had endangered administration hopes for keeping the budget in balance this year.

EXPECTS RELAXED RULES

The United States announced it expects nine nations to relax import restrictions on a wide range of American agriculture and industrial goods "in the very near future." The announcement was made following the close of the meeting in Tokyo of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT).

INCOME INCREASES

Personal income in October increased for the second successive month to a seasonally adjusted annual rate of $382 billion the Commerce Department reported. Declines in wages and salaries because of the steel strike were more than offset by increases in other form of income.

RECEIVES CONTRACT

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa., (UPI) — Collins Radio Co. has received an Air Force contract totaling more than $2 million for the engineering, manufacture and installation of a Microwave Communications System at Fairchild Air Force Base, near Spokane, Wash.

APPROVE MERGER

WILMINGTON, N.C. (UPI) — Stockholders of Atlantic Coast Line Railroad approved a proposal to merge Charleston & Western Carolina Railway into the company. The plan will next be submitted for Interstate Commerce Commission approval.

TO MOVE OPERATIONS

CHICOPEE, Mass., (UPI) — Savage Arms Co. will move its manufacturing operations here to a former Fruehauf Trailer Co. plant at Westfield, Mass. Savage's present plants date back to the 1880's while the new quarters is a moern one-story structure.

TO PURCHASE FIRM

CHICAGO (UPI) — Stockholders of National City Lines, Inc. approved the $8 million purchase of United Motor Express, Inc., a California corporation. With the purchase, the company will also obtain ownership of Los Angeles-Seattle motor express, a wholly-owned subsidiary of United which operates about 1,000 vehicles throughout the Pacific Coast and British Columbia.

Grain Shows Rally But Loses Out

CHICAGO (AP)—The grain futures market showed some feeble signs of a rally at times Friday but closed with its second successive general setback.

Losses in most pits ran to a cent a bushel as selling again speeded up in the final minutes. At the finish corn was within a cent or two of its lows for the season in most deliveries while soybeans extended their losses to as much as eight cents a bushel since they set new season highs less than two weeks ago.

Prices started off on a downward trend with May wheat off about two cents at its worst. However, both wheat and soybeans mustered some scattered support at the lower levels. At one time, soybeans had virtually wiped out setbacks of about a cent then ran into another blast of selling.

Wheat finished unchanged to 1 cent a bushel lower with all the declines on the old crop months, December $1.98⅜-½; corn ¼-1⅛ lower, December $1.10⅝-½; oats ½ lower to ⅛ higher, December 76¾-⅝; rye 1 cent lower to ⅛ higher, December $1.31⅝-½; soybeans ¾-1 cent lower, January $2.19½-¾.

Butcher Hog Market Shows Good Demand

CHICAGO (AP) — Shipper demand was good Friday and the market for butcher hogs was steady to 25 cents higher with the advance mostly on weights over 220 lbs.

The top held at $13.25 for the fourth day this week. It went for about 300 head of 190-215 lb mostly No. 1 grade. Other mixed 1s and 2s and strictly No. 2s cleared at $13.00 and up while 190-230 lb mixed 1-3 grades moved at $12.50-13.00 and heavier weights at $12.00-12.85.

Sows were steady to strong at $9.25-11.00.

The butcher hog supply for the week probably was the heaviest of the year with 54,500 on sale compared with last week's 45,000.

Offerings of slaughter steers and heifers were very meager and no sales were reported. Vealers and bulls were scarce and steady. Standard to good vealers sold at $23.00-28.00 and utility to commercial bulls at $17.50-19.50.

Wooled slaughter lambs grading good to choice brought $17.00-19.00 with the market strong to 50 cents higher. Ewes were steady and cleared at $3.50-5.00 for cull to choice.

Shah Of Iran To Wed Soon

PARIS (AP)—Farah Diba flew homeward to Tehran early Saturday to marry the twice-divorced Shah of Iran. He's 40, she 21.

The ark-eyed former art student said her engagement to the Shah probably will be announced within a week. She was seen off by a score of Iranian dignitaries.

The wedding date has not yet been decided, she said, but it may be around Christmas. She came here Oct. 22 to stock up her wardrobe with such items as 30 hats, 35 pairs of shoes and 4 furs including a white mink.

It will be her first marriage. The Shah has been married to Egypt's former Princess Fawzia, a sister of ex-King Farouk, and So"aya, a green-eyed daughter of Iranian aristocracy. The Shah has a daughter by his marriage to Fawzia, no children by Soraya, and has no male heir to claim the throne in succession to him.

POULTRY

CHICAGO (AP)—(USDA)—Live poultry: 1 to 2½ lower; hen turkeys 15-17 lbs 27-30, mostly 29½-30.

POTATOES

CHICAGO (AP)—(USDA)—Potatoes: Idaho russets 4.40-4.50; Minnesota North Dakota Red River Valley pontiacs 2.70-2.90.

COTTON

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK (AP)—Cotton futures were irregular today.

Switching from nearby December to later months, anticipating first notice day for that delivery next Monday, was the feature.

Nearby May eased partly on selling by traders against purchases of the spot December position. Commission house buying supported a moderate upturn in distant months.

Late afternoon prices were 10 cents a bale lower to 60 cents higher than the previous close. Dec. 32.78, March 33.26 and May 33.39.

Prices advanced in late dealings on short covering and increased mill buying.

Futures closed unchanged to 80 cents a bale higher than the previous close.

Former Head Of Colombia Dies At 74

LONDON (AP)—Alfonso Lopez, president of Colombia in 1934-38 and 1942-45, died here Friday night while serving as Colombian ambassador to Britain. He was 74 and had been suffering from a kidney ailment.

Lopez had been ambassador to Britain since last June. He was stricken two weeks ago.

The end was foreshadowed during the day when the embassy announced Pope John XXIII had sent his apostolic blessing. Queen Elizabeth II also had expressed deep concern.

Lopez headed the Colombian delegation to U.N. Assemblies in 1945, 1948 and 1958. Last year, he presided at the first meeting of the committee of 21 American states in Washington.

Space Age Issues Up On Market

NEW YORK (AP)—Space age heading a moderate stock market heading a moderate stock market advance late this afternoon. Trading was moderate.

Volume for the day was estimated at 2,800,000 shares compared with 3,230,000 Thursday.

The rise of pivotal stocks was spotty, gains of fractions to a point mingling with losses in a similar range. But the electronics-missile-rocket group scampered ahead with advances reaching as much as 7 points.

Ampex, recommended as a split candidate, was up about 7. Zenith and Motorola jumped about 4 apiece. Texas Instruments was up about 3. Litton Industries and Varian Associates around 2 each while Radio Corp. and Raytheon advanced more than a point.

General Tire, which has a rocket subsidiary, gained more than a point. Thiokol, the rocket fuel issue, was around a point higher.

Gains of about 2 by Goodyear and Merck highlighted the list of more conventional stocks. Most of the leading steelmakers were fractionally higher but U.S. Steel fell about a point.

Motors were mixed. Rails were irregular.

Most of the big chemicals did well. Oils edged off. Airlines and aircrafts were mixed.

U.S. government bonds were generally steady.

WEST MONROE, LOUISIANA Dial FA 5-6826
BOLD, BUT AUTHENTICALLY GROSS

IN HAITI

Discord Drums Growing Fainter

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP)-The drumbeats of discord grow fainter in Haiti.

The Negro republic has experienced a change for the economic and political better in recent months.

President Francois Duvalier is tough. His attitude toward democracy and civil rights remains less than respectful. But Duvalier is gaining grudging respect, if little personal popularity.

Perhaps this is only a quiet moment in the turbulent Haitian history. With an annual per capita income of $65, Haiti's 3,800,000 citizens remain the poorest in the Western world. Age-old political and social tensions, such as those between blacks and light-skinned Creoles, make political unrest endemic.

But the progress of the past few months has been encouraging in a nation which has no pace to go but up.

Duvalier has sliced the 1960 budget to 28 million dollars, a reduction of nearly 15 per cent. New excise taxes on such items as imported canned goods, autos, gasline and cigarettes should boost revenues by more than one million dollars.

The scandal of the Artibonite valley has been ended. More than 100,000 people over a 200-square-mile area were to have benefited from power and irrigation produced by the 14-million-dollar Peligre Dam. Because of corruption and inefficiency, the dam ended up costing 30 millions, with generators still not installed.

Duvalier had the payroll sliced from 1,200 to 600, put in a bright young project head and now rice is growing on what was an arid, salty area. Per capita income in the valley is $95 a year.

"Judging from one year ago, I would say they have made tremendous progress," was the recent comment of Rollin Atwood of Washington, D. C., Point Four director for Latin America.

Haitians live on an island but do not like the sea—perhaps because their ancestors came from the African mainland in slave ships. Dried cod and herring have been imported. Now, encouraged by Martin Routh, a British adviser from the U. N. Food and Agriculture Organization, a Haitian firm has gone into the fishing business. Refrigeration stations have been set up.

Other experts are helping rebuild the cacao industry. Hybrid corn has been introduced, with yields of three to five times that of Haitian corn. Roads, irrigation ditches and aniterosion projects are being pushed.

To do this, Duvalier has turned to the United States and, to a lesser extent, to the United Nations for help. In Latin America this can be a poitically dangerous step—particularly in Haiti, which remembers years of U. S. Marine Corps occupation.

About 70 American experts are here. Their fields vary from agricultural specialties to controlling traffic.

Haiti's tough leader has taken power away from inefficients originally installed because they supported him poitically. Now he hopes for administrative efficiency through American help and advisers.

Chemist Gives Report On Rust Preventative

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—A chemist said today his tests showed as fire resistant a rust preventative used on a sulphur barge that blew up at a Mississippi River shipyard. killing five persons.

Ralph Holt, employed by Avondale Marine Ways shipyard, told a Coast Guard board of inquiry looking into the Tuesday blast that his tests indicated the material ceased burning when a torch ignited it was removed.

Holt added: "If you took a torch all around the bulkhead and got the tank up to 90 degrees, you'd have an explosion."

David Crawford, engineer supervising the work on the Freeport Sulphur Co. barge, said workers were to drill holes for a waterline in the rear bulkhead where the explosion occurred. However, he noted, only one pipehole was to be burned directly into the compartment which exploded.

Crawford said he left the barge about 10 minutes before the blast.

Cmdr. Thomas Wakefield of the Coast Guard merchant marine inspection division, said he was aboard the barge 30 to 40 minutes before the explosion, but noticed no "hot work" going on as he left.

WOMAN KIDNAPER NABBED — Dianna Varner Pappas and jail matron Mrs. Charles Burks read FBI statement prior to Miss Pappas being jailed by US Commissioner W. J. Gledening of Hammond, Ind. She is accused of kidnapping 4½ mo. old Jimmy Vickers of Chicago. FBI agents captured her and recovered the baby late Thursday in Gary, Ind. (AP Wirephoto)

Claims Way To Harness H-Bomb

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—A California physicist described today what he said is a major development in the search for a practical way to harness the power of the hydrogen bomb.

Dr. Marshall N. Rosenbluth, a theoretical physicist with the General Dynamics Corp. in San Diego, Calif., addressed the Texas symposium on nuclear fusion at the University of Texas opening.

Rosenbluth said he and a colleague, Dr. William E. Drummond have theoretical findings showing that thermonuclear reactors—necessary for control of the energy-producing fusion process—may be built to specifications which will make them economically feasible.

The findings were said to contradict a 1958 report by two Soviet scientists, B. A. Trubikov and V. S. Kudryatsev, who said reactors probably would have to be hundreds of feet in diameter to control the escape of energy by radiation.

Rosenbluth said he and Drummond found radiation is emitted only in planes almost perpendicular to the magnetic field. They said this means much less energy will be lost than was foreseen by the Russian.

Rosenbluth and Drummond have been part of the team working on the 10-million-dollar, four-year program begun in 1957 by General Dynamics Corp. and the Nuclear Research Foundation, a nonprofit organization formed by 11 Texas electric utility companies.

Montana Jolted By Earth Shocks

BOZEMAN, Mont. (AP)—Earth shocks which ranged from strong to very weak jolted southwest Montana Thursday, little more than three months after the earthquakes which claimed 28 lives in the Madison River Canyon.

A Montana State College spokesman said eight separate temblors were recorded. No damage was reported.

IN HAITI

Discord Drums Growing Fainter

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP)—The drumbeats of discord grow fainter in Haiti.

The Negro republic has experienced a change for the economic and political better in recent months.

President Francois Duvalier is tough. His attitude toward democracy and civil rights remains less than respectful. But Duvalier is gaining grudging respect, if little personal popularity.

Perhaps this is only a quiet moment in the turbulent Haitian history. With an annual per capita income of $65, Haiti's 3,800,000 citizens remain the poorest in the Western world. Age-old political and social tensions, such as those between blacks and light-skinned Creoles, make political unrest endemic.

But the progress of the past few months has been encouraging in a nation which has no pace to go but up.

Duvalier has sliced the 1960 budget to 28 million dollars, a reduction of nearly 15 per cent. New excise taxes on such items as imported canned goods, autos, gasline and cigarettes should boost revenues by more than one million dollars.

The scandal of the Artibonite valley has been ended. More than 100,000 people over a 200-square-mile area were to have benefited from power and irrigation produced by the 14-million-dollar Peligre Dam. Because of corruption and inefficiency, the dam ended up costing 30 millions, with generators still not installed.

Duvalier had the payroll sliced from 1,200 to 600, put in a bright young project head and now rice is growing on what was an arid, salty area. Per capita income in the valley is $95 a year.

"Judging from one year ago, I would say they have made tremendous progress," was the recent comment of Rollin Atwood of Washington, D. C., Point Four director for Latin America.

Haitians live on an island but do not like the sea—perhaps because their ancestors came from the African mainland in slave ships. Dried cod and herring have been imported. Now, encouraged by Martin Routh, a British adviser from the U. N. Food and Agriculture Organization, a Haitian firm has gone into the fishing business. Refrigeration stations have been set up.

Other experts are helping rebuild the cacao industry. Hybrid corn has been introduced, with yields of three to five times that of Haitian corn. Roads, irrigation ditches and aniterosion projects are being pushed.

To do this, Duvalier has turned to the United States and, to a lesser extent, to the United Nations for help. In Latin America this can be a poitically dangerous step—particularly in Haiti, which remembers years of U. S. Marine Corps occupation.

About 70 American experts are here. Their fields vary from agricultural specialties to controlling traffic.

Haiti's tough leader has taken power away from inefficients originally installed because they supported him poitically. Now he hopes for administrative efficiency through American help and advisers.

Chemist Gives Report On Rust Preventative

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—A chemist said today his tests showed as fire resistant a rust preventative used on a sulphur barge that blew up at a Mississippi River shipyard, killing five persons.

Ralph Holt, employed by Avondale Marine Ways shipyard, told a Coast Guard board of inquiry looking into the Tuesday blast that his tests indicated the material ceased burning when a torch ignited it was removed.

Holt added: "If you took a torch all around the bulkhead and got the tank up to 90 degrees, you'd have an explosion."

David Crawford, engineer supervising the work on the Freeport Sulphur Co. barge, said workers were to drill holes for a waterline in the rear bulkhead where the explosion occurred. However, he noted, only one pipehole was to be burned directly into the compartment which exploded.

Crawford said he left the barge about 10 minutes before the blast.

Cmdr. Thomas Wakefield of the Coast Guard merchant marine inspection division, said he was aboard the barge 30 to 40 minutes before the explosion, but noticed no "hot work" going on as he left.

Claims Way To Harness H-Bomb

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—A California physicist described today what he said is a major development in the search for a practical way to harness the power of the hydrogen bomb.

Dr. Marshall N. Rosenbluth, a theoretical physicist with the General Dynamics Corp. in San Diego, Calif., addressed the Texas symposium on nuclear fusion at the University of Texas opening.

Rosenbluth said he and a colleague, Dr. William E. Drummond have theoretical findings showing that thermonuclear reactors—necessary for control of the energy-producing fusion process—may be built to specifications which will make them economically feasible.

The findings were said to contradict a 1958 report by two Soviet scientists, B. A. Trubikov and V. S. Kudryatsev, who said reactors probably would have to be hundreds of feet in diameter to control the escape of energy by radiation.

Rosenbluth said he and Drummond found radiation is emitted only in planes almost perpendicular to the magnetic field. They said this means much less energy will be lost than was foreseen by the Russian.

Rosenbluth and Drummond have been part of the team working on the 10-million-dollar, four-year program begun in 1957 by General Dynamics Corp. and the Nuclear Research Foundation, a nonprofit organization formed by 11 Texas electric utility companies.

Montana Jolted By Earth Shocks

BOZEMAN, Mont. (AP)—Earth shocks which ranged from strong to very weak jolted southwest Montana Thursday, little more than three months after the earthquakes which claimed 28 lives in the Madison River Canyon.

UN Requesting France To Kill Bomb Test Plan

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The United Nations Friday asked France to call off its A-bomb test in the Sahara Desert.

The action by the 82-nation General Assembly was a stinging defeat to the French, who had declared previously they would ignore any U.N. appeal and go ahead with the test perhaps as early as next spring .

France was taken by surprise by the decision of the Assembly, where it had the support of the United States and Britain.

By a 51-16 vote, with 15 abstentions, the Assembly approved a watered-down resolution expressing grave concern over the French intention to conduct nuclear tests, and asking President Charles de Gaulle's government to "refrain from such tests."

RESOLUTION

A resolution containing those words had been approved in the U. N. Political Committee last week but not by a sufficient margin to assure the two-thirds majority required.

The two-thirds majority was achieved by knocking out two paragraphs in the resolution that some delegates, particularly those from Latin America, felt were too harsh on the French.

The paragraphs referred to the creation of dangerous conditions in Africa by holding the test, and to the special responsibility of the U.N. for "dependent peoples of Africa threatened by such tests."

With that language out of the resolution some Latin - American delegates voted yes. They included Bolivia, Ecuador and Panama. Several others switched from no to abstention.

Those in favor of the resolution included most of the Asian-African nations, the entire Soviet bloc and Yugoslavia, as well as the Scandinavian nations, Ireland, Canada, and New Zealand.

Prior to the vote, Jules Moch, the French disarmament expert, assailed the resolution as discriminatory against his country and "totally unacceptable."

Alex Quaison-Sackey, the Ghana delegate, replied that the African peoples would regard the vote as an expression of U.N. friendship for them.

The Assembly also gave his unanimous approval to a U.S.-Soviet plan for tossing all disarmament proposals, including Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's total disarmament plan, to the 10-nation East-West committee that will meet in Geneva early next year.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov said the United Nations had demonstrated by its actions the importance attached to Soviet disarmament proposals.

Renewal Of Strike Likelihood

Steel Union Advises Start Of Stockpiling

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United Steelworkers Union advised the government Friday it had better start stockpiling steel for defense purposes since a renewed steel strike is likely in mid-January.

Arthur J. Goldberg, union counsel, wrote Secretary of Commerce Frederick H. Mueller that present government steel acquisition policies seemed to be gambling on a labor settlement before the present injunction runs out.

The 80-day Taft-Hartley law injunction that halted the 116-day steel strike in early November will expire on Jan. 26.

Goldberg wrote Mueller that "while I have not abandoned hope that a settlement in steel will be reached before the 80-day injunction expires, nevertheless, I must advise you in all candor that at the present writing no settlement is in prospect."

DEFENSE

"Sure the defense of this country should not rest on a gamble that hopes for a settlement in the 80-day injunction period will be realized," he wrote.

Goldberg noted the Business and Defense Services Administration of the Commerce Department has ordered steel companies to give priority to defense orders for steel. The union attorney said the union considers this order "totally inadequate to protect the national safety."

"I respectfully submit to you, Mr. Secretary," he said, "that it is the counsel of wisdom that sufficient steel be stockpiled now, as permitted under existing law, to guard against the possibility that a peril to the safety of the nation will be created if the strike is not settled within the 80-day period."

NO-MAN'S LAND

Nehru Renders Counter Proposal

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — All territory in dispute between India and Red China in Ladakh, Kashmir, would be made a temporary no-man's land under a counterproposal that Prime Minister Nehru has fired back to Peiping.

Made public Friday was an Indian note sent Monday in reply to Red China's Premier Chou En-lai, who wants each side to pull back forces 12½ miles from their present positions.

Ladakh is the wild Himalayan territory where nine Indian policemen were killed and 10 captured by the Red Chinese in a clash on Oct. 21. India says the clash occurred 40 miles inside her claimed frontier.

REJECT

Nehru rejected Chou's proposal because it would leave the Communists holding about 8,000 square miles of land claimed by India. Nehru's counterplan would involve only a minor Indian withdrawal.

The Prime Minister proposed that Red China pull back to the line claimed by India, and that India pull back to the line claimed by Red China, leaving the intervening territory unoccupied. It is not necessary to keep any administrative personnel in the area, he said, because it is almost entirely uninhabited.

He accepted Chou's other proposal that they meet to discuss the border dispute, but declared there must be detailed negotiations first to reach an interim understanding.

"There is danger," he wrote, that a meeting not prepared for in advance would end in failure, "disappointing hopes of millions of people in our two countries."

Such talks, he declared, "will not succeed if we ignore the facts," and he accused the Chinese of distorting the facts.

He said he was anxious "to explore all avenues to reduce present tension between our two countries," but the "cause of recent troubles is the action taken from your side of the frontier."

Chou also proposed in his note of Nov. 7 that both sides withdraw 12½ miles from the McMahon line which India claims as her northeast frontier in the Himalayas. The Red Chinese have occupied several border points there, too.

Nehru's counterproposal in that area suggested that both sides refrain from sending out armed patrols from their present posts to prevent future clashes.

FLEMMING'S ACTION TOPIC

Benson Notes View On Berries

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson said Friday it is "entirely possible" Secretary of Welfare Arthur S. Flemming could have protected the public from tainted cranberries without a general warning that throttled practically all sales.

Reporters drew this comment from Benson in response to several questions as to whether he thought Flemming handled the problem skillfully or bungled it. Flemming's defenders have argued he was obliged under the law to act as he did.

Benson refused either to defend or criticize his fellow Cabinet officer's methods, saying he was not in a position to judge.

The Welfare Department had the facts concerning the contaminated berries, Benson said, and "they may have been justified."

WARNING

But Benson remarked that the timing of Flemming's public warning coming as it did only a short time ahead of Thanksgiving, seemed difficult to the industry.

Benson—who called the news conference to announce a drive to help the embattled cranberry industry—showed little sympathy for growers whose berries became contaminated by a weed killer found to produce cancer in rats.

Under questioning, Benson said it appears these growers are to blame because they apparently did not follow directions for using the chemical weed killer.

It was 12 days ago that Flemming announced some cranberries raised in the Northwest had been found tainted by the weed killer, called Aminotriazole. He cautioned against using any cranberries until they had been tested and declared safe.

Immediately, Flemming was subjected to severe criticism by cranberry industry officials who contended he had needlessly

Rev. DeCaigney Rayville Pastor, Dies; Rites Set

RAYVILLE (Special) — The Rev. Roy DeCaigney, formerly assistant pastor of St. Matthews Catholic church in Monroe, was found dead at noon Friday in the rectory of Sacred Heart Catholic church here.

Father DeCaigney became pastor of Sacred Heart church in June, and also was pastor of St. Theresa's Catholic mission church in Delhi.

Msgr. J. C. Marsh, pastor of St. Matthews, said last night that the Richland Parish coroner had given a verdict of coronary occlusion.

PLANS

Father DeCaigney had planned to have lunch with the T. J. Coenan family, but when he failed to appear Coenan went to the priest's home.

He found the body. Father DeCaigney, who was 47, lived alone.

Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. Tuesday in Sacred Heart church. Msgr. Marsh will officiate at a Solemn Requiem High Mass, and burial will be in the Masonic cemetery here.

Court Orders Challenges In Voter Dispute

Winn Registrar Told To Mail 7 By Monday Noon

WINNFIELD (Special) —The Eighth District Court ruled here Friday that the Winn Parish registrar, Mrs. Mary C. Flournoy, must mail out seven of 11 challenges filed with her Nov. 12.

She has until noon Monday to mail out the challenges, which were filed by the Winn Parish Citizens Court Council. The challenges all involve Negroes.

However, her attorneys said they would ask for the State Supreme Court to intervene.

On the other hand, the local ruling binds Mrs. Flournoy to mail out the seven challenges by Monday noon or face contempt of court provided the Supreme Court has not intervened by that time.

EXPLANATION

Judge Harwell Allen said that the four challenges that will not have to be mailed out were challenged on circumstances which did not constitute a fact of voter qualification.

In particular, the cards were challenged because certain blanks were not filled in.

Guy Humphreys, a member of Camille Gravel's firm, was waiting in Winnfield late Friday for transcripts of the trial so he could forward them to the Supreme Court.

The challenges were filed by Citizens Council president Stanley Smith and his attorney Hiram Wright. Smith and Wright filed eight previous challenges and the lawsuit went to the Supreme Court.

This is the latest in a long series of developments involving registration in the parish dating back to the summer months.

The Citizens Council has been the main force pushing the voter purge, but other citizens have also been involved. In one case, Paul Green, candidate for police juror in Ward 4 filed seven suits against voters in his ward.

Rate Increase On Mail Told, No Date Set

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Interstate Commerce Commission Friday sanctioned an average 17.1 per cent increase in mail rates on parcel post and catalogs.

The authorized increases, on a sliding zone basis, range up to 35 per cent. The largest hikes apply to small packages traveling short distances.

Under the new scale submitted by the Post Office Department and approved by the commission, there will be a few reductions on maximum weight parcels transported over long distances.

EFFECTIVE

The Post Office Department did not immediatey announce when the increases would be made effective.

If put into effect without delay, the high rates will fall on the bulk of Christmas package mailing.

The changes were estimated by ICC to yield the post office an additional 88 million dollars a year in revenue. They are designed to put the parcel post service on a self-supporting basis.

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield petitioned for the in-

LSU Spokesman Gives Comment

BATON ROUGE (AP) — A Louisiana State University spokesman said Friday a gubernatorial candidate's charges involving All-America Billy Cannon may have been a reprisal against the university.

The spokesman, asking not to be identified, said Gale Berry's action was construed to be a result of his failure to receive football tickets this fall.

Berry charged Thursday that Cannon received $1,000 and a job promise to pose in a photograph with former Gov. Jimmie Davis, another candidate for governor.

Both LSU and Davis have called the charges absurd.

BEFORE IKE'S DEPARTURE

Briefing Slated In White House

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — President Eisenhower has invited five top Democrats and four Republicans from Congress to a Nov. 30 briefing on his 20,000-mile, goodwill mission abroad.

It will be a breakfast session at the White House in Washington four days before Eisenhower's take-off Dec. 3 for capitals of 11 European, Asian and African nations.

The meeting will bring in Senate and House leaders of both parties, and the Democratic chairmen and senior Republicans of the foreign affairs committees of House and Senate.

Acting White House press secretary Wayne Hawks said all but one or two already have accepted.

MEETINGS

The conference is Eisenhower's counterproposal to a suggestion of Sen. Thomas J. Dodd (D-Conn) that the President take one or more leading Democrats, such as former President Harry S. Truman, on his projected trip. Truman and Eisenhower have been somewhat less than friendly ever since the 1952 political campaign.

Eisenhower rejected Dodd's suggestion as impractical for a journey with such a crowded schedule. He told the senator he had proposed the two-party meeting with congressional leaders as more useful.

Hawks said these Democrats were invited: House Speaker Sam

Union Parish Mother Of Four Dies In Wreck

FARMERVILLE (Special) — State police said here late last night that a 25-year-old Bernice man is being held on negligent homicide charges following an auto accident near Junction City that killed a Farmerville mother of four children.

Dead is Mrs. Mable T. Raley, 25, Rt. 1, Farmerville, a widow, who was a passenger in an auto driven by Barney J. Wiltcher Jr., Rt. 2, Bernice.

State police said the auto swerved into the opposite lane of traffic from which it was travelling, smashed into a concrete bridge rail on the Beaver Creek Bridge about a half-mile south of Junction City and turned right side up in the middle of U. S. Highway 167.

Junction City is on the Louisiana-Arkansas border.

The accident occurred about 7:30 p.m., state police said.

Wiltcher suffered a laceration on the back of his head and minor bruises and abrasions.

Vote Registration At All-Time High

BATON ROUGE (AP) — Louisiana vote registrations climbed 6.5 per cent to a record 1,108,611 Friday, showing a key shift from roral to city areas compared with four years ago.

The state Board of Registration made public the latest figures.

All books in the 64 parishes closed Nov. 5, or 30 days ahead of the upcoming Dec. 5 gubernatorial first primary.

Gov. Earl K. Long already has predicted a "record breaker ballot."

The 1952 first primary ballot reached 762,000, the 1956 first primary 821,000.

The new total is up 68,418, compared with the 1,040,193 on the rosters Dec. 17, 1955, a month before the 1956 first primary. This new total consists of 958,375 whites, 86.4 per cent of the total, and 150,236 Negroes, or 13.6 per cent.

While Negro registrations skyrocketed between 1948 and 1956, they dropped off 5,224 compared with just before the 1956 governor's race.

The registration board said in recent months, the precentage of Negro registrations compared with the whites has remained almost constant.

Purges by white citizens councils in recent years trimmed some Negroes from the rolls. But new registrations made up some of the loss.

The new registration board figures show 1,095,747 registered Democrats in the 1,108,611 total,

Capsule Recovery Scheduled

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — The satellite Discoverer VIII rocketed into polar orbit Friday for a fifth try at a vital goal—ejecting a capsule so it can be recovered from space.

Recovery, of prime importance in America's man-in-space program, will be attempted Saturday by plucking the capsule from the sky if possible, from the sea as second choice.

The Air Force said signals from the 1,700-pound satellite were picked up by tracking stations in Alaska at approximately 1 p.m. as it completed its first circuit of the earth.

RADIO

Information radioed back from the satellite indicates it is in a north-south orbit. At its closest point the satellite is 120 miles above the earth, and its farthest 1,000 miles.

The satellite is whirling around the earth's poles once every 103 minutes.

Five of the seven previous Discoverers have orbited. There have been four recovery tries, all failures. Capsules were ejected from Discoverers II, V and VI. Number II had a faulty timing device. On V and VI the capsule's radio beacon failed. Number VII had power failure that prevented ejection.

The Air Force says it plans to continue the Discoverer program until a recovery is made.

"Capsule recovery," said one officer, "is a crisis point in our man-in-space program. Recovery from orbit has never been accomplished, by us or Russia. Until we can establish the technique we will never send a man into orbit because we have to be sure we can get him back."

The 78-foot Discoverer VIII, powered by a first-stage Thor IRBM, soared beautifully into a clear sky at 11:26 a.m. It was in sight for several minutes, leaving in its wake a miles-long plume of white smoke. The 17-foot second stage, all of which went into orbit, also functioned normally.

Saturday afternoon, 26 hours after launch on its 17th orbital pass,

Alabama Given New Weapon In School Hassle

MONTGOMERY, Ala., (AP)—Segregationists in Alabama were given untested new weapons Friday night to use against mass Negro voter registration and threatened school integration.

Gov. John Patterson signed into law two legislative acts cutting sharply into the time allotted for registration of new voters, and another authorizing the use of state funds to finance private segregated schools.

Patterson withheld action on another private school measure. It would allocate public money directly to the pupils. The governor said he is inclined to veto that bill.

Alabama already has one law providing for the use of state funds to subsidize privately operated schools if public schools are close and turned over to citizens' groups.

The new law is patterned more after a separate existing statue which for several years has permitted the appropriation of funds to private colleges, including Tuskegee Institute.

Segregationists, who may challenge the Tuskegee appropriation to get a test suit into court, con-

ENJOYS TRIP TO EUROPE

'Sergeant' Dupes Army Authorities

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lemuel King, a cashiered soldier who knew all the angles, duped the Army out of a trip to Europe as a master sergeant last year. A court ruled Friday the Army was just plain victimized and could take no revenge.

Here's what happened to the ingenious GI who got away with his masquerade even after trying to stretch his luck too far:

King, a 38-year-old veteran of World War II and Korea, received an undesirable discharge at Ft. Ord, Calif., in February 1958. He told investigators he had run into trouble, including a drunk charge, while driving his big red auto around the premises.

Three days after he was tossed out as a private he was on his way to Ft. Dix, N.J., posing as a master sergeant. He had connived with an unidentified clerk at headquarters for rigged order.

King journeyed comfortably. He obtained $194 in advance travel pay and $75 in partial Army pay.

Ft. Dix saw nothing wrong with the order, which authorized shipment overseas. Forthwith, King was shipped.

Headquarters Co. of the 5th Corps at Frankfurt, Germany, made him a food supervisor. In this pleasant assignment he ate and slept in good grace and, including allowances, drew in the vicinity of $200 monthly.

Until July 1958, that is. Then an officer at Mannheim reported to Frankfurt that a soldier named King was asking an antiaircraft artillery clerk to type him up some leave orders.

The officer ordered King back

While the weatherman tells us that it will continue to get warmer today and tonight, cloudy skies are liable to keep Mr. Sun from getting too much of an upper hand.

Nonetheless, we can expect a high temperature today of 70 to 74 degrees. This is up some from yesterday's high of 68, low of 30.

Louisiana and Arkansas have about the same forecast: Cloudy and warmer through tonight.

Benson Notes View On Berries

scared consumers away from buying their products, threatening them with financial disaster. These industry people argued Flemming could have acted without public fanfare.

Flemming's department has said conclusive evidence of the contamination, coupled with reports of the weed killer's misuse in 1959, first became available on Friday, Nov. 6.

Information on the situation was developed during the ensuing weekend, the department added, and Flemming made his announcement on Monday, Nov. 9 after talking by telephone with officials of Ocean Spray Cranberries, Inc., the national cranberry cooperative.

The chief purpose of Benson's news conference was to announce a big campaign "toward restoring public confidence in this traditional Thanksgiving holiday food."

"The Benson family will be using them and I hope all will," he said in asking that Americans start eating cranberries again as soon as cleared batches reach grocery stores.

As part of the campaign to help cranberry growers, Benson said he had wired food and industry leaders during an all-out merchandising effort now that Flemming's department has approved a plan for stepped-up testing of the berries and labeling the safe ones for the housewive's guidance.

Benson told newsmen he had ordered his department to start a cranberry promotion drive. And he said he would consider buying some of the surplus cleared berries for the school lunch program.

Orleans Parish, with a new total of 200,829, slumped from the previous high of 214,602, in December 1955.

This was the only city loss, however. And since adjacent Jefferson Parish soared from 61,351 to 81,870, some of that could have been the loss in Orleans in that metropolitan area.

The city parishes of Caddo, Calcasieu, East Baton Rouge, Jefferson, Lafayette, Rapides and Ouachita all showed gains, amounting to 38,209.

Here are the new parish registrations, compared with the previous high of 1,056,546 set just before the 1956 presidential vote:

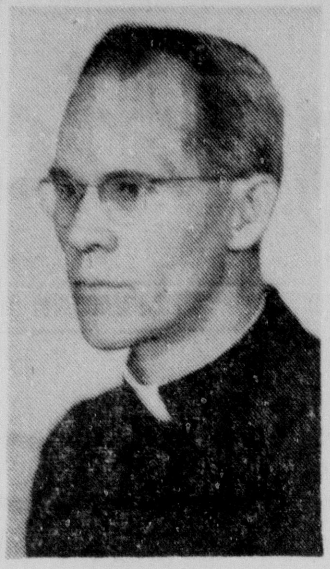
BIRDSONG

STATE SENATOR

Jackson and Ouachita Parish

No. 79 on the ballot



REV. ROY DeCAIGNEY

Rev. DeCaigney Rayville Pastor, Dies; Rites Set

Mass will be said by Msgr. Marsh in Sacred Heart church, for the repose of Father DeCaigney's soul.

All area priests will attend both today's Mass and the funeral Tuesday.

A rosary service was held in Sacred Heart at 7 last night.

Msgr. Marsh said that rosary services will also be held at the church Sunday night and Monday night.

The body will lie in state at the Mulhearn Funeral home in Rayville until 8 a.m. Tuesday. At that time it will be taken to the church, and remain there until the funeral.

BACKGROUND

Originally from Minnesota, Father DeCaigney had taught in Catholic schools in Massachusetts for many years before entering the priesthood.

He studied at a seminary in Wisconsin, and was ordained a priest in Alexandria four years ago.

His first parish was St. Rita's in Alexandria, where he served for one year.

During the next two years he was assistant pastor at St. Mathews.

Last June, he became pastor of Sacred Heart and St. Theresa's.

"He was so happy over here (at Rayville) and the people liked him very much," observed Msgr. Marsh, adding that Father DeCaigney was a dedicated man.

Father DeCaigney is survived by his mother, Mrs. Felicia DeCaigney and his sister, Mrs. Arthur Carle, both of Cloquet, Minn.

They are driving down for the funeral, and have expressed the wish that he be buried in the community where he was pastor.

Although the Bishop of the diocese ordinarily officiates at the funeral mass for a deceased priest, the Most Rev. Charles P. Greco, Bishop of Alexandria is in Washington, D.C. for the dedication of the Immaculate Conception Shrine and a meeting of Bishops.

Msgr. Marsh said that he doubts if Bishop Greco will be back in time for the funeral.

to Frankfurt. King liked it in Mannheim. A week later, however, he reluctantly gave up. He was arrested with faked leave papers in his pocket.

The Army charged its guest with fraudulent enlistment, absence without leave, failure to obey a lawful order, resisting apprehension, forgery and possession of a false pass.

By a sentencing agreement with the powers that be, King pleaded guilty and was given a dishonorable discharge and one year at hard labor.

An Army review board canceled the forgery conviction. The Court of Military Appeals Friday canceled the rest.

King, it ruled, was a civilian all the time.

Government prosecutors argued King "constructively enlisted" by voluntarily entering the service and accepting pay and allowances. Thus, they said, he was under Army jurisdiction.

"At best," Judge George W. Latimer decreed, "all he did was to put on the garb of a soldier and masquerade as a member of the Army in good standing.

"This record shows nothing more than a larceny or larcenies by trick in which the Army was undoubtedly duped but not in agreeing to enroll the accused as a member of its community. It was just the victim of a crime committed by a civilian."

Chief Judge Robert Emmett Quinn dissented in the 2-1 decision.

Latimer said King, a native of St. Louis, may still be subject to action in civilian courts for his "deceitful and fantastic scheme." But, in the Army, no.

Successful

The Civitan Club had a successful evening in the Frances hotel Thursday when a program held in conjunction with "Farm-City Week" in Louisiana, extending from Nov. 19-26, was explained. It was under direction of the Monroe Chamber of Commerce Agricultural committee.

J. J. Joyce, Jr., parish agent, introduced Lynn Pesson, assistant State 4-H Club agent, who discussed the present efforts to take care of the problem of both Farm and City without injury to either.

He said that modern inventions have, as we know, taken much unnecessary toil off the shoulders of men on farms, and the men so released have thronged to the cities.

He visioned the creation of new jobs in the cities to care for men and women relieved from toil in rural areas.

Talks

At the same meeting Kenneth Blue Jr., and Billy C. Dixon, who attended Pelican State at the capitol as representatives of the Monroe Civitan club, their sponsors, made interesting talks of their experiences.

Information

Northeast Louisiana State college has issued the following information for all connected with the institution.

All dormitories will close at 2:30 p.m. next Wednesday and will re-open November 29 at 2:30 p.m.

The cafeteria will close after serving next Wednesday's dinner and will reopen Sunday November 29. The Student Center will close next Wednesday noon and reopen Monday November 30.

'Commercial'

Thursday was observed as open house at the school. Parents were proceeding from room to room, and ultimately came to Paul's room. Then the mother exclaimed "Paul, why is your name up on the blackboard by the flag?"

Paul replied, "Mama, I stand in front of the class with the flag, and the pupils say "the commercial."

Party

Knights of Columbus on Oliver Road, threw open the clubhouse doors for the annual party to members, prospective members, and all TV radio and newspapers personnel.

The Monroe Deanery attend in full force and a fine get-together party resulted with a social good time and also a well prepared and generous shrimp supper was served. It was a party long to be remembered.

Three Injured In Accidents Near Monroe

An auto left the highway, broke off a power line pole and injured an elderly couple about a mile west of the West Monroe city limits yesterday. About three hours later another auto ran off the road at the same spot and hit a repair pole trailor and a pickup truck, injuring the driver.

Injured in the first accident were Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Littleton, Route 1, West Monroe. Both were hospitalized at St. Francis hospital. Mrs. Littleton, 74, suffered a fractured left ankle, fractured pelvis and generalized contusions. Her husband, 78, who was driving, was hospitalized with general contusions.

Littleton told state police that another auto forced him off the highway.

SECOND MISHAP

In the second accident, which occurred about 8 p.m., three hours after the first, a Jonesboro man, Raymond Freeman, 23, was hospitalized at St. Francis for observation.

His auto was headed west, the same direction that the Littleton auto was going three hours earlier. The highway is a straight stretch in that area.

State police said the Freeman auto glanced off a Louisiana Power and Light Co. pole trailer and smashed head-on into a pickup truck, both of which were parked, after it left the road.

Neither of the registration bills signed into law makes any mention of Negro voting, but they were admittedly designed to safeguard white supremacy at the polls in counties where the population is predominantly Negro.

It was noted that in recent pledges turned in the non-professional employees of the St. Francis Hospital did an outstanding job.

The latest 100 per cent employee payroll deduction firm is the Capitol Store Fixtures Company. This particular payroll represents brand-new money to the Drive, as this is the firm's first year to have the deduction plan.

These last few days of the drive are always the hardest, and Moore urged all workers to not let up on their efforts until the job is completed.

Humphrey Intends To Enter Race

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.) intends to enter the Wisconsin presidential primary next April against either Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) or a favorite son candidate, it was reported Friday in the Humphrey camp.

Now rated far behind Kennedy among the unannounced democratic presidential hopefuls, Humphrey is eager for a two-man contest in Wisconsin. His partisans admit that his campaign needs the lift it would get from the national attention focused on primary campaigns and victories.

If Humphrey suffered a fatal defeat or defeats in the primaries, he would become merely a candidate for reelection to the Senate from Minnesota.

He was reported determined to enter the Wisconsin primary, however, whatever the opposition. His supporters point to Sen. Estes Kefauver's 1952 victory in Wisconsin as evidence that a favorite son in that state cannot win the primary against a serious contender for the presidential nomination.

Humphrey backers also expect him to enter the California primary if Kennedy should challenge the favorite son candidacy of Gov. Edmund G. Brown. Claiming a shortage of money for organization, however, Humphrey aides generally expect their man to go only into smaller states which he can cover by personal campaigning.

2 Bank Robbery Suspects Held In Louisville, Ky.

BASTROP (Special) — Two men are being held in Louisville, Ky. as prime suspects in the $13,050 armed robbery of the Bank of Oak Ridge, Morehouse Sheriff E. L. (Red) Hinton said last night.

Hinton said the two were in Morehouse Parish both before and after the Wednesday noon robbery at Oak Ridge. He said that they stayed at one of the motels at Bastrop and that his department followed the two suspects to McGee, Ark. and raced them from there to Louisville.

They were arrested at Louisville on burglary charges, he said.

Hinton said that Louisville authorities will mail fingerprints, and pictures to his office and that he should get them by today or Monday.

He continued that the two fit the discription of the bandits "very much." "It looks pretty good," he added.

The sheriff reported that the department also has other clues that are being checked on.

Meanwhile, two suspects who were being held in Forest, Miss., were released today.

Alexander Wiley of Wisconsin, top Republican on the Foreign Relations Committee; and Rep. Robert B. Chiperfield of Illinois, who has a corresponding role with the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

Hawks told a news conference questioner he didn't know specifically what the President intended to discuss with the congressional visitors or why Eisenhower considered the meeting necessary.

The setting-up of the conference was the main business of a quiet day at the temporary White House at the Augusta National Golf Club.

For the first time this week, Eisenhower had no appointments except with his own staff. He worked with them this morning and shot 18 holes of golf on a sunny afternoon on which the temperature climbed into the high 60s.

Rebel Leaders Name Five To Start Truce

PARIS (UPI) —Algerian rebel leaders Friday named five of their colleagues in French jails to start truce negotiations with France. President Charles de Gaulle swiftly cold-shouldered the idea.

De Gaulle told an audience in a speech at Colmar, an hour after hearing of the new rebel move, that his offer to negotiate a cease-fire was extended to "those who are fighting. . .not. . .those who are out of the fight."

Although he did not say so outright, this appeared to be a rejection of the imprisoned rebels as negotiators.

Nevertheless, the rebel offer drew the two sides closer than ever before to the possibility of direct talks.

The rebel Algerian "provisional government" issued its statement from its exile in Tunisia.

It said the statements by various French leaders had deprived De Gaulle's promise of eventual self-determination for Algeria "of all its sense."

The statement said the provisional government thus was naming five men to start talks with the French government "on the conditions and guarantees of applying self determination." It said an agreement on this must come before a cease-fire.

The statement named Mohammed Ben Bella, Rabah Bitat, Mohammed Khider, Hocine Ait Ahmed and Mohammed Boudiaf—all of whom have been in French custody for three years or more—as the negotiating team.

Ben Bella, 43, onetime French army sergeant major, was identified as deputy premier of the provisional Algerian government.

ROMAN CATHOLIC

Dedication Held For Large Church

WASHINGTON (AP)—A mighty church, the largest ever built in this country by Roman Catholics, was dedicated Friday as their national shrine.

Amid rites and pageantry rooted in antiquity, the Shrine of the Immaculate Conception was consecrated as a center of devotion for 36 million Americans of the Catholic faith.

The shrine takes its architectural style from the great Byzantine and Romanesque cathedrals of the Middle Ages. Its builders say it also will match their record of endurance.

Rising pale and lofty in northeast Washington, the shrine stands three miles north of the Capitol on the grounds of Catholic University. Starting Monday it will be open to the public from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. each day.

But this day was given over to ceremony.

Red-hatted cardinals in long-trained robes, archbishops and bishops in royal purple, black-and-white-frocked priests took part in a stately procession around the outside of the church. Lining the entire route were Knights of Columbus in white-plumed hats and gleaming capes, holding aloft swords that glinted in the sun.

A fanfare heralded arrival of the procession at the masive doors in the main entrance of the church. The swelling voices of a 200-man choir accompanied the slow movement down the block-long aisle.

Three thousand worshippers filled the pews in the huge, vaulted interior. Thousands more gathered outside to hear the ceremony over loudspeakers. In the 16,500 Catholic dioceses throughout the country others participated through special prayers.

Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York, ranking cardinal in the United States, presided over the Mass that preceded the act of consecration. Archbishop Joseph E. Ritter of St. Louis, who heads the bishops' committee in charge of building the shrine, delivered the opening sermon.

He described the shrine as "an expression of the Catholic democracy of the United States and of the Catholics' love and devotion of Mary Immaculate."

Cardinal Spellman, in remarks at a luncheon after the dedication, had this to say about the shrine: "Above and beyond its architecture and yet through the striking and enduring medium of its architecture, the national shrine has a meaning and a message. In a world threatened by the advances of atheistic communism, the shrine is a visible symbol of faith."

Pope John XXIII, in a letter read during the ceremony, expressed joy at the dedication of a

Mouse Judges Lion

Americans are a good-humored, tolerant and democratic people, notwithstanding the energy and aggressiveness which have made this country the greatest and most advanced in the world. If this were not so, they would be riled at the number of smaller fry in England who have tried to pass judgment on the president of the United States and on his acts as generalissimo of the western allies in World War II.

Although passing off the criticism generally with a shrug, the people of the United States for the most part wonder what right a few stuffed shirt representatives of a decadent and dwindling nation have to try to define and point out the mistakes of men who are so much above them in stature that there is no comparison.

If we took the present crop of self - appointed, low-octane British critics of the American scene as seriously as they take themselves and as seriously as they seem to expect us to take them, we would be suffering from a case of severe nausea. At the moment there is a surfeit of such would-be critics.

Earl Attlee, British Labor party leader, is the latest to add his unconvincing voice to the din. In this country on a visit, during which he made a television appearance and apparently thought he had to say something startling in an effort to increase his own size, Mr. Attlee said he did not consider President Eisenhower a "first-ranking soldier" or a first-class statesman.

It is appropriate to remark here that an ant is unable to measure the size of a giant redwood tree for the reason that it simply is not big enough to see what is there.

Mr. Attlee seems to be carrying on from the points at which Alan Brookes and General Montgomery left off.

The British Labor party leader made it clear that he did not admire the late sincerely respected and mourned Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

Mr. Attlee believes the United States should recognize Red China, which it is not about to do and which the American people do not want it to do.

He also considers the Taft-Hartley law provision for an 80-day "cooling off" period an abridgement of workers' rights.

There is scant wonder that Mr. Attlee holds such views. As the leader of the British labor party, he naturally leans far to the left. He is on a par with the radical-liberals in the United States who believe in socialism and government ownership of everything.

It is only natural that he should be sympathetic with the communists, since they are not too much different from the socialists, and therefore to be expected that he would favor recognition of the Chinese Communists.

Harping critics ordinarily do not attract much attention but right now is a bad time for those in Britain to try to set themselves up as judges of the American leaders.

So far as we have been able to observe, United States citizens in high places have not spent any time trying to belittle any of the British leaders. Generally the people of this country are in favor of the British Conservatives, since the members of that party are the ones who favor continuance of the western alliance, while labor party members lean more toward communism and Russia. There has been no American pot-shooting at British individuals.

Sniping at American officials by Britons whose titles are more impressive than their real store of knowledge certainly cannot do much to improve American-British amity, which is sorely needed at this time by England, as well as by the United States.

Labor Rackets Hit

What is termed a "knockout" blow at the labor rackets has been aimed by all three top branches of the federal government.

Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell said the new labor law passed by Congress and to be administered by his department is already beginning to rid unions of corrupt practices.

It is sincerely hoped Sec. Mitchell has weighed out all elements in the case and is not showing premature optimism. At the time of its passage, many observers considered the new labor bill insufficient in "teeth" to cope with the heavy-handed policies of labor leaders of the James Hoffa category.

Reason for the optimistic tone was the refusal early this week of the Supreme Court to set aside lower court rulings to equip monitors with sweeping reform enforcement powers. The monitors are court-appointed persons who have planned a cleanup drive with the effort directed at the scandal- rocked Teamsters Union.

This decision by the high court is reason in itself for a measure of encouragement. It marks the first occasion in a number of years where the Supreme Court has made a decision against the wishes of big organized labor and the more powerful pressure groups.

Hoffa's reaction that he was "disappointed" at the court's ruling is probably a gross understatement. The fact that any powers at all were granted the cleanup monitors certainly annoyed him as well as other labor bosses. He most certainly was shocked when the Supreme Court showed its hand favoring the appointees of the lower courts monitor system. Hoffa said he aimed "to live up to the court's decision." But he added his organization wil continue to challenge individual reform orders.

Meanwhile, Martin F. O'Donoghue, monitor chairmen, said his group is prepared to move into high labor circles on several fronts, including charges which could remove Hoffa as Teamster president. O'Donoghue saw the Supreme Court ruling as a breakdown of the last legal roadblock the Hoffa group will be able to erect.

In the Mitchell report of the first two months of the group's operations, it was stated anticorruption measures of the new labor law had effeted dismissals and resignations of some union officials with criminal or Communist backgrounds. According to Sec. Mitchell, nearly a hundred complaints are under active investigation and a number of these will be turned over to the Justice Department for prosecution.

It is an encouraging turn of events when the Supreme Court dares to back up decisions of the lower courts when action against the labor rackets is the issue. But no enforcement agency can prove any stronger than the laws in question, and many see a need for still stronger labor controls in order to cope with bosses of the Hoffa category.

Literature Index Lacking

Certain Publications Which Might Be Used On Conservative Side Of Argument Are Not Listed

Some time ago, seeking information, I turned to "Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature" for an index and noted that certain publications were omitted. Those left out happened to be favorites of mine and they were on what I would consider my side of the fence. To me that meant that if a high school or college student were seeking the conservative side of an argument, to write an essay or prepare a debate, he would have no index to it. I selected the "National Review" as an instance and searched for a mention of it and found none.

* * *

substantial publication, continuously issued and contains adequate articles on the conservative side of current questions. By any standard, it should be in an index to current periodical literature. It is, in fact, the only conservative publication which has appeared regularly for enough years to accept its permanence.

So I wrote to the publishers of the index, the H. W. Wilson Company, and have received from Edwin B. Colburn, the following explanation:

"All of the periodicals indexed in the READERS' GUIDE are selected by vote of the subscribers to that index; none by us. Most of the suscribers, of course, are libraries — public, college, and schools. We are currently having the assistance of a Committee of the American Library Association who are making a series of studies of all of our periodical indexes and their coverage. You will find a list of these indexes and related services to libraries at the bottom of this letterhead. This Committee invites suggestions from the subscribers and from other sources concerning titles which should be considered for the index being studied. From these a voting list is prepared and sent to all subscribers. Their votes determine which periodicals are to be indexed. These studies and polls are conducted at intervals of several years."

Presumably every organization has to establish some system to do its work. On the other hand, an index, to be of value, must be complete. It must cover the field fully. In this instance, the particular index in question is widely used by students in the preparation of themes, essays, debates, etc.

* * *

It is also used by persons engaged in such professions as mine who search for the printed word. The assumption must be that it is accurate and complete. For generations the "Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature" has been regarded as accurate, complete and as sure as the 11th edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica, which came pretty close to perfection. To be complete, it may not omit any periodical pulished in this country of any durability.

Probably the cost of paper and printing or the pressures of the times led the publishers to set up this complicated system of determining which magazine deserves mention, but it may be that what one seeks is in a publication which this Committee either ignores or dislikes or is ignorant of. Does anyone read every periodical published in the United States? Yet the most valuable articles may be published in obscure ones.

* * *

Librarians are bound to know the outsides of books and magazines. When it comes to the insides, they, like so many other humans, limit themselves to reading reviews. For some years, while at high school, I worked as a stock-boy in a branch of the New York Public Library. It was back in those days when young folks could work their way through high school as well as college. The job was pleasant and the salary came to $2.50 a week which was good money then for this kind of work although today, it would harldy pay for anything, the dollar having shrunk in value.

On this job, I learned much about books and periodicals from a practical standpoint. All kinds passed through my hands, as they did through a librarian's hands. Somehow, one knew what was inside the book because of the classification according to the Dewey decimal system, even without reading it. When it came to the insides, there were, of course, librarians who read and librarians who did not read. And I should imagine the same is true today, men and women being what they are. In fact, reading on this job was a kind of featherbedding; when a stock-boy was too tired, he seized a book and read it among the shelves.

* * *

Surely the conservative side of current questions requires as much attention as the radical or liberal sides or as those publications which take no side at all but publish sundry articles by inexpert persons about nothing particularly signifieant and which women read while the sleeping pill takes effect. On similar occasions men prefer murder.

Coronary, Angina

Many Want To Know Differences Between Two Heart Ailments

In spite of all that has been written about coronary disease during the past few years, many people are still "mixed up" about the difference between angina pectoris and coronary thrombosis. I don't blame them for it. In fact, I'm glad they keep writing to me until the distinction is clear to them.

"Just what is the difference between the two?" asks Mr. T.T., of Miami Beach. "And which is the more serious?"

Making a generalization is as helpful as answering the question, "Is it hotter in the summer or in the country?"

The answer is, it all depends! One patient with severe coronary thrombosis may live for 20 years; another, with apparently mild angina pectoris, may be awfully sick within a year. And vice versa.

Now, as to the distinction between the two. The underlying disease is similar. There is a narrowing of the coronary artery circulation due to atherosclerosis of the arteries. Most of you have heard that this is tied up in some way with faulty cholesterol metabolism.

In angina pectoris there is a gradual narrowing of the arteries. In coronary thrombosis, there is usually a sudden stoppage of blood flow through an artery due to a thrombosis or clot.

Chest pain in agina usually comes on after exertion, or a heavy meal, or is tied in with emotional upheavals. It lasts only a few minutes. It is relieved by rest and the pain rapidly "dissolves" after the patient takes a nitroglycerine tablet under his tongue.

In coronary thrombosis, pain may come on while at rest. It is a chrushing type of pain which grows worse and may last for hours. The patient may be nauseated and actually vomit. He breaks out into a cold sweat. He has shortness of breath, his blood pressure falls.

You needn't be a doctor to know that here is a very sick person. (Of course, there are many cases of thrombosis which appear so mild they are easily mistaken for "indigestion").

Such, Mr. T. T. are the "simple differentials" between angina and coronary thrombosis. If you would like more complete information, write to me for my leaflet S-1, "Practical Pointers for Coronary Patients," c-o this newspaper. Enclose 10 cents in a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope. You will find easy-to-read suggestions that may add years to your life.

IMPORTANCE OF EFFICIENT OFFICE NURSE

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: Last week my husband suddenly got a severe pain in his chest. We were on vacation out of town. I took him in to the first doctor's office I could find.

The waiting room was crowded. I told the nurse it was an emergency. Anyone could see my husband was very sick. But she said he'd have to wait his turn because we had no appointment.

I actually begged her to go in to the doctor and tell him about my husband. "I'm sorry," she said: "the doctor's busy."

* * *

We would never have seen the doctor if one of his patients in the waiting room hadn't said: "If you don't get this man in to see the doctor right away, I'll bang on his door myself!" That scared the nurse and she admitted him right away.

Isn't it terrible, Dr. Steincrohn, that sick people should be at the mercy of that kind of receptionist? Mrs. L., Nashville, Tennessee.

COMMENT: Fortunately, most nurses are sympathetic and understanding. There are a few reception-room tyrants who would be "out-on-their-ear" if their doctor-boss even had a suspicion they were that way.

If you have been unable to "melt down those extra pounds" write to me c-o this paper for my leaflet, S-2, "How to Overcome Obesity." Enclose 10 cents in a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Old Truman Plane

Craft Carrying Benson To Belgrade Not As Fine As Russia Uses

Second - Class Traveler —Former President Truman's old plane, the Independence, was back in the news again recently. The reliable old four - engine DC-6, now on Air Force duty, was used to transport Secretary of Agriculture Exra Taft Benson on his tour of Eastern Europe. When it arrived in Belgrade, a Yugoslav newspaperman looked at it and commented to an American newsman: "Is that the best they could do for you? When the Russians come, they come in jets twice that big."

Tradition At Stake — Spittoon lovers of America are up in arms. It all started when a Staten Island housewife called to Sen. Kenneth Keating, Rep.-N.Y., to do something about banning spittoons from the Capitol Building. Out in Evansville, Ind., tobacco - chewing Jake Seits fired off an angry letter to Sen. Vance Hartke, Dem.-Ind., to block any such move by that "stuck - up Easterner" Keating. Next thing you know, said Seits, that New York woman will be advocating cafe curtains in cowbarns. "Any man who has ever laid his jaw to a chew can tell you a spittoon is not half as untidy as a spit without one," Seits explained. "Now I'm sure this woman has good intentions but unless you stand up for us people back home, what's going to happen to a Hoosier visiting congress if he's got to spit and no spittoon? I started chewing when I was in the fifth grade, and I can't figure it out." With or without Hartke's help Seits is prepared to fight the anti-spittoon league. He is thinking of starting a Jake Seits Society for the Preservation of Cuspidors.

Half A Loaf — Bob Considine, the noted newspaper columnist, was inducted into the George Washington University athletic hall of fame last week. Considine was an all - time great tennis player at GW and started out in the newspaper business as a tennis writer. In an acceptance speech Considine recalled he was honored a few years ago by having a race horse named after him. Friends remembered Considine's remark at the time, "It is the first time a whole horse has ever been named after me."

Mistakes Of The Past — If congress had listened to Sen. Jefferson Davis we might not be having this trouble today with Cuba's Fidel Castro. It practically says so in a chronology of "significant events" on the eve of the Civil War just released by the Civil War Centennial Commission. On June 17, 1859, Sen. Davis announced he would introduce in the next congress a bill to purchase Cuba. Cuba was then a Spanish colony.

An Expert On The Subject—Before leaving Washington for a speaking tour of California, House Minority Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana consulted GOP bigwigs from the White House to the Capitol. The most interesting advice reportedly came from Vice President Richard Nixon who said, "Now, Charlie, don't you make any of those inflammatory speeches that will make all those Democrats mad. There are too many of them out there."

No Gum On A Hounds's Tooth —Rep. Samuel S. Stratton, Dem.-N.Y., believes he has found a politician who really believes in being "cleaner than a hound's tooth" — that is, do not the slightest that will reflect on your integrity. Shortly before congress adjourned Stratton sent to each member of the house and senate a small package of chewing gum produced by a Canajoharie, N. Y.. manufactuer as "one sample of the high quality products manufactured in our district." One senator, whom Stratton would not name, returned the package in the next mail with a note explaining he never accept presents. Offended, Stratton said, "This is the first time I've ever heard of drawing the line at 15 cents worth of chewing gum."

Stepping Toward Fame — If a New York businessman has his way that shoe with the hole in the sole worn by Adlai Stevenson during the 1956 presidential campaign will be retained for posterity. The businessman, who heads a shoe polish firm, is planning to establish a museum to be known as "The Sole of Fame." It will house the shoes of famous people. For example, the spikes worn by Roger Bannister when he ran the first mile under four minutes, the dancing taps of Fred Astaire and the shoes worn by Babe Ruth when he hit his 60th homerun.

Test For Success

Age Of Togetherness Finds Most Decisions Made By Committees

NEW YORK (AP) — One test of a successful man today is how many committees he can serve on without shortening his life.

We live in an age of togetherness, and our lives are largely ruled by committee-made decisions.

To have an active social life today, you almost have to serve on a committee dedicated to one cause or another. One's importance in the community often indeed is measured by the number of committees one serves on.

But committee work is a thing a fellow has to learn by personal experience whether he can take in stride or should leave strictly alone.

Serving on too many committees undoutedly has killed by aggravation and overwork many men in their middle years who might otherwise have lived to a graceful and serene old age. They had become addicts. They didn't know how to handle it.

Haunting indeed are the sordid stories of those who tried to raise their social status by joining a committee, then found their lives ruined as one committee led to another, until finally there was no stopping.

Here is one such man's story:

"I moved to the suburbs and bought a new house. I joined the P-TA, and they put me on a committee to add a gymnasium to the school.

"The neighborhood association asked me if I'd serve on a committee to improve the beach, and I said yes. Then I joined a lodge and a church, and they both soon put me on committees.

"We were invited to a lot of parties, and it seemed like at each party they organized a new committee, and I was always asked to join, and I did. I joined a committee to get rid of covered bridges.

"I joined a committee to send books to the Hottentots, a committee to save the barn owl, and a committee to improve the railroad's commuter service.

"I joined the mayor's committee to bring new industry into town, and I joined another committee to keep the town zoned only for private homes.

"At first I was deliriously excited by all this committee duty, because I never had made friends so fast in my life. I worked hard on each committee, and that, of course, led the other committees to want me to serve with them.

"At the end of the first year I guess I must have been about the best known man in town, and they were even talking about running me for mayor. I was serving on 68 committees, and being invited to join new ones at the rate of one a week.

"I was getting three hours sleep a night, making an average of 37 phone calls a day from my office on committee work, and living on pep pills that turned me into a nervous wreck. I was completely neglecting my own family and my own job.

"Well, the whole thing collapsed last week. My boss fired me, my wife ran off with a man down the street, and my two children were sent to reform school as juvenile delinquents.

"Naturally, I thought my friends on all those committees would stand by me in my hour of need. But do you know what I found out? I found out that for every fair-weather friend you make by serving on committees, you make at least two all-weather enemies.

"My neighbors now are organizing a committee to ask me to sell the house and move away as an undesirable member of the community. It's a funny thing. That's the only committee in town I haven't been asked to join."

Daily Devotional

For everyone that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. — St. Matthew 7:8.

Every day brings opportunity for Bible study, but Sunday offers a special chance. On this day the doors of religious institutions are open and we have time to pause. rest and meditate. It is a time of asking and receiving; of seeking and finding; of knocking and having the doors of understanding thrown wide. Church attendance is increasing but there is still need for more regular attendance on the part of present members and the recruitment of new converts.

O God, help us to be more faithful in our attendance and support of all our religious denominations. In Christ's holy name we pray. Amen.

Vogel Urges Fullest Use Of Potential

"We cannot afford to waste brain power," Dr. Fred J. Vogel dean of Northeast State's Student Services, told The Morehouse Parish Education Association in session at Bastrop High School.

Northeast is interested in capitalizing to the maximum degree the potential ability of all students at the college, the speaker said. Development of close relationship between the institution and the high school is the best means of accomplishing this, he told the group.

The main objective of American schools, the dean pointed out, is to make good citizens of students. With increased competition between the United States and Russia comes an increase in the use of brain power, the speaker said. This calls for greater articulation between the college and high school.

Articulation (sometimes called bridging the gap or orientation) calls for three responsibilities: sharing information, screening and studying results. The sharing factor is based on a reciprocal trade agreement between the high school and college, Vogel explained. Screening is essential to determine the student's abilities and interests so that he may be directed in areas where he will utilize these abilities to greatest advantage, he said.

Following the collection of information about the student and directing him into the best channel, college advisers should confer with high school personnel. The result may be a re-shaping of ideas at high school and college levels, Vogel said.

The speaker emphasized the gaining realization on the part of educators throughout the United States that colleges are receiving better prepared students who are more interested in learning than has been true in the past.

Rise of ability levels has been measured by tests in various colleges, Vogel said. More serious attitudes toward studies have been noted in institutions of higher learning. These schools must capitalize on ability or potential of students, he declared. "Achieving this calls for close relationship between the college and high school."

Area Man Posts Bond In Death Case At Jena

JENA (Special) — Released last night under $2,500 bond was Pat Johnson of Olla, who was being held here on a manslaughter charge in the fatal shooting of Sheppard Warren Haynes, 56, of Tullos, at Haynes' cafe Thursday night.

The shooting was apparently the result of a dispute over a knife, investigating officers said.

A coroner's jury, held Friday morning at 11 a.m. to determine the cause of death, returned a verdict of manslaughter. The LaSalle Parish coroner said that death was due to gunshot wounds in the right of the groin, the abdomen and the left of the groin.

Haynes is survived by his widow, Willene Haynes of Olla; one son, Michael Haynes of Olla; three daughters, Elizabeth Ann Haynes, Peggy Jean Haynes and Helen Faye Haynes, all of Olla; two brothers, Walter Haynes and Dave Haynes, both of Jena; four sisters, Mrs. Lillie Mays and Mrs. Thelma Tanner, both of Olla, Mrs. Mildred Young of Jena and Mrs. Loride Lasayone of New Iberia.

Mrs. Voelker Is 'Lady Of Month'

LAKE PROVIDENCE (Special) —Virginia Wilson Voelker, a native of West Virginia, came a long way to be recognized as the Louisiana Municipal Review's "Lady of the Month."

But the wife of Lake Providence City Attorney Frank Voelker carries that distinction in the current issue of the Review.

The Review feature article on Mrs. Voelker protrays her as a civic leader and a woman of many hobbies, "none of which would interfere with the children and family life."

It points out that she was planning a career as an actress when she met her husband. Today she puts her theatrical training to work in directing many of the high school plays in Lake Providence.

She is also active in the Mothers Club. Parent Teacher Association and the local cancer society. She is also active in scouting work and finds political activities "very interesting," the Review noted.

C Of C Names New Slate For Ferriday

FERRIDAY (Special) — The Ferriday Chamber of Commerce held their annual election of officers at the "Awards Night" banquet here this week. Claude Nelson will serve ase president during 1960.

The banquet was held in the Ferriday High School cafeteria. Principal speaker for the affair was Howard P. McCollum.

Other officers who will serve with Nelson are Joe Joseph, vice president; Lloyd Love, secretary, and Kenneth Baylock, treasurer.

SELECTED

Selected "Man of the Year" was Guy Serio. Mrs. U. B. Evans was named "Woman of the Year."

"Teacher of the Year" is Charles Earl Wilson.

High school seniors elected by popularity and scholastic achievement were: Ferriday, Tony Patterson; Vidalia, Charles Embry; Monterey, Johnnie Sturgeon.

In the 4-H Cub contests, checks were presented by the Chamber of Commerce to the following.

Corn: Joe Paul, Burley Lawrence, Sammy Blunschi; sheep showmanship; Francis Storey, Barry Maxwell, Susan Broussard and Sammy Blunschi.

Rally Hears Address By Sen. Rainach

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

State Sen. William Rainach said Friday night he would back a supplemental pay bill for policemen if elected governor of Louisiana in the Dec. 5 Democratic primary.

Rainach, addressing a rally in Alexandria, said he had voted for the measure in the Legislature and added:

"The public may not realize it but our police officers spend a lot of time enforcing strictly state laws and spend a lot of time testifying in court on state cases. Therefore, the state should be willing to supplement their salaries."

State comptroller William Dodd said in a New Orleans speech that he had more experience in the practical operation of state government than any of the other 10 candidates.

"My proved record of past achievement," he said, "is a reasonable indication that I will carry out my platform."

Former Gov. James A. Noe, speaking at Chalmette, accused Mayor deLesseps Morrison of New Orleans of having taken credit for the industry which has located in St. Bernard Parish.

"But this is nothing new for the Orleans Parish mayor," Noe added. "He's toured this state seven times over and taken credit for every asset this state ever had."

Morrison told a rally in Alexandria he and his ticket would make the "greatest, most concentrated single day campaign stumping tour in modern Louisiana political history" on Saturday.

Morrison outlined a schedule for Saturday of seven cities, including Minden, Ruston, West Monroe, Bastrop, Rayville, Winnsboro and Ferriday.

FALL ROSE-PLANTING

NEWARK, N.Y. (UPI)—Roses planted in the fall will appear from 10 days to two weeks sooner than spring-planted bushes, according to experts of the Jackson & Perkins Co.

A dormant plant put in the ground in the fall will have the early winter to establish its root system and thus gets an earlier and stronger start in the spring, they explained.

Colorful Yule Trimmings In Monroe Area

Christmas decorations are being placed on DeSiard Street in downtown Monroe — and for the first time, the streets branching off DeSiard will be "Decked With Holly" — in the form of shiny red, gold and green ornaments.

Jim Williams, secretary-manager of the Monroe Chamber of Commerce, said yesterday that the city is putting up $8,900 worth of new docorations.

GOAL

"We hope to have it all up by Thanksgiving," he added.

Last year's decoration theme was silver and green. Williams said that "you can figure a 30 per cent depreciation" on decorations each year, but that some Yuletide ornaments from 1958 are being used now.

"It took a complete freight car" to bring in new decorations, he pointed out.

He said that Monroe is decorating on a volume equal to Jackson, Mississippi (population 100,000).

Streets branching off the major business section of DeSiard will have a blend of new and old decorations, for "a half block, at least," the Chamber official said.

Christmas trees, scroll emblems and decorations crossing DeSiard are among the new items.

Baby Dies In Plunge From House

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (UPI)—How do you tell a pretty young mother she threw her baby to its death from the upper floor of a burning apartment house?

Mrs. Margie Sweeten, 19, and her husband, Carl, were trying desperately to save their two children early Friday from flames that had already killed one man, L. A. Gray, 48, an oil field worker.

Most of the residents of the 32-apartment, white frame building had fled in their night clothes. They stood watching as Sweeten dropped his two-year-old son into the arms of a fireman.

Then Mrs. Sweeten appeared at the second-story window. Her flimsy nightgown was burning. She tried to throw the baby, wrapped in a blanket, after her older son.

But she stumbled. The infant, three-months-old Carl Jr., plunged to the ground and landed head-first on a concrete sidewalk. Mrs. Sweeten fell through the window too, and landed on her back. She screamed once—and woke up in the hospital.

"She was getting ready to toss the baby down," said fire marshal Ben Vanpelt. "They fell at the same time. The baby hit the sidewalk, and she hit the ground . . .hard."

Firemen put up a ladder for Sweeten. He climbed down to safety. It was his job to tell his wife in the hospital their baby was dead.

Some of the spectators at the fire thought Mrs. Sweeten had thrown down a doll.

It fell at the feet of Charles Harmon, 17, one of two persons who noticed the fire and spread the alarm, banging on doors to awaken slumbering residents.

"She tried to toss the baby out of the window," Harmon said. "But she kinda tripped or stumbled, and it didn't go the way she wanted. I thought it was a doll at first. I didn't know it was a baby.

The hospital said Mrs. Sweeten, burned and bruised from her fall, was in satisfactory condition.

Meneghini Says He Still Wants His Wife Back

SIRMIONE, Italy (UPI) — Giovanni Battista Meneghini paced the floor of his lonely villa Friday and said he still wants Maria Callas back. But she can have a divorce if she wishes.

"A divorce is exactly what I had expected her to obtain in order to regain her full freedom," the Italian businessman said. "I will raise no objection."

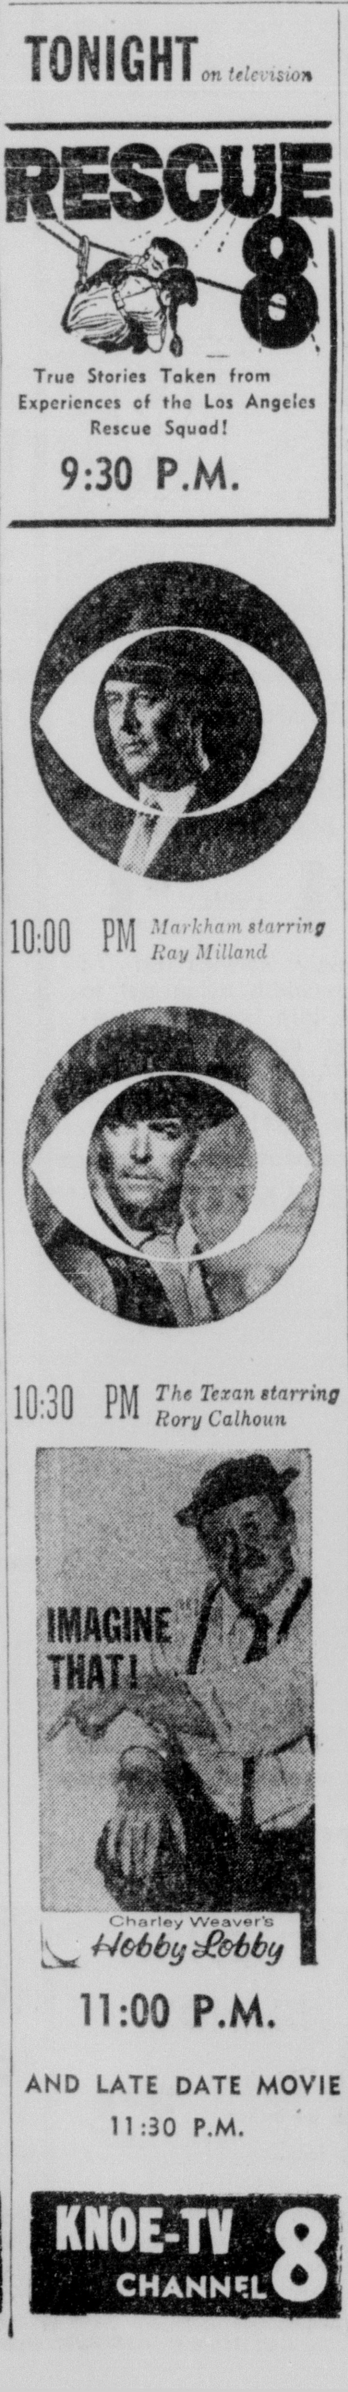
But he admitted he was not yet fully convinced she had walked out of his life forever.

New York-born Miss Callas was reported to be planning to take up residence in Nevada to sever their marriage. The two obtained a legal separation by mutual consent from an Italian court in Brescia last Saturday.

Meneghini, gray-haired but looking younger than his 64 years, made it clear he was a lonely man without the singer he married 10 years ago when she was unknown and named Maria Anna Cecilia Sofia Calogeropulos.

Meneghini sold the business that had made him a millionaire and devoted himself to making his wife a star. Friday he recalled the past decade with Miss Callas as "the best years of my life."

"What I had never expected did take place, and here I am—living in a villa which I bought only for her. It is an empty villa now, but it is full of memories."



Red Premier Gives China Look At U.S.

TOKYO (AP) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev has given Communist China's top brass a rare glimpse of life in America today.

The Moscow-edited color documentary of Khrushchev's 13-day American tour was shown in Peiping this week.

The new Soviet ambassador, Stepan Chervonenko, presented the film to an upper-crust Communist audience which included Marshal Chu Teh, the country's No. 3 man and an assortment of national assemblymen, judges, foreign ministry officials and members of the Chinese-Soviet Friendship Assn.

Chinese leader Mao Tze-tung and President Liu Shao-chi were not present.

China's masses — the workers and peasants—probably never will see the film. To them, under the teachings of propaganda, the United States is on the verge of depression, its workers voiceless and oppressed.

The men who rule China know little of American thinking and motivations.

Mao, the son of a Hunan peasant, has yet to visit a non-Communist country. Liu Shao-chi went to Moscow as a youth but has no intimate knowledge of the West.

Chu Teh knows the Germany of post-World War I, where he was a student. He toured the Soviet Union, East Germany, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, and Poland in 1956, with another swing through the satellites this year.

Most widely traveled of Peiping's leaders is Premier Chou En-lai, who studied in France as a youth. As foreign minister he went to Geneva in 1954 for the Indochina armistice conference and toured some of the non-Communist countries of Asia in 1957.

Information on life in the United States, once freely available in China, has dried up since the Communist conquest. Neither country recognizes the other, and there are no cultural exchanges between thm.

Communist Chinese cannot go to the United States and the ordinary American is legally barred from visiting the mainland.

How To Keep Well

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

To the limit of space questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is enclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

RHEUMATIC FEVER PROPHYLAXIS

When John develops measles, he is rewarded with an everlasting immunity to the disease. But should he develop rheumatic fever, he becomes more susceptible to future attacks. This is serious because the disease affects the heart and each succeeding bout leaves its mark on the old ticker and reduces life expectancy.

We know how to prevent recurrences but many former rheumatic fever patients are not receiving the benefit of the program. It is a simple method in which the individual takes a penicillin tablet once or twice a day or a shot of penicillin once each month. A sulfonamide or another antibiotic may be substituted for penicillin.

What could be easier and why does it fail? Human frailty is the answer. Someone must be responsible for seeing that the medicine is taken regularly. Since most rheumatic fever patients are children, it becomes the responsibility of the parents. Here is the bottle neck, according to Dr. Banjamin B. Berman of Granite City, Ill.

He made a comparative study on a group of children who were on several of these prophylactic programs. There was a marked reduction in the recurrence rate of rheumatic fever among youngsters who received a monthly penicillin shot from the physician. This was not true of those who received the daily tablet of penicillin or one of the other antibiotics.

In some instances the parents forgot to give the tablet; others refused to follow directions because they failed to understand the necessity. Expense enters the picture for some although a daily sulfonamide or penicillin tablet is not expensive and costs less than the parents spend for cigarets or desert. Familie that cannot afford the drugs may obtain them free in most states.

The diagnosis of rheumatic fever should not be taken lightly, even though a youngster gets well quickly. A mild attack may be as serious as a marked attack because the heart is likely to be damaged in both instances. Prophylaxis is not necessary in adults because the chances of recurrences lessen with each succeeding year.

Dr. Van Dellen will anwer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.

THE KING'S EVIL

M. L. D. writes: My 7 year old has tuberculosis of the neck glands. Is this a new form of tuberculosis?

REPLY

No. Scrofula goes back to medieval times and once was known as the king's evil. The condition is not common today because we drink pasteurized milk and have eliminated tubercular cattle. The surgical treatment of this type of tuberculosis was popular years ago and many older persons have unsightly scars on the neck at the site where the infected glands were removed. The results now with isoniazid and PAS are so good, surgery is unnecessary.

ABDOMINAL PAIN

G. H. writes: How can lumbago in the abdomen be cured?

REPLY

Lumbago refers to pain in the back muscles. Abdominal pain has many origins, varying from so-called nervous stomach to appendicitis. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for leaflet on abdominal pain.

HARDENED EYE ARTERIES

D. L. writes: Can anything be done for hardening of the arteries of the eyes?

REPLY

There is no cure but it may be possible to relieve symptoms. Hardening of the retinal arteries is common but only a small percentage of persons is bothered.

WANTS BIGGER DIMPLE

J. B. writes: I have a slight dimple in my chin. Can it be made larger through plastic surgery?

REPLY

Yes, but it won't be worth it, especially when you shave. Some people are never satisfied.

MISS MIDNIGHT'S NOTEBOOK: Sammy Davis Jr., has been offered half a million dollars for a 10-day tour of the Orient, so he shouldn't have to worry about two living as cheap as one when he marries his pretty Canadian blonde. The fiancee, incidentally, has become a major celebrity North of the Border; at Monique Van Vooren's opening night at Montreal's El Morocco, the future Mrs. Davis was ushered to a ringside table as if she were Mamie Eisenhower . . . Morgana King, currently singing at the Roundtable, boasts the most fascinating "fan" — fascinating for at least two r e a s o n s. He drops around to hear her several times a week . . . Fred Astaire is reportedly so pleased with his performance as the scientist in "On The Beach" that he may accept nothing but dramatic roles in future films, confining his dancing to television appearances . . . Character actress Jane Darwell will leave the cast of "Saratoga" before it opens in New York. A replacement is being prepared to step into her part.

If the Congressional investigation into disc jockey "payolas" produces the expected revelations, a New York theatre will have a hot potato on its hands . . . Wealthy Jim Kimberly's latest romantic target is starlet Dani Crayne, who looks like Lana Turner . . . "Starring Jackie Gleason and Rock Hudson" reads like pretty potent box office fare — and you can find that on 42d St., where a release of "The Desert Hawk" is showing. Actually the stars of the oldie are Yvonne De-Carlo and Richard Greene, and Jackie and Rock just have teentsie roles in it.

Kim Novak's friends whisper she's ordered towels, sheets and other trousseau items monogrammed KNQ, and since so few fellows have last names beginning with Q, they deduce she's planning to become Mrs. Richard Quine when his divorce becomes final . . . Sarah Vaughan's new 50-minute act, which she'll unveil at the Waldorf in December, has been staged by Nick Castle, and those who've seen previews say it's a gasser.

One of the beauties at Chicago's Chez Paree is toting a torch for a famous singer who was her sotto voce sweetheart not long ago . . . While Polly Bergen is on the West Coast for TV rehearsals, she'll confer with MGM executives who want her for one of the leads in the remake of "Cimarron" . . . Marlon Brando has made private recordings of France Nuven's favorite poems and dramatic passages, and she plays them over and over in her dressing room backstage at "Suzie Wong."

Canadians have been protesting violently to television stations showing video films glorifying the U. S. armed services . . . The Stockholm restaurant is one of the many Gotham eating places that won't admit men who are not wearing neckties — but that rule was forgotten in one split second when Ingemar Johansson arrived for lunch in a sweater. He was given the best table in the place and the most obsequious service. (IT DOES pay to be a celebrity.) . . . The cranberry crisis has replaced Charles Van Doren in the night club acts of the topical comedians.

Veronica Lake has been making the spots with her leg in a cast — result of a freak accident that occurred when she was dancing and her partner lost his balance and fell against her. Doctors fear the injured bones won't be completely healed for six months . . . Kinescopes of Fidel Castro's television speeches and interviews are being studied by a trio of American psychiatrists. They will seek to determine whether his peculiar, violent and often incoherent ramblings indicate a disturbed mind — an important factor in deciding what stand the United States will take in future dealings with him.

Giselle Pascal, Prince Rainier's great amour before he decided to seek an eligible American girl, is ailing in France . . . Jean Cohn, recently d i v o r c e d from Harry Karl, has captured the fancy of another millionaire, Sidney Barton . . . Ask your California chums to tell you the name Spike Jones gave to his new coffee house. Going a bit far for a laugh, isn't it?

Floyd Patterson, who is selling his home in Lakeview, L. I., plans to buy a place in Garden City. The negotiations may turn into a city desk story . . . Beverly Aadland certainly hasn't gone into very deep mourning for Errol Flynn. She looked very gay and glamorous the other night at 54th and 1st Ave., dressed in tight brocade evening trousers with matching overskirt, laughing with three companions and hooting and hollering at passing motorists.

The Cattleman, which is billed as "an adult Western restaurant" (and features spare ribs splashed with cointreau) will add another gimmick to its chuckwagon and "wanted" posters: the showing of old silent cowboy films.

Hayden Says He Will Quit Hollywood

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Sterling Hayden Friday called his South Sea voyage with his four children "the best year of my life" and said he has made up his mind to abandon his Hollywood acting career.

Hayden, 43, faced with a court battle for custody of the youngsters, said he hoped to enter the ship chartering business. He said he would return to films here "only out of desperation," and didn't foresee such a course.

The tall, bronzed actor appeared in court Friday morning to fight his ex-wife's petition to turn over their four children because he made the trip to Tahiti in defiance of a court order.

Hayden returned recently to California on the "Wanderer", his 98-foot schooner. He now must also defend himself against a contempt of court charge made when he started the journey last January.

Hayden held a press conference before the scheduled hearing Friday. "People said I left because I wanted to escape," he said.

"That's not true. When I was in Hollywood it was an escape picking up a check every Thursday for doing nothing."

The actor said he has "no ax to grind with Hollywood. I came here by accident and stayed because I was lazy and I don't like myself for it."

Hayden won custody of the children a year ago. At that time, Judge Gumpert ordered him not to take the children to Tahiti on the schooner because of possible danger on such a craft.

Hayden said if he keeps the children—Christian, 11, Gretchen, 9, Thor, 10 and Matthew, 7—he will go to the San Francisco Bay area "so they can get established." Then he will try to get in the ship chartering business, he said.

Cocktail Party Too Competitive

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Only 44 of the more than 300 delegates attending the annual convention of Colorado County Commissioners heard a speech by Sen. Robert S. Kerr (D-Okla) Thursday.

The senator's subject was water resources.

His chief competition came from a cocktail party sponsored by an implement firm in the same hotel.

Fire Fighters Keep Busy In Monroe Area

The Monroe Fire Department was on the go at a fast pace yesterday as a rash of grass fires broke out over the city.

In addition the department fought a fire at Peoples Gin Co., a car fire, a trash fire and made two invstigations of fires that had already been extinguished.

A total of 17 grass fires, which the department said is the most they have encountered so far this year, were put out.

IN ROOF

The People's Gin Co., 1200 Sterlington Road, caught fire in the roof, but damages were considered minor. This marks the fifth time during the ginning season that firemen have been called to the Sterlington Road address, the department said.

A car fire at a service station at the intersection of Oliver Road and Louisville Ave., caused minor damages to a parked auto, firemen reported.

Dry dying grass coupled with cold weather may have been one reason for the rash of grass fires, the department said.

The West Monroe fire department extinguished one grass blaze and reported that one false alarm was turned in during the day.

Auto Divisions To Swing Back By Next Week

DETROIT (AP)—Automotive divisions of General Motors Corp., will swing back into parts manufacture next week.

Just how long it will take to get supply lines filled anew with steel products and assembly lines turning out automobiles, no one at GM wanted to estimate. Outside sources figured it may be another three to five weeks.

GM has had all truck and car assembly closed down and some 220,000 of its 320,000 hourly rated work force idled by a steel shortage.

Ford Motor Co., which makes half its own steel, went back on a five-day week at all plants this week, and automotive news reported today that Ford will build Falcons, Lincolns and Thunderbirds in overtime operations Saturday.

American Motors and Studebaker-Packard, which the recently interrupted nationwide strike of steelmakers did not affect, have continued on a five-day or more week. Prestrike steel inventories have carried them through.

The situation continued to worsen at Chrysler Corp.

Chrysler laid off 2,650 workers this week, bringing its idled to 13,230. A spokesman said there undoubtedly will be further curtailment next week.

Work weeks of three and four days have prevailed over the last couple of weeks at most Chrysler plants across the country.

Both GM's Buick and Chevrolet divisions announced today they were recalling parts-makers next week. A scattering of workers was recalled this week in some basic plants, such as the Ternstedt division which makes trim.

Chevrolet transmission at Saginaw, Mich., called for 982 to report Monday, and Chevrolet's Flint, Mich., manufacturing plant called back 1,097 out of its normal force of 8,162.

Buick, also at Flint, said it would recall 1,300 next week at its foundry, with 400 maintenance men reporting Monday and 900 production workers Tuesday. Because of the Thanksgiving holiday, however, the foundry will operate only three days.

Six Persons At District Court Session

Six persons charged with offenses appeared in Fourth District Court before Judge David I. Garrett. The normally long Friday docket was not held, since this is felony trial week.

A manslaughter charge against Charlie Carter, 34, Negro, was nolle prossed.

Officials explained that the case, which dates back to Oct. 15, 1956, must be removed from the court docket. Any case which stays on the docket for more than three years must be dismissed.

They said that witnesses for the original trial all left the city, and that the trial could not be held.

Carter was charged with slaying Alfred E. Colvin, Negro.

Kent Breard, court - appointed attorney for Burrell Arthur Cole, asked to be excused from the case. Cole is charged with the death of T. F. Walerk, 49, of Shreveport, on July 24, 1949. Cole, recently was declared sane, and released from a state institution where he had been held for the last 10 years.

HOLD OVER

Judge Garrett said that the request would have to be held over until next week, to give the court reporter time to check records on the case.

In other court action, two women appeared before the Judge. Jo G. Ussery, 1913 Park Ave., was fined $50 and costs for reckless driving, and Ruth Vaughn Martin, General Delivery, Chatham, was fined $25 and costs for disturbing the peace.

Slagle H. Day, Evergreen street West Monroe, drew a $50 fine for driving without a license.

James Hicks, Negro, College Point and John Rockymore, Negro, 1104 N. Seventh St., both West Monroe, were remanded for sentencing until Dec. 14.

Earlier, they pled guilty to gambling.

City Court

MONROE

A charge of theft brought a fine of $75 or 75 days yesterday in Monroe City Court against Wallace Strong.

Other cases heard by Judge W. M. Harper included a reckless driving charge against Alberta Flennory, who forfeited $25 bond. Also forfeiting bond on reckless driving charges were Aaron Robinson, $35, and Robert E. Yelverton, $25.

Forfeiting bond on speeding charges were Earnest Coleman, $12.50; Robert Gavioli, $15; Jamie Wilhite, $10; Mary Russell, $5.

Fined $10 or 10 days was Daniel Burkhalter.

Auto Official Denies Desoto Will Drop Line

DETROIT (AP) — A high-ranking Chrysler official issued another denial Friday that the corporation has any idea of dropping its Desoto car line.

Such reports and denials, have cropped up in the auto industry frequently the past several years. They were being heard again following Ford's sudden stop on building Edsels.

Byron Nichols, Chrysler's vice president for sales, said Friday "There are no plans to drop the Desoto automobile. Sales of 1960 model Desoto have been exceptional. Our order condition for Desotos is excellent. Our future plans for Desoto are in line with normal requirements for all lines of our cars."

Rites Friday For Victim Of Shooting

BERNICE (Special) — Funeral services were held Friday for Mrs. Faye Ellis, 22, of Thibodaux, who died Thursday as a result of gunshot wounds. Mrs. Ellis was accidentally shot by her five-year-old son.

Mrs. Ellis was in Bernice visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Thompson. Reportedly, she entered the room where the boy was playing with a loaded pistol. The gun accidentally discharged. shooting her three times

Funeral services were held at the Hebron Baptist Church with the Rev. Kenneth Nutt officiating, assisted by the Rev. M. F. Copeland. Interment was in the church cemetery under the direction of Kilpatrick's Funeral Home of Farmerville.

Survivors, other than her parents, include her husband, Billy Ray Ellis, Thibodaux; two sons, Stephen Wayne and Michael Ray Ellis, both of Thibodaux; two brothers, Carl V. Thompson Jr., and Ronald Thompson, both of Bernice.

Weather War Possibility Is Discussed

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—The possibility of a war of weather was described by a University of Colorado scientist to a Senate committee Friday.

He said it can't happen now and he doesn't know whether it ever will, but he added, if it comes, "We can't afford to be last."

In such a war, said Dr. Walter Orr Roberts, directors of the university's high-altitude observatory, each side would try to send droughts and flood-causing storms to disrupt its enemy.

GREATEST

Sen. Robert S. Kerr (D-Okla), chairman of the Select Committee on Water Resources, asked; "If this develops, then we will face probably the greatest potential explosive action that we have yet had to face, is that right?"

"Yes, sir, I agree," said Roberts.

He said publications indicate the Soviet Union is engaged in studies of weather control of a continental scale. In some aspects, he said, they appear to be ahead of this country.

Explaining how such a weather war might develop, he said only a small mount of energy appears to be necessary to start a storm system.

Students Get Week Holiday From Classes

Students in City and Parish school systems will have a week without classes in observance of the Thanksgiving holiday. Schools here will reopen Nov. 30.

These citcumstances are the result of a three - day teacher workshop combined with the Thanksgiving holidays.

At Northeast, classes will be dismissed at noon Wednesday and resume at 8 a.m. the following Monday. Dormitories will close at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday and reopen at 2:30 p.m. the folowing Sunday. The cafeteria, Student Center and infirmary will also be closed during the holiday period, and the post office will operate on a reduced schedule.

During the three-day workshop period, many teachers from the City and Parish systems will attend the three-day workshop period attending the annual meeting of the Louisiana Teachers' Association in Baton Rouge.

Police Jurors Slate Meeting In Ouachita

The Ouachita Parish Police Jury will meet in special session at a cost of $505.20 to the taxpayers at 7 p.m. Monday in the parish Courthouse, to adopt the General Fund and Road Maintenance budget.

The meet was announced by a notice posted amongst garnishee and court notices on a third floor bulletin board in the Courthouse.

The Police Jury office is on the second floor.

M. W. Montgomery, president of the Police Jury, explained last night that the meeting must be held prior to the next regular Jury meeting on Dec. 9.

He said that the budget must be advertised in the newspaper once each week for four weeks prior to Jan. 1, 1960 and that the Dec. 9 meeting would make it too late to begin running the advertisement.

Each meeting costs $505.20 in salaries for Jurymen.

QUERIED

When queried as to why the notices, dated Nov. 19, had not been placed on the door of the Police Jury room, Montgomery said, "It looks bad on the door."

Meeting notices have been placed on the door in the past. However, a special meeting in October received no advance notice, and news media were not in attendance.

Attorney General Jack P. F. Gremillion ruled on May 31, 1957, that "legible notices shall be posted on a bulletin board or at a prominent place at the domicile" of the Police Jury for special meetings.

When first sighted yesterday, the notice was partially hidden by reams of other notices. A reporter placed it in a more prominent position on the bulletin board.

Charges Lodges In Driving Case

The Monroe Police Department said yesterday that five charges have been lodged against a Ouachita Parish man as the result of a chase through Monroe and on the Fink's Hide-a-way Road early Friday morning.

Bond for Billy C. Flowers, 31, of Fink's Hide-A-Way Road set at $1,000 police said.

Flowers was taken into custody, officials said, for operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquors, reckless driving, speeding, using profane language and resisting arrest.

Police said Flowers was observed traveling at a high rate of speed through Sixth Street at the DeSiard-Five Points intersection.

During a chase out DeSiard Street, speeds of 90-miles-an-hour were recorded and on the Sterlington Road, the speeds were noted at between 90 and 100, officers said.

Officers said the man did not stop or slow up for two red lights at the Sterlington - Louisville - DeSiard Road intersection.

Neville Races To 35-0 Rout Over Outclassed Ouachita

By BOB ANDERSON
World Sports Editor

Triggered by Neal Gunn's 47-yard touchdown burst in the first three minutes, Neville's white-jersied legions buried outclassed Ouachita, 35-0, Friday night in Neville Stadium to hand the Lions their worst defeat in the history of their cross - town rivalry.

Led by three flashy charges, Gunn, oJe Cage and Devone Payne, unbeaten Neville riddled Ouachita's defensives for 398 yards rushing, 228 in an awesome first half display, as Bill Ruple's Tigers easily picked up their ninth straight victory of the season and headed for class AA playoff competition.

Neville will play Minden of district 1-AA next week in a bi-district playoff at an undetermined site. Minden blanked Springhill, 12-0, at Minden last night to win the conference title.

Neville scored twice in the first period, Gunn going 47 yards and Payne three for touchdowns, and once each in the second, third and fourth periods.

Cage picked up the TD in the second period on a one-yard plunge, quarterback Joe Turner went 10 yards around end for the third period TD and then threw 21 yards to reserve end Sperry Brown for the final six-pointer.

Besides his touchdown, Cage kicked all five extra points to run his scoring total to 94 points for the season, second best in district 2-AA.

The score was the biggest run up in the 11-game series between the two schools. Neville has now won 10 of the games to Ouachita's one.

Cage and Gunn ran for over 100 yards each and Payne almost reached the three-figure mark. Cage picked up 122 yards in 17 carries for a 7.2 average. Gunn had the best average, running for 115 yards in 10 carries. Payne got 96 yards in 15 trips.

Ouachita, taking only its third defeat against six losses and a tie, gave it a try but couldn't do anything against Neville's brilliant line play led by tackle Mickey Cox, guard Robert Turner and center Lucian Branch, picking up a bare two yards rushing the whole game.

Bob Ellen's Lions went to the air for most of their yardage with quarterback Bobby Hendrix throwing 17 times for nine completions and 129 yards. Hendrix hit Bobby Shipp, not expected to play, with most of his passes.

Ouachita had five players who were supposed to miss the game or see limited duty including Shipp. All, however, showed up and were used extensively.

End Ervin Bates, an all-state candidate, continued his sterling play, leading Ouachita's defensive efforts and punting brilliantly. booting five for a 40.0-yard average.

Neville, promised a Dec. 22 holiday by superintendent Van Odom if it wins the state AA championship, drove 65, 78, 93, 61 and 61 yards for its touchdowns.

Gunn started it off with his TD run only 2:40 into the first period. Just before the first period ended, Payne drove off left tackle for the second touchdown. In the second period, Cage scored his TD on a one-yard plunge on fourth down.

Turner went wide behind fine blocking 10 yards in the third for a TD and then hit Brown on the sidelines at the two for the final TD.

A 24-yard jaunt by Cage and a 22-yard pickup by Payne helped set up Turner's touchdown. Gunn reeled off a 46-yard run in the fourth period to help Neville drive to the Ouachita seven where Cage fumbled to end the march.

Ouachita's only serious threat went as far as the Neville 12 in the second period. A 38-yard pass from Hendrix to Bates powered the drive. The march ended when R. F. Wilson intercepted a Hendrix toss on second down at the seven.

In the fading minutes of the final period, Ouachita drove from its 20 to the Neville 29 on the passing of Hendrix before time ran out.

Curci Paces Miami Past MSU 18-13

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Tiny Fran Curci Friday night led a fired-up Miami, Fla. football team to an 18-13 victory over Michigan State. The triumph strengthened the 152-pound quarterback's All-America hopes and put the Hurricanes within one victory of an Orange Bowl invitation.

Miami now can take the Orange Bowl berth with a win next week in its closing game with Florida. Michigan State's Rose Bowl hopes were not affected by the loss.

The Spa tans can win the Big Ten title only if Northwestern and Wisconsin lose or tie in games Saturday.

A crowd of 40,870 braved rain showers to see the fabulous little Curci guide the Hurricanes to their smashing upset. He entertained them beautifully by calling an exciting mixture of runs, passes and pitchouts.

On Curci's passes and smashing runs by Jim Vollenweider, Frank Bouffard and Bob Rosbaugh, Miami surged to an 18-6 lead in the third period, then held off a furious comeback by the Spartans in the final quarter.

TROUBLED

D'Amato On Bail After Surrender

NEW YORK (AP) — Troubled Cus D'Amato Friday surrendered to state authorities and immediately was charged with violating the general business law for failing to respond to a subpoena. A warrant had been issued for his arrest.

The crew-cut, 51-year-old manager of former world heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson was released in $2,500 bail for trial in Special Sessions Court Dec. 14.

Shortly after this action, the state athletic commission announced it would render a decision Monday at 11 a.m., EST, on its inquiry into alleged irregularities in the promotion of the Patterson-Ingemar Johansson heavyweight title fight at Yankee Stadium last June 26.

The commission has made five charges against D'Amato, and three against Bill Rosensohn, promoter of the fight. The commission had suspended both and revoked the license of Rosensohn Enterprises, Inc., the firm which handled the contest.

A warrant for D'Amato's arrest was issued Wednesday after he failed to answer a subpoena to appear before State Attorney General Louis J. Lefkowitz. The attorney general's office is investigating whether the state's anti-monopoly law was violated in the handling of the radio, television and movie rights of the June 26 bout.

D'Amato surrendered by arrangement in the office of his attorney, Edwin Schweig. Shortly after he was booked on a charge of violating the general business law for failing to answer the subpoena.

Later a grand jury returned an information charging misdemeanor or violation on the charge.

Special Sessions Justice Joseph J. Loscalzo set the bail at $2,500 although Assistant Attorney General Irving Galt urged bail of $10,000.

Galt called D'Amato's actions "A wilful, deliberate evasion of the mandate of a subpoena. There has been a history of difficulties in securing the appearance of this man."

Julius November, another one of D'Amato's attorneys, protested. He called his client "a reputable businessman, not a criminal . . . and he will appear when wanted. It's ridiculous making a fanfare out of this."

Later, D'Amato told reporters he had been in Newtown, Conn., where Patterson has a training camp, since Wednesday.

TO WIN 3-B CROWN

Wisner Tumbles Crowville, 18-0

CROWVILLE, La. (Special) — Wisner blanked Crowville, 18-0, here last night, in a battle of district leaders to win the 3-B football championship.

The victory was eight without defeat for Wisner's powerful club. Only a 0-0 tie with non-district Mangham mars the Wisner record. Wisner's district record is 7-0.

Crowville took its fourth defeat against six losses. Crowville was unbeaten in district play going into the game and its 3-B mark fell to 4-1 with the defeat.

Jerry Ensminger caught a pass for 20 yards as Wisner tallied its first touchdown in the second period.

Halfback Ken Thornhill scored both touchdowns as Wisner put the game on ice with two six-pointers in the third period. Thornhill went seven yards for his first TD and 15 for the second.

Wisner is tentatively scheduled to meet the district 1-B champion in a bi-district playoff next. Haughton and Cotton Valley are tied for the 1-B title and are scheduled to meet in a playoff Thanksgiving Day in Minden.

WINNSBORO-FERRIDAY

WINNSBORO, La. (Special) — The Winnsboro Wildcats and Ferriday Bulldogs battled to a 13-13 tie here last night as the Wildcats staged a last quarter touchdown march in the last quarter to overcome a 13-7 Ferriday lead.

Runs of 21 and 23 yards by Winnsboro's Allen Parks put the ball on the Ferriday one in the second quarter, and J. D. Busby rammed over for the first TD. Quarterback Joe Henry passed to end Hines Davis for the point.

But Ferriday came right back to tie up the game at 7-7. Quarterback Billy Clifton set up the score with a 55-yard run to the Winnsboro five, but the 'Cats held for downs.

Then Ferriday tackle Larry Dickerson surged in to block a Danny Magee punt in the end zone and camp on the ball for the touchdown. Halfback Freddy Marks ran for the tying point.

Ferriday took the lead in the third quarter after tackle James Poole recovered a Winnsboro fumble on his 49. Halfback Dennis Jones romped off 37 yards, and a few seconds later he went over from the five.

Parks climaxed Winnsboro's last period drive for the tie with a plunge from the one.

Winnsboro piled up 13 first downs, rushed for 194 yards and completed two of three passes for 15. Ferriday, with eight firsts, rushed for 159 and completed two of four passes for seven yards.

WINNFIELD, 19-7

FARMERVILLE, La. (Special) — The Winnfield Tigers wrapped up the district 1-A flag by dropping the Farmerville Farmers, 19-7, here last night.

The Winnfield crew scored once in the second quarter and twice in the fourth period.

Farmerville's Joe Albritton racked up a touchdown and a PAT in the fourth period for the home team's only score.

Albritton had put the crowd on its toes with the opening kickoff as he took the ball on his 25 and rambled in the clear to the Tiger 30 where he stumbled and fell.

As the first half ended Winnfield fullback Gerald Bryant capped a 47-yard drive with a 3-yard touchdown plunge. Quarterback Mike Tinnerello shot a jump pass to Tommy Wyatt for the extra point.

In the fourth period Tiger tackle Wayne McFarland blocked an Albritton quick kick on the Farmer 11 and Tiger halfback Jimmy Bolton ran over from the 5. He failed on the PAT run.

Again in the fourth quarter Tiger halfback James Collins ran around his own right end for a 15-yard touchdown. A quarterback sneak by Tinnerello for the point failed.

Near the end of the game Albritton went off right tackle for 11 yards to score and tore off right guard for the point.

The Tiger coaches and principal will meet at the Hotel Frances in Monroe Saturday morning with the winning coaches of district 2-A to discuss playoff plans.

WATERPROOF, 25-6

NEWELLTON, La. (Special) — Winless Newellton went down in defeat for the tenth time this season when the Waterproof Tigers rapped the Bears, 25-6, here Friday night. It was the final game of the season for both clubs and gave Waterproof an 8-1-2 record for the season.

Benny Lopoo took a 16-yard pass from Bobby Wallace for the opening Tiger touchdown. Quarterback Larry Moss plunged over from two yards out, giving the visitors a 12-0 edge at the half. Halfback Earl Guin went over from the two in the fourth period, and Wallace followed with a 34-yard TD jaunt. Earl Guin added the point behind the Wallace conversion.

Halfback Johnny Robinson scored from the 10 for Newellton's only TD late in the game.

BASTROP TAGS J-H

BASTROP, La. (Special) — Scoring in every quarter, the Bastrop Rams hobbled the Jonesboro - Hodge Tigers, 40-26, here last night.

Jerry Hollis romped for three Bastrop touchdowns, getting loose in the first quarter on a spectacular 85 - yard gallop to paydirt, going 30 yards on another dash, and counting his third on a 15-yard sprint.

Other Bastrop scores came when guard Leon Martin scooped up a fumble and scampered 40 yards for a TD; Gary White counted on an end run from the five; Charles Magee raced 75 yards with a kickoff return; and Charles Burks added four extra points.

Bobby Gene Jones counted two J-H touchdowns, the first when he skirted end 15 yards and the next on a 20-yard jaunt. Gerald Ayres took a double reverse 35 yards for a TD, and a pass from Reggie Holland to Jim McKeithen counted the final J-H touchdown. Holland and Ayres each ran for one extra point for the Tigers.

Jonesboro-Hodge led Bastrop in first downs, 11 to 10.

NATCHEZ, 40-0

NATCHEZ, Miss. (AP)—Quarterback Perry Lee Dunn scored three touchdowns and passed for two Friday night in leading Natchez to a 40-0 victory over Jackson Central to close out an undefeated Big Eight campaign.

Dunn passed 47-yards to end Mike Morgan for a first period touchdown and a second period touchdown with a 55-yard heave to Walter Beasley in the second quarter.

In the third period he scored on runs of 10 and 3 yards and in the fourth on a 1-yard smash. His runs capped drives of 63, 42, and 99 yards.

The second Natchez tally was by fullback Billy Tew on a 6-yard plunge. Tew added the point.

The victory was the ninth for the top-ranked Rebels against one tie.

The No. 1 team in The Associated Press poll must wait to see whether it wins the South Division. Natchez and second-ranked Laurel, the team which spoiled the prefect Natchez record, are tied for the lead and Laurel has one more divisional game.

A Laurel victory over Hattiesburg next week would give the title to Laurel.

TERREBONNE, 26-12

HOUMA, La. (AP) — Larry de la Biretonne opened the scoring for Terrebonne with a 71-yard touchdown return in the first period to spark a 26-12 victory over Catholic of Baton Rouge.

Douglas Maier added two more for Terrebonne on runs of 26 and 2 yards while a 42-yard pass play from John Cooper to Larry Hutchison accounted for the other tally. Earl Hicks got one of two conversions.

Nolan Keller ran from two out and Chuck Kleinpeter scored from the one for Catholic.

MINDEN, 12-0

MINDEN, La. (Special) —Fullback Bobby Ashley powered for 205 yards as once - beaten Minden blanked Springhill, 12-0, here last night to win the district 1-AA championship.

Minden will play 2-AA titlist Neville next week at an undetermined site.

Quarterback Edwin Greer sneaked over from the one in the second quarter for Minden's first touchdown and Ashley followed with a five - yard trip around end for a TD in the final period.

The 175-yard Ashley ran 80 yards to the five - yard line in the first period but Springhill, the district's defending champion, held.

Minden lost the first game of the season to Ruston, 28-12, and then won nine straight. Springhill's record is 6-3-1.

BLOCK-SICILY ISLAND

SICILY ISLAND, La. (Special) —The Block Bears gathered steam in the second half to defeat the Sicily Island Tigers, 33-13, here Friday night in a district 3-B game that did not affect the standings.

Jerry Hinton went eight yards around end to hand Sicily Island the lead, and in the second quarter, he scampered 30 yards through the line for another TD. Charles Miller passed to Joe Wells for the point - after.

But Block came roaring back with two second period TDs to grab a narrow 14-13 edge at the half. Pat Egloff scored from inside the one, and Billy Brooks tallied from the 20, both runs followed by Billy Edwards' successful kicks for the points.

A 30-yard penalty — 15 for roughness plus 15 more when the coach asked about the penalty — put the Islanders in a hole again and the ball on their four in the third period. Egloff ran it the rest of the way. Edwards kicked the point again.

In the fourth period Egloff counted from the one, and Brooks passed to Jerry Book for 15 and the final Block TD.

Block had a 15-10 edge in first downs.

The Islanders played with two first stringers, end Mike Haley and halfback Johnny Young, because of earlier injuries.

NORTH CADDO, 27-6

JENA, La. (Special) — Bowl-bound North Caddo turned back Jena, 27-6, here last night in a warmup for its Thanksgiving Day date with Ouachita of Monroe in the Jonesboro Paper Bowl.

North Caddo scored in the first period on an 11-yard pass from quarterback Larry McCord to end J. T. Johnson and added another TD in the same period on halfback Frank Clements 25-yard run. McCord added the PTA.

McCord threw for another touchdown in the second, hitting fullback Marion Powell for 30 yards. The quarterback again made the extra point.

North Caddo closed out its scoring in the third when halfback Kenny Tidwell picked up a fumble and ran 49 yards into the end zone.McCord added the final PAT.

Jena scored in the fourth on a 17-yard throw from quarterback Gerald Ganey to halfback Leland Brown.

North Caddo led 10 first downs to Jena's 9.

Chicago Mills Area Open To Deer Hunters

FERRIDAY, La. (Special) — The Chicago Mills Game Management Area located in Tensas Parish approximately 10 miles west of Newellton, Louisiana will be open to deer hunting during the first 10 days of December. The period December 1-3 will be for any deer while the period December 4-10 will be for ducks only.

The hunts will be for still hunting only. No dogs or horses will be allowed on the area.

Each hunter will be required to have in his possession a permit which he must acquire daily at a checking station on the area prior to his hunting effort. Hunters will surrender their hunting licenses upon receiving their permits and must reclaim the license upon completion of the daily hunt by turning in the permit. While hunting on the management area, the daily permits will serve as hunting licenses. All other state laws will be enforced.

Permit stations will open at 5:00 a.m. and close at 5:00 p.m. and will be located as follows: Station No. 1 - Located at Coot Point Landing.

Station No. 2 -Tensas River Bridge on La. Hwy. 4 and 128.

Station No. 3 - La. Hwy. 888, 1½ miles south of Tensas Bluff where parish road leaves La. Hwy. 888 to Jordan Ferry.

Hunters are reminded that the Chicago Mills Refuge is closed to all types of hunting. The refuge is located for the most part in Madison Parish, however, a small portion of the refuge is located in Texas (north and east of Big Lake and Fool River). This portion of Tensas Parish is in the Chicago Mills Refuge and will be closed to hunting.

Due to inaccessibility to the area it is suggested that hunters bring a small boat and motor to aid in getting to the area.

Court Declines To Permit Use Of Novel Name

NEW YORK (AP)—A State Supreme Court justice Friday declined to permit a boys' team to be incorporated as "the New York Braves Baseball Club."

The incorporation was sought by six businessmen on behalf of Bronx boys, who range in age from 13 to 20.

"Why, of all the names, did they have to hit upon a combination of 'New York' and 'Braves'?" Justice Samuel H. Hofstadter asked in his opinion.

"If the courts are so assiduous in protecting a name in business how much more solicitous they must be in sports—especially with regard to the great American game of baseball—to protect the image built up in the public mind.

"With the continuous turnover in personnel, the flux in home territory, a team's sobriquet is its chief claim to identity. It should be guarded."

Pettit Leads Hawks To Win

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Bob Pettit's 15-foot jump shot with 38 seconds remaining Friday night gave the St Louis Hawks a 118-117 victory over Philadelphia in a National Basketball Assn. thriller.

Pettit also led the Hawks in scoring with 28 points and along with teammate Clyde Lovellette helped hold Warrior star Wilt Chamberlain to only 24 points, his lowest output of the year. The 7-1 Chamberlain has been averaging 37.1 points per game.

Paul Arizin put on a one-man show in bringing the Warriors from a 22-point deficit in the first half to a 74-73 lead midway through the third period. He ended up with 44 points, a career high.

Cousy Hoops 25 As Celts Wallop Nats

BOSTON (AP)—Bob Cousy and Bill Sharman, the healthy members of the otherwise aching Celtics, led Boston to a 124-101 National Basketball Assn. victory over Syracuse Friday night.

Cousy contributed 25 points and Sharman 19 as the Celtics gained revenge for last Wednesday night's 135-103 drubbing at Syracuse.

The victory, 12th in 14 starts this season for the defending world champions, snapped a five game winning streak for the Nats who numbered the Syracuse University football team among their supporters in the Boston Garden crowd of 5,135.

Tied 21-all at the end of the first period, Boston took the lead for good by outscoring the Nats 36-25 in the second quarter. Sam Jones was the big pick-up man for the Celts, scoring 11 points to pull Boston well in front.

All Boston players were in action but only Cousy and Sharman wer not hampered by injuries.

Playing on a sore, swollen ankle Bill Russell contributed 17 points and 26 rebounds for the Celtics.

George Yardley scored 24 points and Dolph Schayes 17 for the losers.

Fire Fighters Keep Busy In Monroe Area

The Monroe Fire Department was on the go at a fast pace yesterday as a rash of grass fires broke out over the city.

In addition the department fought a fire at Peoples Gin Co., a car fire, a trash fire and made two invstigations of fires that had already been extinguished.

A total of 17 grass fires, which the department said is the most they have encountered so far this year, were put out.

IN ROOF

The People's Gin Co., 1200 Sterlington Road, caught fire in the roof, but damages were considered minor. This marks the fifth time during the ginning season that firemen have been called to the Sterlington Road address, the department said.

A car fire at a service station at the intersection of Oliver Road and Louisville Ave., caused minor damages to a parked auto, firemen reported.

Dry dying grass coupled with cold weather may have been one reason for the rash of grass fires, the department said.

The West Monroe fire department extinguished one grass blaze and reported that one false alarm was turned in during the day.

Auto Divisions To Swing Back By Next Week

DETROIT (AP)—Automotive divisions of General Motors Corp., will swing back into parts manufacture next week.

Just how long it will take to get supply lines filled anew with steel products and assembly lines turning out automobiles, no one at GM wanted to estimate. Outside sources figured it may be another three to five weeks.

GM has had all truck and car assembly closed down and some 220,000 of its 320,000 hourly rated work force idled by a steel shortage.

Ford Motor Co., which makes half its own steel, went back on a five-day week at all plants this week, and automotive news reported today that Ford will build Falcons, Lincolns and Thunderbirds in overtime operations Saturday.

American Motors and Studebaker-Packard, which the recently interrupted nationwide strike of steelmakers did not affect, have continued on a five-day or more week. Prestrike steel inventories have carried them through.

The situation continued to worsen at Chrysler Corp.

Chrysler laid off 2,650 workers this week, bringing its idled to 13,230. A spokesman said there undoubtedly will be further curtailment next week.

Work weeks of three and four days have prevailed over the last couple of weeks at most Chrysler plants across the country.

Both GM's Buick and Chevrolet divisions announced today they were recalling parts-makers next week. A scattering of workers was recalled this week in some basic plants, such as the Ternstedt division which makes trim.

Chevrolet transmission at Saginaw, Mich., called for 982 to report Monday, and Chevrolet's Flint, Mich., manufacturing plant called back 1,097 out of its normal force of 8,162.

Buick, also at Flint, said it would recall 1,300 next week at its foundry, with 400 maintenance men reporting Monday and 900 production workers Tuesday. Because of the Thanksgiving holiday, however, the foundry will operate only three days.

Six Persons At District Court Session

Six persons charged with offenses appeared in Fourth District Court before Judge David I. Garrett. The normally long Friday docket was not held, since this is felony trial week.

A manslaughter charge against Charlie Carter, 34, Negro, was nolle prossed.

Officials explained that the case, which dates back to Oct. 15, 1956, must be removed from the court docket. Any case which stays on the docket for more than three years must be dismissed.

They said that witnesses for the original trial all left the city, and that the trial could not be held.

Carter was charged with slaying Alfred E. Colvin, Negro.

Kent Breard, court - appointed attorney for Burrell Arthur Cole, asked to be excused from the case. Cole is charged with the death of T. F. Walerk, 49, of Shreveport, on July 24, 1949. Cole, recently was declared sane, and released from a state institution where he had been held for the last 10 years.

HOLD OVER

Judge Garrett said that the request would have to be held over until next week, to give the court reporter time to check records on the case.

In other court action, two women appeared before the Judge. Jo G. Ussery, 1913 Park Ave., was fined $50 and costs for reckless driving, and Ruth Vaughn Martin, General Delivery, Chatham, was fined $25 and costs for disturbing the peace.

Slagle H. Day, Evergreen street West Monroe, drew a $50 fine for driving without a license.

James Hicks, Negro, College Point and John Rockymore, Negro, 1104 N. Seventh St., both West Monroe, were remanded for sentencing until Dec. 14.

Earlier, they pled guilty to gambling.

City Court

MONROE

A charge of theft brought a fine of $75 or 75 days yesterday in Monroe City Court against Wallace Strong.

Other cases heard by Judge W. M. Harper included a reckless driving charge against Alberta Flennory, who forfeited $25 bond. Also forfeiting bond on reckless driving charges were Aaron Robinson, $35, and Robert E. Yelverton, $25.

Forfeiting bond on speeding charges were Earnest Coleman, $12.50; Robert Gavioli, $15; Jamie Wilhite, $10; Mary Russell, $5.

Fined $10 or 10 days was Daniel Burkhalter.

Auto Official Denies Desoto Will Drop Line

DETROIT (AP) — A high-ranking Chrysler official issued another denial Friday that the corporation has any idea of dropping its Desoto car line.

Such reports and denials, have cropped up in the auto industry frequently the past several years. They were being heard again following Ford's sudden stop on building Edsels.

Byron Nichols, Chrysler's vice president for sales, said Friday "There are no plans to drop the Desoto automobile. Sales of 1960 model Desoto have been exceptional. Our order condition for Desotos is excellent. Our future plans for Desoto are in line with normal requirements for all lines of our cars."

Rites Friday For Victim Of Shooting

BERNICE (Special) — Funeral services were held Friday for Mrs. Faye Ellis, 22, of Thibodaux, who died Thursday as a result of gunshot wounds. Mrs. Ellis was accidentally shot by her five-year-old son.

Mrs. Ellis was in Bernice visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Thompson. Reportedly, she entered the room where the boy was playing with a loaded pistol. The gun accidentally discharged, shooting her three times

Funeral services were held at the Hebron Baptist Church with the Rev. Kenneth Nutt officiating, assisted by the Rev. M. F. Copeland. Interment was in the church cemetery under the direction of Kilpatrick's Funeral Home of Farmerville.

Survivors, other than her parents, include her husband, Billy Ray Ellis, Thibodaux; two sons, Stephen Wayne and Michael Ray Ellis, both of Thibodaux; two brothers, Carl V. Thompson Jr., and Ronald Thompson, both of Bernice.

Weather War Possibility Is Discussed

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—The possibility of a war of weather was described by a University of Colorado scientist to a Senate committee Friday.

He said it can't happen now and he doesn't know whether it ever will, but he added, if it comes, "We can't afford to be last."

In such a war, said Dr. Walter Orr Roberts, directors of the university's high-altitude observatory, each side would try to send droughts and flood-causing storms to disrupt its enemy.

GREATEST

Sen. Robert S. Kerr (D-Okla), chairman of the Select Committee on Water Resources, asked; "If this develops, then we will face probably the greatest potential explosive action that we have yet had to face, is that right?"

"Yes, sir, I agree," said Roberts.

He said publications indicate the Soviet Union is engaged in studies of weather control of a continental scale. In some aspects, he said, they appear to be ahead of this country.

Explaining how such a weather war might develop, he said only a small mount of energy appears to be necessary to start a storm system.

Recollection

A Day of Recollection will be sponsored by St. Matthew's Alumni Association of Monroe on Sunday, November 29 from 1:30 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Conferences will be given by Fr. Vitus Duschinsky, O.F.M.

Mrs. Kenneth Bartlette is serving as general chairman of the project. Although sponsored by the Alumni Association, an invitation and welcome is extended to all who want to attend. Registration will begin at 1:30 p.m. in the gymnasium.

Meeting

Eugene B. Scott, president of the Northeast Louisiana Shrine Club, El Karubah Temple, has announced that a meeting will be held Monday at the Club's home on Cheniere Lake. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Among those slated to attend the meeting are Reginald Poe, potentate of the Shreveport El Karubah Shrine Temple, and all members of the official Divan.

Honored at the meeting will be the wives of the Shriners of the Northeast Louisiana area.

Reservations for the Shriners who are not members of the Northeast Louisiana club may be made by calling noon Monday.

Degree Team

A master Mason's degree will be conferred by the West Monroe Masonic degree team at Olla Masonic Temple this evening at 7:30 p.m. All Master Masons are invited to attend the ceremony.

Students Get Week Holiday From Classes

Students in City and Parish school systems will have a week without classes in observance of the Thanksgiving holiday. Schools here will reopen Nov. 30.

These citcumstances are the result of a three - day teacher workshop combined with the Thanksgiving holidays.

At Northeast, classes will be dismissed at noon Wednesday and resume at 8 a.m. the following Monday. Dormitories will close at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday and reopen at 2:30 p.m. the folowing Sunday. The cafeteria, Student Center and infirmary will also be closed during the holiday period, and the post office will operate on a reduced schedule.

During the three-day workshop period, many teachers from the City and Parish systems will attend the three-day workshop period attending the annual meeting of the Louisiana Teachers' Association in Baton Rouge.

Police Jurors Slate Meeting In Ouachita

The Ouachita Parish Police Jury will meet in special session at a cost of $505.20 to the taxpayers at 7 p.m. Monday in the parish Courthouse, to adopt the General Fund and Road Maintenance budget.

The meet was announced by a notice posted amongst garnishee and court notices on a third floor bulletin board in the Courthouse.

The Police Jury office is on the second floor.

M. W. Montgomery, president of the Police Jury, explained last night that the meeting must be held prior to the next regular Jury meeting on Dec. 9.

He said that the budget must be advertised in the newspaper once each week for four weeks prior to Jan. 1, 1960 and that the Dec. 9 meeting would make it too late to begin running the advertisement.

Each meeting costs $505.20 in salaries for Jurymen.

QUERIED

When queried as to why the notices, dated Nov. 19, had not been placed on the door of the Police Jury room, Montgomery said, "It looks bad on the door."

Meeting notices have been placed on the door in the past. However, a special meeting in October received no advance notice, and news media were not in attendance.

Attorney General Jack P. F. Gremillion ruled on May 31, 1957, that "legible notices shall be posted on a bulletin board or at a prominent place at the domicile" of the Police Jury for special meetings.

When first sighted yesterday, the notice was partially hidden by reams of other notices. A reporter placed it in a more prominent position on the bulletin board.

Charges Lodges In Driving Case

The Monroe Police Department said yesterday that five charges have been lodged against a Ouachita Parish man as the result of a chase through Monroe and on the Fink's Hide-a-way Road early Friday morning.

Bond for Billy C. Flowers, 31, of Fink's Hide-A-Way Road set at $1,000 police said.

Flowers was taken into custody, officials said, for operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquors, reckless driving, speeding, using profane language and resisting arrest.

Police said Flowers was observed traveling at a high rate of speed through Sixth Street at the DeSiard-Five Points intersection.

During a chase out DeSiard Street, speeds of 90-miles-an-hour were recorded and on the Sterlington Road, the speeds were noted at between 90 and 100, officers said.

Officers said the man did not stop or slow up for two red lights at the Sterlington - Louisville - DeSiard Road intersection.

Neville Races To 35-0 Rout Over Outclassed Ouachita

By BOB ANDERSON
World Sports Editor

Triggered by Neal Gunn's 47-yard touchdown burst in the first three minutes, Neville's white-jersied legions buried outclassed Ouachita, 35-0, Friday night in Neville Stadium to hand the Lions their worst defeat in the history of their cross - town rivalry.

Led by three flashy charges, Gunn, oJe Cage and Devone Payne, unbeaten Neville riddled Ouachita's defensives for 398 yards rushing, 228 in an awesome first half display, as Bill Ruple's Tigers easily picked up their ninth straight victory of the season and headed for class AA playoff competition.

Neville will play Minden of district 1-AA next week in a bi-district playoff at an undetermined site. Minden blanked Springhill, 12-0, at Minden last night to win the conference title.

Neville scored twice in the first period, Gunn going 47 yards and Payne three for touchdowns, and once each in the second, third and fourth periods.

Cage picked up the TD in the second period on a one-yard plunge, quarterback Joe Turner went 10 yards around end for the third period TD and then threw 21 yards to reserve end Sperry Brown for the final six-pointer.

Besides his touchdown, Cage kicked all five extra points to run his scoring total to 94 points for the season, second best in district 2-AA.

The score was the biggest run up in the 11-game series between the two schools. Neville has now won 10 of the games to Ouachita's one.

Cage and Gunn ran for over 100 yards each and Payne almost reached the three-figure mark. Cage picked up 122 yards in 17 carries for a 7.2 average. Gunn had the best average, running for 115 yards in 10 carries. Payne got 96 yards in 15 trips.

Ouachita, taking only its third defeat against six losses and a tie, gave it a try but couldn't do anything against Neville's brilliant line play led by tackle Mickey Cox, guard Robert Turner and center Lucian Branch, picking up a bare two yards rushing the whole game.

Bob Ellen's Lions went to the air for most of their yardage with quarterback Bobby Hendrix throwing 17 times for nine completions and 129 yards. Hendrix hit Bobby Shipp, not expected to play, with most of his passes.

Ouachita had five players who were supposed to miss the game or see limited duty including Shipp. All, however, showed up and were used extensively.

End Ervin Bates, an all-state candidate, continued his sterling play, leading Ouachita's defensive efforts and punting brilliantly. booting five for a 40.0-yard average.

Neville, promised a Dec. 22 holiday by superintendent Van Odom if it wins the state AA championship, drove 65, 78, 93, 61 and 61 yards for its touchdowns.

Gunn started it off with his TD run only 2:40 into the first period. Just before the first period ended,. Payne drove off left tackle for the second touchdown. In the second period, Cage scored his TD on a one-yard plunge on fourth down.

Turner went wide behind fine blocking 10 yards in the third for a TD and then hit Brown on the sidelines at the two for the final TD.

A 24-yard jaunt by Cage and a 22-yard pickup by Payne helped set up Turner's touchdown. Gunn reeled off a 46-yard run in the fourth period to help Neville drive to the Ouachita seven where Cage fumbled to end the march.

Ouachita's only serious threat went as far as the Neville 12 in the second period. A 38-yard pass from Hendrix to Bates powered the drive. The march ended when R. F. Wilson intercepted a Hendrix toss on second down at the seven.

In the fading minutes of the final period, Ouachita drove from its 20 to the Neville 29 on the passing of Hendrix before time ran out.

STUDIES AND TEACHES

DURHAM, N. H. (AP) — Joe Lapchick Jr., who played end for three varsity seasons at West Point, is back in school studying for his Masters degree at the niversity of New Hampshire. He also teaches in high school. His father, Joe Sr., is coaching the St. John's University Basketball team in Brooklyn.

Curci Paces Miami Past MSU 18-13

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Tiny Fran Curci Friday night led a fired-up Miami, Fla. football team to an 18-13 victory over Michigan State. The triumph strengthened the 152-pound quarterback's All-America hopes and put the Hurricanes within one victory of an Orange Bowl invitation.

Miami now can take the Orange Bowl berth with a win next week in its closing game with Florida. Michigan State's Rose Bowl hopes were not affected by the loss.

The Spa tans can win the Big Ten title only if Northwestern and Wisconsin lose or tie in games Saturday.

A crowd of 40,870 braved rain showers to see the fabulous little Curci guide the Hurricanes to their smashing upset. He entertained them beautifully by calling an exciting mixture of runs, passes and pitchouts.

On Curci's passes and smashing runs by Jim Vollenweider, Frank Bouffard and Bob Rosbaugh, Miami surged to an 18-6 lead in the third period, then held off a furious comeback by the Spartans in the final quarter.

TROUBLED

D'Amato On Bail After Surrender

NEW YORK (AP) — Troubled Cus D'Amato Friday surrendered to state authorities and immediately was charged with violating the general business law for failing to respond to a subpoena. A warrant had been issued for his arrest.

The crew-cut, 51-year-old manager of former world heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson was released in $2,500 bail for trial in Special Sessions Court Dec. 14.

Shortly after this action, the state athletic commission announced it would render a decision Monday at 11 a.m., EST, on its inquiry into alleged irregularities in the promotion of the Patterson-Ingemar Johansson heavyweight title fight at Yankee Stadium last June 26.

The commission has made five charges against D'Amato, and three against Bill Rosensohn, promoter of the fight. The commission had suspended both and revoked the license of Rosensohn Enterprises, Inc., the firm which handled the contest.

A warrant for D'Amato's arrest was issued Wednesday after he failed to answer a subpoena to appear before State Attorney General Louis J. Lefkowitz. The attorney general's office is investigating whether the state's anti-monopoly law was violated in the handling of the radio, television and movie rights of the June 26 bout.

D'Amato surrendered by arrangement in the office of his attory, Edwin Schweig. Shortly after he was booked on a charge of violating the general business law for failing to answer the subpoena.

Later a grand jury returned an information charging misdemeanor violation on the charge.

Special Sessions Justice Joseph J. Loscalzo set the bail at $2,500 although Assistant Attorney General Irving Galt urged bail of $10,000.

Galt called D'Amato's actions "A wilful, deliberate evasion of the mandate of a subpoena. There has been a history of difficulties in securing the appearance of this man."

Julius November, another one of D'Amato's attorneys, protested. He called his client "a reputable businessman, not a criminal . . . and he will appear when wanted. It's ridiculous making a fanfare out of this."

Later, D'Amato told reporters he had been in Newtown, Conn., where Patterson has a training camp, since Wednesday.

Cousy Hoops 25 As Celts Wallop Nats

BOSTON (AP)—Bob Cousy and Bill Sharman, the healthy members of the otherwise aching Celtics, led Boston to a 124-101 National Basketball Assn. victory over Syracuse Friday night.

Cousy contributed 25 points and Sharman 19 as the Celtics gained revenge for last Wednesday night's 135-103 drubbing at Syracuse.

The victory, 12th in 14 starts this season for the defending world champions, snapped a five game winning streak for the Nats who numbered the Syracuse University football team among their supporters in the Boston Garden crowd of 5,135.

Tied 21-all at the end of the first period, Boston took the lead for good by outscoring the Nats 36-25 in the second quarter. Sam Jones was the big pick-up man for the Celts, scoring 11 points to pull Boston well in front.

All Boston players were in action but only Cousy and Sharman wer not hampered by injuries.

Playing on a sore, swollen ankle Bill Russell contributed 17 points and 26 rebounds for the Celtics.

George Yardley scored 24 points and Dolph Schayes 17 for the losers.

TO WIN 3-B CROWN

Wisner Tumbles Crowville, 18-0

CROWVILLE, La. (Special) —Wisner blanked Crowville, 18-0, here last night,in a battle of district leaders to win the 3-B football championship.

The victory was eight without defeat for Wisner's powerful club. Only a 0-0 tie with non-district Mangham mars the Wisner record. Wisner's district record is 7-0.

Crowville took its fourth defeat against six losses. Crowville was unbeaten in district play going into the game and its 3-B mark fell to 4-1 with the defeat.

Jerry Ensminger caught a pass for 20 yards as Wisner tallied its first touchdown in the second period.

Halfback Ken Thornhill scored both touchdowns as Wisner put the game on ice with two six-pointers in the third period. Thornhill went seven yards for his first TD and 15 for the second.

Wisner is tentatively scheduled to meet the district 1-B champion in a bi-district playoff next. Haughton and Cotton Valley are tied for the 1-B title and are scheduled to meet in a playoff Thanksgiving Day in Minden.

WINNSBORO-FERRIDAY

WINNSBORO, La. (Special) — The Winnsboro Wildcats and Ferriday Bulldogs battled to a 13-13 tie here last night as the Wildcats staged a 65-yard touchdown march in the last quarter to overcome a 13-7 Ferriday lead.

Runs of 21 and 23 yards by Winnsboro's Allen Parks put the ball on the Ferriday one in the second quarter, and J. D. Busby rammed over for the first TD. Quarterback Joe Henry passed to end Hines Davis for the point. but Ferriday came right back to tie up the game at 7-7. Quarterback Billy Clifton set up the score with a 55-yard run to the Winnsboro five, but the 'Cats held for downs.

Then Ferriday tackle Larry Dickerson surged in to block a Danny Magee punt in the end zone and camp on the ball for the touchdown. Halfback Freddy Marks ran for the tying point.

Ferriday took the lead in the third quarter after tackle James Poole recovered a Winnsboro fumble on his 49. Halfback Dennis Jones romped off 37 yards, and a few seconds later he went over from the five.

Parks climaxed Winnsboro's last period drive for the tie with a plunge from the one.

Winnsboro piled up 13 first downs, rushed for 194 yards and completed two of three passes for 15. Ferriday, with eight firsts, rushed for 159 and completed two of four passes for seven yards.

WINNFIELD, 19-7

FARMERVILLE, La. (Special) — The Winnfield Tigers wrapped up the district 1-A flag by dropping the Farmerville Farmers, 19-7, here last night.

The Winnfield crew scored once in the second quarter and twice in the fourth period.

Farmerville's Joe Albritton racked up a touchdown and a PAT in the fourth period for the home team's only score.

Albritton had put the crowd on its toes with the opening kickoff as he took the ball on his 25 and rambled in the clear to the Tiger 30 where he stumbled and fell.

As the first half ended Winnfield fullback Gerald Bryant capped a 62-yard drive with a 3-yard touchdown plunge. Quarterback Mike Tinnerrello shot a jump pass to Tommy Wyatt for the extra point.

In the fourth period Tiger tackle Wayne McFarland blocked an Albritton quick kick on the Farmer 15 and Tiger halfback Jimmy Bolton ran over from the 5. He failed on the PAT run.

Again in the fourth quarter Tiger halfback James Collins rambled around his own right end for a 16-yard touchdown. A quarterback sneak by Tinnerello for the point failed.

Near the end of the game Albritton went off right tackle for 11 yards to score and tore off right guard for the point.

The Tiger coaches and principal will meet at the Hotel Frances in Monroe Saturday morning with the winning coaches of district 2-A to discuss playoff plans.

WATERPROOF, 25-6

NEWELLTON, La. (Special) — Winless Newellton went down in defeat for the tenth time this season when the Waterproof Tigers rapped the Bears, 25-6, here Friday night. It was the final game of the season for both clubs and gave Waterproof an 8-1-2 record for the season.

Benny Lopoo took a 16-yard pass from Bobby Wallace for the opening Tiger touchdown. Quarterback Larry Moss plunged over from the two, giving the visitors a 12-0 edge at the half. Halfback Earl Guin went over from the two in the fourth period, and Wallace followed with a 34-yard TD jaunt. Earl Guin added the point behind the Wallace score.

Halfback Johnny Robinson scored from the 16 for Newellton's only TD late in the game.

BASTROP TAGS J-H

BASTROP, La. (Special) — Scoring in every quarter, the Bastrop Rams hobbled the Jonesboro - Hodge Tigers, 40-26, here last night.

Jerry Hollis romped for three Bastrop touchdowns, getting loose in the first quarter on a spectacular 85 - yard gallop to pay-dirt, going 30 yards on another dash, and counting his third on a 15-yard sprint.

Other Bastrop scores came when guard Leon Martin scooped up a fumble and scampered 40 yards for a TD; Gary White counted on an end run from the five; Charles Magee raced 75 yards with a kickoff return; and Charles Burks added four extra points.

Bobby Gene Jones counted two J-H touchdowns, the first when he skirted end 15 yards and the next on a 20-yard jaunt. Gerald Ayres took a double reverse 35 yards for a TD, and a pass from Reggie Holland to Jim McKeithen counted the final J-H touchdown. Holland and Ayres each ran for one extra point for the Tigers.

Jonesboro-Hodge led Bastrop in first downs, 11 to 10.

NATCHEZ, 40-0

NATCHEZ, Miss. (AP)—Quarterback Perry Lee Dunn scored three touchdowns and passed for two Friday night in leading Natchez to a 40-0 victory over Jackson Central to close out an undefeated Big Eight campaign.

Dunn passed 47-yards to end Mike Morgan for a first period tally and accounted for a third touchdown with a 55-yard heave to Walter Beasley in the second quarter.

In the third period he scored on runs of 10 and 3 yards and in the fourth on a 1-yard smash. His runs capped drives of 63, 42, and 99 yards.

The second Natchez tally was by fullback Billy Tew on a 6-yard plunge. Tew added the four conversions.

The victory was the ninth for the top-ranked Rebels against one tie.

The No. 1 team in The Associated Press poll must wait to see whether it wins the South Division. Natchez and second-ranked Laurel, the team which spoiled the prefect Natchez record, are tied for the lead and Laurel has one more divisional game.

A Laurel victory over Hattiesburg next week would give the title to Laurel.

TERREBONNE, 26-12

HOUMA, La. (AP) — Larry de la Biretonne opened the scoring for Terrebonne with a 71-yard touchdown return in the first period to spark a 26-12 victory over Catholic of Baton Rouge.

Douglas Maier added two more for Terrebonne on runs of 26 and 2 yards while a 42-yard pass play from John Cooper to Larry Hutchison accounted for the other. Earl Hicks got one of two conversions.

Nolan Keller ran from two out and Chuck Kleinpeter scored from the one for Catholic.

MINDEN, 12-0

MINDEN, La. (Special) —Fullback Bobby Ashley powered for 205 yards as once - beaten Minden blanked Springhill, 12-0, here last night to win the district 1-AA championship.

Minden will play 2-AA titlist Neville next week at an undetermined site in a bi-district playoff.

Quarterback Edwin Greer sneaked over from the one in the second quarter for Minden's first touchdown and Ashley followed with a five - yard trip around end for a TD in the final period.

The 175-yard Ashley ran 80 yards to the five - yard line in the first period but Springhill, the district's defending champion, held.

Minden lost the first game of the season to Ruston, 28-12, and then won nine straight. Springhill's record is 6-3-1.

BLOCK-SICILY ISLAND

SICILY ISLAND, La. (Special) —The Block Bears gathered steam in the second half to defeat the Sicily Island Tigers, 33-13, here Friday night in a district 3-B game that did not affect the standings.

Jerry Hinton went eight yards around end to hand Sicily Island the lead, and in the second quarter he scampered 30 yards through the line for another TD. Charles Miller passed to Joe Wells for the point - after.

But Block came roaring back with two second period TDs to grab a narrow 14-13 edge at the half. Pat Egloff scored from inside the one, and Billy Brooks tallied from the 20, both runs followed by Billy Edwards' successful kicks for the points.

A 30-yard penalty — 15 for roughness plus 15 more when the coach asked about the penalty —put the Islanders in a hole again and the ball on their four in the third period. Egloff ran it the rest of the way. Edwards kicked the point again.

In the fourth period Egloff counted from the one, and Brooks passed to Jerry Book for 15 and the final Block TD.

Block had a 15-10 edge in first downs.

The Islanders played with two first stringers, end Mike Haley and halfback Johnny Young, because of earlier injuries.

NORTH CADDO, 27-6

JENA, La. (Special) — Bowl-bound North Caddo turned back Jena, 27-6, here last night in a warmup for its Thanksgiving Day date with Ouachita of Monroe in the Jonesboro Paper Bowl.

North Caddo scored in the first period on an 11-yard pass from quarterback Larry McCord to end J. T. Johnson and picked up another TD in the quarter on halfback Frank Clements 25-yard run. McCord added the PTA.

McCord threw for another touchdown in the second, hitting fullback Marion Powell for 30 yards. The quarterback again made the extra point.

North Caddo closed out its scoring in the third when halfback Kenny Tidwell picked up a fumble and ran 49 yards into the end zone.McCord added the final PAT.

Jena scored in the fourth on a 17-yard throw from quarterback Gerald Ganey to halfback Leland Brown.

North Caddo had 10 first downs to Jena's 9.

Court Declines To Permit Use Of Novel Name

NEW YORK (AP)—A State Supreme Court justice Friday declined to permit a boys' team to be incorporated as "the New York Braves Baseball Club."

The incorporation was sought by six businessmen on behalf of Bronx boys, who range in age from 13 to 20.

"Why, of all the names, did they have to hit upon a combination of 'New York' and 'Braves' "? Justice Samuel H. Hofstadter asked in his opinion.

"If the courts are so assiduous in protecting a name in business how much more solicitous they must be in sports—especially with regard to the great American game of baseball—to protect the image built up in the public mind.

"With the continuous turnover in personnel, the flux in home territory, a team's sobriquet is its chief claim to identity. It should be guarded."

Chicago Mills Area Open To Deer Hunters

FERRIDAY, La. (Special) — The Chicgao Mills Game Management Area located in Tensas Parish approximately 10 miles west of Newellton, Louisiana will be open to deer hunting during the first 10 days of December. The period December 1-3 will be for any deer while the period December 4-10 will be for ducks only.

The hunts will be for still hunting only. No dogs or horses will be allowed on the area.

Each hunter will be required to have in his possession a permit which he must acquire daily at a checking station on the area prior to his hunting effort. Hunters will surrender their hunting licenses upon receiving their permits and must reclaim the license upon completion of the daily hunt by turning in the permit. While hunting on the management area, the daily permits will serve as hunting licenses. All other state laws will be enforced.

Permit stations will open at 5:00 a.m. and close at 5:00 p.m. and will be located as follows:

Station No. 1 - Located at Cooter Point Landing.

Station No. 2 -Tensas River Bridge on La. Hwy. 4 and 128.

Station No. 3 - La. Hwy. 888, 1½ miles south of Tensas Bluff where parish road leaves La. Hwy. 888 to Jordan Ferry.

Hunters are reminded that the Chicago Mills Refuge is closed to all types of hunting. The refuge is located for the most part in Madison Parish, however, a small portion of the refuge is located in Texas (north and east of Big Lake and Fool River). This portion of Tensas Parish is in the Chicago Mills Refuge and will be closed to hunting.

Due to inaccessibility to the area it is suggested that hunters bring a small boat and motor to aid in getting to the area.

Pettit Leads Hawks To Win

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Bob Pettit's 15-foot jump shot with 38 seconds remaining Friday night gave the St.Louis Hawks a 118-117 victory over Philadelphia in a National Basketall Assn. thriller.

Pettit also led the Hawks in scoring with 28 points and along with teammate Clyde Lovellette helped hold Warrior star Wilt Chamberlain to only 24 points, his lowest output of the year. The 7-1 Chamberlain has been averaging 37.1 points per game.

Paul Arizin put on a one-man show in bringing the Warriors from a 22-point deficit in the first half to a 74-73 lead midway through the third period. He ended up with 44 points, a career high.

Old Rivals Clash At Baton Rouge, Ruston

LSU Heavy Favorite To Beat Tulane

BATON ROUGE (AP)—Third - ranked Louisiana State, with backfield troubles, meets fired-up Tulane at 2 p.m. Saturday as the rival schools end their football seasons.

All America Billy Cannon and 18 of his teammates will be playing their final regular - season game for the LSU Tigers.

Two of the finishing seniors—quarterback Warren Rabb and Durel Matherne — may see little action.

Rabb has a knee sprain. Matherne, although he may start, received an ankle sprain in a freak fall on the campus and has seen little action since Wednesday.

Alternate fullback Merle Schexnaildre also is out with an injury.

The only experienced quarterback remaining on the LSU team is Daryl Jenkins, who has been working with the LSU starting unit. Elton Upshaw has worked with the attack specialist Go team.

Still the Tigers, winner 62-0 over Tulane last year, are favored by three to five touchdowns.

The Tigers have won eight and lost one while Tulane's Greenies have won three, lost five and tied one.

In a series dating back to 1893, LSU has won 31, lost 18 and tied seven games with the New Orleans school.

The Green Wave is sparked by stalwarts Phil Nugent, Tom Mason, Terry Terrybonne, Steve Cornet and Pete Abadie.

Both teams operate from the wing-T formation.

The weather is expected to be mild for the sellout game with temperatures about 70 degrees.

DISTRICT 'B' TITLE

Delhi Trounces Tallulah, 25-6

DELHI, La. (Special) — The Delhi Bears thumped the Tallulah Trojans, 25 to 6, here last night to end the Trojans' reign as state and district Class A champions. The victory enabled Coach Raymond Richards' unbeaten Black Bears to clinch the district 2-A championship and head for the state title playoffs, meeting Winnfield's 1-A champs next Friday night in Winnfield.

A crowd of over 3,000 fans saw Delhi's Ken Newton put on a one- man offensive show in ending Tallulah's title hopes.

Newton piled up four touchdowns and an extra point to account for all Delhi scoring, while Tallulah got its lone touchdown in the third quarter on a screen pass from Tommy Neumann to Wayne Noland, the play covering 60 yards.

Newton scored first on a 30-yard run in the second quarter and plunged for the point. He set up his next with a 46 yard run to the Tallulah four but needed three plays before going over from the one.

A 97-yard run with the kickoff opening the second half was Newton's big dash of the night, and he capped his night's performance with a 35-yard TD run with two minutes and 30 seconds left in the game.

Tallulah led in first downs, 9 to 8.

BATTLE OF BALTIMORE

49ers Meet Colts In NFL Feature

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It will be the battle of Baltimore Sunday when the champion Colts meet the San Francisco 49ers for first place in the National Football League's Western Conference.

In the Eastern Conference, two key games will keep New York Giants' and Cleveland Browns' supporters on edge. The Browns, tied for first place with New York (each 6-2), entertain the Pittsburgh Steelers in Cleveland. New York meets the Chicago Cardinals in Minneapolis.

San Francisco tops the West with a 6-2 mark, while Baltimore is 5-3, so a Colt victory is virtually a must. That would throw the Western Division into a tie, and mean another showdown when Baltimore plays the 49ers at San Francisco Dec. 5.

Neither the Colts, who beat New York in their sudden death overtime playoff last year, nor the Giants are as terrifying this season. Especially the Colts, who are hurting defensively.

In 12 regular league games in 1958 Baltimore rolled up 381 points, an average of 31.8 that led the league. They gave up 203 points, an average of 16.9 a game —second best to the Giants.

This year in eight games Baltimore has tallied 215 points, an average of 26.9, while the Colt defense has allowed 176 points for an average of 22.

New York's rock-ribbed defense is still there, but the offense has suffered with the loss of two quarterbacks, Charley Conerly and George Shaw. The Giants permitted only 183 points in 12 games last year, an average of 15.3. They've allowed 119 points so far in eight games, the average being 14.9.

In eight games, New York has scored 137 points, averaging 17.1, compared with 246 and an average of 20.5 in the 1958 season.

Johnny Unitas, Baltimore's star passer, must keep connecting, while his defensive mates stop the power running 49er backs, Joe Perry and J. D. Smith. Baltimore is a 7-point favorite.

Conerly, out with a sprained ankle, will be able to play at least in spots for the Giants. After winning five straight, they lost to Pittsburgh last Sunday. Cleveland, flying on a five-game winning string, is a 9-point favorite over Pittsburgh (3-4). The Giants are 5½ points choices over the Cardinals (2-6).

The Philadelphia Eagles in the Eastern Conference, and the Chicago Bears in the west, also are watching the leaders. Both are in third place.

The Bears (4-4) are a 5-point choice over the Lions (2-5) at Detroit. The Eagles (5-3) are favored by 3½ over the Los Angeles Rams (2-6) at Philadelphia.

In the other game, Washington (3-5) plays the Packers (3-5) at Green Bay, with the home club a 5-point favorite.

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI) — Pitcher Alan Iorg of Altamont, Utah, has been sign by the Milwaukee Braves to a 1960 contract with Boise, Idaho of the Pioneer League. Iorg, 19, is a graduate of the Braves' tryout school held at Rushville, Neb., last June.

Bowl-Bound Porkers Play Texas Tech

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Bowl-bound Arkansas meets dangerous Texas Tech Saturday in a game that now means only prestige for the Razorbacks.

Arkansas already has been named as one of the two teams competing in the Jan. 2 Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla., if the Hogs do not play in the Cotton Bowl. Texas A&M would have to knock off Texas on Thanksgiving Day to put Arkansas in the Cotton Classic.

Both teams will get only partial service from a star back. Quarterback Ken Talkington of Tech is injured and Glen Amerson will start in his place. All-Southwest Conference halfback Jim Mooty of Arkansas is still recovering from an injury and Billy Kyser will start for him. Arkansas is a two-touchdown favorite.

Toweel Defeats Len Matthews

NEW YORK (AP)—Willie Toweel, of Johanneburg, South Africa, a master boxer fighting for survival after two knockdowns in the eighth round, won a split decision over Philadelphia's Len Matthews Friday night in a rousing 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden.

Toweel weighed 139¼ pounds, Matthews 136½.

Tribe Faces Tech's GSC Titleholders

A powerful Gulf States Conference champion and a lowly last - place team tangle tonight in Ruston, but tradition indicates the season record books may as well be tossed out the window for this rivalry - steeped encounter.

That will be the setting when Louisiana Tech, 10th ranked small college team in the nation, and Northeast, a victor only twice this campaign, clash in their annual season finale at Tech Stadium at 8 p.m.

Since the two teams began their annual fracas in 1953 after Northeast became a senior college, the Bulldogs from Ruston have won six of seven meetings, losing only in 1956, 7-0. Last year Tech knocked the Indians from atop the GSC heap with a 46-21 runaway victory in the final game of the season and grabbed a share of the title with Northwestern.

Always a small college power, the Techsters inaugurated the series with a 61-6 rout, followed with a 51-6 triumph and added a 34-14 decision before the Redskins broke the win column in 1956. In 1957 Tech took a narrow 15-6 verdict.

Injuries to key players could be a big factor in the outcome of the battle. Lime burns from yardline markers put six Techsters in the hospital early in the week and that old injury bug may keep several Indians on the sidelines.

Bulldog coach Joe Aillet reported late yesterday that three regulars would not start tonight's game and would probably be held to limited action. Included in the list is stellar halfback J. W. Slack, GSC leaing scorer and a candidate for little All-American honor.

End Jerry Hudson and tackle Bobby Hudson are also suffering from burns and have been placed on the doubtful list by Aillet.

"Slack, Bobby Hudson and Jerry Hudson will see some action, but we don't know how much," Aillet commented.

To offset the manpower loss Aillet has moved Jack Howard (170) to Slack's left half post. Hershel Vinyard (205), a sophomore from Olla, will start at right tackle in place of Bobby Hudson, and Tom Causey (205), a junior from Monroe, will open at Jerry Hudson's right tackle slot.

Taylor McNeel, a junior signal caller from Pineville, is an adequate quarterback and will guide the Bulldogs' wing-T offensive. Paul Hynes, who carries a 5.5 yard rushing average, will mann the right half post and Max Rudd, recovered from a leg injury, will get the call at fullback.

The canine forward wall will be composed of ends Causey and Charley Garris, tackles Vinyard and Bobby Hinton, guards Joe Hinton and Don Tippit and center Jim Campbell.

Northeast's doubtful starters would almost fill a program. Most serious of the lot are ends Charley Barnes James Moore and Pete Covington, tackles Delmas Thorne and Ross Nolan and halfback Levy Redden.

Barnes, half of what is probably the league's best end combination, was hurt against Northwestern two weeks ago and sat out last week's contest against Jacksonville. Covington suffered several bruised ribs against the Gamecocks and will be slowed considerably. Both have had little contact work this week.

Redden, developing into one of the club's top runners until hit by injuries, has missed the last two games but may round into form by tonight.

Thorne, the team's best tackle, didn't see action last week.

Carrying the offensive load for the Indians will be quarterback Bob Randel, halfbacks Jim Laudadio and Terry Reeves and fullback Stewart "Smokey" Stover. Stover, the team's top ball carrier, also is tops in scoring with 24 points.

Randel, one of eight seniors playing their final game, is a better than average passer and Laudadio and Reeves are break away threats.

David Barnes, brother of Charlie, has been showing up well lately and will spell Stover at fullback on the Comanche unit.

If Covington and Barnes don't start at the terminals, Jerry Head and Robert Earle, both seniors, will get the nod. Billy Broom will team with Thorne at the tackles and Wally Cox and Alfred Feeney will open at the guards. Perry Beaver, a full-blooded Indian, will start at center.

In addition to Randel, Head an Earle, Laudadio, Stover, Feeney, Cox and Broom will be completing their college grid careers.

Tech, already "in" as the Gulf States champ with a 4-0 league mark, catapulted into the nation's top team with a surprising 10-8 win over highly-regarded Memphis State last Saturday. The Canines are 8-1 for the year, losing only to Lamar Tech of Beaumont.

Northeast, taking a plunge from last year's third place finish, has beaten only Arlington and Southwestern in nine outings.

Northeast mentor Jack Rowan considers the Bulldogs, and rightly so, the Tribe's toughest opponent of the season. He rates Slack and Hynes two of the finest backs anywhere and says scouting reports indicate the Bulldogs are without weaknesses in their starting unit.

The Northeast starting line, which averages 201 pounds per man, will have a slight weight advantage over the Tech forwards which weigh in at 199. The Redskin backfield will average 185 per runner against 191 for the Bulldog backs.

An added attraction for tonight's contest will be a performance by the Strategic Air Command Drill team. Composed of 24 hand-picked Air Policemen from Offutt Air Force Base, Neb., the group performs the manual of arms with fixed bayonets.

Furman Routs Davidson By 35 To 7 Count

GREENVILLE, S.C. (AP)—Furman's revamped Hurricane overpowered Davidson 35-7 in a Southern Conference game Friday, scoring three times on passes and three on the ground.

Quarterback Ben Canty, heading the first unit, threw for two touchdowns. His alternate, Billy Baker, tossed for one and set up two others with his passes.

Furman marched 81 yards the first time it got the ball, Tom Campbell scoring from the 3. Shelly Sutton kicked the first of four extra points to give the Hurricane a 7-0 lead.

Davidson's second unit carried 62 yards in the second period for its only touchdown, Tom Redding's 33-year pass to George Hart being the big play. Hart scored from the 1 and Bruce Usher kicked point.

In the third, Furman scored on drives of 74 and 71 yards, Sammy Taylor's 33-yard kickoff return setting the second one in motion.

With time running, out, the Hurricane converted a short Davidson kick into its final score. Canty passed to Carm Carmindani from the 5.

It was Davidson's second-ender. The Wildcats lost eight games after beating Catawba in the opener. Furman is 3-6 over-all and 3-2 in the conference. The Baptists play Clemson in the finale next Saturday.

Rebels Score 3 In Second To Smash Ruston, 28-14

By JIM CALHOUN
Staff Sports Writer

Spurred on by a skin-tight defense, West Monroe's underdog Rebels shocked powerful Ruston with three second quarter touchdowns and romped to a 28-14 victory here Friday night to hand the Bearcats their second defeat in ten games.

Coach Cecil Pirkey's Rebs, in nailing down their sixth victory against four losses and a tie, spotted the invaders a touchdown early in the first quarter after a blocked punt, then roared back with a three - touchdown barrage in the second period to put the game away.

The Bearcats, playing with an injury - hobbled Pat Shows, were held to a minus three yards rushing in the first half before finally clicking late in the game.

Shows, the state's leading scorer with 144 points and everybody's choice for all-state honors, threw two touchdown passes and hit on a total of six of nine attempts. Playing with what was diagnosed as a "tired calf muscle," Shows attempted only run from scrimmage and was dumped repeatedly while attempting to pass.

Halfback Roscoe Holcomb, recently shifted from quarterback, got the Rebs into the scoring column with a 9-yard paydirt jaunt in the second stanza. Covington, who reeled off 50 yards in 10 cracks at the maroon and white line, capped a 70-yard drive with the second Confederate tally and John Moses added the third on a one-yard plunge just before the half after Leon Miletello had set it up with a sparkling punt return.

Quarterback Ronnie Farmer passed 68 yards to end Jimmy VanZile for the final West Monroe score midway in the third quarter.

Bearcat end Jerry Hood got Ruston off to a quick start, blocking Moses' kick on the Rebel 30 in the first period. Teammate Felton Hood covered the ball on the 10 and the Rustonites sighted in on the goal. Shows passed to Jerry Hood for 7 yards, then, with two tacklers hanging on him, again threw to Hood in the end zone. Hood kicked the point to make it Ruston, 7-0.

West Monroe then initiated its first serious effort of the night, driving 55 yards in 12 plays to break into the point column. Covington ripped off a couple of ten yard gains in the drive and on the first play of the second period Holcomb circled right end for the score. Moses booted the first of four extra points.

On the following kickoff Ruston couldn't gain and sophomore guard Jewel McBroom forced the 'Cats to kick when he dropped Shows for a five-yard loss.

This time the Johnny Rebs covered 70 yards in 7 plays with Covington, Miletello and Fox ripping off big gains.

STATISTICS

	Rebels	Bearcats

Covington, a sophomore fullback, started the march with a 14-yard burst. Miletello rambled for 16 yards and Fox added 18 on a beautiful sprint own the right sideline.

Covington notched the tally with an 8-yard dash on a pitch out from Farmer. Moses' kick made it 14-7 and the Rebs were in front to stay.

Shortly before the half Miletello took a punt by Neal McFadden on the Bearcat 45 and squirmed through a host of tacklers to the 13 where McFadden bounced him out of bounds.

Moses moved for eight yards, Covington was held for no gain and Fox got four more. On first down from the one Moses crashed over for the third Rebel marker. His kick made it 21-7.

Tojo Green sent the Rebs battering back on the Bearcat goal line when he recovered Hood's fumble on the following kickoff. Holcomb drove for six yards to the nine and Farmer carried to the five where time ran out.

McBroom and Joe Pleasant broke through to halt a Ruston penetration at the Reb 33 midway in the third stanza and the locals began to move again. Miletello lost four but Moses bucked through center for 3 to the 32.

Then Farmer rifled a shot to VanZile, who took it on his own 45 and outdistanced Allen Alexander for a 68-yard touchdown gallop. It was VanZile's fifth touchdown pass reception of the year. Moses again kicked the point for the Rebs' 28th point.

Ruston made its first threat after the kickoff, marching to the 15 where Pleasant batted down Shows' fourth down pass.

The Bearcats turned the tables midway in the final quarter, stopping a Reb drive on the two and marching 98 yards for their second score. Shows passed to Hood for gains of 14, 16, and 11 yards and climaxed it with a 22-yard touchdown heave to back Johnny Perritt. Hood kicked his 31st extra point in 34 attempts to end the scoring.

Fox was the Rebels' top ground gainer, amassing 65 yards in 12 carries. Ruston's Perritt was the game's top rusher with 76 yards gained in 12 tries.

Shows, troubled by his bum leg and a leaky forward wall, lost 13 yards in handling the ball 7 times.

West Monroe's forward wall, led by McBroom, Pleasant, Ken Wilson and Glen Bell held the explosive 'Cats to a total of 118 yards on the ground and didn't give up a first down in the initial half.

'Pokes Aim At 6th Straight Win Tonight

LAKE CHARLES, La. (Special) — McNeese State's Cowboys will be shooting for their sixth straight victory and a second place finish in the Gulf States Conference in their final football game of the season against the SLI Buldogs at Lafayette Saturday night.

McNeese will enter the game with a 6-2 overall record and a 2-2 conference mark. SLI has won three and lost five for the season and stands 1-3 in conference play.

A victory Saturday night would assure McNeese of at least a tie for second place in final GSC standings since all teams except champion Louisiana Tech have lost at least two loop clashes.

Saturday's game will get underway at 8 p.m. in McNaspy Stadium.

SLI, led by triple - threat halfback Steve Gossen, has had an in-and out season but appears to have righted itself after scoring a smashing 34-14 victory over Northwestern last Saturday. The Bulldogs looked strong in splitting their first four games of the season but went into a tail-spin and lost three in a row before wrecking the highly - touted Demons.

Northwestern defeated McNeese 19-6 in the Cowboys' season opener, McNeese has come a long way since that game, however, and has rolled up 122 points to the opposition's 35 in winning its last five. The Cowboys polished off Southeastern Louisiana 20-8 last Saturday.

Ouachita Girls In Semi-Finals Of Eros Event

EROS, La. (Special) — The Eros and Grayson boys won places in the semi-finals of the annual Eros Invitational Basketball Tournament here Friday night along with girls' teams from Columbia, Ouachita of Monroe, and Calhoun.

Today's semi-final pairings send Columbia girls against Ouachita, 11 a.m.; Calhoun girls against Choudrant, 12:15 p.m.; Eros boys vs. Chatham, 1:30; and Grayson boys against St. Matthew's of Monroe, 2:45.

Yesterday's results were:

Girls — Columbia 47, Weston 36; Ouachita 46, Quitman 28; Calhoun 50, Kelly 27.

Boys — Grayson 65, Dodson 38; Eros 50, Columbia 36.

Yesterday's scoring leaders were: Girls —Wyles, 35, Columbia; McBride, 32; Weston; Genn, 23, Ouachita; Betty Blalock, 12, Quitman; Gilliland, 19, Calhoun; Carol Lewis, 13, Kelly. Boys — May, Grayson, 21; Taylor, Dodson, 16; Curtis Bunn, 21, Eros; and Morris, 15, Columbia.

Smith's Juniors Beat Mer Rouge

STERLINGTON, La. (Special) —A. L. Smith Junior High of Sterlington beat Mer Rouge Juniors in a basketball double header yesterday evening. The Smith boys won 25-15 after the girls had triumphed 29-9.

Gerald Corbin was high scorer for the Smith boys with 10 points, and Elizabeth Booker and Charlotte Swayze led the girls with six points each. Pam Parker was high scorer for the Mer Rouge girls with four.

Bowl Berth Bids Feature Today's Football Schedule

By EARL WRIGHT
By United Press International

Bids for bowl berths and traditional "big games" will feature the last full Saturday schedule of the 1959 college football season.

Top-ranked Syracuse has accepted a Cotton Bowl invitation and at least five more berths in major post-season games should be filled by Saturday night. They include both Rose Bowl teams, the visiting team in the Orange Bowl, the host in the Liberty Bowl and perhaps both Blue Grass bowl teams.

Wisconsin and Washington can wrap up the Rose Bowl assignments. Wisconsin is a seven-point choice to whip Minnesota in the day's nationally - televised (N.B.C.) contest and can clinch the Big Ten's Rose Bowl assignment by winning, if Illinois downs Northwestern.

Northwestern is tied with Wisconsin for first in the league race. If both win, they will share the title and it will take a vote to decide the Rose Bowl team. If both lose, Michigan State, which ended its conference season last week, will win the title and probably go to the Rose Bowl.

Washington is a seven-point favorite to gain the other Rose berth by beating Oregon State. But if Washington State wins and Oregon downs Oregon State, the West Coast's Rose Bowl selection committee will have to make a choice. Oregon is favored by eight points.

Kansas will win the Big Eight's Orange Bowl assignment if it defeats Missouri and Oklahoma, which leads in the conference but is ineligible to return to Miami for the bowl game, defeats Iowa State. Kansas is favored by three points and Oklahoma by 13.

Clemson, Miami and Georgia are among the leading candidates for the other Orange Bowl berth. Miami entertained Michigan State Friday night. Clemson plays Wake Forest Saturday and is favored by 12 points. Georgia is idle this week end.

Penn State is expected to be named the host team for the Dec. 19 Liberty Bowl game at Philadelphia following its traditional regular season finale against Pittsburgh. Penn State is favored by eight points.

Blue Grass Bowl officials have indicated they will send an invitation to the winner of Saturday's Kentucky - Tennessee game, which is rated a tossup. The other bid may go to Bowling Green of Ohio, rated No. 1 this week in United Press International's small college rankings. Bowling Green visits Ohio University Saturday.

Louisiana State, a 21-point choice for its regular season wind up against Tulane, is the top candidate for a Sugar Bowl berth. Sugar Bowl officials want to pit fourth-ranked L.S.U. against third ranked Mississippi. Mississippi is idle this week and ends its regular season against Mississippi State Nov. 28.

Syracuse, bracketed with Southern California as the nation's only undefeated-untied major schools, is a 30-point choice to whip Boston University. Southern California is a nine-point choice for its game with U.C.L.A.

Texas, idle this week end, ends its regular schedule against Texas A and M on Thanksgiving Day. Texas will serve as Syracuse' Cotton Bowl opponent if it wins next week. If Texas loses, Arkansas will skip a Gator Bowl bid to play Syracuse in the Cotton Bowl.

Purdue is favored over Indiana by one point; Ohio State and Michigan are rated even; Iowa is favored over Notre Dame by 14 and Stanford is favored over California by five in other traditional games.

Yale is a five-point choice for its 76th game with Harvard — once "the game" in college football and still that for the two Ivy League universities.

Orange Rated Heavy Choice Over Boston

BOSTON (AP)—Syracuse is expected to make Boston University its ninth straight victim Saturday.

The nation's No. 1 football team is a solid 34-point choice over the Terriers.

The mighty Orange has run up 308 points while limiting their eight opponents to 51. They have registered shutouts over Maryland, West Virginia, Pittsburgh and Colgate and already have accepted a Cotton Bowl bid.

The boys from Syracuse lead the country in all offensive departments.

They strike usually from an unbalanced T-information, sometimes with flankers and sometimes without.

And the second unit is not well known as the first group only because it does not receive so much attention.

With a straight face, Ben Schwartzwalder, Syracuse coach, expresses concern, even if in a left-handed manner.

"I just hope the team isn't looking ahead to the Cotton Bowl," he said, adding, "We have a real game on our hands, despite what you may think."

But the scrappy Terriers (4-4), in the position of pulling the season's biggest upset, are full of spirit, specially after their 26-7 upset of Boston College last week.

Calumet Has 1-2 Punch In Rich Futurity

BALTIMORE (AP) — Calumet Farm, struggling to break even on its expensive operation this year, could take a long step in that direction Saturday with its 1-2 two punch of Keenation and Pied 'Or in the rich Pimlico Futurity.

The Calumet entry is among 11 thoroughbreds scheduled to go in the mile and a sixteenth test for 2-year-olds, and if all make it to post they'll be shooting for a gross purse of $116,820. The winner's slice will total $71,310.50.

The management at historic Pimlico expects about 20,000 to turn out and make the Calumets a slight favorite over Wheatley Stable's Progressing.

Also due considerable support is Cain Hoy Stable's All Hands, to be ridden by Willie Shoemaker.

Others lined up for the futurity are Mrs. Wallace Gilroy's Greek Page, Louis Lee Haginn's Billy Bluejay, A. J. Ostriker's Catapult, Reginald N. Webster's Count Amber, Grandview Stable's Persian Spy, and Mrs. James A. Bohannon's Moslem Chief.

The line-up for the 37th running of the race includes only one contestant from the Garden State Stakes, world's richest race. That's Pied d'Or, who finished sixth, nearly 10 lengths behind the winner and 2-year-old champion, Warfare.

Despite this disappointing performance, Pied d'Or is regarded as the horse to beat in the Futurity. His dam, Two-Lea, produced such turf standouts as Tim Tam, winner of the Kentucky Derby and Preakness, and the stakes-winning On-and-On. He was sired by the fabulous Nasrullah.

The Jimmy Jones-trained colt looked sharp Monday in winning the FUTURITY Trial as Kennation finished second. Neither was pressed.

Shoemaker will be shooting for an unprecedented third straight victory in the Futurity with All Hands. He scored in 1957 with Jewel's Reward and last year with Intentionally.

CANADA CUP

Australians Far Ahead Of Yanks

By OSCAR FRALEY

MELBOURNE, Australia (UPI)—Sam Snead and Cary Middlecoff of the United States, tempers and chances wrecked by 10 bogies and one double-bogie, fell far behind Australia's Peter Thomson and Canada's Stan Leonard Friday in the third round of the International Golf Association and Canada Cup championships.

Tomson, four - time British Open champion, fired his third straight sub-par round (33-35-68) for a 204 and a one-stroke8otzjHdt over Leonard in the individual standings. Leonard, who started the day tied with Thomson for the lead, shot a three-under-par 69 and will take a 205 into Saturday's final round.

Snead, whose 65 Thursday was the tournament's hottest round, collected five bogies Friday for a 36-37--73. This gave him a total of 211 and left him in third place, seven strokes behind Thomson. Middlecoff was even farther back with a 222 after shooting his second straight 75. His 37-38 included five bogies and a double-bogie and his humor matched Snead's.

Middlecoff wouldn't even talk to United States reporters after Friday's round. He and Snead, who have made more money playing golf during the last decade than any other players, left the course without changing their clothes.

Many in the big crowd of 18,500 Aussies, who streamed over the Royal Melbourne Course in perfect weather, were angered by the unsociability of the two yanks. Conversations around the clubhouse tabbed Snead and Middlecoff as "nowhere near as acceptable as the boys (Americans) who came here during the war."

The combined Snead-Middlecoff score of 433 left them 13 strokes behind the pace-setting Australians in the team race for the Canada Cup. Tomson and his Australian partner, Kel Nagle, led with a 420. Canada (Leonard and Al Balding) were second at 427 while the United States' two-man team was tied with South Africa for third.

Gary Player of South Africa, the current British Open champion shot a 71 Friday and was fourth in the individual standings with a 215. Nagle was fifth with a 216 after shooting a four-over-par 76. Canada's chances in the team race were hurt when Balding shot a 75 for a total of 222.

Snead couldn't control his drives. He started well with a birdie three on the 333-yard third, where he nearly drove te green. But he took a bogie on the fourth when he drove into the woods, put his drive in a trap on the short seventh for a bogie and added another on the ninth when he flubbed a four-foot putt. He dropped a nine-footer for a birdie on the 10th. He took another bogie on the 15th when he put his drive in the rough and bogied the 17th when he drove into a bunker.

Middlecoff had even more trouble on the par 72 layout. He bogied the first hole when he drove into the rough and bogied the second when he three-putted. He sank an eight-footer for a birdie on the third but bogied the fifth when he missed the green with his approach. He took another bogie on the seventh when he drove into a trap. He took a double-bogie on the 10th when he drove into the trees. He had to hole out from the edge of the green to get a par on the 11th and birdied the 383-yard 15th when his approach shot stopped four feet from the flag. But he dubbed his second shot on the 17th for his sixth bogie and stormed off the course after finishing the 18th.

HALFWAY POINT

Casper, Gustin Lead At Mobile

By STAN ATKINS

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—National Open champion Bill Casper Jr. and newcomer Jon Gustin shot four under par 68s Friday and moved out in front at the halfway mark of the Mobile Open Golf Tournament.

Both had opened with 71s Thursday, giving them a 139 deadlock after 36 holes.

Gay Brewer Jr., the young bridegroom from Crystal River, Fla., shot the best round of the day—a 34-33—67 over the 6, 383-yard Mobile Municipal Golf Course. Par is 36-36—72.

The round moved Brewer, who had started with a 73, into a tie at 140 with six other players, including Arnold Palmer and Walter Burkemo. Brewer had six birdies and only one bogey, the latter on the par 4 ninth hole where his second shot was trapped.

In addition to Brewer's 67, there were five rounds of 68 and numerous other subpar rounds as the touring pros found their sights on the 2-year-old course.

In addition to the 68s by Casper, of Apple Valley, Calif., and Gustin, a Birmingham, Ala., youth playing out of Gladwyne, Pa., other 4-under-par rounds were turned in by Palmer, Ligonier, Pa., Pat Schwab, Pensacola, Fla., and Gene Lesch, Prairie View, Ill.

Palmer and Schwab climbed into the 140 brarket with five others. Lesch and four others were a stroke back.

The cutoff point was 148, with 61 pros making the grade for the final two rounds. Jerry Pittman of Tulsa, Okla., Thursday's leader at 67, dropped off to a 1-over-par 73.

Biggest victim among the first round leaders, however, was Billy Maxwell, Odessa, Tex., who shot 76 to go with his opening 69.

Palmer, the leading money winner last year with earnings of $45,-000, showed that he was ready to challenge for the lead in Saturday's third round. He hit every green and picked up six birdies against two bogeys. He is appearing in only his second tournament after a 10-week layoff.

The leaders:

Jon Gustin	71-68—139
Bill Casper Jr.	71-68—139
Ernie Fortner	71-69—140
Arnold Palmer	72-68—140

Reds, A's In Inter-League Player Deal

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The Kansas City Athletics announced Friday night the swap of catcher Frank House for pitcher Tom Acker of the Cincinnati Reds is the first official deal of the new inter-league baseball trading period.

The announcement was made by General Manager Parke Carroll who said it was intended to bolster the A's uncertain bullpen.

Acker has been a relief pitcher with the Redlegs for four years, compiling a 19-13 record. The right-hander's best year was 1957 when he had a 10-5 mark. Last year he pitched only 31 innings and had a 1-2 record.

House, alternating with Harry Chiti behind the bat for the American Leaguers, appeared in 98 games last year. He got 81 hits in 346 times at bat for a .234 average. He bats left-handed and hit only one home run last year.

House came to the A's from Detroit as part of a 12-player trade at the close of the 1957 season. Acker came up to Cincinnati from Nashville of the Southern Assn., after compiling an 11-8 record there in 1956.

The A's are reported to have other trades on the fire with National League clubs. They particularly are seeking a replacement for House, more pitching strength and possibly a third baseman.

Junior Wildcats Receive Letters At Grid Banquet

Forty Winnsboro Junior Wildcat football players were awarded letter certificates at their football banquet in the Winnsboro High School cafeteria Thursday night.

Coach Buster Carlisle was master of ceremonies and presented certificates to Edward Lee Johns, Louis Evans, Bill Griffing, Donnie Earl Johnson, James Martin, Ronald Camp, Donald Camp, Buie Mays, Charles Alpe, Nicky Posey, Donnie Emfinger, Bill Marioneaux, Mac Merrill, Philip Bufkin, James Smith Barry DeVille, Ronnie Stephens, Billy Smith, Ed Parks, Ray Parks, Marshal Livingston, Terry Brown Billy Rayborn, Fred Mulhearn, Butch Schooler, Archie Pippin, Billy Cobb, David Shirley, Danny Priest, Charles Priest, Glenn Day, Ralph Waller, Gary King, Tony Durr, Jerry Wayne Byrnes, Donnie Byrnes, Bill Scriber, Don Lupo, Larry Bruce and Robert Pitts.

These 6th, 7th and 8th grade boys have a 4-1-1 record for the season. Coach Carlisle named Bill Marioneaux as the "most improved" player on the squad.

The banquet was sponsored by mothers of the players and guests included Winnsboro principal S. W. Williamson and Mrs. Williamson, Elementary principal Miss Marguerite Landis, coaches Gene Knecht and Ed Thompson Jr., Wildcat cheer leaders Millie Anders, Ruby Polk, Jean Watson, Sandra Griffing and Gay Walter, and parents of the Junior Wildcats.

Tech-Miss. State Basketball Game Tickets On Sale

RUSTON, La. (Special) — Tickets for the Louisiana Tech-Mississippi State basketball game to be played at Jackson, Miss., on Dec. 9 are now available at the Tech athletic office.

Joe Aillet, Tech athletic director, reports that tickets for this game will be on sale at Memorial Gymnasium until noon on Nov. 28. Tech students will have to purchase their tickets before they leave the campus for the Thanksgiving vacation.

Student tickets for the Bulldog contest with Mississippi State will be $2.20. Also on sale at the Tech athletic office are regular reserved seat tickets for $2.75 each.

This Jackson, Miss., battle will bring together the defending champions of the Gulf States Conference and the Southeastern Conference and should be a triller. Tech and Mississippi State were two of the winningest teams in the South last winter and both are expected to have strong quintets again this season. A large number of Bulldog fans are expected to travel to Jackson for the fray.

Also on sale at the Tech athletic office are season tickets for the 12 games to be played on the home court in Ruston this season. The Tech cagers are to open the season in a tilt with East Texas State at Ruston on Dec. 1.

The largest bowling establishment in the nation is in Edison, N. J. It has 112 lanes all in a row.

McBride Does About Face On Chargers

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Frank Leahy said Friday Bob McBride has changed his mind about taking over the head coaching job with the Los Angeles Chargers in the new American Football League.

A spokesman for Leahy, general manager of the Chargers, said Leahy has released McBride from his agreement. He said the action was taken with deep regret on both sides.

Only Thursday Leahy announced appointment of McBride, his one time assistant at Notre Dame. McBride resigned from Notre Dame in 1954, at the same time Leahy did, and has since been in the trucking business in Hammond, Ind.

The spokesman said Leahy is in Minneapolis, Minn., for the American League player draft to be held Monday.

"Without presuming to speak for Bob, who has been my longtime associate and my close friend," the Leahy statement said, "I think two factors entered into his decision.

"One was his increasing awareness, as we began to get into the details of the coaching job itself, of the demands and complexities of present-day operation which he would face after a five-year absence from active coaching.

"The other was a personal one of giving up an established business situation with a growing future to return to the always precarious future of coaching. As the father of a family of seven growing youngsters, this must surely have been a major factor in Bob's reconsideration."

Leahy said no announcement of a coaching appointment will be made until the draft is completed.

Western Illinois Turns Down Bid To NAIA Bowl

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Western Illinois University Friday informed the National Assn. of Intercollegiate Athletics that it would be unable to compete in the organization's football playoffs.

Ray Hanson, athletic director at the Macomb, Ill., University said the Illinois Teachers College Board has ruled that the college under its jurisdiction, including Western, may not take part in any post-season grid competition.

Western, which won nine straight games this season, was invited Wednesday to compete in the playoffs which lead to the NAIA championship game in the Holiday Bowl at St. Petersburg, Fla., Dec. 19. The college is ranked second in the association's most recent poll.

A. O. Duer, executive secretary of the NAIA, said the four teams which will compete for the championship are expected to be announced within the next few days.

Cannon For Governor?

BATON ROUGE (AP) — A sports editor today proposed a way to settle the fuss over gubernatorial candidate Gale Berry's charges against All-America halfback Billy Cannon of Louisiana State.

Dan Hardesty jestingly said in the Baton Rouge State-Times: Cannon ought to run for governor.

Blind Hunter Kills Big Buck

ROANOKE, Va. (AP) — A 26-year-old blind man Friday killed an eight - point, 175-pound buck deer while hunting in Southwest Virginia's Smyth County.

Charles M. Rupard Jr. of Marion was hunting with his father on brushy mountain when he heard the deer coming toward him.

"My dad said, 'There he comes' and I just shot him," said Rupard.

Rupard, blind since infancy, was in a party of four. He is a graduate of the Virginia School for the Deaf and Blind at Staunton and has attended the University of Virginia where he is a history mauor.

O'Rourke Quits As Mass. Coach

AMHERST, Mass. (AP)—Resignation of football Coach Charlie O'Rourke was announced Friday at the University of Massachustts.

The resignation was announced with regret by Warren P. McGuirk, director of athletics, who said O'Rourke "has made many fine contributions to our football program. . . during the past eight years . . . His departure is a real loss to our intercollegiate program."

O'Rourke came to Massachusetts in 1952 after serving as backfield coach under Dr. Eddie Anderson at Holy Cross for two years.

This season the Massachusetts team finished second in the Yankee Conference.

No reason was given for the resignation.

Fight Figure Salerno Safe In Florida

NEW YORK (AP)—Efforts by Dist. Atty. Frank Hogan to have Anthony (Fat Tony) Salerno brought here to testify before the grand jury probing last June's heavyweight title fight promotion were dealt a blow Friday by a Florida court, Hogan announced here.

Salerno, alleged behind-the-scenes backer of the Floyd Patterson-Ingemar Johansson fight, could not be found last August to testify before the grand jury.

Subsequently, he was located in Miami, and Hogan's office has been trying to have him brought here to testify.

A spokesman for Hogan said Friday that a Dade County, Fla., circuit court judge ruled against the district attorney's wishes by contending that it would violate the Reciprocal Witness Act.

The decision, according to the spokesman, stated that Salerno would have to be transported "by the ordinary course of travel." This would, it was ruled, bring him through the state of Georgia, which has no reciprocal agreement.

The district attorney's office made the announcement after learning of the decision from Asst. Dist. Atty. John G. Bonomi, who with detective Frank Marone, of Hogan's staff, had gone to Florida to bring Salerno back.

The spokesman characterized the Florida ruling as a "legal technicality."

The district attorney's office said the ruling would be appealed.

Bridal Parties Honor Miss Camille Clark

Mrs. John McCarthy and Miss Jan McCarthy were hostesses at a luncheon on Saturday, November 14, at the Bayou DeSiard Country Club honoring Miss Camille Clark, bride-elect, of Rayville.

For the occasion, Miss Clark was wearing a trousseau model in muted shades of brown and rust silk accented with a white glamelia corsage, a gift of the hostesses.

The luncheon table was overlaid with a pink cloth and enhanced by centerpiece of white chrysanthemums and stock, flanked by silver candelabra holding white tapers. Place cards of white and silver wedding bells completed the table appointments.

Miss Clark was presented with a piece of silver in her chosen pattern by the hostesses.

Sharing the occasion with the honoree and hostesses were Mrs. A. C. Clark, Jr., Mrs. A. C. Clark Sr., Mrs. E. E. Hearold, Mrs. Massey K. McConnell, Mrs. Christine McConnell, Mrs. Joe Brown Jr., Mrs. Homer Norris, Mrs. Max Livingston, Mrs. R. L. Phillips, and Misses Susan Clark, Elizabeth Ann McConnell and Harriet Smith.

BUFFET SUPPER

Miss Camille Clark, bride-elect, was the honoree at a buffet supper on Tuesday, November 17, in the home of Mrs. George B. Franklin, Sr., with Mrs. George B. Franklin Jr., as co-hostess.

Preceding the dinner, a conversational hour was held, during which time the hostesses presented corsages of Fiji chrysanthemums to the honoree, her mother, grandmother and the mother of the groom-elect.

Miss Clark wore for the occasion a white jersey sheath with accents of pink.

Guests were invited into the dining room where the buffet style dinner was served from the dining table, which was centered with an arrangement of chrysanthemums in bridal white. Immediately following the serving of dinner, the honoree was presented a gift of silver by the hostesses.

Assisting in the courtesies were Mrs. Lewis Hubbard Jr., Mrs. W. H. Hubbard and little Miss Hubbard.

Enjoying the occasion with the honoree and hostesses were Mrs. A. C. Clark, Jr., Mrs. Gussie Newsom, Mrs. A. C. Clark, Sr., Mrs. E. E. Hearold, Mrs. Massey K. McConnell, Mrs. Christine McConnell, Mrs. W. L. Haley, Mrs. Ralph Rockett, Mrs. Max Livingston, Mrs. Joe Brown, Jr., Mrs. G. L. Gladney, Jr., Miss Harriette Haley, Miss Nancy Cloninger, Miss Harriet Smith and Miss Delories Pitman.

Questions And Answers Guide For Homemakers

By BETTY PEPIS

Q. — Am in the process of redecorating my living room which is eleven by fifteen feet with three windows at one end. New furniture consists of a white couch with built-in gray end tables, white lamps with small gold and gray design, gray rug with pattern of burgundy and gold. I would like to paint the walls burgundy with an adjoining foyer gray, but have been told that would be "too much." Also wonder about type of coffee table, style and color of two chairs, color of curtains and lamp shades.

A.— Burgundy would, indeed, be a bit too much in a room that size. Take the gold out of your rug, instead, and use it for the walls and floor-to-ceiling draperies. If you want to aid burgundy to the room; put it on two small chairs with wood arms and frames, in walnut. Coffee table in this case, could also be walnut, Danish style. As for lamp shades, in any room, they are safest if kept in an eggshell or off-white tone. In the scheme I have described, however, you might find a very pale shade of gold effective.

Q. —We have a most unusual room. It is 18 by 18 feet and has one set of large double windows. Walls are dark wood panels about the color of the Early American maple bed and double dresser I use. There is a wood burning fireplace in red brick. Floor is marbleized beige linoleum. There are white curtains, white blinds and white spreads. All woodwork is white. My family feel that this is not good but I can't see dark woodwork since the room is already quite dark.

A.— Compromise is the answer. I think a beige woodwork the color of the floor would satisy both you and your family. You could then change the whole character of the room and give it a little gaiety by using Provincial print on a beige background for cafe curtains and a new bedspread.

Q. —I would like advice on fixing up a guest bedroom. It is 13 by 14 feet, has two large double windows on front and side walls. It is painted turquoise, rather dark with woodwork to match and ceiling in an off-white. Carpet is in nutria and I don't know what color draperies, spread and dust ruffle will go with these two colors.

A. —Since this is a guest room you might be more daring than you would be in the rest of the house. One of the most interesting color schemes I have seen used lately by decorators was navy and brown as a scheme. You might get close to it with a navy-nutria-turquoise plan. Have draperies in the nutria binding and fringed trim, of some sort, along the edges.

Q.— I am planning to repaint my kitchen, a large room with the lower third of the wall panelled in light oak. Floor covering is beige with a deep red border.

A. —Paint walls beige. Have all accessories, including curtains and enameled casseroles which can be used decoratively on shelves in bright red.

Series Of Bridal Parties Honor Miss Carol Adams

Miss Carol Adams, the bride-elect of Carroll R. Regan, was honoree at a luncheon at the Old Southern Tea Room in Vicksburg on Thursday, Nov. 12 given by Mrs. J. B. Patrick and Mrs. Warren Patrick. She was attired in a black sheath dress and was presented with a corsage of cimbidium orchids and gifts of silver by the hostesses.

The luncheon table was centered with an arrangement of chrysanthemums and placecards suggestive of the nuptial motif marked places for the following guests: Miss Adams, Mrs. Will Z. Adams, Mrs. Cliff C. Adams, Mrs. Will Harvey, Mr. Katherine McCuiston, Mrs. George Yerger, Mrs. R. L. Bailey Jr., Mrs. Myles Hopkins, Mrs. Walter Scott, Mrs. J. E. Neill, Miss Addison Brooks, Mrs. Rupert Evans of Lake Providence, Mrs. A. B. Regan and Mrs. Russell Stovall of Magnolia and the hostesses.

COFFEE

Mrs. Myles Hopkins and Mrs. Frances Robinson entertained with a morning coffee at Mrs. Robinson's home on Saturday, Nov. 14 complimentary to Miss Carol Adams. She chose for the occasion a rust colored ensemble and was presented with a corsage of harmonizing colors.

Guests enjoying the affair were the bride-to-be, Mrs. Will Z. Adams, Mrs. J. H. Devine, Miss Irene Siddon, Mrs. Alice Sevier, Mrs. Earl Johnson, Mrs. Will Harvey, Mrs. Herbert Massey, Mrs. Fred Massey, Mrs. Sarah Mrs. J. W. Rogillio, Mrs. Louis Buckner and Mrs. J. C. Sherwin.

BRIDGE

On Friday evening, Nov. 13, Mrs. Edward M. Adams was hostess at a bridge party honoring Miss Carol Adams. She was attired in a red knit costume complemented with a white corsage.

Preceding the games a dessert course was served. The bridal motif was noted in bell shaped individual cakes embossed with names of the bride and groom, "Carol and Carroll."

Mrs. Robert Cagnolatti was winner of the high score prize, Mrs. Henry Sevier Jr., second high and Mrs. Joe Milton Clark, low score. The bride-elect was presented with a silver cake knife.

The guests included Miss Carol Adams, Mrs. Henry Sevier Jr., Mrs. J. M. Clark, Mrs. J. H. Bryant, Mrs. Lamar T. Loe, Jr., Mrs. James Ellis, Mrs. Robert Thomas.

Garden Club Meets In Olla

The Olla Pinewood Garden Club held its regular meeting, Thursday, November 12, in the home of Mrs. Daniel Brockner, with Mrs. Bennie M. Zeagler as co-hostess.

After the social hour, the president, Mrs. E. E. Sims presided over the short business meeting.

The theme of the program was 'Table Settings', and furnished the members an opportunity to gain ideas for decorating tables for various occasions.

The Pause of the Morning', table for a coffee, was done by Mrs. E. E. Sims and Mrs. Gordon Jones; 'Autumn Delight', a luncheon table, was done by Mrs. J. E. Burris and Mrs. Lyle K. Woods; 'We Give Thanks', was done by Mrs. T. P. McDaniel and Mrs. R. W. Carter; 'The Bride's Table' by Mrs. Henry O. Cooksey, Jr. and Mrs. W. E. Gammill, Jr.; 'Fall Round-Up' by Mrs. Jewell McCartney and Mrs. Fannie Hays; and an 'After The Game' table was done by Mrs. Ted Nethery and Mrs. Vernon Harris. Mrs. M. A. Tannerhill of Urania was the judge of the table settings.

The door prize was won by Mrs. A. N. Talley.

Mrs. Lyle K. Woods showed films of Mrs. Evans' flower garden in Ferriday; the Hodges garden; the gardens of her mother, Mrs. J. E. Burris; and finally, the gardens of her own home.

Twenty-seven members were present and one visitor, Mrs. Tannerhill.

Tours of the homes of Mrs. Henry O. Cooksey, Jr. and Mrs. W. E. Gammill, Jr. will be the December meeting. Members of the club will decorate these homes.

Epps Garden Club Hears Mrs. Milam

The Epps Garden Club met in the recreation hall of the Methodist Church with Mrs. T. E. Lusk and Mrs. W. A. Lusk as hostesses.

The meeting was opened with a prayer by Mrs. R. C. Willbanks, the president, Mrs. C. L. Hawkins, Jr., presided during the business meeting. Reports were given by Mrs. Randolph Whitaker and Mrs. Lee Boyles.

Mrs. C. L. Miller, program chairman, introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Dewitt Milam, and a visitor, Mrs. G. F. Beckett, who accompanied Mrs. Milam from Monroe. Other visitors present were Mrs. Myrtis Brunson from Tallulah and Rawley Koehl, a newcomer to the Epps community.

The topic of Mrs. Milam's discussion was 'Dried Arrangements.'

Refreshments were served to the club members, visitors and guests present.

Literary Club Meeting Held In Mangham

The Mangham Literary Club met this week for its regular meeting in the home of Mrs. Annette Collidge, with Mrs. Margurete Marlow as co-hostess.

A social hour was held preceding the meeting. The table in the dining room was appointed with a compote of fruit and flowers. On the buffet was an arrangement of fall flowers.

Miss Ola Cooper, leader of the program, introduced Mrs. Doris Sartor, who led the devotional.

Mrs. Jeanie Noble gave a talk on Madam Meatrice Alexander, the famous doll manufacturer, and she also displayed a number of Alexander dolls from her daughter Ann's collection. Madam Alexander makes 00 types of dolls, their clothes, furniture and accessories in two factories that employ over 1500 people.

After the reading of an Armistice Day poem by Mrs. Yvonne Deville and a short business meeting, the club adjourned with the club collect.

Members present were Mrs. Faye Belle, Mrs. Ruby Williamson, Mrs. Rosa Crawford, Mrs. Evelyn Logan, Mrs. Gladys Jones, Mrs. Yvonne DeVille, Mrs. Jeanie Noble, Mrs. Joan McKay, Mrs. Marion Lyles, Mrs. Montiel Chapman, Mrs. Fanny Welch, Mrs. Doris Sartor, Miss Ola Cooper and the hostesses, Mrs. Marlow and Mrs. Coolidge.

Mrs. W. L. Bendel Feted At Country Club Luncheon

Mrs. W. L. Bendel and Mrs. Sam Bendel who are visiting friends in Monroe were guests of honor at a luncheon at the Bayou DeSiard Country Club on Tuesday with Mrs. T. Arthur Grant, Jr. as hostess.

A color scheme of pink and white was used on the luncheon table in the private dining room. The table was covered with a pink linen cloth and set with cranberry crystal and white china. A floral arrangement of pink Peterjohn chrysanthemums and silver glittered wheat centered the table.

The members of the Tuesday Bridge Club, of which Mrs. Bendel is a former member, were invited to share this occasion with the honorees and hostess. Guests included Mrs. Joseph P. Brown, Mrs. Dewitt Milam, Mrs. Robert Layton, Mrs. Carl McHenry, Mrs. Arthur Dryburgh, Mrs. A. L. Harrington, Mrs. W. E. Lamb, Mrs. John E. Godfrey, and Mrs. Claude Harrison.

Rocks Japan Chemical Plant

OPPAMA, Japan (UPI) — A series of powerful explosions rocked a nearby chemical plant Friday, causing heavy casualties in a deadly shower of flying glass and debris.

Police counted three dead and 381 injured, including 55 children who were in a school house near the plant when the force of the blasts sent the windows crashing in around them.

Pessengers on buses and trains in the vicinity similarly were cut and scraped by splinters of glass sent flying by the blasts. Most of the injuries were minor, but twenty persons were still in hospitals Friday night with conditions described as serious.

Three separate explosions ripped the Tokyo Chemical Co., at one time a key arsenal for American forces during the Korean War and now a manufacturer of explosives for industrial use.

A fire alarm sounded at the plant in time enough to allow most of the 50 workers to flee.

Many of them took refuge in caves in a nearby hillside.

The explosions, felt within a radius of eight miles, leveled buildings over a 400 square yard area. Authorities, fearing more to follow, began an emergency removal of all residents within a mile of the plant but called it off when it was determined there was no further danger.

Banquet And Bridal Party In Tallulah

The annual banquet sponsored by the Tallulah chapter of Order of Eastern Star was held at the American Legion home on Monday night, November 16 with the master masons of Tallulah as guests.

Following the banquet ten members of the Faith Chapter of the Eastern Star of Vicksburg presented a playlet, "The Seventh Degree" with Mrs. D. D. Wood of Tallulah serving as accompanist for the music and the assembly singing at the close. There were a hundred twenty-five in attendance including twenty from Vicksburg.

BRIDAL PARTY

Miss Carolyn Sue Ezell, bride-elect, was complimented with a lingerie shower at the home of Mrs. Roy Wroten on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 7. Hostesses were Miss Emily Ruth Wroten, Miss Delores Crosby and Miss Ann Roper.

Sprays of ivy, a wedding bell and double wedding rings were used for decorations in the reception rooms. For the occasion the honor guest was wearing a brown and orange plaid wool costume complemented with a corsage of white flowers.

Refreshments were served to those in attendance who were Miss Ezell, Mrs. Ralph Fore, Miss Mary Jane King, Miss Hazel Jean Roberson, Mrs. Woodrow Cagnolatti, Mrs. Wayne Harkey, Mrs. Clyne Elledge, Miss Pat Rush, Miss Mary McClure, Miss Katherine McClure, Miss Jean Erwin, Mrs. W. Mario Lanza's Children Set To Head Home

CHICAGO (AP)—The four children of the late Mario Lanza were to be flown back to their Beverly Hills, Calif., home Friday night.

The children were brought to Chicago Thursday by airplane. Soon after their departure from Los Angeles, their mother, Betty Lanza, widow of the singer, told police they were kidnaped by her sister. Later, Beverly Hills police and Mrs. Lanza's lawyer said it was a family misunderstanding.

The children were taken to the home of Mrs. Lanza's sister, Shirley Borregaard in Northbrook, a Chicago suburb. Mrs. Borregaard remained in Beverly Hills after she reportedly arranged for the children's trip to Chicago.

Mrs. Borregaard's lawyer, Jesse H. Brown, said the four Lanza children would make the trip back to the West Coast aboard a TWA plane.

Railways Ask Labor Leaders To Aid Fight

CHICAGO (AP)—Management of the nation's railways Friday asked rail labor leaders to help settle the industry's problems which they said have reached a climax.

Some 200 members of the Assn. of American Railroads representing 164 lines joined in a resolution underlining that they are in a "fight against obsolete work rules" which, they said, is the worker's and the public's fight as much as the management's.

The association members in their annual meeting said that "a labor crisis appears to be approaching in the railroad industry."

They said management "will pursue every peaceful means to revise the outmoded work rules in this industry," and asked labor leaders to join management in the effort with "statesmanship and responsibility."

YOUR PROBLEMS

Ann Gives Her Secret For Remembering Names

By ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann: My sister has two children, a boy two and a girl three. She bathes them together in the bathtub. I think this is disgraceful and have told her so. She has asked me to mind my own business.

What is your opinion of such goings on? My sister always was a hardheaded mule. Just because she took a course in psychology she thinks she knows it all. No one can tell her anything. Maybe you can set her straight. —BV

Dear BV: Authorities believe it is emotionally healthy for very young children to mingle in the unclothed state.

So — I suggest you take your sister's advice and mind your own business.

Dear Ann: I'm a college freshman. A certain fellow has been taking all my time. We're not going steady but neither of us goes with anyone else.

Bill never calls in advance for a date, even for the big parties—he just assumes I'm available. This makes me mad and he knows it. Please tell me (and hundreds of other girls who have this problem) what to do about it.

I've asked Bill a dozen times to give me a little notice, especially for the dressy affairs, but he still calls me in the morning and says "Tonight is the big dance. I'll pick you up at 8:00." What to do? — ZERO HOUR

Dear Zero Hour: You are being taken for granted and it's your fault. Circulate a bit and make other friends. Surely there must be one or two other fellows who would take you out.

The Big Change will come about the morning Bill phones to tell you he'll be by to pick you up for the party and you say "Sorry, friend, I've got a date. Next time please give me a little notice, will you?"

Dear Ann Landers: I have read a few newspaper articles about you and was interested in the fact that you seem to have an unusual faculty for remembering people's names.

You must meet a great many people in your work and travels. Will you tell me if you have any little secret formula? I have had trouble remembering names all my life and it has caused me a lot of embarrassment. — BLANKETY BLANK

Dear Blank? Yes, there is a little "secret" attached to remembering names. First — when you are introduced GET THE NAME. So often people mumble introductions and the name is never heard. If you don't get it, ASK. No one will feel offended if you say "I'm sorry I didn't get your name."

Then, use that person's name immediately. Say "So nice to meet you, Mrs. Wentworth"—and pronounce the name again within the next few moments: "You have a point, Mrs. Wentworth." After that, it's easy, unless, the next person you meet is Mrs. Bentworth, in which case you're on your own.

Confidential to DISCOURAGED: The time to have thought about your grades was three years ago. There are many excellent small schools that are looking for students. Forget about the Ivy League and ask your counselor to suggest something within your academic reach.

POOR FISH: Try it and see. Maybe you'll make it by the skin of your fin. Good luck and let me know the results.

WITH FRENCH

Rebel Captives Will Negotiate

TUNIS, Tunisia (AP)—The Algerian rebel government today named five men already held in French captivity to negotiate with France on a cease-fire in Algeria.

The rebel government-in-exile here named its group in response to an offer by President Charles de Gaulle of safe conduct and a hearing for any delegates charged with discussing means of arranging a cease-fire in the five-year-old nationalist rebellion.

De Gaulle was touring eastern France today. Rumors of the rebel move reached the presidential party at Gebwiller, in the Vosges Mountains. There was no immediate reaction.

Although guaranteed a safe return no matter what the outcome of the talks, the rebels named five men already held in French prisons.

The move could bring the first break in the five-year-old rebellion which has been tying down 500,000 French soldiers in North Africa.

De Gaulle has promised that Algerians may decide their own political future in a referendum to be held within four years after fighting in the North African territory is ended.

He offered them three choices in the referendum — integration with France; home rule under French guardianship; or independence.

The rebel announcement said, however, that the delegation would seek to discuss "the conditions and guarantees of the application of self-determination."

It said various statements by French officials had robbed De Gaulle's original offer of self-determination "of all sense and makes guarantees on the means of a free consultation more necessary than ever."

"If the French government accepts the principle of this meeting, the Algerian government would immediately send a mandate to its delegates and the necessary instructions for accomplishment of their mission," the rebel communique concluded.

De Gaulle has promised that Algerians may decide their own political future in a referendum to be held within four years after fighting in the North African territory is ended.

He offered them three choices —integration with France; home rule under French guardianship; or independence.

But there was no indication the French would negotiate with the rebel leaders on conditions of the referenda.

The French government has expressed willingness to discuss a military cease-fire with the nationalists but has emphasized it will not enter into any political negotiations with the rebels.

OFFICIALS CLAIM

Lipstick Industry In Fight For Life

WASHINGTON (AP) — The lipstick industry says it is virtually fighting for its life against a government ban of 17 coal-tar colors.

It may push its case as soon as the hubbub over cranberries ends.

The colors were listed as taboo last month by the Food and Drug Administration after test rats became ill or died when fed some of the red, yellow and orange dyes that go into lipsticks.

Most lipsticks on the American market would be affected, an industry spokesman said, adding: "Without some of these dyes no satisfactory lipstick could be manufactured."

The major lipstick makers contend the colors the government proposes to ban have been used in hundreds of millions of lipsticks for more than 35 years without any evidence of causing harm.

Their demands for a public hearing, filed with FDA, have the effect of delaying the ban originally set for Jan. 6, 1960. Any final order now will await the conclusion of public hearings.

Under the law, the government must ban the use of any coal-tar color that proves harmful when used in significant amounts in the diet of test animals, even though its use in smaller amounts would be safe.

The proposed ban was issued after 90-day feeding tests showed some of the colors harmed laboratory rats. Some of the animals died, others showed retarded growth, liver and kidney damage, enlarge spleens, anemia and other ailments. They were fed doses of from .25 to 2 per cent of the color dye in their diet.

No cancer developed, as it did in tests with the weed killer used on cranberries, but FDA scientists say cancer would not show up in such short-term tests. As a result of the disclosures so far, long-term tests have been started.

The major lipstick manufacturers take sharp issue with FDAs' testing methods. They contend tremendous amounts of the colors were used in the rats' diets, while only an infinitesimal amount of color gets into the human digestive system from lipstick.

Their protests include a demand that the present law be changed so that cosmetics, used externally, would not be treated the same as food and drugs that are taken directly into the system.

An FDA spokesman said there was some backing for this view within the agency itself.

According to present law, a cosmetic applied to the lips may not contain a color unless that color is included on FDA certified lists as harmless for use in foods, drugs and cosmetics.

Secretary of Welfare Arthur S. Flemming eventually will have to decide what to do about the lipstick colors. So far, no date has been set for the public hearing the industry is demanding.

The protests filed with FDA came from such well-advertised cosmetic brand names as Revlon, Max Factor, Richard Hudnut and Avon.

A spokesman for the Toilet Goods Assn. of New York City, which filed a brief, too, said it represented all of the manufacturers of cosmetics. Such major firms as Elizabeth Arden and Helena Rubinstein confirmed that the association spoke for them.

Says Husband Beat Her

ROME (UPI) — British actress Dawn Addams accused her Italian nobleman husband Friday of beating her in public four times, once while holding a revolver. He in turn charged that she lived with another man.

The charges and countercharges were filed in a Rome court in a legal separation suit that was expected to bring forth such witnesses as Gina Lollobrigida. At stake was custody of the couple's 4-year-old son, Stephen, now staying with his father.

Miss Addams, married for five years to Prince Vittorio Massimo, charged that on four occasions, he slapped and punched her in public.

She said he beat her "in the presence of many persons" April 9, 1955, and that a "common friend" knocked a revolver from his hand as she fled to safety in a bathroom.

RIVALS OF OLD WEST

Australia Is Wild Frontier For Big Game Hunting, Fish

MELBOURNE, Australia (UPI) — If you want to go on a safari, you don't have to go to Africa because Australia offers the world's sportsmen a hunting and fishing paradise second to none.

There are parts of this country which are wilder than Dodge City in its heyday and have enough game to turn Buffalo Bill emerald with envy.

The best is in Arnhemland, a wild, unpopulated country of vast plains, towering escarpments and sky blue lakes known as billabongs. Not only that, but it's comparatively easy to reach, and once you're here the living is as cheap as the dirt which goes for as low as two shillings—22 cents — an acre in the wilderness of the outback.

"It's only a 110-mile flight from Darwin in my plane," says Alan Stuart, one time army major who looks like the typical Hollywood portrait of the safari white hunter.

"And you feel as if you are at the end of the world. Not only feel it, you are."

Stuart has 1,000 acres under lease in "the territory," and his camp is hard by a tribe of aboriginals who live as primitively as they did 1,000 years ago. Help is hard to keep because these Stone Age primitives are "walkabouts" who whistle to their "lubra" or wife and simply disappear into the bush for several months. But there are always enough of them on hand to put on a "coroboree" or tribal dance.

Scenically, Stuart contends that this is every it as primitive and spectacular as the best Africa has to offer. And then for the sportsman there is a fascinating variety of fish and game.

"We can put you on to wild buffalo which roam in packs of 20 and are big as horses," he explains. "When hit they are really dangerous and charge like rhino. Once, recently, we hit one at 200 yards with a .303 and it charged. It took 10 shots to stop him just before he was on us."

Then there are wild pigs big as great dane dogs which will charge and rip the dogs to ribbons. There are crocodiles hunted at night from boats which average from 8 to 10 feet and run up to 20 feet. The geese and ducks are so thick that using a double-barreled shotgun, you discharge one barrel into the water to put them in flight.

"Then you shoot the other barrel and so help me," says Stuart, "I've seen the veriest novice knock down 20 birds with one shot, they're that thick."

For the fisherman there is a fish called the barrumundi, a tuna type which runs from three feet-up.

Holders Of E Bonds Can Swap For H

WASHINGTON (AP) — Owners of the popular series E savings bonds will be given a chance to swap them for series H bonds, which pay interest twice a year.

Those who make the switch will be able to postpone paying taxes on the interest they've earned on their E bonds. This interest is collected—and taxed—only when the bond matures or is redeemed. Its exchange for the series H bond would delay the due date of the tax until the new bond matures.

The Treasury announced Thursday that, starting next Jan. 1, anyone who owns E bonds may exchange them at any time for H bonds. The offer also is being made to owners of series F and J savings bonds—types no longer sold.

Officials believe hundreds of thousands of people will make the switch. Altogether, between 35 and 40 million Americans own E bonds.

The swap offer, authorized by Congress last summer, is expected to appeal particularly to retired people who would like to receive regular interest checks to supplement their income.

Both E and H bonds pay 3¾ per cent interest if held until they mature. The H bonds mature in 10 years and are issued in denominations of $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

Details of the exchange procedure will be announced next month.

The Treasury announced also that $1,600,000,000 of series F and G savings bonds which mature next year may be swapped for treasury notes which mature May 15, 1964.

New Premier

REYJAVIK, Iceland (AP) — Olafur Thors, leader of Iceland's Independence party, became Premier Friday of a new coalition government made up of the Independence and Social Democrat parties.

Emil Jonsson, Social Democrat leader, who resigned as Premier Thursday, becomes minister of social affairs in the new coalition. The outgoing Social Democrat government had the support of the Independence party.

Three Killed In Strange Double Mishap

CLARE, Mich. (UPI) — Two women and a 3-year-old girl were killed near here Friday afternoon in a freak double traffic accident.

The victims were Mrs. Leota Conn Dent, 45, of Rural Farwell, her daughter, Mrs. Marion J. Zill, 22, of Clare, and Mrs. Zill's daughter, Linda Lee, 3.

State police said the accident occurred as Mrs. Zill was driving her car past a long line of cars on U.S.-27.

She apparently saw an on-coming semi-truck at the last minute, glanced off the side of the last car in the line as she tried to get back into her own lane, and hit the truck head-on.

The only person in Mrs. Zill's car who was not killed was Mrs. Zill's 1-year-old son, Larry. The others were thrown from the car.

Neither the truck driver nor the driver of the other car were injured.

Airmen Bail Out Safely In Crash

ROY, Utah (AP) — A crippled T-33 jet trainer plane crashed in an open field and exploded in flames near this north Utah town Thursday. The two occupants parachuted to safety after trying vainly to glide to a landing at nearby Hill Air Force Base.

They were 1st Lt. Donale G. Janson of Bountiful, Utah, the pilot, and Capt. Charles H. Castle of Salt Lake City, a flight surgeon. Both are with the Utah Air National Guard.

Rep. Durham Tells Plans To Retire

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Carl T. Durham (D-NC), who helped shape this country's policies on atomic energy, announced Friday he is retiring from Congress after next year. He has served 21 years in the House.

Durham, 67, told newsmen, "The time comes when you have to step down. I've seen too many hang around until they were decrepit." His present term, for which he was unopposed, runs through 1960 and he said he will not again be a candidate "although I am sure I would have no opposition."

Durham has served twice as chairman of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee which supervises the supersecret U. S. atomic program. He would be in line for the chairmanship again in 1961, if Democratic control of Congress continues, under the committee's system of alternating the top post between Senate and House members.

As a result of Durham's retirement, Rep. Chet Holifield of California, next Senior Democratic member from the House, becomes the presumptive successor to the present chairman, Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D-NM).

Durham has been one of the leaders in congressional fights for civilian control of the atomic and other scientific programs. His views prevailed after World War II, when the civilian Atomic Energy Commission and the joint congressional supervisory committee was set up. He was an original member of the committee.

More recently, he joined others in urging successfully that the ultimate control over the national space program be given to a civilian rather than military agency.

Durham said he expects now to enjoy life at his home in Chapel Hill and "have more time to spend with my five children and 11 grandchildren."

Rockefeller Comments On Nixon's Chance

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (UPI) — New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller said Friday that Vice President Richard M. Nixon would probably win a presidential election if it were held today but added that the 1960 election was still "a long way off."

Rockefeller addressed the New England Society of Newspaper Editors Firady night on his tour to sample political winds in the nation's tiniest and usually Democratic state.

The United States, he said, must work for "peace, strength, unity and confidence."

"Those words are good, but let us use them with care and truth," the governor said. "The ideals are honorable and indispensable but let us remember that we shall attain them not merely by talking about them but also struggling for them."

He said America faced not only the aggressive challenge of Soviet Communism in terms of raw power, but a deeper challenge to prove to the world the meaning of freedom, of free enterprise and free political ways.

Although GOP Gov. Christopher Del Sesto, believed favorable to Nixon, was among the missing when Rockefeller landed at Hillsgrove Airport Friday morning, the governor later introduced him at a luncheon.

Rockefeller ducked all newsmen's questions regarding his own possible candidacy for the GOP presidential nomination.

BRITONS PREFER COLOGNE

LONDON (UPI) — British tourists liked Cologne better than Americans did this year. A total of 9,214 British tourists spent the night in the German city, compared with only 8,088 Americans.

Stripper Loses Bond, Boy Friend

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Sheriff's officers Friday ordered the arrest of stripper Candy Barr. Candy has lost her bond on a narcotics charge—and her boy friend.

The boy friend was Mickey Cohen, onetime Los Angeles gambling kingpin.

The bond was $15,000 worth of assurance that she would return to Dallas, Tex., to face a possible 15-year sentence for posession of marijuana.

Cohen, through an attorney, arranged to guarantee the blonde stripper's bond while she was appearing at a Sunset Strip night spot. He announced he was in love with her and wanted to marry her.

Then love cooled—to the point where, this week, Miss Barr told newsmen here, "I never want to see him again."

Cohen said that attorney Melvin Belli lifted her bond. He explained: "Belli guaranteed the bond to the people in Texas, and I guaranteed it to Belli.

"Belli said today he don't want to stand on the bond any more. He don't like her attitude. She made some comments about me he don't like. He says if she don't want no part of me, he don't want no part of her."

Belli wasn't available for comment.

Dallas authorities, informed that Miss Barr's bond wasn't any longer guaranteed, immediately asked Las Vegas sheriff's officers to take her into custody.

She was freed on the bond pending appeal of her conviction on the marijuana charge.

REACH AGREEMENT

The striking Steelworkers of America reached a new contract agreement Friday with Kennecott Copper Corp. Providing for a 22.3 cent an hour two-year wage package, but no break in the domestic copper tieup was imminent since the mine and mill and other unions continued on strike.

Meanwhile Kaiser Aluminum crossed up any steelworkers "divide and conquer" strategy by lining up with other aluminum producers in contract negotiations.

SCRAP PRICES WEAKEN

Steel scrap prices weakened partly because of the union rejection of the steel firms' latest contract offer. In one area prices of secondary grades of steel scrap declined by $1 to $3.50 a ton.

ESTIMATE FEDERAL LOSS

Congressional staff experts estimated that the steel strike would throw the federal budget $1 to $2 billion in the red for the present fiscal year. This estimate came after the federal budget director had admitted that the strike losses had endangered administration hopes for keeping the budget in balance this year.

EXPECTS RELAXED RULES

The United States announced it expects nine nations to relax import restrictions on a wide range of American agriculture and industrial goods "in the very near future." The announcement was made following the close of the meeting in Tokyo of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT).

INCOME INCREASES

Personal income in October increased for the second successive month to a seasonally adjusted annual rate of $382 billion the Commerce Department reported. Declines in wages and salaries because of the steel strike were more than offset by increases in other form of income.

RECEIVES CONTRACT

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa., (UPI) — Collins Radio Co. has received an Air Force contract totaling more than $2 million for the engineering, manufacture and installation of a Microwave Communications System at Fairchild Air Force Base, near Spokane, Wash.

APPROVE MERGER

WILMINGTON, N.C. (UPI) — Stockholders of Atlantic Coast Line Railroad approved a proposal to merge Charleston & Western Carolina Railway into the company. The plan will next be submitted for Interstate Commerce Commission approval.

TO MOVE OPERATIONS

CHICOPEE, Mass., (UPI) — Savage Arms Co. will move its manufacturing operations here to a former Fruehauf Trailer Co. plant at Westfield, Mass. Savage's present plants date back to the 1880's while the new quarters is a moern one-story structure.

TO PURCHASE FIRM

CHICAGO (UPI) — Stockholders of National City Lines, Inc. approved the $8 million purchase of United Motor Express, Inc., a California corporation. With the purchase, the company will also obtain ownership of Los Angeles-Seattle motor express, a wholly-owned subsidiary of United which operates about 1,000 vehicles throughout the Pacific Coast and British Columbia.

Grain Shows Rally But Loses Out

CHICAGO (AP)—The grain futures market showed some feeble signs of a rally at times Friday but closed with its second successive general setback.

Losses in most pits ran to a cent a bushel as selling again speeded up in the final minutes. At the finish corn was within a cent or two of its lows for the season in most deliveries while soybeans extended their losses to as much as eight cents a bushel since they set new season highs less than two weeks ago.

Prices started off on a downward trend with May wheat off about two cents at its worst. However, both wheat and soybeans mustered some scattered support at the lower levels. At one time, soybeans had virtually wiped out setbacks of about a cent then ran into another blast of selling.

Wheat finished unchanged to 1 cent a bushel lower with all the declines on the old crop months, December $1.98⅜-½; corn ¼-1⅛ lower, December $1.10⅝-½; oats ½ lower to ⅛ higher, December 76¾-⅝; rye 1 cent lower to ⅛ higher, December $1.31⅝-½; soybeans ¾-1 cent lower, January $2.19½-¾.

Butcher Hog Market Shows Good Demand

CHICAGO (AP) — Shipper demand was good Friday and the market for butcher hogs was steady to 25 cents higher with the advance mostly on weights over 220 lbs.

The top held at $13.25 for the fourth day this week. It went for about 300 head of 190-215 lb mostly No. 1 grade. Other mixed 1s and 2s and strictly No. 2s cleared at $13.00 and up while 190-230 lb mixed 1-3 grades moved at $12.50-13.00 and heavier weights at $12.00-12.85.

Sows were steady to strong at $9.25-11.00.

The butcher hog supply for the week probably was the heaviest of the year with 54,500 on sale compared with last week's 45,000.

Offerings of slaughter steers and heifers were very meager and no sales were reported. Vealers and bulls were scarce and steady. Standard to good vealers sold at $23.00-28.00 and utility to commercial bulls at $17.50-19.50.

Wooled slaughter lambs grading good to choice brought $17.00-19.00 with the market strong to 50 cents higher. Ewes were steady and cleared at $3.50-5.00 for cull to choice.

Shah Of Iran To Wed Soon

PARIS (AP)—Farah Diba flew homeward to Tehran early Saturday to marry the twice-divorced Shah of Iran. He's 40, she 21.

The ark-eyed former art student said her engagement to the Shah probably will be announced within a veek. She was seen off by a score of Iranian dignitaries.

The wedding date has not yet been decided, she said, but it may be around Christmas. She came here Oct. 22 to stock up her wardrobe with such items as 30 hats, 35 pairs of shoes and 4 furs including a white mink.

It will be her first marriage. The Shah has been married to Egypt's former Princess Fawzia, a sister of ex-King Farouk, and Soraya, a green-eyed daughter of Iranian aristocracy. The Shah has a daughter by his marriage to Fawzia, no children by Soraya, and has no male heir to claim the throne in succession to him.

SEARCH FOR VICTIMS — Firemen probe the smoking debris for victims after a series of explosions wrecked a chemical plant in a heavily populated Yokohama, Japan, suburb yesterday. More than 1,400 buildings were destroyed or damaged, and 376 persons were injured. The death toll would have been huge but most workers rushed to safety before a fire touched off the blasts. COTTON

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK (AP)—Cotton futures were irregular today.

Switching from nearby December to later months, anticipating first notice day for that delivery next Monday, was the feature.

Nearby May eased partly on selling by traders against purchases of the spot December position. Commission house buying supported a moderate upturn in distant months.

Late afternoon prices were 10 cents a bale lower to 60 cents higher than the previous close. Dec. 32.78, March 33.26 and May 33.39.

Prices advanced in late dealings on short covering and increased mill buying.

Futures closed unchanged to 80 cents a bale higher than the previous close.

Former Head Of Colombia Dies At 74

LONDON (AP)—Alfonso Lopez, president of Colombia in 1934-38 and 1942-45, died here Friday night while serving as Colombian ambassador to Britain. He was 74 and had been suffering from a kidney ailment.

Lopez had been ambassador to Britain since last June. He was stricken two weeks ago.

The end was foreshadowed during the day when the embassy announced Pope John XXIII had sent his apostolic blessing. Queen Elizabeth II also had expressed deep concern.

Lopez headed the Colombian delegation to U.N. Assemblies in 1945, 1948 and 1958. Last year, he presided at the first meeting of the committee of 21 American states in Washington.

Space Age Issues Up On Market

NEW YORK (AP)—Space age heading a moderate stock market haeding a moderate stock market advance late this afternoon. Trading was moderate.

Volume for the day was estimated at 2,800,000 shares compared with 3,230,000 Thursday.

The rise of pivotal stocks was spotty, gains of fractions to a point mingling with losses in a similar range. But the electronics-missile-rocket group scampered ahead with advances reaching as much as 7 points.

Ampex, recommended as a split candidate, was up about 7. Zenith and Motorola jumped about 4 apiece. Texas Instruments was up about 3. Litton Industries and Varian Associates around 2 each while Radio Corp. and Raytheon advanced more than a point.

General Tire, which has a rocket subsidiary, gained more than a point. Thiokol, the rocket fuel issue, was around a point higher.

Gains of about 2 by Goodyear and Merck highlighted the list of more conventional stocks. Most of the leading steelmakers were fractionally higher but U.S. Steel fell about a point.

Motors were mixed. Rails were irregular.

Most of the big chemicals did well. Oils edged off. Airlines and aircrafts were mixed.

U.S. government bonds were generally steady.

IN HAITI

Discord Drums Growing Fainter

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP)-The drumbeats of discord grow fainter in Haiti.

The Negro republic has experienced a change for the economic and political better in recent months.

President Francois Duvalier is tough. His attitude toward democracy and civil rights remains less than respectful. But Duvalier is gaining grudging respect, if little personal popularity.

Perhaps this is only a quiet moment in the turbulent Haitian history. With an annual per capita income of $65, Haiti's 3,800,000 citizens remain the poorest in the Western world. Age-old political and social tensions, such as those between blacks and light-skinned Creoles, make political unrest endemic.

But the progress of the past few months has been encouraging in a nation which has no pace to go but up.

Duvalier has sliced the 1960 budget to 28 million dollars, a reduction of nearly 15 per cent. New excise taxes on such items as imported canned goods, autos, gasline and cigarettes should boost revenues by more than one million dollars.

The scandal of the Artibonite valley has been ended. More than 100,000 people over a 200-square-mile area were to have benefited from power and irrigation produced by the 14-million-dollar Peligre Dam. Because of corruption and inefficiency, the dam ended up costing 30 millions, with generators still not installed.

Duvalier had the payroll sliced from 1,200 to 600, put in a bright young project head and now rice is growing on what was an arid, salty area. Per capita income in the valley is $95 a year.

"Judging from one year ago, I would say they have made tremendous progress," was the recent comment of Rollin Atwood of Washington, D. C., Point Four director for Latin America.

Haitians live on an island but do not like the sea—perhaps because their ancestors came from the African mainland in slave ships. Dried cod and herring have been imported. Now, encouraged by Martin Routh, a British adviser from the U. N. Food and Agriculture Organization, a Haitian firm has gone into the fishing business. Refrigeration stations have been set up.

Other experts are helping rebuild the cacao industry. Hybrid corn has been introduced, with yields of three to five times that of Haitian corn. Roads, irrigation ditches and aniterosion projects are being pushed.

To do this, Duvalier has turned to the United States and, to a lesser extent, to the United Nations for help. In Latin America this can be a poitically dangerous step—particularly in Haiti, which remembers years of U. S. Marine Corps occupation.

About 70 American experts are here. Their fields vary from agricultural specialties to controlling traffic.

Haiti's tough leader has taken power away from inefficients originally installed because they supported him poitically. Now he hopes for administrative efficiency through American help and advisers.

Chemist Gives Report On Rust Preventative

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—A chemist said today his tests showed as fire resistant a rust preventative used on a sulphur barge that blew up at a Mississippi River shipyard, killing five persons.

Ralph Holt, employed by Avondale Marine Ways shipyard, told a Coast Guard board of inquiry looking into the Tuesday blast that his tests indicated the material ceased burning when a torch ignited it was removed.

Holt added: "If you took a torch all around the bulkhead and got the tank up to 90 degrees, you'd have an explosion."

David Crawford, engineer supervising the work on the Freeport Sulphur Co. barge, said workers were to drill holes for a waterline in the rear bulkhead where the explosion occurred. However, he noted, only one pipehole was to be burned directly into the compartment which exploded.

Crawford said he left the barge about 10 minutes before the blast.

Cmdr. Thomas Wakefield of the Coast Guard merchant marine inspection division, said he was aboard the barge 30 to 40 minutes before the explosion, but noticed no "hot work" going on as he left.

WOMAN KIDNAPER NABBED — Dianna Varner Pappas and jail matron Mrs. Charles Burks read FBI statement prior to Miss Pappas being jailed by US Commissioner W. J. Gledening of Hammond, Ind. She is accused of kidnapping 4½ mo. old Jimmy Vickers of Chicago. FBI agents captured her and recovered the baby late Thursday in Gary, Ind. (AP Wirephoto)

Claims Way To Harness H-Bomb

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—A California physicist described today what he said is a major development in the search for a practical way to harness the power of the hydrogen bomb.

Dr. Marshall N. Rosenbluth, a theoretical physicist with the General Dynamics Corp. in San Diego, Calif., addressed the Texas symposium on nuclear fusion at the University of Texas opening.

Rosenbluth said he and a colleague, Dr. William E. Drummond have theoretical findings showing that thermonuclear reactors—necessary for control of the energy-producing fusion process—may be built to specifications which will make them economically feasible.

The findings were said to contradict a 1958 report by two Soviet scientists, B. A. Trubikov and V. S. Kudryatsev, who said reactors probably would have to be hundreds of feet in diameter to control the escape of energy by radiation.

Rosenbluth said he and Drummond found radiation is emitted only in planes almost perpendicular to the magnetic field. They said this means much less energy will be lost than was foreseen by the Russian.

Rosenbluth and Drummond have been part of the team working on the 10-million-dollar, four-year program begun in 1957 by General Dynamics Corp. and the Nuclear Research Foundation, a nonprofit organization formed by 11 Texas electric utility companies.

Montana Jolted By Earth Shocks

BOZEMAN, Mont. (AP)—Earth shocks which ranged from strong to very weak jolted southwest Montana Thursday, little more than three months after the earthquakes which claimed 28 lives in the Madison River Canyon.

A Montana State College spokesman said eight separate temblors were recorded. No damage was reported.
